HEADQUARTERS OF THE BRITISH COMMUNIST PARTY RAIDED BY SOCIALIST-LABOR GOVERNMENT

By CHARLES ASHLEIGH.
(Special Cable to The Daily Worker.)
LONDON, August 6.—Scotland Yard's Police have just raided and searched the Communist Party headquarters. For three hours truckloads of documents were hauled out of the national office.

John Ross Campbell, acting editor of the "Workers Weekly," the official organ of the Communist Party of Great Britain, and formerly editor of the "Glasgow Worker" was arrested.

A charge of sedition has been filed against Campbell because of the articles appearing in the "Weekly Worker" issues of July 25th and August 1st, appealing

Statement by the Central Executive Committee of the Workers Party

The news from London of the raid on the Communist Party headquarters and the arrest for sedition of John Ross Campbell, acting editor of the Workers Weekly, shows that the MacDonald government is ready to follow in the footsteps of Scheidemann and Noske in Germany in shooting down the workers in order to protect capitalism.

(Special to The Daily Worker) WASHINGTON, Aug. 6.—An investigation of the anthracite coal industry by the Department of Justice has disclosed no grounds for criminal or civil prosecutions. PUTTING THE WORKERS PARTY TICKET ON BALLOT IN SEVERAL IMPORTANT STATES HAS BEGUN

By C. E. RUTHENBERG Executive Secretary, Workers Party. The National and District organizations of the Workers

Party are learning thru concrete experiences how the world-famous American "democracy" works. This experience is being gained in the effort to place the Workers Party candidates on the ballot in the various states, so that the workers who support the revolutionary views of the Communists may have the opportunity to demonstrate that support by voting for Communist candidates.

candidates on the ballot. All sorts of ostacles, in the form of legal requirements are part of the election laws-obstacles which are intended to prevent minorities from expressing their will and to prevent them from fighting for the support of the voters during election campaigns.

$10,000 Democracy in New York In New York State the lawmakers have expressed their views of "democracy" in an election law which requires that a new party wishing to put candidates on the ballot must secure 12,000 signature, 50 of which must come from each county in the state. Obliging businessmen who are engaged in the business of helping along "democracy" offer to secure these necessary signatures for the sum of $10,000. the elections in New York State a minority party also needs $10,000.

In the state of Ohio the law requires more than 20,000 signatures for a new agreement between Russia and party to place its candidates on the pallot. Another expression of the unexcelled American "democracy."

Fifteen States to Go Over. In spite of all the difficulties put in the way of a new party entering the fight against the parties of the capitalist dictatorship, the Workers Party will be able to place its candidates on the ballet in a large number of states.

This afternoon, in the House of Work is now underway in Massachussetts and Rhode Island in the Privy Seal, and leader of the House Foster and Gitlow, as well as the state which seemed to indicate that an hat is sedition in the eyes of Ram- tickets will go on the ballot in these agreement had been reached between states. In Connecticut and New Jersey > the party candidates will be on the Special Work in Pennsylvania In Pennsylvania the Steel Trust is naking an effort to drive the Workers Party underground through prosecutions under the sedition laws for membership in the party. To meet this situation an extraordinary effort will be made to put the party on the ballot in that state. Some 5,600 signatures are required to accomplish. Petitions are in circulation and both the eastern and western party district organiza tion in the state are putting their energies into the work.

West Virginia makes it easy for a new party to nominate, requiring only a convention and the W. P. will go on in that reactionary state. The Ohio comrades have their petition out and are working hard for the 20,000 signatures in that state. Nominations in Michigan are assured, as the only requirement is a state convention.

In Indiana, Illinois and Wisconsin conventions have been held or are in process of organization and petitions will soon be in the field.

In the State of Minnesota the party is nominating presidential electors only, supporting the Farmer-Labor Party so far as the state and local ticket is concerned and the 2,000 signatures required will be secured. The Party will also have its state and national ticket in the field in North Dakota. Another agricultural state in which there will be a Communist column is Iowa where work has begun with good prospects of success. In the Rocky Mountain territory the W. P. will endeavor to be on the ballot in Colorado and on the Pacific slope in Washington and California.

Altogether the prospects are bright for the Workers Party ticket going over, so far as representation on the ballot is concerned in fifteen of the most important states of the union. August 10th --- Sunday which will be no mean achievement for a first effort to place a national ticket in the field.

It seems that the lawmakers in the various states have done capitalist parties to put their candidates on the ballot.

ATTORNEY GENERAL PLAYS MORGAN GAME IN ANTHRACITE PROBE

(By The Federated Press)

WASHINGTON, Aug. 6-Attorney General Stone, identified as a Morgan lawyer when he took charge of the department of justice last spring, has shown his hand in the anthracite coal situation. He has notified Congressman John J. Rogers of Massachusetts that, after a careful examination, he finds no evidence that the anthracite coal industry is being conducted in violation of the anti-trust or other federal laws.

Massachusetts republicans have protested the price gouge and artificial shortage of anthracite which has been handed to New England, winter after winter, by the Morgan combine which controls this indus-

Investigations by the Federal Trade Commission and by committees of the Senate have shown that from $3 to $5 per ton in excess of a reasonable price is taken from the pockets of the consumers. In a pinch, the Morgan companies take much more than this. Now Stone says they are within the law, and there's nothing Massachusetts can do about it.

Hylan Shows August MILLIONA Days of Political Lapdogs Are Here

By J. LOUIS ENGDAHL.

TODAY, Mayor Hylan, of New York City, offers the startling information that the United States government will not guarantee the proposed loan to Germany under the Morgan-Dawes plan. "Hardly," says Mr. Hylan.

But then we remember that these are the dog days of August, and the political dogs of capitalism are running wild everywhere. They are irresponsible. It is not what they say now, but what they do after election day in November. Morgan knows that, and he knows that every old party politician, in the next war as in the last, will be out barking for the protection of Morgan's loans.

Hylan is one of Hearst's political lapdogs, and Hearst is one of America's prize jingoes. Hearst wants the United States to keep out of Europe, to avoid entangling alliances, but is always ready for war upon Mexico, or Japan, from the safe retreat of his own editorial sanctums. Hearst fought the last war in Europe, thru his papers, and he will be side by side with Morgan in the next European war, strings of flags waving on the first pages of all his sheets.

Considering all these facts, we cannot but conclude that Mr. Hylan must have the political rabies, or he wouldn't froth at the mouth and emit nonsense to the following

"The plan of the international bankers appears to shift the burden of German reparation collection to the shoulders of American investors.

"Is the United States government to guarantee such repayment? HARDLY. Therefore, would it not be advisable to publicly advise American investors that loans advanced thru the international bankers under the proposed Dawes-Morgan plan will not have the army and navy of the United States to insure the collection of such loans."

Such innocence is unbecoming in one who lives as close to Wall Street as does Mr. Hylan. But we do not believe that Mr. Hylan still has a knee-pants brain. He knows what he is saying. He thinks it is good dope to poison the minds of the voters who want to be duped into maintaining their allegiance to the political parties of capitalism, and to vote for them in November.

Mr. Hylan is a democrat. The national democratic convention in Madison Square Garden endorsed the League of Nations and the Dawes plan. Morgan's attorney, Mr. Davis, is the democratic candidate for president.

The League of Nations plank in the democratic platform was written by Owen D. Young, co-partner with "Hell 'n Maria" Dawes, republican vice-presidential candidate, in drawing up the Dawes plan.

Mr. Young is to be general reparations agent, that is, go-between for Germany in handing over the loot demanded of her by France and the other "victorious" nations in the last war. And Young is Morgan's man.

Coolidge is openly in favor of the Morgan-Dawes plan. Doesn't ivir. Hylan even read the da

Coolidge is openly in favor of Mr. Morgan selling several hundred million dollars worth of German bonds to American investors, at a good commission, and Coolidge knows that the main purpose of the U.S. army and navy is to make good on those Morgan loans.

Hylan spills the beans completely and makes himself look as ridiculous as one of Hearst's craziest comics when

"If I remember correctly President Wilson, during the early part of his first term, notified certain international bankers that if a loan of some $50,000,000 were made to one of the foreign governments, the employment of the army and navy of the United States would not be permitted under any circumstances to enforce ultimate collection."

But, if Mr. Hylan will take the trouble to recall, it was in the early part of his second administration that President Wilson led the U. S. army and navy, under Morgan's dollar flag, across the Atlantic Ocean to fight for the loans of Wall Street, especially those made to the British and French gov-

There was one loan, however, that Morgan has never been able to collect. That was Morgan's loan made to the last Russian czar. Morgan will not collect that loan because a Workers' and Farmers' Republic rules over all the Russias.

We take this opportunity of informing Mr. Hylan, and all the political fakers allied with him, if they do not know it already, that only a Red Army and a Red Navy of an American Workers' Republic will refuse to advance against a foreign nation in order to collect the loans of J. Pierpont Morgan and other Wall Street financiers.

Just as long as capitalism lasts in the United States, and a capitalist government sits enthroned in Washington, just so long will the army and navy of the United States government, of which the president is the commander-inchief, be used to uphold the pillars of capitalism. These pillars stand on pretty weak foundations right now thru the inability of Western European capitalism to pay its debts to American capitalism.

The Dawes plan means that American millionaire investors, not the workers, are to make possible a loan of several hundred millions of dollars to Germany, so that Germany can meet her reparations obligations to France, so that French capitalism can be stabilized, and perhaps pay some of the billions of dollars of debt the French owe to the U. S. treasury at Washington, and to the House of Morgan.

It is capitalism's last chance. It is a vicious circle of crazy diplomats and financiers now meeting in London and trying to save capitalism from the chaos of the last war.

It is inconceivable that the workers of Western Europe will much longer endure their agonies under this insane scheme of madmen. Western European labor will lift itself out of its despair and thru its own strength establish its own rule. In that hour America's workers must not allow the U. S. army and navy to be used in an effort to keep the workers of Western Europe longer enelayed to the House

Selfish Slayers' Only Interest Is Ego

Nathan Leopoid, Jr., and Richard Loeb, slayers of the Franks boy, have never worked for a wage, and are not interested in "social uplift," as Leopold termed Communism, they told the DAILY WORKER reporter yesterday in an exclusive interview in the Cook county

Leopold believes in the Samurai philosophy, which combines a disdain for women with a hedonistic pleasure-seeking, he told the DAILY WORKER. "Socialism is in conflict with my philosophy," Leopold said, "and I am not interested in it. Economics is not in my-line. I took one minor course in economics at the University, but am not at all interested in it.'

No Interest In Workers. When asked if he did not think it unfair that his father's employes are working under trying conditions for $12 and $15 a week in the Leopold Paper mill in Morris, Illinois, while the Leopold family is squandering the wealth piled up by these employes, Leopold replied, "I refuse to answer on advice of counsel, but I assure you I am not at all interested in social uplift. I believe that each individual should take care of himself."

Leopold took great pleasure in talking about his own education and intellectual attainments, but when the conversation shifted to the economic structure of society Leopold invariably answered, "I am not interested, that's not my line."

Never Worked.

Richard Loeb admitted that "I may have done a little work occasionally, but I never had a regular job. I never worked for wages.

Loeb and Leopold meet the reporters in the morning in the "bull pen" or exercise yard. This is an inner room with a cement floor. The prisoners walk around in a small circle. double file, getting their morning exercise. Loeb was dressed in his usual jail attire with a sleeveless undershirt. Leopold wore no coat and wore a cap with the peak turned to the back. The air of both boys is one of flippant bravado. Despite their freakish attire Loeb and Leopold appear much less forlorn than the regular prisoners.

The reporters for the Chicago capitalistic papers were afraid that the DAILY WORKER reporter would "crab" the morning interview. They nsisted that he see Leopold first. 'We are just after feature stuff," one capitalist reporter said. "Leopold probably has a grudge against the DAILY WORKER and if we go in with you Leopold may get sore and refuse to talk. We just want to kid with the boys."

The slayers are highly pleased at all the attention they are getting. Their cells are littered with newspapers. "The DAILY WORKER is that radical newspaper, isn't it?" Leopold asked. "Do they say anything about

"New Angle."

Leopold asked what the DAILY WORKER that of him. When told that it considered him as a representative of the idle rich, born into a family of labor exploiters, he said, "Well, that's all right, that's a new angle on the case. Send me some of the papers, will you. The other papers have not touched on that phase yet."

Loeb and Leopold seemed so taken up with themselves-glorying in their childish philosophies and the glamour of the publicity accorded them, that they could not consider the case except as it feeds their selfish egoes. The individual is the most important thing in the world to himself," said Leopold. Then, evidently anxious to create a favorable impression for his case, he added, "Of course there are certain laws of society which the individual must obey or society will decay." Leopold smiled as he said this, seeming to take a delight in his absurd inconsistency.

He spoke of a book by Wasserman which described the capitalist class. 'You ought to be interested in that," Leopold said.

"But what's your point. What moral do you draw from the story of the class nature of society?" he was asked. Leopold again avoided discussion of economics by smilingly anwering, "Am I the one to draw a moral? I never draw morals." Leopold said this with the same grandiose air of the meretricious soldier in Shaw's play "Arms and the Man." He considers his "superior" intellect above all inconsistencies, moralities

Beware of Insull.

EDITOR'S NOTE:-The circular letter which the correspondent inclosed is from the office of the president of the Northern Indiana Gas and Electric Company and is concluded with the name of Samuel Insull. The notorious open-shop, anti-labor, company-union plants which the letter cites as examples International Harvester (the foul functioning of its company union has been exposed in the DAILY WORKER); the Colorado Fuel and Iron Company; Bethlehem Steel; Standard Oil of Indiana; Goodrich Tire & Rubber Company; Public Service Company of Northern Illinois; Commonwealth Edison and Peoples Gas, Light and Coke Company.

Samuel Insull is president of the last three companies named and is also president of the Middle West Utilities Company. He is chairman of the board of directors of the Chicago and Interurban Traction Company and of the Chicago, North Shore and Milwaukee Railroad; chairman of the executive committee of the Chicago Elevated Railways; and is a director in Chicago City and Connecting Railways Collateral Trust.

Holding Up Chicago. As head of the "L" lines in Chicago, Insull has been holding out his lines from city purchase for an altogether unreasonable sum. Mayor Dever has just passed the buck to the city council to let them take the responsibility for paying Insull's fancy price or-but they won't dare-using their power of confiscation of property for city use. Samuel Insull is "sitting pretty" and is making a determined effort to enforce the open-shop throughout all the public utilities which he controls. We are glad to see the workers fight this move of his in Hammond, Whiting and Michigan City, but they'll have to keep up the fight and organize so that foxy Insull won't be able to slip his boss-controlled company-union plan over on them when they aren't prepared.

The Anglo-Russian Break

It is significant that the key question over which the reported breakdown of Anglo-Russian negotiations took place was the demand of the "labor" government of imperialist Britain that the Work ers' Soviet Republic renounce its right to national ize the industries in Russia which had been gobbled up by foreign capitalists during the Czarist beneal in the wielest of the country and his record date, personally, perhaps, who has bled up by foreign capitalists during the Czarist beneal in the wielest of the country and his record date, personally, perhaps, who has been good private armed men to defend her hacienda and insures a clean campaign conducted as a diplomat in the Court of St. carried the standard of his party since tyranny. Comrade C. Rakovsky of the Soviet delegation flatly rejected this insulting trespass on Soviet sovereignty.

At the same time it is announced that the "rad ical socialist." Premier Herriot, of France, "is known to have become lukewarm recently toward Russian negotiations." The Wall Street press slyly notes that Morgan's whiskered messenger boy, Secretary Hughes, beat the Soviet emissary, Comrade Kameneff, to Paris.

Reaping the Whirlwind

Mrs. Rosalie Evans, an American citizen by birth and a British subject thru marriage, has just met with death in Mexico.

This incident may bring about a situation WHAT does Wall Street think of fraught with great dangers for the struggling Mexican republic. The death of Mrs. Evans will undoubtedly be seized upon by the British imperialist from authoritative, recognized, spokes government as a further cause for demanding that men of the biggest business interests the International Bankers' Committee tighten up in the country.
