Scribes of Easy Virtue Entertain Miners

By THOMAS MYERSCOUGH.

PITTSTON, Pa., Dec. 29 .- In addition to reporting on their efforts, to have the rest of the miners of District One join them in their demand for justice at the hands of the greedy coal operators, the men who constitute the general grievance committee of the "outlawed" employes of the Pennsylvania Coal Co., were treated o an interesting verbal cross-barrage by the two writers for the capitalist sheets, who are in attendance at all the sessions of the committee.

Journalistic Hacks Quarrel. It appears that when the men de cided that they would issue full pag advertisements in the local papers setting forth all their grievances, th men who scribble the stuff for public consumption found themselves in place where they would have to show their sentiments. One of them, when offered the advertisement for his pa per, felt that, inasmuch as the men were on strike, he could well do with while the other one possesses a when the bills for the advertising were presented, there was a decided difference in the amounts and this needed explanation.

Scribes Swap Epithets. It was during this process of explanation, that the two scribes came near to locking horns and when the Wilkesbarre Times-Leader representative told the other one that "he would have more than Myerscough on his neck' if he wasn't careful. The reference was occasioned by the manner in which I was forced to attack that in dividual for his lying attack against me in his article of a previous day.

Steps are being taken to assemble meeting of all the general grievance committees at an early date, when pressure will be attempted to get results, with a general strike as the al ternative if sufficient support is se cured for the venture

Only Communists Fight for the Needs of the Whole Working Class

By J. LOUIS ENGDAHL.

TODAY, and day by day, the New York Times, petted puppet of the plutocracy, is patting itself on the back because of $226,205.13 raised during the holiday season for what it calls the "Hundred Neediest Cases."

This is the New York Times that is one of the biggest allies of the police in organizing pogroms against the discontent of the unemployed; that helps rally brute force in the war on the jobless.

The New York Times says it raised $3,630.88 in 1912, when it made its first Christmas appeal. It prides itself on the fact that this amount has increased more than 60 times; until it is now close to a quarter of a million dollars. This year's contributions, proclaims this mighty organ of "The House of Have," will take care of more than 300 needy

That is about the number of jobless and homeless men that Urbain J. Ledoux marched into the Camp Memorial Church, on New York's East Side. So the Times and Ledoux are about on a par insofar as their forms of philanthropy are carried out.

The New York Times had on its side, in addition to its own big capitalist and middle class readers, such other organizations as the States Charities' Aid Association, the Brooklyn Bureau of Charities, the Charity Organization Society, the Association for Improving the Condition of the Poor, the Catholic Charities and the Federation for the Support of Jewish Philanthropic Societies, all of which are bulwarked by "the best people."

This aggregation is of course jealous of its claims to the right to "protect" the poor. It claims a monopoly. Charity is a good paying business, especially when in the hands of the churches.

It can therefore be easily understood that the American Board of Applied Christianity in New York should issue a statement "advising churches, if applied to for their shelter, to refuse the same.'

To be sure the churchmen are shocked that the gilded interior of their handsome edifices should be soiled by the presence of the poor, but they are also jealous of the fact that Ledoux is trying to compete with them in the exploitation of misery.

This situation only emphasizes the fact that tinkering with the nation-wide, and world-wide problem of unemployment leads no where.

Charity is a narcotic for doping unrest growing out of poverty. Ledoux' annual outbursts around the holiday season, with pleas for the jobless, merely confuse the situation. The fight for the unemployed is the fight of the whole working class. It is a struggle in which the employed as well as the jobless must participate. It is a drive against the whole capitalist structure that must have its organizational roots deep in the laboring masses.

Only the Workers (Communist) Party puts forth a program of action in the present jobless crisis; rallying the masses for their own protection, for aggressive action as

The New York Times talks about its "100 Needy Cases," and feels it is doing a service. But that service is in the interest of its class—the capitalist class.

The Workers (Communist) Party fights for the needs not only of a paltry 100, but of the many millions of robbed and exploited workers and poor farmers. It fights for the interests of its class-the working class. It is under Communist leadership that the proletarian masses will win the victory over its class enemy. Rally the workers everywhere in the present crisis for the Workers (Communist) Party program in the fight against unemployment.

Assets Liquid; Hootch Mon!

BY SYDNEY WARREN.

(Federated Press Staff Correspondent.) VANCOUVER, B. C., Dec. 29 .- The banking combine of Canada is uneasy over the growing demand for a revision of the dominion's banking act that would compel all banks to guarantee the funds of each depositor up to $3.000 and are broadcasting thru the brass check press of the country a series of articles by Sir John Willison, chief lackey for the ultra-tory and financial interests

This plutocrat argues that such a guarantee would destroy the financial... cumen of Canadian banks and impair business incentive. He claims that lepositors placing their funds at a very low rate of interest in banks chartered by the dominion government are not entitled to any security beyond that given in an ordinary bustess venture.

Since 1900 the business of Canadian banks has increased 1,100 per cent while their capital has grown only 84 per cent and the number of banks lecreased from 40 in 1900 to 14 today. The available liquid assets of Canadian chartered banks to make secure the money deposited with them are $47,000,000 less today than 25 years ago.

The Home Bank failure cost hundreds of small depositors, mostly workers, their savings. At Fernie, B. C., the miners lost over three-quarters of a million dollars with this institution and are at present destitute facing winter.

The banking interests have systematically subsidized the press of the dominion with their advertising patronage and their loaning powers. A few months before the Home Bank failed every one of the large gaily newspapers printed the bank's balance sheet showing a net profit of $232,-539.17 and an item saying:

"The thanks of the shareholders should be tendered to the general manager, the assistant general manager, and the other officers of the bank for the efficient manner in which they have respectively discharged their duties during the past year."

A few morths later the whole of this bank's reserves were wiped out, $2,000,000 of its capital disappeared and its liabilities were in excess of its ssets by $9,500,000. The two direcors of this bank, who were most active in wrecking it, received sentences of 6 months and 18 months, with the chance of an early pardon.

VICTORIA, B. # CHINESE GREET

Not Like Warship of the Imperialists

By Rosta.

CANTON, Dec. 29 .- The following elegram was received by the Soviet training ship Vorovsky, visiting Canon, from the Anti-Imperialistic Society, Peking:

"We heartily welcome the arrival of your vessel at Canton.

"All warships of the imperialists always came to China for intimidating and seizing. Indeed, no sooner would the Chinese people raise a voice against it than the imperialists would with renewed violence and without fear of any consequences, commit heir rapacious acts again.

"So it was recently when the Chinese laborers were striking at Shamen and while the merchants' organization rose against the Canton government, the powers' warships gathered, like clouds, at Canton, in order to bring pressure to bear upon the government and the people of Canton. This has become quite a usual proceeding.

"This time, however, the governnent of the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics, this true friend of all the oppressed nations of the world, has lespatched a ship to China, and we fully believe that it is with the best purposes of the government of the Soviet Union that you have come here. We sincerely believe that you can, in the spirit of your ideas, help China, oppressed as she is, in her struggle against imperialism.

"It is in this firm belief that we look with great hope on your arrival, and it is this firm belief again that prompts us to send you our heartfelt greetings."

THE LaFOLLETTE REVOLUTION

By LUDWIG LORE. (Article II.)

T will be always a matter of gratification to me that in the period when our executive committee and our party allowed itself to be infected by Comrade Pepper with the virus of the third party madness, our group—the New York group-had not only the political wisdom to come out immediately against the most dangerous piece of opportunism, upon which any revolutionary movement has ever embarked, but that it had the courage to stand up under the wave of popular disapproval and official ostracism that is always the lot of those who dare to oppose the decisions of our leaders, before the latter have become convinced, by the grim logic of circumstances, of the error of their ways.

after the publication of the November thesis, I wrote the following:

"... They (the present minority) say: 'Where such third parties, calling themselves farmer-labor parties, of workers and exploited farmers come into existence we must become a part of them. But it must be our policy to win all workers and exploited farmers away from the third party and to organize them in an F. L. P. class

"It is easy to see what the majority (now the minority) of the executive committee contemplates. It feels, rightly, that large proportions of the working class will be drawn by a so-called F. L. P. under the control of petty bourgeois elements and capitalist politicians, and that it therefore becomes necessary to adopt a tactic of boring from within similar to that of the T. U. E. L. in the labor unions But they overlook the fact that labor unions and political parties are two widely different things, which certainly cannot, in practical questions, be judged by the same standards.

"But there is a more important con sideration. The American worker must not be confused. P. have no place in this illustrious gathering. And again: LaFollette may be very diberal and unprejudiced. But serely he is much too good a mathe matician not to know that numerically the support of the A. The consistent opposition of our roup to the "policy of maneuvers," of which Pepper and Ruthenberg were o proud, had brought down upon us the accusation that we are opposed to all maneuvers at all times, and are herefore out of sympathy with an important phase of Communist policies. When I see the frantic efforts that are being made by the two groups to burden each other with the responsibility for Lore's misdeeds, I cannot help but think mournfully of those days, not more than a year or two ago, when I was still the respected friend and co-worker of the present minority group. Until the national office was moved to Chicago, I was Comrade Lovestone's trusted confidant, and altogether was treated with a great deal more consideration than has fallen to my humble share since I cast my lot with the "syndicalist" group. Before I left New York for the Chicago convention, just a year ago, I was told by a mutual friend here that Lovestone would meet me at the Chicago railroad depot on my arrival. Lovestone, who had been obliged to get out of bed at 4 o'clock of a very unpleasant December morning in order to meet me, dangled, after a few preliminaries, a most enticing list before my eyes, a list of names in the handwriting of Comrade Ruthenberg. My name stood at the head of this slate that the Ruthenberg-Lovestone-Pepper group was prepared to propose to the convention. I informed Lovestone that I had one main purpose at this convention, to oppose the LaFollette alliance with all my might. At a secret session of the convention Pepper moved that the entire third party question be submitted to the C. I. for final decision. It was, of course, understood by the entire convention that this was the strongest possible bid for our support. As is usually the case when Pepper maneuvers, he made his reckoning without his host. Our group unanimously voted to support the present majority, because we felt in general our orientation was more in harmony with the Foster-Cannon

The system of instruction used by Comrade Carlson consists in giving a ecture of from one hour to one and half hours on the subject to be considered, then follows a period in which the students ask him questions appertaining to the subject matter discussed, or they discuss those points on which they are in disagreement with the speaker. He then makes closing remarks. All students are ex- deal of reading but it has not been in the course of the lecture. They are also supplied with a list of references winch can be used to verify the matter dealt with by the lecturer as well as to get a more complete understanding of the subjects dealt with. Certain texts which are inexpensive and classics are given as essential, but esides this a more complete list of reference books is also given.

The following class is opened by uestions from the lecturer to the nembers of the class on the main points dealt with at the previous meeting. January the 11th will be one of the red letter days for the Communist movement in Chicago. It will be on this day that the International Karl Liebknecht Day will be celebrated. This will be the day on which the Young Workers League of Chicago will rally the working class youth to protest the foul murder by the social-traitors of the two valiant fighters and leaders of the Communist youth movement and to mobilize our forces for a determined fight for our demands.

Foremost of these demands is our slogan against capitalist wars and militarism and against the enslave ment of German workers thru the the abolition of child labor, mainteance by the state of all school children of workers under sixteen years of age, and the six hour day, fiveday week for all youth labor with full pay, and for a workers' republic. Hungarian convention for work among the workers engaged in the basic industries. It was the duty of izing that many Hungarian workers are engaged in the basic industries, to submit such a plan for work among them. After all the central executive committee is the leading and directing body in our party. It must initiate and direct important work of this kind for our language sections. When it doesn't do so it has no business to blame a particular section of the party for not making progress in that direc-

The whole article written by Bittelmen on the Hungarian section convention is an example of how an article should not be written. To have to answer such an article is bad enough. Such articles make it impossible to conduct the discussion on serious lines. If Comrade Bittelman will coninue to write such articles the whole discussion will degenerate into an expose of the methods used to distort and confuse the real and important issues involved.

When a discussion was decided upon I thought that there were fundaseriously discussed. And there are. real fundamental issues involved. In order to discuss in a manner that would be beneficial to the membership and to the party a consideration of facts and their application to tactics is necessary. To divert the discussion into a misrepresentation of facts, mudslinging, unfounded charges, as the charges made by Comrade Bittelman against the Hungarian convention, and the issuance of empty, inapplicable fake slogans, is to greatly hurt the discussion, to confuse the membership and to injure the party.

Oh, Well!

The other day a "socialist" periodical arrived in the office of the DAILY WORKER. This is not a remarkable fact in itself, but the way in which it came was worth a bit of comment. This "socialist" of the newspaper, on the front page of which were arcame was worth a bit of comment. # And So They Said-"Here's $75,000!"

This happened just a year ago. The party membership and sympathizers piled up the sum of $75,000 with which to start the FIRST COMMUNIST DAILY in the English language in the world.

January 13, 1924, The Historic Date!

It was upon this date that the PIRST ISSUE of the DAILY WORKER appeared. We printed it and many issues thereafter in a print shop that WAS NOT OUR OWN, located in a building that WAS NOT OUR

We Did Not Want to Be Considered Off-Color!

We had a big responsibility upon our hands. We had to measure up to the trust placed in us. We had to act with GOOD RED COM-MON SENSE. We soon saw that printing the DAILY WORKER in somebody else's print shop would mean that some day this somebody else might say "OUT WITH YOU" —and then where would we go? Not many capitalist print shops care to print Communist papers.

So We Took Part of The $75,000 and Bought A First Class Plant.

We bought FOUR PRESSES, SIX LINO-TYPES, STEREOTYPING OUTFIT, BIND-ERY MACHINERY, type, stones, stock, ink. It's a BIG lay-out and there's no kind of printing we can't do.

Then We Saw Another Danger Ahead.

If a printer could refuse to print our DAILY WORKER, a landlord could easily refuse to house our printing plant. That is, if we put the big printing plant we bought into a rented building, the owner of the building could also some day say to us "GET OUT"—and so we did what? We took another part of the $75,000 and bought a building, the building that our national headquarters is located in.

After All of Which There Wasn't Much Money Left.

The sum of $75,000 is just that much. After buying a big printing plant and a big building, there were not many dollars left with which to finance the DAILY WORKER. But we went right ahead and for nearly a year we published the daily without making a single call for help.

But Now We Need Money And Need It at Once!

We must look ahead. We'll only get ahead by looking ahead. We must make the DAILY WORKER safe for 1925. Therefore, this campaign to INSURE THE DAILY WORKER FOR 1925. We want to make the DAILY WORKER so impregnable, so powerful, that it will weather all storms in the year to come.

One Year Old on January 13, 1925.

The DAILY WORKER will soon be one year old. Upon its first anniversary a BIG SPE-CIAL BIRTHDAY EDITION will be published. This BIG SPECIAL should be distributed nation-wide. Order your bundle now-100 copies for $2.00.

SOVIET SCHOOL HAS SUCCESSFU

Despite Competition of White Guards

The performance of "Coal Miner Kort" given last Saturday at the Soviet School went off with the usual success. The hall was overcrowded in spite of the fact that the counterrevolutionists were running their movies on that night.

The actors, almost all members of the Technical Aid, succeeded in the interpretation of the bitter struggle waged by the coal miners of Ural against the bosses and the white guards. An unusual incident happened when in the last act the miners wining their battles began to sing the International. The audience stood up and joined in the signing. This, better than anything else, shows the spirit of the Russian workers.

The next affair of the Technical Aid Society will be the showing of "Polikushka." Thursday night, Jan. 15, at Gartner's Independent Theater, 3725 Roosevelt Road.

Southside Actors Present Drama of Workingclass Life

On Tuesday night "Salesmen and Suckers," a play by Comrade Shelley of the South Side English Branch was presented and acted by several members of the branch and their friends, "The South Side Players." A good audience tramped thoroug the snow to see the play, and it is expected that as the news goes round many more will come to the second performance to be given later in some other south side neighborhood.

Lewis Gordon and Esther Berman were very good as "Mr. and Mrs. Slick," a young couple of "go-getters" who classify the whole world as "salesmen or suckers" They gave much satirical amusement to relieve the tragedy of this litle play. Hubert Hunt, as "Jim" the sick war-veteran husband of "Olympia," was very fine, He spoke as simply as though he and "Olympia" were really discussing their difficulties alone; and there is no surer way of making an audience forget itself.

Millie Babbin as the exploited and victimized white girl, "Margaret Bryant," was so good that she had no cause to feel the nervousness that affected her at first. Her voice was beautifully rich and she gave the part a short of "oh, what's the use?" swagger that was striking. I cannot praise too highly Elizabeth Griffin, who played "Olympia," the young wife whose whole life was a battle against poverty and disease. She showed great poignancy and a real understanding of the role, and like Hubert Hunt, had the ability to make us forget for minutes at a time that this was not a real glipmse of a real family. Hands are usually a great difficulty for amateurs, but Elizabeth Griffin's beautiful and expressive hands were acting for her all the time! Her voice was flexible and mov

The play shows "Olympia" working for the sordid young business couple and giving up the job because her husband is very ill and she herself is exhausted. In one speech she lines up "Mrs. Slick" with the exploiters and herself with the working class-"Yes, it's class that counts- you said it! and I belong to the working class!" Her man dies, and "Olympia" and the children are in despair. "M Slick" turns up like a bad penny and offers her a sordid "way out which she indignantly refuses, and after trying to give "Margarete," who has gone on the streets, her job at the factory. we leave her looking with glazed and desolate eyes at the shining revolver which is the "only way out" that she can see. The play is based on a little news item, the suicide, of a young widow who really lived on the south side, and whose story, left out of capitalist newspaper as "unimportant," was told Comrade Shelley by the reporter.

In one scene there was a spirited discussion between "Jack Sharp" play ed by Norvel Allen very ably, and "Rev. Gumble" played by Wesle Lewis, that brought out the futility "pie in the sky when you die" as the necessity of solidarity between all races in the class struggle Sara Robinson as "Mrs. Jones" joined in
