

End of British Tory Rule Set for Monday Multi-Millionaires Won't Fight Over Tax Reductions

MELLON SAYS DETROITER IS BAD EXAMPLE

(Special to The Daily Worker)
WASHINGTON.—Secretary of the Treasury Mellon will ignore the challenge he got from Senator Jim Couzens that they, two of the country's wealthiest men, stage a public debate on tax reduction.

Replying today to Couzens' recent letter, Mellon brusquely denied many of Couzens' arguments but said nothing about the proposed debate.

Mellon in Blow at Couzens
Mellon pointed to the case of Couzens himself to illustrate the contention that surtaxes on big incomes should be lowered.

Mellon said that all Couzens' capital, by his own admission, was invested in tax exempt securities.
If, however, Mellon argued, the surtaxes had not been so high when Couzens retired and invested his capital, he would for the sake of placing it in safely diversified investments have placed some of it in taxable securities.

Mellon said that there is particular public need for lowered surtaxes in the cases of railroads and building.

Pities the Poor Investors
With the present high surtaxes he said investors were practically shut off from investment in railroads or construction.

With lower surtaxes proposed in the Mellon bill he said capital now in exempt securities would be attracted to them.

Couzens in his challenge to a debate said that when he got out of the

MARCH OF 3,000 FARMER PICKETS BALKED BY FRAUD

Hearst Papers Aid in Double Cross

Three thousand enraged dairy farmers, members of the Milk Producers Association from the Elgin, Ill., district and southern Wisconsin points, were induced to abandon their march upon the plant of the Bowman Dairy Company at Wauconda, Ill., by news of a fake settlement.

The alleged settlement, news of which was flashed by the Hearst papers, and which resulted in the 3,000 pickets returning to their homes, was actually a proposal by which the milk producers were to receive one-half cent less than they are receiving at the present time. The joker in the agreement of the Bowman Dairy Company, "to meet the farmers half-way," is in the fact that simultaneously with the pledge to raise the price of a hundred pounds of milk from $2.60 to $2.67 1/2, the Bowman Dairy Company cancelled a premium of 8 cents per pound on milk produced within fifty miles of Chicago.

Over one-third of the striking milk producers are affected by this provision of which they had no knowledge when Health Commissioner Bundesen announced the "settlement" and the Hearst press strained every effort to get the news to the marching pickets. Armed with copies of the Hearst papers containing the story of the fake settlement, the deputies of Sheriff Ahlstrom of Lake county intercepted the farmers, who

Vote Soon on Confidence in Baldwin's Reign in England

(Special to The Daily Worker)
LONDON.—Leaders of the Conservative, Liberal and Labor parties agreed tonight that the vote on a motion of lack of confidence in the Baldwin government shall be taken at eleven o'clock, Monday night, according to the Exchange Telegraph Company.

The Baldwin government, slated for defeat and resignation Monday, gave evidence in Commons this afternoon it intends to go out fighting.

Ronald McNeill, under-secretary of state for foreign affairs, in a lengthy speech, defended the government's foreign policy. He pointed out that the late premier, Andrew Bonar Law, and Premier Baldwin had taken up many of the problems which the Lloyd George government bequeathed them.

"Whoever is Foreign-Secretary in the Labor Government will be quickly disillusioned," he predicted.
If Ramsay MacDonald goes to the Foreign Office with a broad foot, intending to stamp upon Premier Poincare with the object of establishing peace through Europe, I am afraid he will encounter a tremendous disillusionment," McNeill continued.

He denied Lloyd George's allegation that the Baldwin government neglected to co-operate with the United States in the proposed international committee to study the reparations situation.

"The proposal of Secretary Hughes never was communicated officially to Great Britain," McNeill declared.

"For a whole year we lost no opportunity of enlisting in any possible way the assistance of the United States." At this juncture David Lloyd George rose from his seat on the back benches and interposed a question.

What, he asked, was the government's position towards the separatist movement in Germany?

McNeill replied that the government would not sanction any separation, amounting to a declaration of independence, of any of the German Rhineland states, but would not interfere with establishment of autonomous states within Germany, if the inhabitants wished them.

Separatism, thru French and Belgian influence, has been declared everything except in the Palatinate, where a British representative is investigating, he said.

'Jail for Striking Farmers'

In 1921 the West Virginia miners, 11,000 strong, marched on the stronghold of the steel trust gun men in Logan county in a desperate effort to free themselves from the political and industrial tyranny enforced upon them by sixshooters, rifles and machine-guns, in the hands of a mercenary army maintained by the mining corporations.

In 1924 the dairy farmers of Illinois and Wisconsin, 3,000 strong, march on the bottling plant of the Bowman Dairy Company, the head and front of the opposition to the farmers' strike for a decent price for their product. Miners, according to the capitalist press, are known to be violent persons and there is, therefore, only anger and not surprise on the part of the press when they resent brutal oppression.

But farmers!
Worse than that, dairy farmers—the most peaceable of all human beings!

Surrounded by the gentle, milk-giving bovines, whom they tend, they are supposed to have acquired much of the bovine temperament; so much so that they are as easy prey for the dairy and commission-houses as their worn-out milk cows for the packing-houses.

The appearance of 3,000 farmer pickets upon the scene during the recent strike of the milk producers forces a revision of this traditional view of the American farmer and the capitalist press is screaming itself hoarse, editorially, in denunciation of this unsuspected bucolic pugnacious trait.

The Chicago Journal of Commerce publishes an editorial so bitter and venomous that one can easily visualize the writer occasionally pausing to wipe the foam from his lips as he pounds his typewriter. The farmers are accused of attempted murder and the demand is made that they be tried and convicted.

[We quote verbatim:

In an agricultural county, striking farmers believe they have a divine right to keep other farmers from selling their milk to whosoever they please and under any terms they see fit. The striking farmers commit violence. It is absurd to hope that law officers will make serious efforts to arrest them.

But they ought to be arrested, and they ought to be tried and convicted. Now that the strike is over, there is no danger of murder being committed; but until the peace was signed, murder was on the horizon.

We have an idea that the Journal of Commerce feels toward these farmers as did an aristocratic lady in Spokane, Wash., who, while several members of the Industrial Workers of the World were being tried for criminal syndicalism, said she guessed she would run down to the courthouse "to see the Wobblies being convicted."

All of which goes to prove that whether it be farmer or wage-earner in a challenge to the profit-mongers of America a record of previous docility counts for nothing. Praised to the skies by the pundits of capitalism when they accepted it as the Alpha and Omega of social systems, the farmers are discovering very rapidly that independent thinking—independent of capitalist conventions—is the next to the last thing that the chamber of commerce friends of the independent farmer want him to do.

The last thing is action with his exploited fellow-farmers and the industrial workers against the growing tyranny of the American capitalist class. Expressed either by a class party of the farmers and wage-earners or by the march of striking farmer-pickets it will meet with the same relentless hostility from the plunderbund and their governmental tools.

from Motor Company and converts his holdings into securities he "prepaid the taxes in the price of the securities."

Shows Millionaires Exempt
"To what government did you make payment?" Mellon asked him.

Summing up in one sentence his reply to Couzens' criticism of the Mellon program, Mellon said:

"Must a system of taxation which permits a man with an income of over $1,000,000 a year to pay not one cent to the support of his government remain unaltered?"

Ku Klux Big Issue in the Louisiana State Elections

(Special to The Daily Worker)
NEW ORLEANS, La.—Returns from Tuesday's Louisiana primary today indicated a second "run off" primary would be necessary to determine the choice for governor.

Huey P. Long has apparently been eliminated by yesterday's balloting, but a "run off" will be necessary between Henry L. Fuqua, who his opponents claimed is favored by the Ku Klux Klan and Hewitt Bouanchaud openly anti-Klan. Neither Fuqua or Bouanchaud received a majority of all votes cast on the basis of earlier returns.

DISEASE RIFE IN SWEATSHOP HELLS OF NEW YORK CITY

Dresses Made for $1.00,
Sell for $49.50

(Special to The Daily Worker)
NEW YORK.—If the state of New York wants to end home industries where women and children work long hours for small pay it will make these home workers dependent on charity for a living, it was testified at hearings before the state Child Welfare Commission here.

Children two and three years old are working on artificial flowers in New York. Beaded dresses and clocked silk hose which are later sold for high prices in the most expensive shops are worked on in homes often by people with communicable diseases, it was said.

Children who work at home always go to sleep in school and have sores and cuts on their hands, one witness testified.

"Wages are deplorable. Dresses which sell for $49.50 are finished for $1. Disease is prevalent," said another witness, who seemed more concerned with the possibility that people who bought the dresses might get sick than with the conditions of the workers.

Some of the prices paid are, for making roses, 20 cents a dozen; clocking silk hosiery, $3.50 a dozen; cutting lace, 25 cents a hundred yards. By hard work it is possible for a child to cut 50 yards of lace an hour.

CAPITOL MEET IS ATTEMPT TO HALT F. L. P. MOVEMENT

Mahoney of St. Paul to Fight Reactionaries

Delegates from eastern political, labor and progressive organizations will meet in the Hamilton Hotel, Washington, D. C. Thursday morning to define their attitude towards the May 30th farmer-labor convention at St. Paul.

The conference was called by William V. Mahoney of Washington, D. C., and its sponsors are antagonistic to the Farmer-Labor Party movement supported by the Minnesota Farmer-Labor Party and its affiliations.

William Mahoney of St. Paul, who must not be confused with Mr. Mahoney of Washington and Professor Shopper of Minneapolis, will attend the Washington conference in an effort to swing it in line in support of the May 30th convention called by the Minnesota Farmer-Labor Party in co-operation with the Federated Farmer-Labor Party and other groups.

Many of the elements which will be represented in the Washington conference are tied up with the Conference for Progressive Political Action which the May 30th conference endorses.

Enemies of the May 30th conference have been openly spreading the falsehood that while the Federated Farmer-Labor Party was invited to send delegates to the conference the Socialist Party and the old Farmer-Labor Party were not invited.

William Mahoney of St. Paul will explode this falsehood at the Washington conference and point out that all labor, political and economic groups will be invited to send delegates to the May 30th conference.

in groups of a dozen and more, were rapidly converging on the Bowman bottling plant.

The bare-faced fraud, practiced apparently with the connivance of the Chicago Health Department, extremely unfair to the milk producers all thru the trouble, has given the farmers new determination. The strike is on again with renewed bitterness.

A conference was called yesterday by Health Commissioner Bundesen at which Frank Holt, president of the Milk Producers' Association was present. "The premium must be restored," said Holt on his way to the conference. "The strike is on and will stay on until the premium is restored."

Threatened renewal of Chicago's milk strike was averted here early today.

After a hasty conference Chicago distributors agreed to pay striking producers a bonus of 8 cents per hundred weight in addition to the price of $2.67 1/2 agreed upon yesterday.

Acting as arbiter for the second time, Health Commissioner Bundesen brought the opposing factions together and presented the new demands of the producers.

The distributors relinquished after bitter debate. The producers holding they had been "tricked" into compromising on a discriminate price.

Chicago's milk supply, spokesmen for both factions said, will be restored to normal today. Producers in Wisconsin, Michigan and Illinois will resume shipments to Chicago without delay, they said.

New Orleans Cotton to Russia

NEW ORLEANS.—New Orleans is to begin shipment of large quantities of cotton to Russia for use in the textile mills there. A Russian commission has purchased 10,000 bales of cotton of which 1,000 bales are ready for shipment, according to J. H. Walsh, general manager of the dock board. New Orleans will be a concentration point for all cotton destined for Russia. The commission is now in Texas.

INDIANAPOLIS.—The National Executive Committee of the American Legion today announced that the 1924 National Convention will be held in St. Paul, Minn., the third week in September.

REACTIONARIES IN FRAME-UP TO GET TOLEDO T. U. E. L.

Secret Letter Sent to Standpatters

(Special to The Daily Worker) TOLEDO, Ohio.—Because the militant members of Lodge No. 105 of the International Association of Machinists here had been elected to all but two or three of the offices in the lodge, reactionary local officials with the help of grand lodge officers managed to get a rule passed making members of the Workers Party and the Trade Union Educational League ineligible for office in the lodge.

At the last regular election the militants were elected to many offices including those of Vice-President and Treasurer. All the important committees with one exception were in their hands.

The following letter was sent out by the self-styled reliable leaders to the so-called reliable members: Dear Sir and Brother: During the holidays while on furlough by the Grand Lodge, Brothers Griffith, Rogge and Gauthier, always being interested in the welfare of Lodge 105, learned that there was an element in Lodge 105 that was attempting to direct the activities of the Lodge in a manner that was not only detrimental to the best interests and welfare of the membership.

This condition has also been called to the attention of International President Johnston, and he suggested that while the three above mentioned Brothers were in the city, that they confer with Business Agent Obright and Secretary Kondrad and others with a view of correcting this condition.

As a consequence such a conference has been held and in order to accomplish the desired results, we are calling together a number of dependable members of 105, of which we consider you one, and one that will be willing to attend a meeting at which time this entire matter will be gone into thoroughly for the purpose of enlightening your assistance in correcting the condition prevailing by working out a policy that will reflect to the benefit of Lodge 105.

This meeting will be held Thursday, January 10th, 1924, 7:30 p. m., at the Labor Temple, Corner of Michigan and Jefferson, Hall "A", second floor.

Keep this letter and contents to yourself and bring the letter and envelope with you, as no one will be admitted except those to whom this letter is addressed and it must be presented at the door for admittance.

Do not treat this as an ordinary appeal but please cancel any other engagement you may have and be sure to be present, as information that you are possibly unaware of will be disclosed to you and which is of the utmost importance.

Trusting that you will be sure and consider this absolutely confidential and will give us the pleasure of your attendance and cooperation, we are, Sincerely yours, F. W. Griffith, V. S. Gauthier, Wm. F. Rogge, H. G. Obright, and A. F. Kondrad.

At the regular meeting of the lodge on the following evening an unusually large number of members attended, which suggested that the meeting was being packed.

A resolution was introduced stating that inasmuch as the Workers Party and the Trade Union Educational League advocated the violent overthrow of the government and sought to use the trade union movement to further their purposes, that therefore members of those organizations be declared ineligible to office in that lodge and that offices now held by them should be declared vacant and a new election held. The resolution was very drastic in some of its other provisions and only permitted the militants to pay dues.

The whole prosecution was directed by three grand lodge officers who were on vacations, assisted by H. G. Obright and A. F. Kondrad of the local lodge. A motion to postpone action on the resolution for a week in order to notify all members of the proposed action was defeated. After considerable discussion by spokesmen for the reactionaries debate was cut off before the militants had a chance to talk. The resolution carried by a vote of 48 to 38.

After the vote the membership was assured that the militants would not be permitted to get control of the A. F. of L. The militant members of Lodge No. 105 are not discouraged but will try to get the resolution repealed at a meeting of the lodge where all the members can attend and take part in the discussion without the help of the reactionary grand lodge officials.

Wall Street Grabs Democratic Meet First Time Since 1868; Big Biz Will Write Platform

(Special to The Daily Worker)

WASHINGTON, D. C.—After a stormy session, lasting many hours, the Democratic National Committee picked New York City as the place to hold the next party national convention.

The sessions resembled an auction room. The proponents of San Francisco, St. Louis and Chicago offering thousands of dollars to the National Committee to draw the convention away from New York. New York finally carried off the honors after it outbid all the other contestants with an offer of more than $250,000. An agreement between the Brennan forces and the Tammany group settled the issue.

Big Parties Dodge the West. Observers here are of the opinion that the big financial supporters of the republican and democratic parties are responsible for holding the two conventions in large Eastern industrial centers. These bankers and brokers were unwilling to have their parties meet in or near the discontented agricultural sections of the West. They insisted that unless the parties would hold their conventions in "safe and sane" territory and away from the baneful atmosphere of the insurgents and radicals of the Western States, they would withhold support from the campaigns.

The Republicans moved to Cleveland. The Democrats whose national treasury is practically empty because of the recent lean years it has had in politics succumbed even more easily and moved right into the very shadows of Wall Street.

First in 56 Years This is the first Democratic convention to be held in New York City in the last 56 years. The last time that the Democrats met in New York was in 1868 when Seymour Horatio was nominated against General Ulysses S. Grant on the republican ticket. Then, as now, the Democrats had made inroads on the Republicans in the elections prior to the national campaign in the big Eastern States. The convention was then moved into New York City as it was done today in order to help consolidate these gains. The democratic leaders are confident of 1924 being what they call an "in" year for their machine. Men prominent in the ruling circles of the Democratic Party feel that if they can win or make serious progress in such big Eastern States as New York, New Jersey and Massachusetts they will win the elections in a walkover. They point out that the wind is blowing all their way.

In the 67th Congress there were 160 Republicans against 16 Democrats, but in the present Congress the Democrats have succeeded in narrowing the margin down to a ratio of 116-61. The "Solid South" is of course safer than ever for the Democrats; the West is in revolt against the Republican standpatters; in the

Big Biz Sheet Urges Capitalists Subscribe

Interest in the DAILY WORKER is not limited to workers and rebels. The writers for big business are watching it. These fellows are employed to watch out for the interests of their bosses. They are usually more intelligent than the business men for whom they write. They know a significant development when they see one.

Here is what the Chicago Journal of Commerce, the paper that advertises it contains all the news a busy business man has time to read, has to say about the DAILY WORKER:

A Communist Daily Newspaper. The Workers' Party of America, a communist organization has begun publication of a national newspaper, to be issued every day except Sunday. The place of publication is 1640 North Halsted street. The name of the paper is the Daily Worker. It sells for three cents on newsstands, $10 a year, in Chicago, and for five cents on newsstands, $6 a year, elsewhere.

"The Daily Worker contains general news as well as editorial articles," explains C. E. Ruthenberg, secretary of the Workers' Party. "It is to be financed by a fund of $100,000, of which $92,000 already has been raised by subscriptions from communists. The paper advocates communism, and declares the function of government should be taken over by the workers and farmers. The paper does not advocate force. We favor substitution of industrial unionism for craft unionism—that is, the sixteen railroad unions should form one union, just as the miners form one union."

We pass this explanation along for the information of our readers. Establishment of a Communist daily newspaper is of distinct importance to business men. Some of them may deem it of sufficient importance to warrant subscription to the new publication so as to note what sort of plausible exhortation is being used to arouse unrest in American industry.

On Tuesday of every week we expect to print display announcements of local unions. Rates will be $1 an inch, 50¢ for half an inch card. Take this matter up in your next meeting. Your local should have a weekly display card as well as the running announcement under date of meeting.

WHITWASH FALL BY APPOINTMENT TO MEXICAN POST

Hope Scandal Dies During Absence

WASHINGTON, D. C.—If the entire story of the deal that ex-secretary of the Interior Albert B. Fall, becomes known it will involve the most influential members of the administration group in congress. Fall, while secretary of the Department of the Interior leased government oil lands to the Sinclair interests.

Now it is proposed to make Fall Ambassador to Mexico and thus stamp him with the official approval of President Coolidge.

If the full story of the Sinclair oil leases becomes known it will have a serious effect on the 1924 presidential campaign. By sending Fall to Mexico, it is thought that the story can be suppressed and the consequences dodged.

Fall, while in the Senate, was known as an enemy of the Obregon government. Members of Congress who are among the most influential members of the "administration group" will be involved if the whole story comes out.

The whole matter has created such disturbance in political circles here and threatens to cause much more.

Canadian Toilers Greet The Daily

The workers of Canada look with envy upon the workers of the United States who are now the proud owners of the first English-language Communist Daily.

Your paper is going to be the greatest thing in the labor movement of North America. Gompers Supports Counter-Revolution in Germany

Statement by the Central Executive Committee of the Workers Party.

In the guise of support of the German Trade Union movement, Samuel Gompers, President of the American Federation of Labor, is attempting to raise funds in support of the counter-revolution in Germany.

An appeal asking all labor unions in this country to make contributions to help maintain and establish the labor organizations of Germany has been sent out and is now being published in the labor press of this country.

This appeal contains the following statement which shows the real character of the relief work which Gompers is trying to carry on:

"We have a duty to help the German trade union movement maintain itself as the defender of democracy against the terrific onslaughts of bolshevik propaganda which continues incessantly with the direct backing of the bolshevik machine in Moscow, the more dangerous because of its proximity. The German trade union movement has stood courageously against the bolshevik attack, but with its machinery of organization broken down and out of business the red effort to capture German labor as a means to furthering the program for red domination will be a much easier matter."

The official leadership of the Trade

Unions of Germany has been in the hands of Social-Democrats of that country. The Social-Democrats have again and again betrayed the working class, even conniving at the establishment of the present military dictatorship under the direction of General Von Seeckt.

The great working masses of Germany, due to their many disappointments and the many betrayals by the Social-Democrats and the trade union leaders, have lost faith in these organizations. Tens of thousands of workers have left them and joined the Communist Party because of their bitter experiences during the period of struggles against reaction in Germany.

Today in Germany the Social-Democracy and the Trade Union Bureaucracy are the bulwark of the military dictatorship thru which the great capitalists of Germany are compelling the workers of that country to submit to the bitter suffering and starvation which they are subject to.

Contributions made for the official German Trade Union movement mean contributions for the counter-revolution in Germany.

The hope of the German workers lies in the Communist Party of Germany. It is the Communist Party which has dared to conduct an open fight against the reactionary counter-revolutionary generals and the big capitalists of Germany. It is the Communist Party which has refused to betray the suffering masses of Germany and which is preparing for the time when it can strike the blow which will destroy the military dictatorship and establish Workers' Government in Germany.

The Friends of Soviet Russia, which rendered great aid to the Russian workers and peasants in the time of need and struggle against counter-revolution has undertaken the task of raising funds for support of the German workers. The funds raised by the Friends of Soviet Russia who are also the Friends of Workers Germany, will go to the working masses who are suffering because of their betrayal by the Social Democrats and the Trade Union Bureaucracy.

The Workers Party of America therefore calls upon all workers who are opposed to reaction and counter-revolution and a military dictatorship against the workers to refuse support to the Gompers appeal and to make their contributions for Workers' Germany thru the Friends of Soviet Russia.

MC ANDREW IS RAPPED HARD BY N. Y. ASSOCIATES

Renegade Liberal, Says Teachers' Union Head

Communications received by Chicago union teachers from members of the New York Teachers' Federation state that William McAndrew, new superintendent of the local schools, is regarded by the union teachers of New York as a "renegade liberal."

Henry Linville, president of the New York organization, characterizes McAndrew as a "fair weather superintendent" who would support all conventional standards and frown on anything new in the teaching profession.

"Altho he is falsely credited with having fought politics in the school system," continued Linville, "the fact is, he always tagged along with the 'safe' majority. He is clever and knows the routine of school administration, but he is intellectually dishonest and lacks completely the courage of his convictions."

"Trickiness," is the word Linville employs to designate McAndrew's administrative methods. "While McAndrew was still at the head of the Washington Irving school in this city," said Linville, "he wanted to prove to an investigating committee that his school was overcrowded. And so when the committee arrived, McAndrew surreptitiously put two classes into each room visited. The committee, of course, left with a 'doctored' picture of congestion at the school."

"He is known as one of the early promoters of the Gary system, and we have good reason to believe that he has been summoned to Chicago to install the Detroit platoon system there, a twin sister of the Gary system until it was ousted from New York's schools."

An Informative Pamphlet. Recent Developments in the American Labor Movement. By Harry W. Leidler. Published by the League for Industrial Democracy.

This pamphlet is a short review of recent tendencies in the labor movement, dealing with the rising sentiment for a labor party, the Plumb Plan, cooperation and labor banking, workers' education, labor journalism, research and health and a special chapter on amalgamation.

The author has been careful to avoid controversial matters, so it is possible to read it untroubled with any position.

He affirms no position to those thousands of trade unionists who are unfamiliar with modern tendencies in the labor movement this pamphlet is valuable and contains sufficient information to arouse a desire to know more about the movement. RUHR MINER TO SPEAK FOR GERMAN RELIEF; MASS MEETING COOPER UNION, N. Y., JAN. 20

(Special to The Daily Worker)

NEW YORK.—Kurt Klaeber, a young miner from Essen (Ruhr) who has been addressing workers on the situation in Germany, will speak at the Cooper Union mass meeting here Jan. 20th, for German relief. This meeting has been arranged by the Friends of Soviet Russia (American Committee International Workers Aid) as the opening event in the campaign to aid the starving German workers.

Kurt Klaeber was associated with the workers in the Ruhr and also with the workers of Saxony. During the early period of the Zeigner (Socialist) Government of Saxony he acted as an adviser on workers' education to the Department of Education.

This is the only occasion on which he will speak to American workers on the situation, as he departs for Germany at the end of the month. All workers should attend this meeting and give their energetic support to the campaign for German relief.

Support Demand for Cash Bonus

JOHN WILLIAMSON

The attitude taken by ex-service men in a Chicago meeting to protest the action of Congress in sidetracking the bonus is one of interest not only to ex-service men of the last war but to the young workers of today who will be the service men of the next war.

The names of Mellon and Coolidge were received with hisses and laughter. Resolutions and replies by the President were read amidst yells of derision. The attitude of the ex-service men who overpacked the hall was a militant one. They were principally young workers who had been fooled by the hysterical cry of "Saving the World for Democracy" and ever since returning have been gradually realizing that they suffered and bled to "Save the World for Dollarocracy" instead.

The outburst in Chicago is the climax of many long months of waiting and promises by every politician who entered office. During all this time the Young Workers League full pointed out to the ex-service men that the politicians whether they be Republican or Democrat, are only the lickspittles of big capital. These winks made billions upon billions of dollars' profit during the war and should be made to pay a cash bonus out of their profits. The demand for a cash bonus should not stop at mass meetings. Four and five years ago we were told "nothing is too good for the service men." It was they who gave their lives, they who wallowed in the carnage of human flesh while the big capitalists of America were making billions exploiting the workers at home. The Young Workers League commends the action of their ex-service brothers and pledges their full support to fight for a cash bonus from the profits of these bosses represented by Mellon. The fight must be continued. If mass meetings cannot bring the results desired other measures must be taken. The fight must be won. With the support of the class conscious young workers the fight will be won.

However, one thing is obvious. Such men as Owsley, McNider, Berry or Quinn do not stand for the interests of the ex-service men. The belligerent attitude of the masses of ex-service men has forced these lickspittles to make a pretense at fighting for the interests of the rank and file. Not one of them, however, has taken any decisive attitude on his own initiative.

These men still proclaim the fake phrase that "we are all free and equal" and similar rot. The masses have been wasted already. The slogan must be "An Immediate Cash Bonus from the Military Budget."

We also call upon all ex-service men to take a militant stand against the military preparations for future wars. We must expose the war game and the conditions of the service men.

Every opportunity we must agitate against all war.

Beside the slogan, "An Immediate Cash Bonus from the Military Budget," we must put the slogan, "No More Capitalist Wars!"

The Stalemate in Congress

By JAY LOVESTONE

In the history of American politics there has been many a do-nothing Congress. Most often the personnel of our congresses consists of that brand of congressional timber that is commonly called "mawh" representatives,—might as well stay home Congressmen.

The Sixty-eighth congress is not immune from this inherent feature of our national legislative bodies, it ranks in the political ladder, several rungs above the average Congress that the country is blessed with every other year. This congress was born to be a do-nothing Congress, simply because of the delicate balance between the various contending groups included in its personnel. This delicate balance of strength among the insurgents, stand-patters, regulars, safe-and-sure-fellows, ordinary Democrats, independent Democrats, farm-bloccers, et id infinitum is a reflex of the economic and political conditions prevailing in our country today. The chaos and confusion arising in the ranks of the dominant parties have brought on divisions growing ever sharper, though still too vague at the present moment to express itself in the immediate organization of a new political party consisting of the so-called liberal element and totally independent of both old parties.

When Congress was called to order, most observers in Washington as well as their followers the country over, were given to believe that "Silent Cal" would be a humble servant before the Best Minds of the Republic coterie of political pawn-brokers. Coolidge has surprised everybody. He has cleaned up the field of all possible dangerous, "regular," opponents to his nomination at the next Party convention.

When such experienced political hounds as Lodge and Smoot whined and shrunk away from battle, Coolidge resorted to the closed-fist policy, laid down the law to his lieutenants, made them do his bidding, and made them do it without delay and without question. The reactionaries are now on the offensive, in Congress as well as in the various states for two reasons. First of all, Coolidge was a good enough politician not to relinquish the offensive to his opponents, the insurgents. Secondly, the insurgents reared backwards, played dead, and didn't display the faintest sign of courage to give real battle to the conservatives.

Coolidge is a very good political driver. In political driving, like in all other driving, its not good policy to crack the whip all the time. "Silent Cal" played this game very well. The most sorry and suppliant tool in his hands has been Senator Pepper of Pennsylvania, who

Doesn't Like Reception Given Claude McKay

WASHINGTON, D. C.—It has happened. The ubiquitous Negro has appeared on the scene of Russian recognition by the United States.

In his screed against the Soviet Government of Russia as practically identical with the Communist International, whose declared object is to overthrow, all capitalist and oppressive regimes, Senator Lodge read to the Senate a letter written by Trotsky to an American Communist, Claude McKay, the poet, which was published in the Moscow Ivestia Feb. 15, 1923.

The letter was in answer to an inquiry by Mr. McKay as to Russia's attitude toward the world struggle of the Negro for true emancipation. The portion quoted by Senator Lodge is as follows: "The training of black agitators is the most important revolutionary problem of the moment. . . . I am at a loss to say what are the most expedient organization forms for the movement among American Negroes, because I am not familiar with the concrete conditions and possibilities; but the organization form will be found as soon as sufficient will for action is displayed."

Senator Lodge also referred to the enthusiastic reception given by the Fourth Congress of the Third International to Claude McKay and another Negro from America "whose identity is shrouded in mystery," and to the message of sympathy and encouragement sent by that Congress to the Negro people of America and broadcasted last March thru the Crusader Service.

The Poor Democrats

Though the Democrats have considerable strength in the Senate and House, they have not been able to capitalize it. Everybody expected them to play politics. But nobody has expected them to play it as poorly as they have played it to date.

When the Democrats had the best chance, perhaps, of their career in his session of Congress to make a serious dent in the armor of their Republican opponents they failed miserably. This was the occasion of settling the fate of Cummins' membership on the Inter-state Commerce Committee. Had the Democratic floor leaders put up any sort of a fight to all, Cummins would likely have been deprived of his seat on this important committee and the Democrats would have been confronted by a far less formidable opponent chosen to fill his place.

When the insurgents attempted to liberalize the rules of procedure in the House, the Democrats played the role of strike-breakers and fled from the struggle. The only chance the Democrats could have of utilizing to the maximum advantage their present strength was in a sort of a near-friendly working alliance with the so-called progressives. Of course, nobody would expect the Democrats to do that since they hate the insurgents as much as the hide-bound reactionary Republicans do—almost with assault and battery.

The Helpless Progressives

The sorriest lot in the whole congressional farce to date has been the shattered group of insurgents. The fight of the progressives for more democratic rules of procedure in the House fizzled out into a thirty-day moratorium on hostilities. When the truce ended, Royal C. Johnson, a militant insurgent from the plains of South Dakota, stabbed the progressive fox, Mr. Nelson, of Wisconsin, in the back by lining up with the reactionaries in a flat refusal to modify in the least effective way the rules of the House.

Railway legislation has been the linch-pin of the progressive plans in the Senate. La Follette has always prided himself on being the king-pin of railway legislation experts in the country. According to the sacred

Half Million Are War Pensioners

WASHINGTON, D. C.—The United States Government has on its war pension list 539,756 veterans and other dependents drawing pensions from the government thru the Pension Bureau of the Department of the Interior.

In the last fiscal year the number of pensions fell off 7,206. The largest number of pensioners on the rolls of the bureau during its entire history was in the fiscal year 1902 when there were 999,446.

The state of Ohio has the unique record of having within its borders more persons being paid pensions than any other state. In the last fiscal year there were 51,206 pensioners living in Ohio and receiving from the government the sum of $24,498,460. The state of Pennsylvania came next on the list with 49,678 pensioners drawing a total amount of $24,898,955. The third was the state of New York where 42,804 pensioners of the government live and received all told 20,643,342. Illinois was the fourth state with 36,392 pensioners receiving during the year $17,492,074.

Beating the Courts of Michigan

Do you remember how we waited for the verdict in the Foster case, Comrades? Do you remember the thrill that we experienced when we learned that Foster had won out for the time being? We got a great "kick" out of the verdict. The state of Michigan, which contains the billion dollar corporation of Henry Ford, assisted by Mr. Burns' "Department of Justice," brought all its big guns into the battle array, and the battle began. Against the State of Michigan and its allies there were just YOU comrades. And YOU won!

That it the "kick" in it all; that the party is able to command such support that it can turn aside the bombarding of the big guns of the capitalist class. They arrest comrades and place a prohibitive bond upon them. At least, they think it is prohibitive. Of course, they fail to understand that while Mahomet could not move the mountain YOU could deliver the goods when called upon. They thought the Michigan Raid would stampeed the movement. And now to make their joke more silly, out comes the DAILY WORKER. The party grows and its influence widens with each attack. It is YOU, comrades, who make it possible.

Gomper's succeeded in expelling the "lone" Communist delegate at the Portland Convention of the A. F. L. Can the State of Michigan succeed in imprisoning its present "lone" Communist victim? We know that as far as financial and moral support counts, it cannot. We know that the coupons that we have circulated will be bought by every comrade. Because we know the stability and self-sacrificing nature of our comrades, we know if the sale of these coupons can rob the State of Michigan of its "lone" Communist victim, Comrade Ruthenberg will never be confined behind the grim walls of Lansing penitentiary. Perhaps you have not sold any yet. We know it is because you have not had them brought to your attention. Write to the Labor Defense Council, 166 W. Washington St., Chicago, Ill.

AIM AND PURPOSE OF THE JUNIOR SECTION
Article No. 1

The Junior Section of the Young Workers League is neither a Workers' Party kindergarten nor a conglomeration of children's homes and Sunday Schools. They are live organizations of the children of the workers, organizations that counteract the poison of capitalist "education" in the Public Schools.

of our groups is the confidence of the children in the leaders. Without this the work would be hindered by the egotism and stubbornness which have been fostered in the children by the Public Schools. We educate the children to act collectively, to perform responsible work to use their independent initiative—all subordinated to the common welfare—and teach them solidarity.

Therefore, our whole system of communist education is based upon the development in the children of a new and full sense of the community as a whole; upon the arousing precepts; not even by good examples, altho it is true of course, that all our work is full of this spirit. We develop a form of organization which is governed by neither individual egotism nor by the herd spirit; one that stimulates the highest form of activity and solidarity. This organization is the free, the self administered, and self legislative children's group of the Junior Section.

The leader (teacher) of those groups is careful to avoid all demonstrations of guardianship. He does not suppress the childish wills and actions even when they contradict each other, in different individuals. It is his task to combine their contradictions into a conscious common will and aim.

It has been and is the great mistake of many labor organizations, and especially in this time of the American Federation of Labor, that they educate their members to depend upon the leaders. (Watch for Article No. 2 in this series: How we lead the Junior (children's) groups.)

The Franc Flops

Victorious imperialist France is sitting on a financial volcano. The franc has, in the last week, fallen to almost 25 for a dollar.

The cause for the collapse of the franc and the serious depression that is sure to follow in its wake, lies in the very military overlordship that imperialist France is now swaying over its puppet republics and conquered territories.

In the last four years, according to the Department of Commerce, the total French debt rose from 227 billion francs to 430 billions.

It is only the huge amounts borrowed to pay pensions and to continue the reconstruction of the war devastated areas that have kept industry running in France. It is only through this artificial policy which must inevitably collapse of its own weight, that has kept unemployment down.

ward appearances, France, the citadel of capitalist reaction in Europe is a veritable powder magazine of revolutionary explosives.

Another emperor has fallen by the wayside. William Joseph Simmons, founder of the Ku Klux Klan, is the latest victim of militant democracy to bite the dust.

The Farmers' Friends

The last few months have witnessed a remarkable increase in the number of "friends" that the farmers have gained.

Senator Capper's propaganda has won the farmers many banker-friends. Secretary of Agriculture Wallace's speeches have won the farmers the "friendship" of the packing interests.

While all this noise is being made about farm relief and farm friendship, no one can fail to view with disgust the conduct of some of the so-called farm representatives in Washington.

The crowning point of this utter lack of achievement on the part of the so-called farm Senators was the wood-chopping contest between Frazier of North Dakota and Magnus of Minnesota.

The poor farmers have been long enough in trouble to develop a sense of humor. Yet, one tends to wonder how long they are going to stand for this disgraceful conduct on the part of their Washington representatives. Magnus Johnson was sent to the Senate by the workers and farmers to "chop" off reactionary heads and not to enter into wood-chopping contests with his friends.

All of which simply goes to prove that not until the workers and farmers have their own political party controlling their elected representatives and making them responsible servants of the poor farmers and city workers, will such intolerable conditions come to an end.

Multiplication and Poverty

The Strensruide family increased and multiplied until Strensruide was at his wits end to find ways and means to satisfy 22 appetites, 20 children with his wife and himself.

To the average reader who saw this wretched mother's picture with four of her twenty children on the pictorial page of the Herald-Examiner, this is only an isolated case.

Dress Rehearsals

A few days ago confidential orders were issued to all units of the fleet to leave their home ports in the Pacific and Atlantic coasts and make for tropical waters.

Until the middle of March the War and Navy Departments will be busy with the numerous problems arising out of the maneuvers as though the country were actually at war with a first class power.

The workers and farmers, who are having the time of their lives making ends meet, are naturally prompted to ask: Why all this pompous military rehearsal? Are we to have another preparedness campaign? Is another world slaughter brewing?

We do not know the precise, official answers to these pertinent questions. However, we are aware of the fact that while our army and navy leaders will be maneuvering around the Panama Canal, our Banker-Generals Dawes, Robinson and Young will be maneuvering in the Paris Reparations sessions in the interests of Wall Street.

Some may call us down for being too suspicious, and may contend that these military and naval maneuvers are merely a strange coincidence with these political events.

The first duty of every militant toiler is to subscribe for The Daily Worker. His second duty is to get some other worker to subscribe.

—The Thirst That Will Finish Him

Thou Shalt Not Kill Anyone But Communists

In a booklet by Dr. E. S. Gumbel entitled "Three Years of Murder," we find the following contrast between the political murders from the Right (murders committed by reactionaries) and those from the Left (radicals), and their consequences:

During the years 1919 and 1920, almost on every second day, there occurred an unpunished murder from the Right. Professor Nicolai writes in the introduction to this booklet, "With regard to the dead themselves, nearly all the leaders of the extreme left have been put out of the way in this manner; however, not a single leader of the extreme Right has been killed."

pretends to consider the Communist "atrocities" as the reason for the White Terror. Professor Nicolai continues, "With regard to the punishments meted out the relatively few attempts against reactionaries are almost all punished by very heavy sentences; however, for the numerous attempts made against men of the Left, no one is punished."

Mellon Reduces the Taxes of Mellon

The big tax plan of Mr. Mellon, Secretary of the Treasury, is now before the Senate. The plan is a very good one for the rich, and it is a miserable one for workers and poor farmers.

since I entered public life, for a reduction in the taxes of men of great wealth while at the same time he urges a disproportionate reduction in the taxes of men of modest means.

Millionaires Escape Taxation

The country has been flooded with propaganda in behalf of the Mellon plan to save the millionaire bankers and bosses millions of dollars.

One might ask: Why is it that the Government is so swift and vigorous in its persecution and prosecution of people who are guilty of stealing a trifling here and there and yet does not do anything at all in the way of stopping the big millionaire thieves?
