GOOD FIGHT IN AMALGAMATED SIGNAL FOR BIGGER VICTORIES

By PHIL ARONBERG and TOM BELL.

The Amalgamated Clothing Workers officialdom and their slugging tactics accomplished nothing in the recent local clothing workers election except to solidify the Trade Union Educational League elements and to organize an opposition to their terrorist tactics that made the strong arm squad of the bureaucrats hunt their holes.

Wednesday morning the slugging squad of the administration went into Thurber Lewis Is City action and beat up five left wingers. Thursday morning they went out of action because the militants, incensed by the assaults on men and women of the left wing who were distributing the left wing literature, organized and put a stop to it. MUSSOLINI IS FORCED TO CALL NEW ELECTIONS IN MARCH AS HIS SUPPORTERS CRY 'COWARD!'

(Special to The Daily Worker)

ROME, Dec. 21.—Benito Mussolini, fascist dictator, is finding it increasingly difficult to hold his fascisti deputies together. When Mussolini introduced a surprise bill in the chamber Saturday, modifying the election laws, giving full freedom to all political parties, his deputies, stunned into silence for a few minutes, broke out with cries of "Traitor," "Coward," "We will shoot you." Mussolini immediately after introducing the bill left the chamber amid wild confusion.

The opposition deputies were elated at the fact that Mussolini has been forced to call for an early election in March.

Green will take up the official American labor attack on Soviet Russia, the first Workers' Republic, where Compers left off.

This is a good time, therefore, to review some of the achievements of Soviet Rule, not in the hope of influencing the anti-Soviet regime in the A. F. of L., but in the desire to reach new masses of workers and poor farmers with the Soviet Russia has just reversed the situation in the United States. One-fifth of its revenue is spent for protection against the capitalist enemy; four-fifths for the building of Communist social order. The United States spends fourfifths for murder and destruction, in an effort to promote the interests of American imperialism, while only one-fifth is left for all other purposes, among the least of these being the meager allowances for the education of the children.

Soviet exports, as a result of steady internal development, are rapidly mounting. While the exports during 1923 totalled 47,703,000 poods, the showing for the first half of this year was 350,000,000 poods to England alone; while an additional 132,500,000 poods went to France. This should be very bad news for Secretary of State Hughes who has referred to Soviet Russia as "a vacuum." It is certainly a magic vacuum.

Take another view from a different angle. The reports for the working year 1923-24 show that the exports from the Union of Socialist Soviet Republics reached 460,000,000 roubles in value, while the value of the imports reached 320,000,000 roubles.

This shows that the improvement is nearly double that of the preceding season, 1922-23, when the value of the exports totalled 210,000,000 and the imports 187,000,000

This clearly demonstrates how the trade balance is rapidly growing in favor of the Workers' Republic. Thru its own mounting exports, as compared to imports, it will develop credits abroad without being forced to depend on the international bankers or the imperialist governments.

This year showed big increases in the number of acres sown for all grains; while the cotton acreage will soon far surpass that of the pre-war period. The quantities of live stock are everywhere reaching normal figures; there being in Soviet Russia now 21,000,000 horses, 67 per cent of the stock in 1916; 42,000,000 head of big horned cattle, or 85 per cent of the 1916 figures, with approximately the same figures for smaller cattle.

These are only a few figures that paint the rosy future before the Russian workers and peasants under Soviet Rule. Four-fifths of all the funds collected by the Workers' Government go for the development of this promising future. In the United States four-fifths of the national income is spent on battleships, air fleets, armies, guns, poison gas, for "The Next War"—perhaps "The War in the Pacific" against Japan, to steal Oriental markets for Morgan and his friends in Wall Street, thus strengthening the power that enslaves America's whole working class.

Let the workers and farmers of the United States ponder these facts coming out of Soviet Russia. Let them compare conditions under the Workers' and Peasants' Republic with prospects under Morgan rule in the United States. Then they can come to but one conclusion. They must inevitably give their support to the Communist vanguard that is leading the way toward the American Workers' and Farmers' Republic; that is directing the winning struggle that will bring Soviet Rule to the United States of America. That will be their reply to the capitalist agents who now sit in power over organized labor in this country.

U. S. TOE LICKERS IN CLOSE ATTENDANCE ON FAKE GRAND DUCHESS

By ESTHER LOWELL. (Federated Press Staff Cor.) NEW YORK .- Grand Duchess Cyril had a lovely time in republican America and is returning to Europe with higher hopes than ever of exploiting her assumed title of czarina of all Russia. She learned a lot from these select members of the United States aristocracy, particularly how to get a lot of attention and a comfortable living for nothing

Her business manager, Mrs. Henry P. Loomis, grand mistress of the colonial dames, revealed to reporters, as the hasbeen duchess sailed away in the height of her glory, that "The French line courteously provided passage to and from Europe, the Waldorf-Astoria hotel very courteously offered their royal suite and so did the Bellevue-Stratford in Philadelphia and the New Willard hotel in Washington. The Rolls-Royce Co. placed cars at the disposal of the grand duchess and her Jewels But No Jobs.

Among the loot were such articles as one diamond ring valued at $3,200. a diamond brooch worth $1,200 and a pearl necklace valued at $500.

Actors Would Halt Radio Fleecing NEW YORK, Dec. 21 .- The Actors Equity association and the Managers Protective association will probably work out some method of protecting professional entertainers and those who contract for their services from radio exploitation. At present radio broadcasting stations are using artists for programs and offering no recompense other than publicity Equity is fighting to have all artists paid for radio services.

PROVIDENCE YOUNG WORKERS LEAGUE ACTIVE IN TEXTILE STRIKE, MIDDLEBORO, MASS.

MIDDLEBORO, Mass., Dec. 21 .- Some two hundred and fifty textile rorkers of the Nemasket Worsted Mill are on strike here. The weavers took the initiative when they rebelled against the running of two kinds of filling on two looms. At a mass meeting of the rest of the help, held a few days later, they voted to srtike with the weavers. .. This made a whole mill strike and all textile workers were asked to keep away from Middleboro until the strike was settled. This strike is one of a series which have occured in this state in order to stop the extension of the two loom system.

In the spring of this year a cut of 14 per cent in the wages of the Nemasket workers took place. But when Kinney, owner of the Nemasket mill, wanted one loom work done on two looms, which is equivalent to a

100,000 UNEMPLOYED IN AUSTRALIA

SYDNEY, Australia, Dec. 21.-There are approximately about 100,000 workers unemployed thruout Australia at the present time. Unemployment is most pronounced among the metal miners, land and sea transport workers, general laborers, professional and shop workers, and manufacturing industries. The brick and clay, clothing trades, iron trades. dental, jewelry and food supply unlons show the largest rate of unemployment.

Painters, stone workers, plumbers, plasterers and most of the building trade workers report plenty of work, while the printing trades also report improvement. There is an increase of men employed in the steel plants and allied Industries.

THEY DOWN - WE UP!

The above advertisement, with its appropriate black border, appeared in the press of our lords of finance the other day. You see, Prince Henry of Prussia had played the game and lost. And now he has to send all his nice rocking chairs, beds, rare old credenzas, antique borgenias, Italian faience, copes and what not else, besides the kitchen table, frying pan and his underwear, to America.

Here, in America, the land of lots of gold, there are plenty of nice people who love nice things, especially if they come from a nice bankrupt Prince. So the auction is on. And soon, in the home of a best family, as others of the best are being shown around, the hostess will pick up a diminutive, exquisitely engraved, jewel-studded silver scalpel and say: "Ever hear of Prince Hen of Prusha? Well, he used to clean his ears with this."

Capitalism is on the decline. A great elimination contest is on between the imperialist lords to see which set of lords will decline first. The last world war gave Germany a very rude shove down the splintery plank. Now a few feudalistic left-overs like Prince Henry must sell their shirts while Morgan sits pretty.

But we are in on this elimination contest. In it with both feet, both hands and head. While the imperialists are at each others throats we follow an elimination program all our own. We struggle to eliminate the imperialists while they struggle to eliminate each other.

They must go down. We must go up! This is the task before us. You'll find the DAILY WORKER on the firing line. To KEEP IT THERE and strengthen every fiber in its make-up is now our duty. To us, the workers of the world, the DAILY. WORKER is of major importance. If you can picture the lords of finance without their press, then you can picture our party without its daily. But you can't. And if you want the DAILY WORKER, then help it today so that it may help you more effectively tomorrow.

Discussion of Our Party's Immediate Tasks

Comrades, I am going to let you in on a little secret-we did make some mistakes in Minnesota. Furthermore, the active comrades that have directed our party thru all the work of organizing for two conventions of the state federation of labor and four state political conventions and have watched the after effects of the policies followed, know something of the mistakes that were made. These conventions in Minnesota were not "fake" conventions either, neither were they conventions made up of delegates of party branches only, as was the case in most of the states. These conventions were attended in each case by from three to four hundred delegates representing local unions, farmers' or ganizations, etc. Furthermore, they were being called in a state that had a functioning farmer-labor party in the field since 1918, and had already established a farmer-labor leadership. Furtheromer, the local unions thruout the state had been organized politically in a definite political organization since 1919-three years before our party ever thought of taking up the farmer labor issue. They had just elected their candidate to the United States senate which created a feeling of self-satisfaction on the part of the rank and file which had to be broken down.

These were the conditions that faced us when we returned from the convention of the federated farmer-labor party held in Chicago, July 3, 1923. Outside of myself, our party had no connections in the farmer-labor party. We had very few English-speaking comrades. We had a situation complicated by three existing organizations-the official farmer-labor party, the farmers nonpartisan league and the working people's non-partisan league. All of these organizations were under petty-bourgeoisie leader ship. Last but not least, we had just two weeks to prepare for a state convention of the working people's league after returning from Chicago. I was the only party member who succeeded in being elected as a delegate to that convention. We succeeded in creating a split between Mahoney and Van Lear and forced the calling of another convention to consider ways and means of reorganizing the en

Before we actually got the call issued we had to break with Mahoney by going to the rank and file of the unions and get them to demand the calling of the convention based on representation from local unions. From the very beginning we started the process of building up our own independent power which we retain to this day in spite of the attack that has been launched on us by Mahoney, Cramer and the reactionaries generally. Our criticism of these leaders was tempered only by the need that the party had for them nationally and only on instructions from the C. E. C.

I think, however, that before going any further, Comrade Wicks should be answered. I do not object to criticism but the very title of Comrade Wick's article in the Monday DAILY WORKER, "A Question of Leninis Leadership" makes the blood of every Minnesota comrade boil who had any thing to do with the September con vention in Minneapolis. We in Minne sota have always had considerable respect for Comrade Lenin's leadership and still have, but we have seen Comrade Wicks in action. Comrade Wicks was sent to Minnesota to assist us in applying the united front tactics to the situation here. He was sent by the present minority of the C. E. C., then the majority. He apparently misunderstood his instructions-he thought he had been sent on a vacation. As soon as he landed here he became so much engrossed with his personal affairs that he could not take care of anything else. During the course of the convention itself his time was fully occupied. After a stormy morning session the steering committee appointed by the D. E. C., made up of Comrade Wangerin, Johnson, and myself, tried to get Wicks to go to lunch with the committee to decide on the question of policies at the afternoon session. Comrade Wicks was already booked. Again at sup the state. per time, with the left wing completely disorganized and the right wing led

A caucus of party delegates was called immediately after the adournment of the convention, Comrade Wicks then was busy with his private affairs and did not get back until the caucus was breaking up at wo o'clock in the morning.

> I do not know whether Comrade Wicks reported to the C. E. This report was mimeographed in full by the pres ent minority and sent to party work ers together with a letter telling them hat this was a model report and that the tactics followed should serve as a guide to them in similar situations. So you will see that if our tactics were in error up until this convention they were shared by the present minority of the C. E. C. Sc nuch for Comrade Wicks.

Immediately after this convention the present minority started their ne gotiations with Mahoney relative to the calling of a national convention and from that point on we started our wild orgy of a united front from the top that lasted right up until the June 17 convention. Mahoney and Cramer, the farmer-labor party and the farmer-labor federation were al! for LaFollette from the beginning. We of Communist ideology. Our local desire to fight on this issue was subordinated to the needs of the national situation.

After the repudiation by LaFollette of the June 17 convention, a meeting of the state committee was called to decide whether they would continue their support of the convention At this meeting Comrades Hedlund Johnson and myself launched an attack on LaFollette, Mahoney and Cramer raised the slogan in their peeches of "hold the June 17 convention and nominate LaFollette" and ven with them fighting for LaFollette we had a narrow sqeak in the committee. After the C. P. P. A. convention July 4, you know what hapened to Mahoney and Cramer, well, the same thing happened to the farmer-labor federation.

From its very inception the Minnesota farmer-labor federation has been a LaFollette organization-we created it for him. He did not like the name because we had smeared it with red. After July 4, Sinclair, the LaFollette campaign manager, first said that they would create their own organization, Mahoney, however, outgeneraled them; he called the state committee together and they issued a statement supporting LaFollette and called on the workers to join the organization in order to make the La-Follette campaign effective. Within scription list! a few days after this statement was issued, peace was made between the tale of what would constitute this Party. MOST complete discussion upon future party policy is possible today A because we have the DAILY WORKER. Every party member who reads the DAILY WORKER, yes, and every one that does not because he cannot read English, will understand this to be an advantage of prime importance to the theoretical development of our members.

But the DAILY WORKER serves the party in many other ways. It is an all the year around weapon against the foe, it is an educator, it is a propagandist-and also, it is a bond, a chain, which ties member to member, city to city, district to district. It is the DAILY WORKER that helps to centralize our party into the effective machine it should be.

We must keep the DAILY WORKER and make it safe for 1925. To do this we must give our dollars generously today. If we expect to win, then the DAILY WORKER must live and prosper. With the DAILY WORKER, forward to victory, or-nothing. It should be easy to choose.

Question-If there is no farmer-0. labor party in Germany, France, or Soviet Russia, why talk about one in the United States? Why not throw out the slogan "Follow the Workers Party"? If the German Communists don't demand a farmer-labor party, why should the American Communists demand one?

Answer-This is the worst possible kind of Communism. In nearly every European country the struggles of the Communist Parties for leadership over the working masses is a struggle between the Communists and the social-democrats of some type or other. In short, the struggle takes place in a distinct working class political movement. In the United States the situation is totally different. In order for the Communists to establish the political leadership over the working masses in the United States, the workers must be separated ideologically from capitalism. Until the workers learn in increasing numbers that heir class interests demand conscious political action against and not with he capitalists the leadership of the ommunists over the workers cannot ecome a vital issue to them. Whethr or not the establishment of such ommunist leadership over these workers is accepted simultaneously with the breaking away of the prolearian masses from the ideological ondage of capitalism will not be decided by the sound of a slogan "Folow the Workers Party" as much as the quality of the actual leadership supplied by the Workers Party in the gradual establishment of the political independence of the workers from the capitalists.

Question-Instead of a farmerlabor united front, why should we not build a whole series of united fronts on immediate problems? Wouldn't this be the golden key to less, 'tis said they might incidentally the solution of avoiding wrong united fronts from the top only?

AT PRESENT THAT'S ABOUT ALL WE CAN SAY!

It is the Hungarian Section of the Workers Party speaking. The letter to us ends in the words of the caption above. But the Hungarian Section had said its all. We learned that it intended to do everything possible to carry its part of the responsibility to make the DAILY WORKER safe for the coming months. Every line in the letter expresses a deed, an act. It is a letter, the contents of which might well be acted upon by all sections of the party. all districts, locals, and branches. Read it!

To the DAILY WORKER: We do not think the Daily can be insured by words. It could and it should be insured

> This is what we have DONE to insure the Daily: 1. At our recent convention we instructed our branches to raise their quota of the $50,000 fund. 2. After the convention we took the quota of the Hungarian Section and on its basis we figured out for each and every branch its respective quota and called upon the branches to fill it. Every quota is a pledge from the branches, backed by the Section.

3. To start the work, we wrote a check for $100 to the order of the DAILY WORKER. This check is enclosed

And this is what we are GOING TO DO:

1. We are going to see to it that the pledges be filled as quickly as possible.

We are going to make as many comrades as possible hustle to get subs for the DAILY WORKER.

3. In case that what we have done and what we mapped out to do to insure the DAILY WORKER is not enough to insure it, we are going to do more.

At present that's about all we can say in support of the

Editor's Note.—The following manifesto of the Communist International and the Communist Youth International, was issued nearly three weeks before the workers' uprising against the farcical trial and assassinations mentioned therein.

It gives in vivid outline the background of the bitter class war raging in Esthonia, this little satrapy of England, which has repeatedly been used as a base of military operations against Soviet Russia.

etter follows: "Morgantown, W. Va., Nov. 30. "Editor DAILY WORKER:-One of the strangest things and something I can't understand is Gompers' influence over the Mexican working class after his betrayal of them into the hands of the American capitalists.

"The price paid for recognition of the Mexican government by the United States, was the oil leases given on the terms of Doheney. The deal was engineered by Gompers, McAdoo and Hughes. How the Mexican working class can support Gompers for his aid to American capitalists is too muc for me. I just can't understand as the facts are so well known.

Calls for Amalgamation. Editor The DAILY WORKER: I read in the DAILY WORKER of Monday, December 15, your story headed "Baking Trusts Amalgamate, So Must Your Unions." I showed it to my fellow workers and they said: "That looks like the truth." So I hung it in the office so that everybody can read it.

I hope you put more in the DAILY WORKER about the amalgamation of the food workers' unions .- Food Worker of Pittsburgh.
