LENIN

One of Three Food Relief Stations Supported by the INTERNATIONAL WORKERS' AID.

In Passaic, New Jersey

Where the sun shines upon dire want and misery—18,000 men, women, and young workers are on the picket line—they have been there for twelve long weeks, in active combat against starvation wages. They do not fear police clubs, tear gas, imprisonment—but

They Must Have Food!

60,000 human beings depend upon their fellow workers and friends to help them keep the wolf from the door—while they are fighting for a living wage and the right to be organized.

The Bosses Say—STARVE THEM INTO SUBMISSION!

The I. W. A. Says—FEED THEM ONTO VICTORY!
