MASSACHUSETTS TO SEND FIVE DELEGATES TO ST. PAUL MEET

(Special to The Daily Worker)

BOSTON, Mass., June 3.-Thomas F. Conroy, leader of the striking shopmen of Worcester and secretary of Machinists' local union 69, and four others were elected delegates to the St. Paul convention by the newly formed state Farmer-Labor Party. Fifty-eight delegates attended the state convention, representing 16 trade unions and various other workers' and farmers' organizations.

The convention adopted a militant program in response to the fighting spirit shown thruout the meeting by the delegates. The two old parties were severely condemned for their oppression of the workers and for their use of the government as a strike-breaking agency.

The use of the courts for injunc tions and government troops against striking railroad and mine workers was especially condemned. Public ownership and public control of natural resources were demanded.

The repeal of the criminal anarchy law, the abolition of the state constabulary, of citizens' military training camps and of military training in schools were all demanded in the state program.

The capitalist press ladles out every detail of the gruesome crime and circulation managers were not so happy in weeks. Nothing helps to induce the public to buy papers so much as a spicy murder reeking with sex.

downs of industrial depressions when

On the one side the DAILY WORKER. Against it the whole yellow press. Yet the triumph has been complete.

The backbone of LaFollette's attack is broken. Minnesota has declared for June 17th. Nebraska speaks up for June 17th. Far off Washington never wavered for June 17th. California takes its stand for June 17th. Illinois and New York repeat "For June 17th." Michigan adds its voice "For June 17th." And now comes Montana.

The roll is being called and there hasn't been a single break all along the line.

For the attack of LaFollette, spurred on by Gompers, and aided by the yellow press, the defeat has been disastrous.

For the class-conscious workers and farmers of the nation, and their only spokesman in the daily newspaper field, the DAILY WORKER, the triumph is overwhelming.

"It couldn't have been accomplished without the DAILY WORKER," is the declaration heard on every side.

"The DAILY WORKER won the day for the class Farmer-Labor party, for the mass convention of the farmers and workers to be held in St. Paul, Minnesota," is the unanimous admission.

What a chorus of opposition!

The best scribblers of the kept press yelled that the June 17 convention had been all shot to pieces by the attack of LaFollette, endorsed by Gompers and receiving the "Amen!" of the dilletante millionaires of the "Committee of 48."

William Hard, once heralded as a liberal, but now writing for the worst of the reactionary organs of capitalism, sent out the glad tidings from Washington that "June 17th" had been wrecked.

Charles N. Wheeler, political writer for William Randolph Hearst, booster of LaFollette as an "independent" candidate, recorded the victory for reaction in the millions of copies that daily pour from the Hearst presses.

All the subsidized sheets of the profiteers were unanimous in giving LaFollette all the space he needed while it denied any opportunity to reply to his opponents.

With these sheets stood the Minnesota Star, a so-called labor paper, published at Minneapolis, Minn., that has been repudiated by Minnesota's city workers and farmers.

With them there lined up the Milwaukee Leader. Victor Berger's Socialist organ, that joins Wall Street in its hatred of Communism.

What a powerful opposition!

But that opposition has been humbled. It has been crushed. Today it is in the dust. The onward march of the June 17 convention is more steady, more determined than ever before.

And the credit for this tremendous triumph goes in great part, by common acclaim, to the DAILY WORKER.

From the first hour that it appeared on Jan. 13, this year, the DAILY WORKER has fought single-handed among all the nation's dailies, for the class Farmer-Labor party of all oppressed workers and farmers.

It has had its writers at the gatherings of the workers and farmers wherever they have been held over the country. It has recorded the steady onward march, of all who feel the lash of toil, toward the class party. In daily articles and editorials it has pointed out the necessity for independent political action for the workers and farmers. It has repeated the story in pictures and cartoons.

Today, with new glory, the DAILY WORKER keeps its eyes steadily on the future. It looks forward to ever greater achievements, with the aid of its growing army of readers.

If the DAILY WORKER has won the victories that it already has to its credit, with the limited circulation that it now enjoys, what greater triumphs may it not achieve with tens of thousands of new readers? That is a question that is easily answered. The greater the number of DAILY WORKER readers, the greater its accomplishments.

That is a truth that all our present readers should carefully consider. We want them all to make that truth a living reality. We want all of our present readers to carefully and seriously consider, RIGHT NOW, what they can do to win new recruits for the DAILY WORKER'S growing army of readers.

A decisive reply has already been given LaFollette and his backers. But that reply must be heard in even greater, in thunder tones. It will be heard, louder than ever, if the DAILY WORKER, thru an immensely increased circulation. can reach thousands of new readers.

We want you to help. We want you to start in getting new subscriptions for the DAILY WORKER. June 17 Main Issue. The arrangements Committee submitted a resolution containing the fol-fowing recommendations: 1. To organize a Farmer-Labor Party of Philadelphia and to elect a chairmen, secretary-treasurer and an executive committee to carry on the work of the party.

2. To endorse the convention to be held in St. Paul on June 17 for the purpose of organizing a national Farmer-Labor Party which will nominate its own candidates for President and Vice-president and to send a uelegate to that convention.

3. To instruct the Executive Committee of the party to prepare a draft blying for the last two years and has and other citizens of this city are deof a platform and by-laws of the party no intention of organizing a Farmerto be submitted for adaption at the Labor Party.

LaFollette refuses any communion with the robust elements of labor leadership that alone have shown any real comprehension of the vital welfare and needs of the worker. With Gompers' Gang

He foregathers with Boss Gompers, a sort of Dick Croker of the political labor machine, in blind persistence in purely political tinkering that has no efficacy for real relief of a very sick society. They love their personal prominence and power more than human liberation.

With them Mr. J. A. H. Hopkins, a millionaire beneficiary of predatory economics, financing a so-called progressive high-brow political block, called the forty-eighters, warns third party folks against St. Paul radicalism. They plan a safe and sane Fourth at Cleveland to acclaim the Pompadour Bob as the last thing in political hair-dressing. All they need is a kick-in of some of Frank Vanderlip's disgruntled millions to make a real classy jazz

Speaker after speaker took the floor and completely smashed the arguments of brother Kutz. They ably pointed out the difference between the "rank and file" convention of June officials of the International Unions. They also showed that the June 17 convention has a definite program for Independent Political Action, while the July 4 convention is wiggly-wab-against him are based on his book, "Christianism and Communism," in which he says he cannot see how any educated and honest man can be today other than a revolutionary heretic in religion as well as a revolutionary heretic in politics, predatory capitalism's two servants being the church on the right and politics on the left. Dictatorship

The present chaotic conditions, if left to drift, must eventuate in a dictatorship. For America so plutocratically well organized, as Mr. Russell opines, this would be at the outset of the Fascisti order, such as Mr. Gary surely has the pattern for from the experience of his friend Mussolini.

With Pompadour Bob in a theatrical pose as a grandiloquent apologist for a defunct order and limelighting in mere beguilement of votes, we may still make history by a real clearing of issues this fall with a pretty fourcornered contest as follows: Mellon Cally, for the Grand Oil Party; "Al," the Wet, a Tammany Blind Tiger offering; Battling Bob, his own platform, and Brown, the Red, Sovieted Bishop of the Churchless. With four solid years of Cal perhaps the blinders of the people may be completely shed.

"There has been an effort on the part of the old line politicians and their allies in the newspaper field to prevent this gathering of farmers and wage workers and apparently LaFollette is to be the pinch hitter in the contest. His denunciation of the present corrupt situation in his own party was in a measure responsible for the - calling of this meeting and now apparently he does not want it held.

"If the convention depends on the whim of one individual as a possible candidate for the presidency, then it had better never been called. If it is going to be dominated by individuals, then it is a mistake. The inconsistency of LaFollette's position lies in the fact that he himself has been the victim of the same hysteria that he now uses to prevent the get-together meeting in St. Paul. It is not so long since he was charged with being a "red," hung in ef-figy, tried for his seat in the Sen-ate, visited Russia, and performed all the other feats for which others are now denounced.

Scolds G. O. P. Put Stays In It. "The strange thing about LaFollette's position is that he denounces his colleagues in the Republican Party and yet refuses to desert them. He tells us of the need of a new party and yet remains in the old. In the organization now functioning as 'The LaFollette for President Club' with headquarters in the Auditorium Hotel in Chicago, not a wage worker or farmer is on the committee. It is made up of manufacturers, a banker and some merchants.

"Apparently he wants to see where the lightning will strike in the old party conventions when it is well-known that both will be dominated by special privilege as they have been for many years. Then of course, if will be time to denounce them some more.

Well, We Know Now. "It is well that his position is known before the St. Paul meeting is held. His position will possibly
