Workers Party and LaFollette ELECTION DAY, TUESDAY, IS NEW are not and cannot be for LaFollette its control over his electoral campus the class interests of workers and because they are making big profits.

Statement by the Central Executive Committee of the Workers Party of America.

MARTIN W. LITTLETON, speak-ing at an American Defense Society dinner in New York City, sought to prove that the progressive candidate. Senator LaFollette has the support of the Communists and the "Reds." This charge by Littleten has since been taken up by newspapers and is being spread over the country.

The Workers Party has no brief to defend Senator LaFollette against accusations of this character. It does, however, hold a brief to defend Communism and the Workers (Communist) Party against any insinuation or suggestion that Senator La-Follette's candidacy can or will aid it in realizing its aims in the United States—that is, a proletarian revolution, establishment of a dictatorship of the proletariat, thru building a Soviet government, and the transformation of capitalism into a Communist society.

The basis of Mr. Littleton's charges is an article entitled "Are We For LaFollette," by C. E. Ruthenberg, executive secretary of the Workers Party, which apepared in the Daily Worker of April 10, of this

This article, after repudiating everything that LaFollette stands for, and declaring categorically that no Communist could be for LaFollette in the following terms: "We

AS WE SEE IT By T. J. O'FLAHERTY.

THE biggest piece of news that reached the United States in many months, was the recognition of Soviet Russia by France. Yet the capitalist papers relegated it to a few lines in inconspicuous parts of the papers. This was no mere coincidence. France was Russia's chief enemy in Europe, at least her most open enemy. In my opinion, England is the most efficient and smooth conspirator against the Workers' Republic while the United States is the most implacable and boneheaded. But France did the dirty work openly and spent millions financing wars and rebellions against the Soviet Republic.

OW, France has followed Boris Savinkoff in deciding that the power of the Russian workers and peasants cannot be broken. It makes train stops. A few passengers the best of a bad situation. Charles Evans Hughes must receive the news with a shudder. His last hope is gone and when Japan makes a treaty with Moscow, as is expected in a few days, the bearded Baptist and Silent Cal, will be alone in their isolation, and a half-dozen houses, a long, but for Switzerland and a few other low tower hall. countries of little importance. The capitalist papers did not want to feature this news tho they made much of the British foreign office forgery, and editorialized on the Soviet Republic's lack of morals and respect for ROM the start The DAILY WORK- ing! ER branded the alleged Zinoviev note as a forgery. It was just as crude as the bunk William J. Burns was in the habit of putting out. The capitalist papers lied consistently about the incident. They claimed that France was holding up Russian recognition on account of the "plot." The DAILY WORKER correspondents in Europe sent the news and time has proven that it was correct. Now even Ramsay MacDonald's ministers admit that the thing was a forgery. The moral is, that anything appearing in the capitalist press should be held guilty until proven innocent.

"What has been said above does not, however, answer the question whether we shall support LaFollette if he is nominated on a farmer-labor ticket. Should that come about, and it seems very likely, then we will unquestionably support La-Follette in the election campaign along with the masses of workers and farmers who are behind the farmer-labor movement. We are against LaFollette. We know that the political victory of the workers and exploited farmers lies over the dead body that is politically of La-Follette. We will say this to the working class of this country."

The conditions here laid down, on which the Workers Party conceived it was possible that it might accept under protest the candidacy of La-Follette, was that he be a candidate on the farmer-labor ticket.

This policy was further emphasized by the Workers Party at the St. Paul farmer-labor convention at which it made the following declara-

The Workers Party has carried on a campaign for two years for the fermation of a farmer-labor party. Its aim and object was to create a party representing an alliance between the workers of the city and the workers of the land who would enter the political struggle fighting for their class interests. With such a party formed on a national scale, standing on a platform into which was written the class Interests of the industrial workers and farmers. it was not a question of principle with the Workers Party who happened to be the candidate of such a party. The essential thing was the formation of a class party with a class program which represented opposition and a struggle against the capitalist system and the capitalist

If Senator LaFollette was ready to be a candidate for the presidency of such a party and on such a platform and the great majority of those organizing and supporting such a party desired him as a candidate, then the Workers Party was ready under protest, however, to accept his candidacy. But even then, it declared its purpose of relentlessly criticising him and that the success of the workers' and farmers' movement would only come "over the dead body (politically) of Senator LaFollette."

the class interests of workers and farmers. Senator LaFollette is not the candidate of a party which is fighting against capitalism. Quite the reverse. Rudolph Spreckles, the multi-millionaire San Francisco banker, one of the most ardent supporters of LaFollette, a member of the joint national committee running the LaFollette campaign, states the situation quite clearly in telling why he is for La-Follette. He says: "Today I am fighting for Bob LaFollette, not because I am socialistic or radical, for I have quite a stake in the capitalistle system and I want to save that for my children. If reactionary interests continue to ignore the will and well-being of the masses, upon whose sanction all property rests, the masses may some day rise up in their wrath and destroy."

Spreckles is for LaFollette because LaFollette will save capitalism. The Workers Party's aim is to destroy capitalism. It is against LaFollette and considers LaFollette a danger to the labor movement of the United States because LaFolletteism is creating the illusion that labor can gain something for itself thru his candidacy and the movement of which he is a part. Whereas, actually. LaFolletteism and the LaFollette movement can only betray labor as did Scheidemann in Germany and MacDonald in Eng-

It is because the Communists really see that LaFollette is trying to destroy the movement of workers and farmers for independent class action against the capitalist dictatorship in this country that the Workers Party, when its aim of creating a great mass farmer-labor party was not realized, nominated its own Communist candidates, William Z. # AS POLITICAL FACTOR IN

By C. E. RUTHENBERG Executive Secretary, Workers Party.

The greatest Communist propaganda campaign ever staged in this country is coming to a close. This campaign spells a new advance for the Workers Party as a political factor and also in the field of bringing to the working masses an understanding of Communist principles and tactics.

Altho the Workers Party has never before entered into an election struggle on a national scale it has been successful in placing its presidential candidates on the ballot in thirteen of the states among these being both of the great industrial centers of the country.

In addition it has been successful in placing local or state candidates in three other states so that the workers in at least on third of the states of the country embracing the larger part of the industrial sections will have the opportunity to cast their ballots for Communist candidates thus expressing their support of Communist principles. Great Communist Propaganda

Workers in St. Paul Are Supporting Emme, the Communist, for Congress

By J. LOUIS ENGDAHL.

TODAY, William Mahoney, editor of the Minnesota Union Advocate, cuts a more pitiful figure than ever in the labor movement of his own city and state.

Mahoney has always vigorously protested his sincerity seeking to build the Farmer-Labor Party in Minnesota. He has always claimed he was seeking to build toward a class party of the workers and farmers; that he was fighting the reactionaries within the ranks of labor who were seeking to betray the Farmer-Labor movement into the hands of the political agents of Wall Street.

The Oct. 23rd issue of Mahoney's paper, however, reveals its editor as no better than the Johnsons and Shipsteads, who have allied themselves with the LaFollette war on the efforts of city and land workers to build a party of their own.

Mahoney uses nearly two columns to excoriate A. B. Gilbert, former manager of the Farmers' Nonpartisan League, for renouncing the Farmer-Labor Party and coming out for the republican ticket; but on the same page, in an editorial, Mahoney calls upon the workers and farmers to knife J. F. Emme, the Farmer-Labor Party candidate in the St. Paul district, and elect the republican, Oscar E. Keller, to congress.

Mahoney has put himself in the same class with all the other wreckers of the Farmer-Labor movement. It has taken him a long time to reach his goal, but he has finally arrived. He has broken his allegiance to the Farmer-Labor Party. His loyalty to LaFollette's republican party has proved

To be sure the wavering, vascillating Mahoney has his alibi. Emme's awful crime is that he is a Communist. He belongs to the Workers Party. Therefore, Mahoney urges the workers to desert to the enemy. He has a little "red" scare all his own.

Mahoney now tries to tell the workers of St. Paul that they didn't know what they were doing when they nominated the Communist, Emme, in the primaries, as the candidate of the Farmer-Labor Party.

Mahoney makes the startling discovery that, "The members of the Communist, or Workers Party, have publicly declared that they are going to engage in a whirlwind campaign to defeat Oscar E. Keller for congress, and elect in his place J. F. Emme." We couldn't have stated the ambition of the St. Paul Communists any clearer.

Mahoney certainly isn't fool enough to believe that the Communists would betray the decision of the workers in the Farmer-Labor primaries and support the candidate of the Wall Street republican party. He knows Communist loyalty to principle better than that.

This is the same Mahoney who remained loyal to the LaFollette campaign when the Wisconsin senator turned his back on the Farmer-Labor Party at the June 17th Farmer-Labor Conference in St. Paul. This is the same Mahoney who went to Cleveland to attend the LaFollette Conference, but who was refused a seat, because he had dared for a moment to espouse the Farmer-Labor cause.

Mahoney has now passed the aoid test of allegiance to the LaFollette illusion. He has joined in the betrayal of the Farmer-Labor movement. He has joined in the open attack on the Communists. He will be acceptable to the LaFollette-Wheeler republican and democratic politicians from now on.

While Mahoney goes over completely into the camp of the enemy, the rank and file workers stand loyal to their principles.

Machinists' Lodge, No. 459, of St. Paul, has adopted a declaration repudiating the endorsement of Keller, showing that it is a direct violation of Section 8, Article 5, of the constitution of the Farmer-Labor Federation of Minnesota and "strikes a deadly blow at the principles of the organization."

The machinists declare that "such action establishes a most dangerous precedent and will tend rapidly to destroy the fundamental principles upon which the Farmer-Labor Federation of Minnesota is built and will lead to demoralization and disunity within its ranks."

That is a strong indictment of Mahoney and the crime he committed against the workers. It is an indictment on which he and his kind will be found guilty by the masses of workers and farmers in Minnesota who demand class political action.

MORGAN BREAKS

LaFollette is Silent Against Big Trust

By KARL REEVE. MILWAUKEE, Wis., Oct. 30. -J. P. Morgan with his International Harvester trust which he organized in 1918, is allowed by LaFollette to break up the unions here altho LaFollette has been the political czar for 45 years. The Milwaukee works of the International Harvester company, covering thirty-one acres, and having an annual capacity for turning out 150,000 engines, tractors and cream separators, has laid off thousands of men without making any arrangement for their welfare.

Organize Company Unions. LaFollette, who brags about his accomplishments in this state, allows J. P. Morgan to break up the workers union in this plant, and institute instead the scab "International Harvester Industrial Councils," which are controlled by the directors of the com-

Morgan, who has one of his serv ants, Charles Dawes, running for vicepresident on the republican ticket, and his lawyer, John Davis, candidate for president on the democratic platform, owns practically all of the stock of the Milwaukee harvester company plant. Morgan Formed Trust.

Morgan was presented with millions of dollars worth of stock in the Milwaukee factory for joining the large agricultural machinery manufacturing companies into one gigantic trust which has reduced the wages of millions of workers thruout the country and has raised the price of farm machinery to an exhorbitant degree.

LaFollette's State Worst. Now thousands of workers are going hungry in the J. P. Morgan plant here which is part of the International Harvester trust. The company union is blacklisting every worker found favoring a union run by the workers. Workers who favor workers' control of industry are fired immediately.

Some workers who have been employed in the plant for many years have been forced to send their wives and daughters out looking for work because practically the entire plant is on part time, with many not working at all. No provision has been made by Morgafi, who makes millions of dollars yearly out of the International Harvester company workers, to take care of these hungry employes. Now years of faithful service

Celebrate November 7th

To All Units of the Workers Party and of the Young Workers League. DEAR COMRADES: The Communist International has called upon all Communist Parties and organizations of Communist youth to unite in making the celebration of the Seventh Anniversary of the Russian Revolution a great demonstration for Soviet Russia and Commun-

New attempts are being made by international capitalism thru its henchmen, the leaders of the Second International to encircle Soviet Russia and to weaken the Soviet regime in that country.

These attempts of the MacDonalds, Herriots and German socialdemocrats must be met by a great demonstration of the revolutionary

The Central Executive Committee of the Workers Party and the National Executive Committee of the Young Workers League join in calling upon every unit of these organizations to immediately make preparations for a united celebration of November 7th. Joint committees for arrangements should be organized wherever possible to carry out

1. To hold November 7th celebrations in shops and factories wherever such celebrations can be arranged at which the speakers will point out the meaning of the great victory of the Russian workers.

2. To send speakers for noonday addresses before shops and fac-

3. To have both forms of shop meetings adopt resolutions in support of the workers' and peasants' government of Russia. To unite in great mass celebrations on November 7.

Those Party and Young Workers League branches which are located in cities where no city central committees or large group of Party members exist must hold branch meetings to which sympathizing workers should be invited for the celebration of November 7th. A special program is being prepared for these meetings and will be published in the Party press.

In addition to the celebration among the masses, the celebration of November 7th must be used to inspire in our Party membership the Bolshevik spirit and the necessity for the Bolshevization of our Party. It was thru the application of the Leninist principles that the Russian revolution achieved its victory. Clear understanding of these principles is a task for every member of the Party. November 7th is especially significant as a day on which we must take up with great energy the achievements of the Bolshevik spirit and understanding among the Communists of this country.

Fraternally yours,
CENTRAL EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE WORKERS PARTY OF AMERICA, William Z. Foster, Chairman. C. E. Ruthenberg, Executive Secretary.
NATIONAL EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE YOUNG WORKERS LEAGUE OF AMERICA John Williamson, Secretary.

Small is now a "friend of labor" even though every piece of hard road from the Wisconsin line to Cairo was built by non-union contractors at scab wages. When Farrington threatened to call a strike of the Illinois miners unless Small permitted him (Farrington) to have some say-so in naming members of the Industrial Board the governor in effect told him to go ahead and naturally the governor was an enemy of labor then. But it is all changed now. Small is the "candy kid" and the State Federation is out for him strong. When the nominations were being made Farrington sent a telegram to every miners' local in the state urging them to support Small on the very eve of the primary. An investigation here shows that all that was required to make a friend out of an enemy in the person of the governor was to permit Walker and Farrington to have some say in getting jobs for their friends and relat-This does the trick and now Small is a hundred per cent all right for labor. The question of his stealing two million dollars of interest money does not interfere with his purity and undying devotion to the cause of labor. The fact that he put every member of the family on the payroll even to the house-keeper and added another job as assistant secretary to the governor for his son Leslie is beside the mark. The cheap wage non-union contractors who get the state jobs operating under nonunion conditions is a question aside from the issue. Small is now our friend and savior. Hurrah for Small.

COMMUNIST POSTERS MAKE EASTON COPS AWFUL MAD, BY HECK

EASTON, Pa., Oct. 30 .- Someone in this town has played a mean trick on the cops! He has gone and pasted notices on poles thruout the city telling the voters of Easton to vote for the Workers Party ticket on November 4. Maybe he didn't know that it would make the cops so awful mad. This has so aroused the ire of the moonshine cops here that they are drunker than ever. Frothing at the mouth and tearing at their chins they swear vengeance. In the meantime, of course, they keep a watchful eye on the local politicians to see which one of them will receive a nice fat julcy political job.

By JOHN McRURY. (Special to the Daily Worker)

GLACE BAY, N. S., Oct. 30 .-Two audits of the books of Disrtict No. 26, United Mine Workers of America, have been made in less than seven weeks. The district charter was suspended over a year ago. International President John L. Lewis sent three men to the district some weeks ago to make an audit.

These men were paid $15 per day, and took exactly thirteen days to go over the books and vicinity of $600.

The report revealed a high carnival of money spending-items were charged against men who had not received a cent in order to hide deficits truth from the miners.

The Long, Long Trail

The DAILY WORKER has just finished publication of a series of articles, exposing the career of Frank Farrington, president of the Illinois Miners' Union, since his starting in as an official of a local union in Streator, Ill., until today.

Many labor leaders, who later on in their lives, turn traitor to the working class, at last start out with good intentions and without the object of enriching themselves at the expense of their class. But it appears that Farrington made up his mind from the moment he landed the job of secretary in a local union, that he would make a bid for fame and fortune at the expense of the coal miners. He carried out his intentions faithfully.

Farrington stands today, perhaps, the leading labor lieutenant of capitalism in the state of Illinois. Industrially lined up with the coal operators and politically with the unspeakable Ku Klux Klan governor, Len Small, he presents a menace to the workers of this state and praticularly to the coal diggers, the proportions of which words are inadequate to describe.

The DAILY WORKER will not leave Farrington, with the publication of the last article in the series "On the trail of a labor faker." It will continue to expose his treachery and that of the large Davis and LaFollette supporters. army of his kind, that is bleeding the labor movement to death.

The elections for officers of District 12, for the next two years will take place the first week in next December. It is a very important contest and the progressives in the district are girding their loins for the struggle with Farrington and for distribution among the members of the organi- founded.

By Trade and Inclination—A Bricklayer!

THERE are really two kinds of bricklayers. Besides dead ones and live ones-there are also bricklayers by trade and bricklayers by inclination. And then there are those who are both.

D. D. Harper of Huntington, W. Va. is one of those dual personalities who by dint of real effort and the use of some imagination accomplish great things for the laber movement. But then, no posies thrown at this bricklayer par excellence could speak better for him than his own letter of deeds well done. Here it is:

Huntington, W. Va. Dear Comrades: Received your "bricks." Went in to the Bricklayers' Hall and just put it up to them. Then took a collection and got enough to "heave that brick back." Then I went in to the Central body and got $3.00 more for a six-month "brick." And as I was coming out I got another $2.00 for four months making a total of eleven bucks.

Send me ANOTHER brick or two and it may wake me up. Good

Yours to the Finish. D. D. HARPER.

Grand Total

It is "good stuff." And its "good stuff" that this loyal bricklayer is made of. Here's power to his arms to gather more POWER for the DAILY WORKER-and may he never get a sore arm from heaving bricks back to "The National Labor Daily."

And here are the briclayers who have done good work in the first three days of this week having sent in NEW subs on Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday-

A Special Notice for Everyone!

RED GRANITE, WIS .- Wm. Korpela.

"Bricks" to "Build the DAILY WORKER" are not the only things "heaved back" at us to really "Build On It." Many loyal members of the labor movement are serving in the campaign without special mention in our pages. They are the ones responsible for sending their own subscriptions and renewals-all of which is additional POWER to boost the circulation of the DAILY WORKER and promote the best interests of the labor movement. They also serve who are doing it silently. To them goes this special acknowledgement of their good work.

The first issue of the WORKERS MONTHLY is ready. If you have not decided to take a bundle-if you are not on the subscription listyou are missing the first issue of the best monthly labor journal that has yet appeared. Seeing is believing.

times out of ten. THE Minnesota Union Advocate dedited by William Mahoney, godfather of the June 17 convention, at St. Paul, and now among those who are supporting LaFollette, states in a headline on the front page of the October 23 issue of his paper, that the Communists are helping the G. O. P. against LaFollette. The changes have been rung on this silly charge since the election campaign opened, but no intelligent person believes it. The asininity of Mahoney, however, is above the ordinary.

ON the same page in which he so cuses the Workers Party of helping Coolidge, he prints a cartoon taken from The DAILY WORKER, without giving us credit for it, which pictures the New England phiz of Silent Cal on a public park billboard, with the inscription Keep Cool with Coolidge. Right across from the pictures are three workers huddled on a bench and shivering with the cold. The cartoon is by K. A. Suvanto. Had Mahoney been honest enough to give The DAILY WORKER credit for the pictorial attack on the strikebreaker president, his readers would get wise to him. Tho he did not show any particular mental agility in meeting the reactionaries of Minnesota, he knows enough to at least save his face from his readers. But the more he crawls to the reactionaries, the harder they will hop on him.

REPORT got into the papers recently that the National Catholic Welfare Council intended to have the union label on all its printed matter in the future. This caused a protest from some quarters with the result that the church was kept busy for a few days denouncing the story. Why not the union label? The great majority of these who support the powerful Catholic church machine in this country are workers. Is the church so openly in favor of non-un ion labor?

Symphony Gives Big Program in Third Concert

By ALFRED V. FRANKENSTEIN.

"Memories of Childhood." Charles Martin Loeffler of Boston, the composition that won the prize at the North Shore music festival last May, was played by the Chicago Symphony orchestra on the third program of the year. When the work was played at Evanston in the spring the program of it appeared in these columns, but it is not amiss to quote it again:

The composer's memory of life in a Russian village-old Russia, with its folk songs and dances, the chants of the orthodox church, the fairy tales, the pageantry of death; above all, the composer's memory of a great friend, an elderly peasant, Loeffler makes good the program in a brilliant fashion. There is one passage where the four solemn horn players of the orchestra play four frisky mouth organs.

Brahms' Symphony Beautiful.

The second symphony of Brahms preceded the Loeffler work. When Brahms wrote a symphony he squeezed all the juice available out of his themes. The themes themselves are invariably beautiful, of that deep, mystical and profound sort characteristic of the composer. But the extensive, scholarly, obviously labored development of them, gives the impression of being the production of a man of infinite skill, not, as in the case of the Beethoven and Chaykovski symphonies, the production of a man of infinite inspiration.

Following were the two nocturnes for orchestra by Debussy. Debussy had an extraordinary gift for the writing of apt titles and descriptive paragraphs. This is what he says of these nocturnes:

"Clouds-The unchanging aspect of the sky, and the slow, solemn movement of the clouds, dissolving in gray tints, lightly touched with

"Festivals-The restless, dancing rhythm of the atmosphere, interspersed with sudden flashes of light. There is also an incidental procession (a dazzling imaginary vision) passing thru and thru and mingling with the aerial reverie; but the background of uninterrupted festival is persistent with its blending of music and luminous dust participating in the universal rhythm of all times.'

In the second nocturne is an astounding cymbal part. A tremendous variety of effects is produced with them, and the brass plates are raised to a solo position.

Ravel's "Waltz" Disappointing. Another modern French work, "Th Waltz," by Maurice Ravel, which is described as a "choreographic poem, closed the program. "The Waltz" i much ado about nothing. There is lot of noise. Several times during the piece the composer seems about ready to give us a waltz, at the end he seems working up to a bit of keen jazz, but neither results. A most curious, and disappointing work.

The concert opened with the overure to "Egmont" by Beethoven, which s one of the shorter masterpieces of one of the greatest of master minds.
