Bosses Get Everything, Workers Nothing

(Special to the DAILY WORKER)

NEW YORK, July 10.-Leaders of the International Ladies Garment Workers Union offered further concessions to employers in secret conferences held in the last two days. The conces-sions, which further modify the Smith agreement in favor of the bosses, give the jobbers the right to purchase garments outside of the metropolitan districts with-out the sanitary label, thus nullifying a minor advantage gained by the union.

The jobbers organizations have accepted the modified terms and it is expected that the reorganization strike of 32,000 cloakmakers will be quickly terminated. The stoppage of work was declared pending the ratification of a contract based on the Smith award.

Eighteen thousand other cloakmakers are on strike against those independent manufacturers which had not accepted the commission's finding as yet. Since the organized employers find the Smith terms satisfactory, with the later modifications, the lesser

DONKEYS BRAY DOWN DELEGATE'S WARNING OF INDUSTRIAL CRISIS

By ROSE PASTOR STOKES. (Special to The DAILY WORKER.) NEW YORK, July 10 .- Pandemonium reigned in the democratic convention when a rash delegate referred to the industrial crisis. The audacious reference was made by Delegate Sinsmore of Massachusetts, the youngest man in the donkey meet, during a nominating speech. He was howled down by the entire convention.

Shouts of "Are you trying to raise the red flag?" came from outraged politicians who had just put over Morgan's lawyer for first place on the ticket.

"I'm not a Bolshevik, but," cried back Sinsmore,-he got no further.

Our Election Campaign and the Farmer-Labor Party

N June, 1922, our party declared, in a mani- paign thru its organization, or whether it festo dealing with the application of the United Front policy in the United States, that the problem of the United Front politically was the problem of the formation of a Labor Party.

Since that time the party has carried on a consistent United Front campaign with the end in view of uniting those workers and farmers who were ready to break with the capitalist parties in a mass Farmer-Labor Party with which the Workers Party would be affiliated. This campaign has been the major political campaign of our party.

We have during this campaign advanced the cause of independent working class ac-tion and made the Farmer-Labor Party an issue in the American labor movement. We can also say, without danger of the statement being challenged, that our party had made the greatest gains for itself thru this campaign for the Labor Party. It is thru this Farmer-Labor Party campaign that our party has established itself as a political force in the United States. It is thru this campaign that it has established its prestige and it leadership among the masses of work-ers and farmers. Nothing has contributed so much to develop our party from a secturian group to a recognized political force in the life of the labor movement of this country than our manouvers in relation to the Farmer-Labor Party.

The Central Executive Committee declares that the campaign for a Farmer-Labor Party was a correct estimation of the situation in the United States. It declares further that the campaign for the Farmer-Labor Party inued and will be a major cam paign of the party in the future. We must, however, consider fundamentally the situation which our party faces in the present election campaign. The June 17 Farmer-Labor Party was not successful in mobilizing all the Farmer-Labor forces of the United States for a Farmer-Labor Party campaign. The convention made tentative nominations and adopted a tentative platform and organization plan. It was considered possible that the Farmer-Labor elements which still adhered to the Conference for Progressive Political Action would break away from that conference when it again betrayed their hopes for a Farmer-Labor Party and that an alliance with these forces ery company in the world and wanted to see it in action. I had would create the basis for the Farmer-Labor Party campaign in this election struggle. The group in the Conference for Progres-sive Political Action which is for a Farmer-Labor Party did not have sufficient courage to take a stand for the principle of class Farmer-Labor action in the United States. Without protest it accepted the LaFollette dictatorship and became the tail to the LaFollette petty bourgeois progressive movement. The Conference for Progressive Poliitcal Action has become a petty bourgeois progressive United Front extending from LaFollette to Debs. It is the supreme duty of our party to raise against this petty bourgeois progressive alli-ance which is misleading the workers the slogan of revolutionary class action. LaFollette is a menace to the labor movement. It is placing the workers under the leadership of the petty bourgeois-a class with a program in direct contradiction to the interests of the workers and liquidating their class movement. If the Farmer-Labor Party as formed at St. Paul represented a real United Front unifying a mass movement of farmers and workers which would stand firm and crary on the fight against LaFolletteism and the petty bourgeois progressive alliance, un-questionably the fight against LaFolletteism should be made thru the Farmer-Labor Party. Part of the organizations participating in the June 17 convention are themselves infected with LaFolletteism and will be swept along in the wake of the LaFollette petty bourgeois progressive movement. Our party, therefore, faces the question whether it shall participate in a Farmer-Labor Party campaign in which the Workers Party will have to bear the brunt of the work and will have to largely conduct the cam-shall conduct a Communist campaign against LaFolletteism in the name of the Workers Party. A campaign in the name of the Farmer-Labor Party would, in the face of the Cleveland betrayal, unite only a relatively small part of the Farmer-Labor forces with the Workers Party. On the other hand, our party would be greatly hampered in its agitation and propaganda and could not use the political campaign for the direct upbuild-ing of the party, if the campaign were conducted under the name of the Farmer-Labor Party. The United Front campaign is only of value to our party if it unites with us large groups of workers for common action. The degree to which this would be true in the Farmer-Labor campaign is not sufficient for a United Front campaign. The Central Ex-ecutive Committee of the party, therefore, has unanimously decided that the Workers Party shall enter the campaign in its own name, nominate Communist candidates and conduct a Communist campaign.

The alignment in the election will be the capitalist republican and democratic parties, the LaFollette petty bourgeois progressive alliance, and the Workers Party raising the slogan of working class action on a Communist program against the capitalist and against the petty bourgeois misleaders of the workers. This situation should nerve every member of our party for the most aggressive and militant struggle our party has ever made.

OUR PROGRAM

Our program and policy during the campaign will be the following:

Communist candidates are in the field this year against the Wall Street parties and the so-called "progressives."

This result was achieved when the National Conference of the Workers Party, meeting yesterday, following the withdrawal of the St. Paul ticket of the Farmer-Labor Party nominated:

WILLIAM Z. FOSTER, of Illinois, for President; BEN GITLOW, of New York, for Vice-President. the state of the state of the state

The Workers Party Conference was held at Imperial Hall, 2409 North Halsted St., immediately following the gathering of the National Executive Committee of the Farmer-Labor Party.

In withdrawing the St. Paul candidates, the Farmer-Labor Executive Committee declared that the Farmer-Labor forces of the United States must throw their support to the candidates of the Workers Party, to fight against the betrayal of independent political action of the Conference for Progressive Political Action at Cleveland, Ohio, July 4th.

Fifty delegates from the various cities and states thruout the country were called together by the Central Executive Committee of the Workers Party to decide the carrying out of the Workers Party campaign in view of these new developments.

"The Workers Party of America raises the banner of independent working class action, the establishment of a workers' and farmers' government, and the overthrow of the capitalist system. In the face of the complete surrender of the labor unions, and many of the elements on record for the establishment of a Farmer-Labor Party, who at Cleveland, on July 4th, turned over their movement to middle class politicians, bankers, merchants, etc., and accepted without protest the most reactionary political platform yet laid before the workers, there is only one course left open for the Communist movement of America-to carry out a clean-cut Communist campaign against La Folletteism and against the capitalist system, and to call upon the workers everywhere to rally to the Workers Party as the only center of resistance to capitalism, as the only party of revolution, as the only fighter for even such elementary needs of the workers as the establishment of a Farmer-Labor Party."

This was the keynote of the opening statement made by C. E. Ruthenberg, Executive Secretary of the Workers Party, in opening the Party conference. The meeting proceeded to the

Another Smith Article Soon

In this issue of the DAILY WORKER, Philip Smith, university graduate and an engineer, tells the DAILY WORKER some of the secret workings of the International Harvester company's tractor plant. Mr. Smith, after being passed from one boss to another, finally drew reluctant permission from the assistant works manager, with offices in the Harvester building, to go thru the tractor works of the company. Mr. Smith was so impressed by the DAILY WORKER articles on the Harvester Trust that he consented to write an article exposing some of the bad conditions in the plant. Mr. Smith will have another article in the DAILY WORKER next week.

1. To run candidates nationally, in the states, and locally, under the name of the Workers Party, wherever it is possible for us to put these candidates on the ballot, this to include the nomination of presidential electors in every state in which we can get on the ballot.

2. The National Executive Committee of the Farmer-Labor Party formed at St. Paul has endorsed the candidates of the Workers Party in this campaign and called upon all Farmer-Labor groups who stand for working class action to support these candidates. Our party shall urge all local and state Farmer-Labor Party organizations to endorse the Workers Party candidates, maintaining their organization intact and using them to support the Workers Party campaign during the election struggle, thus also preparing the ground for continuance of the fight for the Farmer-Labor Party after the election campaign.

MORGAN GIVEN PLEDGE OF AID BY MACDONALD

British Armed Forces to Back Dawes Plan

(Special to the DAILY WORKER)

PARIS, July 10 .--- Ramsay MacDonald, British labor party premier, has pledged his aid to Premier Herriot in the enforcement of the Dawes plan for exacting reparations from Germany. That is the net result of the hasty visit the Englishman has just terminated.

Banking circles are delighted with MacDonald's assent to their program and his virtual assurance that the Morgan loan is backed by the armed forces of the British Empire.

The democratic convention is finished. And so is the democratic party. But not so suddenly. Wall Street evidently has decided to adopt the suggestion of Frank Munsey to liquidate one of the two old capitalist parties and leave the way open for one party of rock-ribbed reactionaries to present a united front to a party of so-called progressives.

FOR PRESIDENT.

WILLIAM Z. FOSTER was born at Taunton, Massachusetts, Feb. 25, 1881, Father, Irish. Mother English. One of 23 children.

Went to work at 10 years of age, after only three years of schooling. Has been successively a sculptor's apprentice, type founder, factory worker, steam engineer, steam fitter, railroad brakeman, railroad fireman, logger, salesman, street car motorman, longshorman, farmer, laborer, deep water sailor, and many other occupations. Principal trade at present is railroad car inspector. is a member of the Brotherhood of Railway Carmen of America, affiliated to the American Federation of Labor.

Joined the socialist movement in 1900. Remained in the right wing for a few years, then began moving toward the left. In 1909 was expelled with the left wing of the Socialist Party by reactionary national socialist bureaucracy in the State of Washington. Refused to join that organization again. Instead, he joined the Industrial Workers of the World, and took an active part in the Spokane free speech fight, being arrested in connection therewith. In 1910, went to Europe, spending 13 months there studying the labor movement in France, Germany, Austria and other coun-Was a delegate from the tries. I. W. W. to the Budapest meeting, 1910, of the International Trade Unions Secretariat, and contested the seat of the A. F. of L. delegate to that body, but unsuccessfully.

During the European trip Foster became a convinced syndicalist. Also came to the conclusion that the I. W. W. policy of dual unionism was wrong. Came back to America and travelled over the country trying to induce the I. W. W. and other revolutionaries to reioin the trade union movement. Took part in the formation of the Syndicalist League of North America in 1911, an organization to organize the militant minority in the trade unions. This organization carried on considerable activity. but died in 1914 because the revolutionary movement was entirely taken up with the dual union idea. Helped, also, to organize the International Trade Union Educational League in 1916. This died for the same reason as its predecessor.

During the war period was active in the trade unions, being secretary of the committee that organized 200,000 packing house workers in 1917. After this, in 1918, was secretary of the committee that organized 250,000 steel workers and conducted the great 1919 strike of 400,-000 steel workers.

In the spring of 1921, made a trip to Russia, attending the congresses BENJAMIN GITLOW, member of the Central Executive Committee of the Workers Party of America, is American born and is now 32 years old. He has been an active member of the trade union movement since 1913, first in the Retail Clerks' Union of New York and since 1918 in the Amalgamated Clothing Workers. Gitlow was president of the clerks' union for two years and in 1914 was one of the most vigorous participants in the big unemployment demonstrations in New York, which were chelfly under I. W. W. leadership. He organized the first of these demonstrations, which was composed solely of working class women.

In 1910 Gitlow joined the Socialist Party. In 1917, on an anti-war platform and in opposition to conscription, he was elected as a Socialist to the New York state legislature for one year. In 1918 he associated himself as the only parliamentary representative with the Left Wing of the Socialist Party. He was elected to the Executive Committee of the Left Wing at its first conference in New York City and later served on the Executive Council of the national Left Wing. Gitlow conducted an energetic fight in the Left against the wrong tactics of the Russian Federation group led by Nicholas Hourwich. The English speaking elements in the organization supported Gitlow. John Reed, who died in Moscow, became associated with Gitlow at this time and they were in the group that organized the Communist Labor Party. In 1918-19 Gitlow became connected with the Revolutionary Age, official organ of the Left Wing, and with the Voice of Labor, edited then by John Reed.

On November 8, 1919, Gitlow was one of the first Communists arrested and was the first in the United States to be placed on trial for being a Communist. He was sentenced to ten years, of which he served three in prison and is now out on bond pending an appeal. He is under indictment in New York state on another charge and is under indictment in Michigan. During his life in the revolutionary movement of America, Gitlow has been connected with both parts, the economic and the political. He has served on the Central Executive of the Communist Labor Party: been a member of the Central Executive of the Communist Party; and of the Workers Party when the

From among the happy workers in the crowd there would be one here, one there, now over there, thrust up by his fellows to call for a cheer for his group or for their work or for some department of government or for some individual.

French Communists Arrive.

Suddenly from many sides the stirring strains of "The International" rang out from the bands and the multitude sang lustily while a little group of French Communists from the Seine department marched down one of the aisles with one of the faded and tattered little red flags of the Paris Commune flying above their heads. The French comrades mounted to the very top platform and presented their flag to Kalinin, head of the All-Russian Soviets, who turned and gave it to a deputation of Moscow workers.

(Afterwards the workers' paper, the Cartoon, said: "We will restore this red flag of the old Commune to new Communist Paris after we have paraded it in triumph thruout the world.")

Speeches Short.

Rykov. chief the Council of Commissars, and various foreign delegates made brief speeches, and then the huge mass of people was easily shifted into groups around the various outlying wooden platforms. On some of the stages gaily garbed athletes were performing acrobatic stunts or feats of skill; on others_children were drilling to music; on still others amateur theatrical troupes were amusing the audience with their antics. On one platform there was a wild snake dance to the famous French tune, "Carmagnole," which may have been an allegory of new Russia. In the chowd there was a generous sprinkling of foreign elements. English Communists from the docks of the Clyde were in their square-cut black "Sunday best." Girls in simple lightcolored frocks were interspersed like flowers among the heavy robed Mohammedans from Turkestan and Tartar Republic, in flowing browns and reds. One magnificent Caucasian tribesman created quite a sensation even here, where people are accustomed to unusual costumes from faraway places. The tribesman's cloak was gray and heavy with silver trappings, knives, cartridge case and scimitar shining.

Davis and Bryan

ended. Those who looked forward to the party lette banner. of Woodrow Wilson becoming progressive have been keenly disappointed. From the platform down, every step taken by the convention, every resolution adopted, every word uttered, every manhas been in the interest of capitalist reaction.

The apogee of reaction is of course reached in the choice of standard bearers. When John W. Davis was put over by the Brennan-Taggart-Hague-Guffey alliance after the 100th or the 103rd ballot it was obvious that big capital has secured unquestioned and unquestionable domination in the democratic party. The petty bourgeois interests, the agrarian interests, the cotton interests of the South and the rising capitalist interests of the West have all been crushed by the industrial area.

John W. Davis is a sturdy, tried and true steed bred and trained in the filthiest stables of the biggest business interests. Davis is entitled to wear the badge of capitalist reaction even more than Coolidge. Davis is a professional expert in the service of Wall Street. He is not only inclined to serve the ruling capitalist clique, but he is an adept at delivering the goods. Davis is not only the legal brains of the House of Morgan, but he is the international mainspring of the House of Rockefeller. Enjoying the backdoor confidence of the leading industrial and financial group in the country, Davis is the best possible man the democrats could have chosen to win the necassary financial support for waging the coming campaign.

The choice of Charles Bryan of Nebraska, champion of sundry coal schemes and a handful of sham progressive measures, as a running mate for Davis, is a useless attempt to appeal to the rural masses of the West and Northwest. Bryan is a third rate non-entity in national politics. He cannot prove a source of strength to the democrats. Bryan cannot serve effectively as a fig leaf for the ugly hand of big capital now clutching the democratic party.

Presidential Candidates

Well, well, well! So that was what it was all about! The one-hundred-and-three ballots were for the purpose of putting the attorney of J. P. Morgan & Co. on the democratic ticket, to balance the presence of Charles G. Dawes, member of the Morgan system, on the republican. Wall Street wants to take no chances this year, so it would seem, of having a one-hundred-percenter. One little, teeney-weeney concession to the Protestant, Ku Klux middle classes of the middle west, is given in the naming of Brother Bryan as running mate to Davis. Without question the decision in New York makes the candidacy of LaFollette, more overwhelmingly than ever the candidacy of the middle class, of the small bankers, merchants, professional men, and rich farmers. What there may have been of a labor tinge given to LaFollette by the C. P. P. A. gathering at Cleveland, is overwhelmed in the flood of aspiring young lawyers that will sweep into the LaFollette train and will At last the democratic circus at New York has file for office as "independents" under the LaFol-

It seems a shame that those poor ladies and gentlemen who had the ceremonial duty of ratifying the choice of Davis should have been held in New York for so long in the hot July weather. But that is the way things are done in the U.S.A. ouver engaged in, every blow struck by the bosses and things are done in the very best possible way in the best of all possible lands-etc., etc., etc.,

What Ails Justice?

Attorney General Harlan F. Stone has just told the American Bar Association that the standards of justice were slipping fast in the United States. Mr. Stone attributes the "decline of justice" in the last generation to the fact that men of insufficient education and moral responsibility have been entering the law profession. He also proposes "non-partisan" Wall Street group of the Eastern that the office of public prosecutor be taken out of politics.

> We have no quarrel with the attorney general as to his low estimate of American justice. In so far as the working class is concerned there is no such animal like justice. The American courts have for many years been the stables of the sturdy steeds of capitalism. Our aristocarcy of the robe has become an aristocracy rivalling in tyranny the ruling agents of the dominant classes of the past. President Benjamin Harrison has once declared that "The principal function of the law is to keep the poor in subjection." This has been the history of justice for the workers in capitalist Amer-

First of all, the whole system of justice and legal satisfaction is entirely too expensive for the great mass of workers and poor farmers and is beyond their reach. One need not but examine the findings of the Carnegie Foundation for the Advancement of Teaching on this phase of the law published under the caption of "Justice and the Poor," by Reginald Heber Smith.

Then it would be the nethermost point of foolhardiness to expect the judges who stick their legs under the tables of the financial magnates every millionaire publisher is disappointed is wanted.

and is now the handmaiden of Big | marks a stage of incipient capitalist Even William Randolph Hearst, Business. A new middle class party disintegration. It is to be expected that various saviours and nostrum

Instead of organizing this party, La mongers will appear to offer their horse at the Madison Square convenmorning. The report submitted by the Lockwood Housing Committee in New York affords over-whelming evidence of the harshness of the treat.

AS WE SEE IT By T. J. O'FLAHERTY

"We cannot even keep our reactionary democrats from voting for Coolidge and Dawes." declared William Jennings Bryan in an interview shortly before the democratic convention nominated-John W. Davis of the House of Morgan by acclamation. Bryan, it is presumed, joined in making the nomination unanimous. "The nomination of a reactionary," continued Bryan, would not be for the purpose of electing a democrat, but to insure the election of Coolidge and Dawes. Davis is the reactionary, and if Wall Street has the motive attributed to it by Bryan, it has achieved its aim. . . .

The present convention is looked upon by many as marking the real beginning of the disintegration of the democratic party. The extreme right of that party and its republican competitor no longer has any fundamental basis of disagreement. The tariff issue is hardly mentioned these days. Only the advantages of office have kept the donkey crowd in the field against the elephant followers for some time. A new alignment of political forces is evidently taking place. Insurgent republicans line up with disgruntled democrats. On all important issues favored by Big Business extreme right democrats and republicans hang together. Bryan states quite clearly that Wall Street owns both parties. Bryan pretends to believe that if Wall Street cou'd be eliminated the democratic Party could be purified. But it is just as easy to say that the elimination of capitalism would give the donkey a clean bill of health. Wall Street and capitalism are synonomous.

LaFollette is leading the small capitalists, and other bourgeois element including the labor bankers, in a foray against Wall Street. Wall Street cares as much for the LaFollette outfit as a dog does for a particularly active flea. But the flea does not kill the dog, tho it causes him temporary discomfort. The dog eventually kills the flea. At least he outlives him. The La Follette flea-biting campaign may be the nuclei of a party of opposition to the republican party, taking the place of the donkey party which promises to become a historical memory, tho it must not be assumed that it will just wag its ears and die right away. The lemocrats who see in the nomination of Davis, a crossing of the donkey with the elephant may rally to the political scanvenger LaFollette, but working class will find no salvation from the broom of '76. What they want is a party that will not aim at sweeping the dirt of capitalism but will sweep capitalism itself off the

AS USUAL

If you want to see BUSINESS AS USUAL Take a look at our street!

That fine corner building Where workers put their savings

And surgical instruments Shine behind polished glass

Where working men's wives Come out with KEROSENE With little colored dogs Designed for a nursery

Across the street Is the Gosmoloko (City Milk Company) Which has hundreds Of clean little shops All over the city, And the Co-operative Food Store And the Tea and Coffee House Of the Central Tea Management And Crimean wines Of the Government Wine Trust And a neat little restaurant Run by the GOSPIET A newly formed company Whose shares are owned By the Health Department And the State Supply Department And the Restaurant Workers' Union. Now here Are little workshops "ARTEL 59" Of Moscow Boot Workers, And "Artel 156" Of Moscow Clothing Workers, And a store of electrical goods Run by an "artel" Of electrical workers. Where you deal directly

With trade unionists Co-operatively organized Sharing work and profits.

Oh, yes

There were half a dozen stores Of regular private trade

But you didn't notice them They are so shabby. They pay such high RENTS To the CITY That most of them are trying To sell out To some State Trust Or to reorganize As a WORKERS' artel But the State Trusts Only take the best ones, And the Workers' Artels Only accept the bosses Whom they can really trust To become WORKERS!

AMBASSADOR TO HELP PUT DAWES CHAINS ON WORKERS OF GERMANY?

WASHINGTON, July 10 .- American Ambassador to Germany Houghton has engaged passage on the North German Lloyd steamer Columbus, sailing from New York Thursday for Europe. Houghton had intended to remain longer in this country. His hurried return to Europe may have some connection with the forthcoming conference of allied premiers at London at which execution of the Dawes report will be discussed.

Bryan killed himself politically ticket," which proves how slightly the smell of Wall Street on Davis offended the Commoner's nostrils. The nomination of Davis was a clever piece of work and Wall Street deserves credit for the job.

William Hard, hardboiled correspondent, manages to hit the truth once in a while. He has cleverly shown in a series of articles that La Follette is not a progressive but a re actionary. LaFollette wants to return to the days of small capitalism and competition. He is not in favor o government ownership of large indus try. He just wants to scramble the egg and watch the fun trying to pu it together again. His egg is a bi stale and does not smell good.

Premier MacDonald of England an Herriot of France are co-operating i the effort to put across the Dawes rej arations plan. This plan would bin the German workers to the chariot c the international bankers. The Ge man workers would be obliged to pa the damages levied against the Ge man ruling class for their failure t win the world war. This is one of th greatest crimes ever committe against any working class, yet w find the so-called radicals and socia ists taking the lead in trying to pu it into working order so that Morga and company can put their money work. In Germany the most arden supporter of the plan is the sociali party.
