WHISKY AND FLAGS INSPIRE G. O. P.

By ROBERT MINOR, Staff Writer and Cartoonist of the Daily Worker

LEVELAND, June 8.—Patriotism is the last resort of---the republican convention. Flags? The city is choked with flags. Also peanuts, hot dogs, badges, free cigars, whisky and noise. These also are patriotism.

As the scene of a cut-and-dried convention, all sewed up and with no surprises, Cleveland is rather excited. With nobody hoping to gain anything except job hunters and the big invisible powers which already have everything pocketed, with not a cause or even a popular personality to yell for, there is nothing for anybody to do but bust with patriotism.

like sardines, smoking the stinkingest cigars ever known and trundling some of the biggest bellies ever seen. Tall, short, lean and fat, country-clad and city swell—all have that same blank visage, the delegate's face. Gradually you begin to separate the types. By the half-dozen you locate the "boob" delegates, the plain, stolid, passive type that comes to conventions and obeys orders just for the railroad trip and a badge and the yelling. Then you notice the more nervous type, sitting in corners, earnestly whispering, or floor-walking the lobby to gather up the boobs by twos and threes to march them away somewhere—the petty job-hunting type. Now and then the more composed, hardfaced fellows—as yet anonymous—whose names you'll get to know later on. Already fingers begin to point; these are the real go-getters, givers of orders in a small way.

These are the early arrivals for the convention. The really

SELLING OUT THE NEGROES

In my hotel-of course a cheap one-are lodged the delegates from two southern states and Hawaii and Porto Rico. To see their faces here brings a twinge to the heart. As I watch a Negro delegate from Alabama, lounging in the old-fashioned and faded finery of a "Prince Albert" coat and big, black Stetson hat, I recall the speech of the leader of the republican party, President Harding, who went to a southern city to commit himself and his party "uncompromisingly against every suggestion of social equality." Of course it was a plea for the southern white Hughes' Mexican Deats. vote. It meant a promise that the republican party from then on would support the southern ruling class in keeping its Negro working class and tenant farmers in semi-slavery. "Social" is venezuela, Costa Rica, Argentina, a word applied to any kind of equality that one plans to rob the Czechoslovakia or the Portuguese col-

GENTLEMEN FARMER CANDIDATES

Who will be nominated for vice-president? is about the only juestion, and, as far as I can judge from their talk, nobody cares. The jobs are given out by the president, not by the vice-presi- Harvey, ambassador in London, to dent. And probably most of these early arrivals haven't yet been Lord Curzon, dated Sept. 15, 1921: told whom they are to vote for for vice-president.

There is a little talk of Capper-Senator Arthur Capper of Kansas—for vice-president. He sports the now priceless title of 'farmer"-and some of "farmer stuff" has to be pulled this year. Capper is a farmer as Secretary of Labor Davis is a "laborer"that is, Davis somehow hornswoggled a union card about forty years ago, but owns a bank and is a millionaire for a living. Capper is a "farmer" in the sense that he is proprietor of several big newspapers, some of which specialize in promoting bankers' propaganda among farm readers.

FARMS WITH GOLF STICK

But, as far as anyone here is talking about anything but Delegates Uninstructed where to get tickets and drinks, Frank O. Lowden seems to be the most talked-of "farmer." Yes, Lowden is a "farmer"-you can get away with anything here. Lowden farms with a golfstick. Otherwise he is the multi-millionaire part-owner of the Pullman corporation.

HUGHES ACTS AS AGENT FOR STANDARD OIL

Bare His Activities

(By Federated Press)

WASHINGTON, June 8-Senate Document 97, 68th Congress. 1st session, entitled "Oil concessions in foreign countries," is at last printed, after many weeks of delay from the time the State respondence at the demand of the Senate. It affords evidence that the State Department has been as active in getting profitable new territory for Standard Oil and Sinclair and Doheny as was Albert Fall or Edwin Denby.

There are 17 papers dealing with oil in Burma, 11 papers in the correspondence on Mesopotamian oil, 12 as to Palestine oil, 12 as to oil in the Dutch Pace

Mr. Hughes denies that he has had any diplomatic correspondence dealonies. The frankness of Hughes as Hughes and the British diplomats and foreign ministers deal with the worldwide struggle between Standard Oil and the Royal Dutch Shell, which is alleged by Standard to be financially controlled by the British government. The British foreign office denies this ownership or control, and Hughes cannot prove it.

Here is a typical letter from George

Interceding for Standard.

'The American ambassador presents his compliments to his majesty's secretary of state for foreign affairs and has the honor to refer to conversations held in March and April, 1920, between Sir John Tilley of the foreign office and Mr. Wright, counsel of the embassy. . . and a conference on the 9th instance, arranged by Mr. Lindsay of the foreign office, at which were present Mr. Schuckburgh and Major Young of the foreign office; Mr. L. I. Thomas of the Standard Oil company and Mr. Wright, all relative to the desire of the Standard Oil of New York that representatives of that company now in Jerusalem be permitted to continue geological examinations of the areas covered by their rights or concessions in Palestine, which examinations were commenced prior to the outbreak of the war in 1914.

Harvey Urged Haste.

"In accordance with telegraphic instructions just received from his government, Mr. Harvey now has the honor to reiterate this request.

"Accordingly, Mr. Thomas, who is in London for a short time only but who will be compelled to leave within a few days on account of urgent business, holds himself in readiness to co-operate with the authorities of his majesty's government and with the embassy to such ends, and adds to the request of the department of state his earnest hope that an early decision may be reached by his majesty's government, in view of the fact that the rainy season in Palestine commences about Dec. 1, and that delay which might compel postponement of operations until next spring would increase the inconvenience and expense already incurred by the company." The British played for time, but and Harvey demanded in its behalf.

(By The Federated Press)

WASHINGTON, June 8 .- A bill aimed to prevent the negotiation of further loans of American credit to bolster up bankrupt military governments abroad, and to prevent American financiers from taking part in diplomatic activities abroad, has been introduced by Senator Shipstead. It is aimed at the Morgan loan to Poincare, but it covers likewise the loans to Latin-American countries and the dollar diplomacy in Peking, Tokio and middle Europe.

Shipstead points out that some $20,000,000,000 of American credits have been taken by the bankers and used to carry the present debt of Europe to this country, and that these frozen assets have had a very great share in the ruin of American agriculture and for the approaching industrial storm which may wreck American manufactures.

DAILY WORKER CAMPAIGN FOR THE CLASS FARMER-LABOR PARTY WINS MUCH PRAISE FROM MILITANTS

THE part played by the DAILY WORKER in the struggles of the workers since it was founded has brought forth commendation and praise from those who have the welfare of labor at heart. It has been in the forefront of every fight to better the conditions of those who toil and point out the ultimate goal to their emancipation from wage slavery.

* * * * But at no period has the DAILY WORKER been able to render such service to the progressive march of the producers as in the present mighty push toward a class Farmer-Labor party. The only daily working class paper in America to energetically wage a campaign for the June 17 convention. it has won for itself a proud position in the hearts of the militant workers of the United States.

The following letters from C. A. Hathaway, Secretary-Treasurer of the Committee on Arrangements of the National Farmer-Labor-Progressive Convention to be held in St. Paul on June 17, sends in his appreciation in the following

St. Paul. Minn., June 4, 1924.

Dear Comrade Engdahl:-

In the office of the National Arrangements Committee for the June 17 convention, I have an opportunity to look thru a great many labor and farm papers.

Our committee sends out a weekly press service to about six hundred of these papers. Many of them publish the matter which we send, but no paper in America, daily or weekly, has given the space to the agitation for a national Farmer-Labor party that has been given by the DAILY

The aggressive campaign conducted by the DAILY WORKER has won for it the praise of every militant worker in the Farmer-Labor movement.

The members of the Workers Party should take advantage of the present situation caused by the betrayal of LaFollette to boost the circulation and thus the influence of their paper. The DAILY WORKER will be one of the greatest factors in bringing about the class Farmer-Labor party in this country.

Fraternally yours, C. A. HATHAWAY.

"Communists Did It!" Say Labor Leaders

LONDON, June 8.—A strike which is sedited to Communists by labor officials has paralyzed London's gigantic network of subways today.

Power house workers in approximately two-thirds of the city's plants overruled objections of organized labor leaders and walked out.

Not more than 10 per cent of the subway trains, which carry millions to and from work each day, were in operation and street cars, busses and cabs were unable to handle the over-

Many thousands tramped to work from the subways.

The power house workers demanded an advance of 10 shillings a week and a minimum wage of £3 a week, with one week's paid vacation each Discredited

Labor leaders declared the strike unofficial and charged that Communist influences were back of it.

KVALINSK, Russia.-The John Reed colony of 50 children in an old monastery near Kvalinsk, who have now lived almost unaided through a pioneering winter, give me this list of things they need.

It is amazing how well they manage on so little. They want a medicine chest, with quinine, iodine, sulphur ointment, and the simple things needed in a rough, new land for malaria, itch and infected wounds.

They ask for tools, knives for struction.

Last autumn when I visited Kvalinsk and saw the difficulties, I saw also a fine estate down the river. The government would give it to them for nothing, if they had the means to run it. But they lack the $5000 which would keep the place going till harvest. After the first harvest it would support a thousand children.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 8 .- The decision of the Pueblo Indians of New Mexico to offer passive resistance to attempts by the federal government to abrogate their ancient religion has caused much sympathetic feeling among friends of the Indians in California. The San Francisco Methodist Ministers' Association has protested to Secretary of the Interior Work, pleading that the Indians be left their tribal customs, and a nucleus was formed to fight in the Indians' behalf.

Government Stops Tribal Rites. The point of the controversy lies in the government's insistence that Indian boys be no longer kept out of school for a year, as has been the custom, to prepare them for the religious rites of adolescence-sort of novitate for the tribal priesthood. While These Are Busy Are You Content?

Every DAILY WORKER Reader Sell a Sub Before July 1.

While the Honor Roll is being printed in full it is interesting to note who are the individual champion DAILY WORKER boosters. The present campaign has not been waged for individual honors. It has been intended to stimulate organized effort for THE DAILY WORKER. Yet the final summary of the success of the campaign would not be complete without a special commendation of those loyal militants who have led the way in making THE DAILY WORKER what it is-the most influential labor paper published anywhere in the English language. Those who have made a habit of reading the Power Column carefully have noticed how often certain names have appeared. Those who now read, especially those who have not exerted themselves on behalf of THE DAILY WORKER cannot but note the gulf which separates them from the real missionaries of the advancing working class.

Read These Names. They Are the Ones That Make History.

Five true militants have sold over fifty DAILY WORKER subscriptions each! Eight more have sold over twenty subs apiece! Scores have sold ten or more! Then is there a single reader who, if he will, cannot bring at least one new reader into THE DAILY WORKER fold? Cannot add at least one new soldier to the militants' army? Militants of America! Meet with a group who are making their militancy count! Number of new subs is helpless. They are the mass organization of sideration of all like paper organizations.

"Into the Trade Unions" is therefore the first slogan of action for serious revolutionists. Without the winning of the trade unions for the revolution the capitalist system cannot be overthrown to make way for a Communist society. It is the necessary application of the principle of Communist activity embodied in the slogan, "Go to the

After five years teaching of the Communist International it seems strange that such a fundamental should have to be repeated again and again for the benefit of workers calling themselves Communists. But the fundamental human weakness, laziness and fear of the struggle, constantly produces those who would look for short-cuts to the revolution. They see the bitter struggles necessary to carry on revolutionary work on the unions. They see the expulsions, the discriminations, the hardships inflicted upon Communists thruout the labor movement by the old bureaucrats and agents of the bourgeoisie.

These weak comrades cry out against the hard road given them to travel. It would be so much nicer to have comfortable, Communist unions, where one believed in the revolution, where all crats were unknown. Clearing the Ground

For more than a generation, American revolutionary unionists have had their minds befuddled by the maze of conflicting and dual unions in existence. And the greatest confusion was caused, so far as the rebels were concerned, by those organizations which existed principally in the minds leading financial agencies as to the of a few zealots in the form of blue-printed pro- fact that the economic conditions have grams for the millenium.

But the ground is gradually being cleared. One of the "ideal" unions that existed only in ideas, of the depression and its duration, of the steel industy is more than usual ber of workers and their working time that in the event of a reduction in the Chicago, Illinois the Workers International Industrial Union (W. rather than on a debate as to its exist-I. Fortunately Christians do not take their God seriously, else the rest of us would have to travel in armored cars and wear coats of mail while at work. It takes a lot of nerve for a man to proclaim himself a Christian nowadays, but it beats the devil to hear a minister throwing up his hands in horror over a breach of the moral code. The recent widely advertised murder was horrible, but it was merely a fine exhibition of tenderness compared to the instructions given by Jehovah to the children of Israel when on a murder campaign who were ordered to kill all the men folk and old women but save the viroff his troops that way. If Christians do not consider murder a cardinal virtue, it is not Jehovah's fault.
