COMMUNISTS' ANTI-CAPITALIST WAR WEEK WILL WAKE UP WORKERS

The world-wide anti-capitalist war demonstrations of hundreds of thousands of workers and farmers will add fuel to the fire of protest which is flaming up in the United States over the militarist gesture of "Defense Day," September 12. Even President Coolidge has been aroused to dissemble the real purpose of the "mobilization day" because of criticism against the war-jingoists.

The Communists are leading the attack this week, the anniversary of the outbreak of the World War, on all wars of imperial capital. All over the world there will be mass meetings to cry out against the leading of innocent workers to slaughter for the protection or aggression of some capitalists' profits. President Coolidge will have to do a lot more than the statement. He admits it and a fitting observance of the 10th talking (even the that is unusual enough for him) to delude the working drives it home to one of the big anniversary of the world war, people of the United States into believing "Defense Day" is any more than

As an integral part of the Party's work, as a part of the program second to none in importance, is the great Membership-DAILY WORKER Sub campaign, which is now under way. Above all, the task of our party is to increase its membership from the growing army of rebellious, but leaderless workers; to influence and inspire that still larger mass of dissatisfied workers who have not as yet a conception of the class struggle, who by reason of their conditions of life are ripe for Communist propaganda. To begin the fulfillment of this task, the party now campaigns and lays down as the obligation of every

Every member of the Workers Party will want to have these two stamps of Communist merit in his dues book. The stamps are not hard to secure. Bring in a new member; sell a DAILY WORKER sub, and the stamps

Capitalist Justice MEETING MONDAY Will Not Put these AT PARTY OFFICE Members Enthusiastic About New Policies Two Loebs on Trial

By J. LOUIS ENGDAHL.

TODAY, the biggest news story spread over the pages of the American daily press is the account of the Franks murder trial.

I sat thru last Saturday's session of the effort of the state's attorney of Cook County (Chicago) to send two young Jews, Nathan F. Leopold, Jr., and Richard Loeb, to

These two young Jews murdered a Jewish boy, 14-yearold Robert Franks. And there are Jews backing State's Attorney Robert E. Crowe; principally Jacob Franks, the father, and "Sammy" Ettleson, the republican politician, friend of the Franks family.

I met Kate Richards O'Hare, editor of "The Vanguard," who served her "time" in the Missouri State Penitentiary, at Jefferson City, Mo., at the trial. Mrs. O'Hare went to prison because her state of mind refused to permit her to support America's entry in the war.

She thinks that this trial will offer an excellent opportunity to study the mental twist that caused these two young men to commit murder. She doesn't believe that their necks ought to be put into a noose until they are dead. She thinks they ought to be permitted to live as laboratory subjects for experiment and study.

It doesn't make much difference to me what becomes of these two young men, central figures in the latest newspaper sensation. The DAILY WORKER has published very little about this trial, because it was felt the space was needed for other matter.. The parasite sons of multi-millionaires have been up for murder before. They usually win their freedom. Sometimes liberty comes after a long fight, as in the case of Harry Kendall Thaw, but usually the dollar wins a speedy victory. Everyone remembers the unpunished murder of a young sailor by Walter Ward, the dissolute son of the "Bread Trust" magnate.

But two figures at the trial that interested me were Jacob Loeb, uncle of the young confessed murderer, Richard Loeb, and Albert H. Loeb.

I thought that Jacob Loeb and Albert H. Loeb should have been on trial, with a broad spread of publicity, instead of Richard Loeb and Nathan Leopold.

Richard and Nathan have not yet grown old enough to do more than help spend their father's money. They are in a position to become idle parasites for the rest of their days.

But what are the crimes of Jacob Loeb and Albert H.

"Jake" Loeb is best known as one of the blackest reactionaries who ever held public office in the city of Chicago. As president of the Chicago Board of Education he did his utmost to serve big business, especially in the effort to smash the Chicago Teachers' Federation, the labor union of the public school teachers.

Albert H. Loeb is the vice-president and treasurer of the openshop Sears, Roebuck & Co., probably the world's greatest mail order house, that loots the farmers out of millions in profits each year.

Nathan Leopold and Richard Loeb committed their criminal deed upon one of their own class. Jacob Franks, the father of the murdered boy insists he will have his "revenge."

But what of the "revenge" that is due the tens and hundreds of thousands who have suffered thru the crimes of "Jake" Loeb, uncle of Richard, and Albert H. Loeb.

The Chicago Teachers' Federation was a bulwark in defense of the interests of Chicago's school children, by far the greater part of them the children of the workers. "Jake" Loeb crippled its effectiveness. "Jake" Loeb was the friend of the tax dodgers, the multi-millionaire tax dodgers, who escaped millions in taxes that should have gone toward the education of Chicago's workingclass school children. The result: children stunted in mind, unable to fight the uneven struggle for existence under capitalism; children growing up ignorant and helpless to aid in fighting the battles of their class, servile slaves under the lash of the capitalist masters. Chicago's school children point the finger of guilt at "Jake" Loeb, charging him with being one among many, under the present big business rule of Chicago's school system, guilty of helping to continue the existence of Chicago's firetrap, unsanitary, disease-breeding schools. But "Jake" Loeb is called before no court to answer for these crimes against the tender bodies and immature minds of workingclass children. They are only the wage slaves of tomorrow under capitalism.

Albert H. Loeb no doubt prides himself upon the "system" established by Sears, Roebuck & Co. The workers at "Sears" are mostly boys and girls, young men and women. They are drawn into the "Sears" sweatshop early. These workers have no union. They take the pitiable wages offered them. If the girls are lucky and live at home, and have a father to help support them, they get along. Otherwise they go the usual road of the girl whose wages will not cover her expenses; how many, at "Sears" each year, nobody knows. The grinding, ceaseless routine at "Sears" stunts minds early, puts youthful workers upon the scrap heap of industry before they are very far along in years. Human flesh is only so much fodder for the great machine that the big capitalists behind Sears, Roebuck & Co. have built up to win profits for its stockholders.

No grand jury has ever sought to measure the crimes of "Jake" Loeb and Albert H. Loeb against the working class. The labor-baiting state's attorney, Robert E. Crowe, will never bring their crimes before a grand jury or into

Only the workers and farmers, in the day that they establish their Soviet Rule, will consider these crimes worthy of judicial attention.

I am not so much interested in the verdict that will be rendered by Chief Justice John R. Caverly, in his silly black robes, dispensing capitalist justice upon the heads of two youthful victims of the social order which he uses all his power to uphold.

But I am interested in the fate that the workers and farmers will mete out to the social order of Judge Caverly and State's Attorney Crowe, and the condemnation that will fall upon the heads of its chief upholders like Jacob Loeb and Albert H. Loeb.

ON TRADE UNIONS AT 5TH CONGRESS

Heckert Warns Against Amsterdam Left-Wing

(Special to The DAILY WORKER) MOSCOW, July 7 .- (By Mail) .-Fritz Heckert of Germany, continued the report on the trade union question, begun by Losovsky, before the Fifth Congress.

Just before Heckert spoke, a delegation of the Tenth Rifle Corps of the Red Army, presented a red banner for the workers of Hamburg, in honor of the October struggle in that city. Enthusiastic demonstrations of applause ensued. A representative of the Hamburg workers received the banner with a speech of solidarity with the Red Army and the Workers' Government. After him Thalmann greeted the delegation in the name of the Presidium. A demonstration was given by the congress to Clara Zetkin, in honor of her birthday, and Manabendra Nath Roy congratulated her on behalf of the Presidium of the Describing in detail the recent struggles of the German workers, Heckert stressed the necessity of French and English miners.

The speaker pointed out the immense significance of the international workers' aid movement. He also emphasized the necessity of keeping the militant workers in close touch with the agricultural workers and small peasants. He agreed with Losovsky as to the correctness of the tactics, established by the Second Congress, in the matter of the shop nuclei system, and hoped that the lost positions would speedily be regained

In respect to the Amsterdam left wing at the Vienna Congress, the speaker warned against harboring any illusions. The attitude of the Bureau of the Czecho-Slovak section in opposing this Board of Directors has been correct. The fight of the bureau against them was a fight for Communism and for the Communist Party.

On July 15, the entire Central Executive Committee held a joint meeting with five representatives of the Board of Directors and endeavored to come to an agreement with them, but without success. Repeated appeals to them to put the unity of the Federation and the security of the paper above their own personal feelings and interests, and to propose some ways and means of co-operation with the comrades belonging to the bureau, were of no avail. The Board of Directors categorically refused to allow the leading committee of the party to have anything to say about the affairs of "SpravedInost."

Such an attitude is absolutely unpermissable in a Communist Party, and warranted their immediate expulsion. Nevertheless, the Central Executive Committee decided to exhaust the last possible resource in order to come to an understanding. It drew up and submitted to the Board of Directors for their consideration two alternate proposals, as follows:

1. That until the controversy is settled, a Board of Management consisting of two members of the present Board of Directors, two members of the Bureau, and one member of the. Central Executive Committee of the party conduct the affairs of the pa-

That, too, is a part of the international politics of the day. Persia gives us a pretext to think in military terms and develop an atmosphere that later can turn against whatever country is necessary. Japan is also handy whentheir propaganda. But the real center of the diplomats of the great capitalist countries.

The last time the British Navy held such a review, so we understand, was just before the world war, in July 1914. Of course, it is quite unpremeditated that this review should come just at the currence—if one is simple-minded enough to believe the legal fictions.

Slick Maneuvers

The official heads of the Amalgamated Clothing Workers of America are indentifying themselves with the campaign of LaFollette. In doing so they are forced to expose what they probably considered at the time a very profound political maneuver.

At the Philadelphia convention the administration proposed, as against the left-wing resolution calling for endorsement of the St. Paul Convention, that the A. C. W. of A. should go to both Cleveland and St. Paul. In order to get both right-wing and left-wing support for the straddle, they argued that St. Paul might support LaFollette on a "third party" ticket, while the A. C. W. wanted a "labor party." Joseph Schlossberg was put forward as the spokesman for the point of view that June 17th might be suspected of "opportunism." The delegates fell for the trick.

But it appears that what actually was behind the maneuver was the intention to go along with the "respectable" elements at any cost. Following a well-defined policy of "going around" opposition, and leaving it to fume and fuss after the event, tion of LaFollette as an individual candidate, not only without a semblance of a "labor party" but with a mighty poor imitation of even a "third party."

It may have been a clever maneuver, considered from a short-time view; but in the long run it was very poor politics. The Amalgamated Clothing Workers would do much better to deal with its membership more frankly and openly. It would then, even if it took a wrong attitude, contribute class, a betrayal participated in by every organized ket in competition with American la something to the political education of the membership. As it is, the contribution is to further confusion.
