A Personal Message To Atlantans

Atlanta has existed for 122 years. During these years the city has made steady progress toward becoming one of the great cities of this Nation and of this World. Even though Atlanta is a progressive city, there is still much to be done and continued, in order to make it a greater city. I PROPOSE TO MAKE IT A GREATER CITY. This can and will be accomplished thru involving all people of this city in the activities of the city. No person will be ignored.

Atlantans must be aware of such problems as inadequacies in housing, sewer lines, welfare programs, transportation, race relations, schools, law enforcement, job opportunities, and many many other problems to which I shall address myself.

I am counting on all Atlantans both black and white to join together to make democracy work by electing me, a member of an ethnic group from which a mayor of Atlanta has never come, Mayor of Atlanta on October 7, 1969.

You have my promise that, I shall administer the affairs of this city in a just, and equitable manner.
