

AS WE SEE IT
By T. J. O'FLAHERTY

The officers' committee to enforce the Landis award... raising against the increase in graft in the building industry. The Landis committee owes its existence to great labor leaders who can be seduced to lobby before their duties as safe union officials, elected to serve their fellow workers. The man who made the motion before the Chicago Building Trades Council to accept the Landis award purchased over $200,000 dollars worth of real estate a few years ago. Where did he get the money? The spread of the open shop movement here in Chicago is rapid. The Landis award committee on the whole looks gratified. They are its members and it knows that.

The president of the local district council of carpenters signed an agreement with five contractors last year which was word for word the same contract endorsed by the Landis award. For opposing this scab contract, five members of Local 131 were expelled from the union. They were expelled by the officers who had fatten on the Landis award. The members are everywhere working and in hand with the bosses. They are the bosses do not like to be held for graft, but it is the only way of getting a labor leader to give up a small increase in wages to thousands of workers.

LARRY SINGLAR and Edward J. DeBary are not working over the Teapot Dome graft. They are both as they had the United States Government in an espionage frame of mind. Singlar is in charge of the oil and DeBary is down in Mexico looking after his oil wells, which he purchased about the time famous socialist "Calles" was elected by the voters. Lawyers are still anxious for more revelations in Washington, but the players know all about the oil business and are not doing much worrying. All we need is a business on the banks of the Potomac.

NO doubt the workers are doing a lot of thinking on the open shop. It is being in Washington, over the question whether the open shop aquatic death castles are more serviceable weapons in smothering out labor life. The workers are having a hard time deciding. One thing they are sure of, the masters of their lives are having nothing to do with the open shop. Admiral Sims, who is a worker or a big air, may definitely describe the development of a new air ship which can clear thru the atmosphere for one hundred per cent Americans.

A WRITER in a capitalist paper describes some alleged experience in Russia in a horrified tone. "How can any man be so stupid," he denounces any belief which ever in a supreme logic and acuity at any form of religion, or in any of the countries does not ever expect to prosper." The workers and peasants of Spain, Portugal, Ireland, Poland, and the appetitious masses in China and Africa might give an answer. They believe that the workers are free on an Armenian rack, yet they are poor. Why?

EDWARD A. FLEENE, Boston boss, also has been in a recent signed article said that "the business men of the world are united. They are the international chamber of commerce, also but four years old, is already known the world over and is still in one of the capitalist international, perhaps the capitalist international since the league of nations failed to go over. Fleene gives the International Chamber of Commerce credit for having the laws made. The next meeting of the international will be in Brussels, June. And yet some workers agency because the Communists are affiliated with the Communist international, the only world organization of the workers class that is able to cope with the capitalist international and eventually defeat it.

CRISIS FOLLOWS DEATH OF EBERT IN GERMAN REICH

Spokesmen of Capitalism Show Their Regrets

(Special to The Daily Worker).
BERLIN, March 1.—Frederick Ebert president of the imperial German socialist republic, died Saturday morning after a short illness following an operation to remove his appendix. Ebert's death may be followed by a political crisis in the nation in all treaty form with class struggle and striking with craft scandals is what Ebert himself was alleged to have been involved.

Baldwin Sends Regrets.
The Tory government of Britain has sent its official regrets and Coolidge president of the capitalist republic of the United States, called his regrets, as did Secretary of State Hughes, who said in part:

"I have the most agreeable memories of Frederick Ebert. Being known to him while I was in Berlin, where I formed a high opinion of his character, and the message in which he was playing the development of German democracy since the war."

That those regrets for the passing of the great German leader are real and have a profound foundation of respect for Ebert and the whole social democracy during and since the war, is seen in the fact that Ebert's passing has precipitated an election in which the right wing majority in the Reichstag and in the state of Prussia, the works of the Dawes plan, which Ebert's regime had imposed upon the German workers.

While Ebert's son and social democratic candidate are striving to picture Ebert as having been "bound to death" by his political enemies, the point out that the alleged "worry" he was supposed to have suffered before his death was due to the fact that he was a worker.

War Head Says He Considers and Alters Reports of Officers

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 1.—Secretary of War Weeks admitted on the stand before a congressional investigating committee that he was aware reports of army officers before allowing them to be printed. He wanted to be sure nothing of a printing that would cause disturbance. Weeks said he also admitted that reports of officers were frequently put up a year before being made public.

RUSSIAN COMMUNIST NEWSPAPER GREETES THE DAILY WORKER
KIEV, Russia, March 1.—The DAILY WORKER has received the following letter from the "Pravda" newspaper, the Russian Communist newspaper published in Kiev, Ukraine. The letter congratulates the DAILY WORKER on the first anniversary of its initial publication. It says:

"Dear Comrades,
I am glad to thank you for the DAILY WORKER, which we began to receive some days ago, and congratulate you on the first anniversary of your paper. May it live and become the paper of all the workers of our country."
"Will you be so good as to send us the Workers Monthly—last issues of 1924 and the recent issue. As to our paper, 'The Proletarsky Pravda' we are now sending it to your office. Best regards.
Your Comrade,
(Signed) M. ZOLON."

Recognize Russia!

STATEMENT on the recognition of Soviet Russia by the Central Executive Council of the Workers (Communist) Party.
The resignation of Secretary of State Hughes has been followed by an official announcement that the Coolidge administration will open negotiations with Soviet Russia to determine the conditions on which a trade agreement and treaty will be made.

The United States is the only government of importance that has not yet recognized the government of the Russian workers and peasants. The United States is the wealthiest and most powerful nation in the world and impending recognition of Soviet Russia by its strongest and most bitter antagonist has the greatest significance for the American working class and the international revolutionary movement.

Hughes Suffers Defeat

1. What are the reasons for this change of front in American imperialism?
2. What must the attitude of the American working class be towards the negotiations?
3. Hughes, who carried over the Wilson policy and rabid hatred of the workers and peasants' government into the Harding-Coolidge administrations, has suffered a political defeat at the hands of Senator Borah. Borah is the progressive right of the Coolidge administration and his middle class following demands and forces recognition for itself. The Coolidge forces cannot afford to alienate this group which Borah leads.

4. Russian trade has shown the fallacy of the Hughes contention that it is of no consequence in the world markets. The utterly reactionary southern cotton plantation owners are now competitors for the Russian markets. It is also a powerful economic group and their need for markets is great due to the dislocation of the American textile industry because of increasing Chinese and Indian competition.

Success for Soviet Diplomacy.

1. The success of Soviet diplomacy in China and the Far East, the acquisition of the Chinese railway by the Soviet government, the powerful and increasing influence of Soviet Russia among the peoples of the Orient.
2. The Russo-Japanese treaty and the rights to the development of the oil, coal and iron on the lower half of Saghalien and given Japan.
3. The change in the policy of the Standard Oil interests from that of encouragement of counter-revolution to a policy of trade with Soviet Russia.

4. The absolute impasse reached in the question of alid debts to demand a question to which no answer can be framed until formal relations are established with Soviet Russia.
5. The entry of the American capitalists into European affairs on a scale hitherto unknown—the Dawes plan, the huge loan to France, financial and economic penetration of the vassal states, etc.

6. The absolute impasse reached in the question of alid debts to demand a question to which no answer can be framed until formal relations are established with Soviet Russia.
7. The Coolidge government will try to assume an aggressive role in the coming negotiations. It will try to assume a position that the capitalist class in America must be paid. It will try to insist on change in the Soviet government. It will demand that Communist propaganda be prohibited.
8. It will try to save its face before the masses of the American workers to whom it has said a thousand times that it would recognize no government that warred on capitalism.

Resurrect Life of Counter-Revolutionists.

The life of the counter-revolutionary backwardness will be resurrected, dusted off and used. It is not improbable that a new attack on the Workers (Communist) Party of America will be launched. Already the American capitalist press is trying to discredit Zinoviev and drive a wedge into the sections of the Communist international. American capitalism will try to deprive the Soviet government of all popular support in the United States while the negotiations are in progress.
The Workers (Communist) Party of America call upon the workers of the United States to demand an official recognition of the workers' and peasants' government of Russia.
It calls upon the workers to hold mass meetings, demonstrations, and send strong messages to the president, congressmen and senators demanding unconditional recognition for the workers' and farmers' government in the world.
It calls upon the American workers to show by their words and actions that they see in Soviet Russia the great friend of the toiling millions in industry and agriculture, that no matter what the capitalist rulers of America and the American workers recognize Soviet Russia as the leader of the workers' struggle, the first frstress of the world revolution, a power for the working class and against their oppressors in every land.

WORKERS IN CALIFORNIA FIGHT THE CRIMINAL SYNDICALIST LAWS; CHEER FOR CLASS WAR VICTIMS
By S. GLOBENBERG
(Special to The Daily Worker)
LOS ANGELES, March 1.—A successful protest meeting against criminal syndicalist laws was held at the Music Art Hall under the auspices of the Labor Relations Council.
The crowd enthusiastically demonstrated its opposition to those tyrant laws which are being thrust for Ruthenberg, Foster and all others who are their devotion to the ruling class.
The cause for Communism cannot be crushed by the capitalist class workers (Communist) Party is now bearing the brunt of persecution.
He showed that it is the duty of the workers to support and defend the Communist Party in its fight against the syndicalist laws.

INSURANCE COMPANY WENT BROKE BACKING BOSSES IN STRIKES
NEW YORK, March 1.—The Employers' Mutual Insurance and Service company, bankrupt and in receivership after claims of $5,000,000 and one year by corporation policy holders it was insuring against strike losses is now trying to recover unpaid assessments which the insured companies refused to pay. There are a dozen big publishing plants among the dead.

Coal Mine Barons Open Big Offensive On Union Coal Miners

The entering wedge of the most gigantic open shop offensive ever waged against the organized workers in this country was inserted into the western Pennsylvania and Ohio, sectors of the United Mine Workers of America, when the operators of those two sections of the group of soft coal states known as the central competitive field arranged for a meeting to be held in Cleveland, Friday, at which war plans will be made looking towards the smashing of the miners' union and eventually placing the entire coal mining industry on a strictly non-union basis.

Keyst to a high pitch of optimism over the rapid advance of the open shop movement in the coal industry, within the past few weeks the operators of western Pennsylvania, West Virginia and the coal barons green and industrial feudalism for the diggers.

The operators in Illinois and Indiana, where the union has not yet reached the level at which the coal barons wish it to be before opening the attack, have not joined openin the offensive.

They have not accepted the invitation to attend the Cleveland conference. He who admitted that the operators had a deep interest for them. It is understood that they are poor contributors to the financial pool which is backing the conspiracy.

The Plan of Attack.
The Ohio and western Pennsylvania operators are expected to declare suspension of coal mining immediately after the Cleveland meeting unless more cautious policy prevails. Should the original form be adopted, the mines would be closed after April 1 on a strictly non-union basis. The miners will be offered the 1917 wage scale which means a 25 per cent cut.

The Initiators of the open shop drive were among the first to sign the Jacksonville agreement, which was hailed by John I. Lewis as one of the greatest victories in the history of the United Mine Workers of America. The miners will be offered the 1917 wage scale which means a 25 per cent cut.

Owned By Same Interests.
It appears that the non-union mines are owned by the same interests that own the union mines. Very clearly, the coal operators exploited the Kentucky and West Virginia bituminous fields until the production was sufficiently heavy to supply the market in the event of a strike for a period long enough to insure victory for the coal barons. A progressive labor movement would have thwarted this danger by throwing the entire weight of the organization into the unionization of the coal pits. But this was the last thing that occurred to Lewis who had his hands full expelling honest and courageous leaders like Howat, McClain and Macdonald from office and from the United Mine Workers' (Continued on Page 2)

DECREASED INDUSTRIAL ACTIVITY IN EAST HITS TOTAL OF WAGES

PHILADELPHIA, March 1.—Decreased industrial activity in January resulted in a falling off of 25 per cent in the total wage paid in Pennsylvania and 42 per cent in those paid in New Jersey, according to the report of the Federal Reserve Bank of Philadelphia. In Pennsylvania this decline came in spite of an increase in employment which means that average wages in that state declined nearly 4 per cent as compared with December. In New Jersey there was a drop of 14 per cent in the number employed and of 24 per cent in average wages.

NEGRO WRITER, BACK FROM SOVIET RUSSIA, SAYS REVOLUTION SOLVES RACE PROBLEMS; PEOPLE HAPPY

Returning after an eight month visit to Soviet Russia, Lovett Fort-Whiteman, well-known Negro writer and lecturer, emphatically refutes the current line of the capitalist press, which claims that Russia is a land of starvation and unrest.

"This is not," says Fort-Whiteman, "the experience of a mere flying visit, but of months of the closest contact with the most obscure peasants and workers in every part of the vast territory, covering one-sixth the land area of the globe, ruled by the workers and peasants themselves through their Soviets or councils."

IT'S 'LENIN PLACE' NOW IN FRENCH CITY AFTER BITTERLY FOUGHT STRIKE

DOUARNENEZ, France, March 1.—As a result of Communist assistance given to the striking sarsen canny workers, and the Communist majority attitude toward the strike, in which he led the picket line and forced landlors to remit rents, bringing down upon his head the storm of capitalist criticism and Paris authority with warrants for his arrest, the ancient Square of Holy Cross in this city has been renamed the Lenin Place by the newly elected city council.

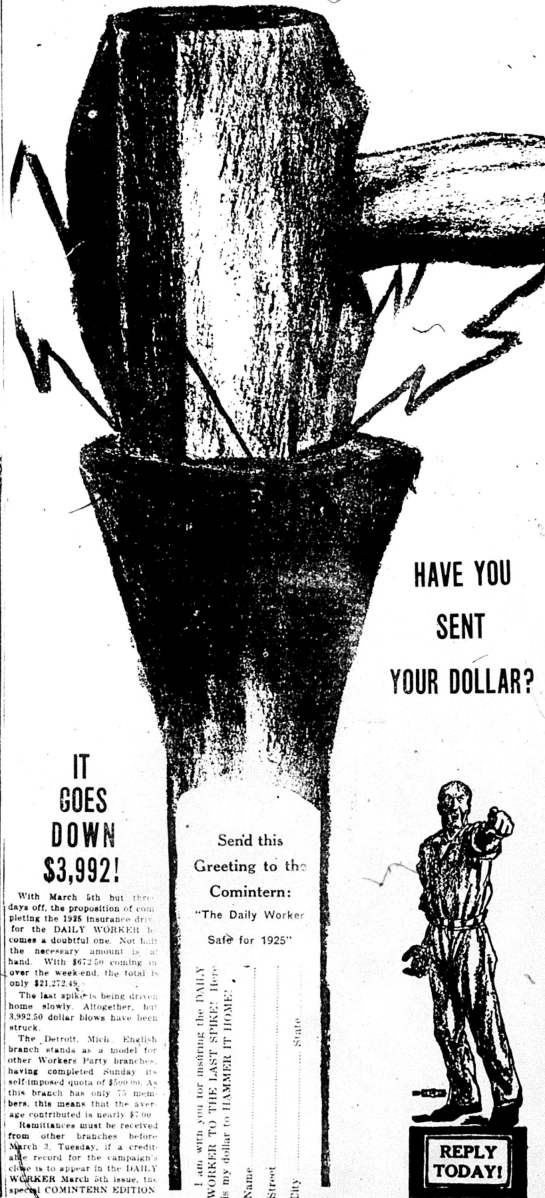

vanish with capitalism. My visit to Soviet Russia has proved that my idea is correct. With all its previous race problems no country was more burdened, but— presto! the working class revolution came, and today no country on earth has less race conflict. In fact there is none. The Negro problem of America will persist until it meets the same solution.

Fort-Whiteman expressed deep appreciation of his reception in Russia as a representative of his race, so terribly oppressed in America. During the recent battles between the nationalists and the agents of imperialism in China, he was invited by many military divisions of the Red army to lecture on his interpretation of the events. He spoke before many army schools and famous fighting divisions, being made a member of one of the celebrated three cosack cavalry.

Revolution Solved Race Problem. "No country in the world was more burdened with racial problems than was Russia under the czar. In the Crimea it was Tartar against Turk; in the Caucasus it was Georgian against Armenian; in the East a myriad problems with Moslem against Christian; in Ukraine Christians against Jew. All this is gone, the revolution of the workers has blown it away like a dark cloud driven by a clean wind."

"It was always claimed that the racial conflict, particularly the problem of the Negro in America, was solely a product of the capitalist system of exploitation, and that it would vanish with capitalism. My visit to Soviet Russia has proved that my idea is correct. With all its previous race problems no country was more burdened, but— presto! the working class revolution came, and today no country on earth has less race conflict. In fact there is none. The Negro problem of America will persist until it meets the same solution. Fort-Whiteman while in Central Asia, was entertained by the president and cabinet of the Soviet Republic of Bokhara, fed and received in the palace of the overthrown king, or Emir, and in Turkistan, was given royal greetings as a representative of the American Negro workers, the Tasikent military school students, and faculty officially extending the welcome, before the public buildings adorned with greetings in English which read: "Long live the American proletarian!" and "Long live the socialist revolution!"

SPIKE LOOSE! More Blows Needed By MARCH 5

MANY ORGANIZATIONS SEND THEIR DELEGATES TO CHICAGO MEETING FOR LABOR DEFENSE AND RELIEF

More than fifty delegates answered the roll call at the first meeting of the Chicago Conference for Labor Defense and Relief, last Thursday. There were trade unions and co-operative, fraternal and benevolent organizations of many different languages, and various workers' political groups. An executive committee was formed of five of the delegates from each of three major component parts of the conference, making fifteen members in all.

Among the unions represented were the Amalgamated Food Workers, the Wood Turners, Machinists No. 320 and No. 337, Painters No. 215, and the Amalgamated Clothing Workers Local 5. Among the fraternal organizations were those of the Slovaks, South Slavs, Czechs, Germans, Jews, Lithuanians, and Russians. Among the political organizations, the Workers Party, Slovak Socialist Federation, and the Irish Workers Republican Club.

R. T. Hammersmith was elected chairman and William F. Kruse secretary. After the reading of the roll call, a list of resolutions adopted by George Maurer, national secretary of the Labor Defense Council, told the story of the Michigan riots, and of the trials that resulted in the conviction and jailing of E. Ruthenberg, secretary of the Workers' Communist Party. He described the legal procedure up to the present point of appeal in the United States supreme court, and dwelt on the political situation in Michigan as it affects immediately the trial for Robert Minor and the other defendants.

Following his speech the following resolution was adopted: Resolution on Criminal Syndicalist Cases.

Whereas, the Michigan criminal syndicalist law and others of its type are deliberate attempts on the part of the bosses to suppress the activity of the labor movement, and whereas, the use of this law against the Communists on no other charge than the holding of a convention clearly proves their malicious intent and purpose of this law, Whereas, the suppression of any one section of the labor movement, would endanger the very existence of all other sections, therefore, the Chicago Defense and Relief Council, in meeting assembled, call upon all organizations interested in the country to the aid of these workers who, because of their working class activities, are being targeted for attack and be it further

Resolved, that we pledge ourselves to raise all possible financial and moral support for these defendants in the Michigan criminal syndicalist cases, and to all others in similar circumstances.

The matter of the Sacco and Vanzetti case was gone into. Maurizio gave the history of the case and urged support of the nationwide protest meetings to be held throughout the country on a united front basis, on March 1. The Chicago meeting was arranged for Emma Memorial Hall, with Jack Johnston of the Trade Union Educational League and Ralph Chaplin of the I. W. O. At other meetings Joseph Kizer and Arthur Cleveland were speakers. The delegate from the Amalgamated Clothing Workers stated that his union had recommended to Sacco Vanzetti financial appeals and urged more detailed publicity in the progress of such cases. Delegate Arnold of the Painters raised the question of the shortness of the time, but it was explained that since these meetings were nation-wide on a set date this could not be changed. All delegates took advertising matter for the meeting with them.

The following resolution was adopted: Resolution on Sacco Vanzetti Case. Whereas, brothers Sacco and Vanzetti, well known for their activity in the labor movement in Massachusetts, were framed on charges of murder, on which charges the prosecution is trying to railroad them to their death, Whereas, labor, throughout the world, has protested against this frameup and demanded their freedom, and Whereas, protest mass meetings are being held throughout America on March 1, to demand their release, therefore be it Resolved, that this conference for Labor Defense and Relief pledge itself to work in every way possible for the release of these working class prisoners, and to support the mass meeting to be held in Chicago at Emma Memorial Hall on March first.

Irish Famine Action Taken. Richard Totten, representing the Irish Workers Republican Club, told of famine conditions now threatening the very lives of 50,000 Irish workers and peasants, and of the failure of prominent Irish politicians to adequately aid the starving workers. Secretary Kruse reported on the action taken abroad by various national units of the International Workers Aid, how the Russian, British and other committees were already rushing relief into the famine stricken districts, and of the appeal issued by the American committee, headed by Thos. J. O'Flaherty.

The following resolution was adopted: Resolution on Irish Famine Relief. Whereas, in Ireland, a famine in food and fuel, bred on a scale and

BLANKET WEAVERS WALK OUT AGAINST SPEED UP AND LOW WAGE SCALE

NORTH ADAMS, Mass., March 1.—Twenty-five weavers of the Norad mill at Brayville walked out on a strike as a protest against the present scale of wages.

The wage of 60 cents a pair for blankets brings their pay to less than that of unskilled labor in the same mill. The weavers are also required to run two looms on blanket work which is another point of bitter discussion amongst the strikers. All are out of the plant is better known as the Old North Adams Manufacturing Co.

the ruination of the flaxing banks and the loss of the flaxing industry, now threatens the very life of 750,000 of our Irish fellow workers in the same industry.

Whereas, for reasons of political expediency, certain Irish ruling policy makers have failed to take any adequate action for relief, leaving this duty entirely to the labor and the labor movement, therefore, be it Resolved, that the Chicago Defense and Relief Council, respond to the appeal of the flaxing weavers and farmers, and pledge its financial and moral support to them in all their struggles.

Various ways and means of enlarging the conference were discussed by practically all delegates present. Secretary Kruse reported on past activity and outlined the program for the future. Interests in the conference met at Ashland Auditorium on Sunday afternoon, March 29. This is the form of a gala labor show in which all program members will be given by working class organizations and active friendly. This show will be Finnish and also include Lithuanian children's chorus of 200 voices, a Jucosian Tambourina Band, a Lithuanian and many other numbers. An Irish play, "The Tinker's Wedding" will be presented by the Communist players. A prominent Lithuanian opera baritone and an Italian baritone, as well as a Russian ballet master and his pupils, will introduce program numbers. The financial proceeds are to benefit the Irish Famine Relief and the Labor Defense.

It was moved that copies of the resolution and proceedings of the conference be sent to all working class organizations in Chicago. A committee of fifteen was elected to carry on the immediate tasks of the conference and another full meeting is to meet subject to the call of the executive committee.

Klan Plan to Dope Youngsters with Bible Fails Passage in Ohio

By GEORGE PAPCUN. COLUMBUS, Ohio, March 1.—Reports of the Klan to introduce compulsory bible-reading in the public schools of Ohio met with defeat in the house of representatives of the Ohio legislature last week in session when an amendment to the original bill was tabled which under the rules, tabled the original bill as well.

The Klan element in the legislature is up in arms at this defeat of one of their pet measures for keeping the children of the workers under the influence of religious bigotry. The bible-reading bill provided for the reading of at least ten verses of the bible every day, and the memorizing of the ten commandments by pupils above the fourth grade.

In the mining sections of Eastern Ohio many teachers are acting as recruiting agents for the Sunday schools, insisting that their pupils attend them.

With the intensification of the class struggle, comes an intensification of the weapon of religion, as well as of all other weapons, as a means of keeping the workers in subjection. They should fight this effort at all the more because of the especially strong influence wielded by religious superstition and tradition.

The Klan without doubt will strain every nerve to pass the bible-reading bill by some means or other, and all workers should protest as individuals and thru their organizations against the passage of any measure to introduce religious propaganda in any form whatsoever into the public schools.

FEMALE PLUTE SEES 'MOSCOW' IN CHILD LAW

Big Capitalists Lead the Opposing Chorus
ALBANY, March 1.—A charge that the proposed child labor amendment to the Federal constitution "comes straight from Moscow where it had its inception" was made by Mrs. Edgar S. Shuman, representing the Brooklyn Women's club, at a hearing on the amendment before the Senate and assembly judiciary committees here, Shuman was hysterical.

"This amendment was known in Soviet Russia before it ever was heard of in the United States," Mrs. Shuman said. "It is nothing but a move to nationalize the children of America."

Russell R. Whitman, representing the New York State Chamber of Commerce declared that "Every extreme radical and red in the country is wholly behind this amendment."

The arguments lasted for four hours. A majority of those who spoke were women. The advocates opposing the fact that both the Republican and democratic platforms pledged the parties to ratify the amendment.

Another indignant opponent, William McCarty, representing the New York city Board of Trade and Transportation, introduced the speaker in opposition to the amendment. He characterized the proposal as "an insult to parenthood" and "an attempt to level parent and child."

Strike of Brownsville Laundry Drivers Gets Victories for Union

NEW YORK, Mar. 1.—The strike of the Brownsville laundry drivers is forcing the bosses one after the other to sign up with the union. The last two hotels the Stadium and the Illinois laundries, which have deserted the owners' association in face of what they consider a losing fight with the union.

William Berman, who was hospitalized by thugs under the direction of Dorfman, the president of the owners' association, is still in the hospital and not able to attend the mass meeting to be held tonight when the question of general strike will be settled. The bosses are advising their henchmen as they await the decision of the meeting.

Doctors at the hospital declare that Berman will not be able to get out for five weeks at least and may not get well at all. In the meantime the union is keen on winning the strike and the entire membership is lined up solidly.

The Executive and the Cleveland laundries are still closed, no attempt being made by the bosses to use force, fearing that resistance would be withdrawn demanding if such were used during the strike.

"ANISE" SPEAKS ON SOVIETS IN CLEVELAND MEET

Just Returned from 3 Years in Russia. CLEVELAND, March 1.—Cleveland workers will have a splendid opportunity to hear a first hand description of conditions in Soviet Russia as seen by an American newspaper correspondent, when Anna Louise "Anise" Berg, who writes under the name of "Anise" for the Federated Press and the DAILY WORKER, speaks at a mass meeting to be held at the Engineers Auditorium, Wednesday, March 4.

Complete Stroms spent three and a half years in Russia as a family relief worker and newspaper correspondent, traveling through the country and visiting all the principal industrial and agricultural districts.

Her observations centered mainly on the trade union and cultural organizations of the workers and the care and development of the workers' child. The latter subject is especially interesting and timely in view of the many lies and slanders which have been printed in the capitalist newspapers of this country, purporting to be a true description of the treatment of the workers' children.

Nails Lies of Kest Press. "Children's Trade Unions" homes are new and strange to most American workers who would eagerly believe the lies and slanders which have been printed in the capitalist newspapers of this country, purporting to be a true description of the treatment of the workers' children.

The meeting, which is under the auspices of the Workers' Communist Party, will be held at the Engineers Auditorium, Thursday, March 4, at 8 p. m. Admission will be twenty cents.

KENOSHA, WISC., LABOR SEES "POLKUSKA" AND APPLAUDS IT

Several hundred people applauded the movie "Polkushka" and "The Memorial—Lenin" when the pictures were shown Saturday night at Kenosha, Wis. The crowd was as big as expected thanks to a misunderstanding, but a fairly good crowd attended the three showings. Short talks were made in Russian and in English on the present situation in Soviet Russia and the Communist press. Many copies of the DAILY WORKER, the Tribune, Rabotnitsa and the Navy Mir were sold.

The last paper was sold out before the second show ended, as most of the crowd was Russian. The profits of the show will be divided between the International Workers' Aid and the Russian Communist daily, Navy Mir.

Objections to Fire Traps Called Absurd by New School Head

Before construction of the eight proposed school buildings proceeds, the necessary changes that are required by the city building department will be made. The stairway walls will be thickened and more doors will be put in the assembly rooms and gymnasiums, the doors to lead directly to the street exits.

Miss Grace Temple, the new vice-president of the school board, showed her colors when she refused to discuss the building plan further than to say the objections of the building department were "perfectly absurd." The school architect, however, admitted that the former building plan were fire traps and said the changes would be made.

N. Y. Legislature Discusses Woman and Child Labor

ALBANY, N. Y., March 1.—Shorter hours for women and children has been the leading issue before the legislative body for the last few weeks. Laws for the 43-hour week for women and children, for the 43-hour week for both sexes, for the 43-hour week with certain industries exempted and for the resolution of hours by state authority have been discussed by the committees.

Organic Nucleus at Orient. ORIENT, H. March 1.—Shop number No. 2 of Orient has just been organized. It is a unit made up of coal miners who can be expected to be on the job on all issues. They are getting ready to take up the Sacco-Vanzetti resolution at the next local party meeting.

REGIMENT OF LOBBYISTS FIGHTS MOVE FOR WORKMEN'S COMPENSATION

ST. LOUIS, March 1.—The abundant cash of the anti-union associated industries, which keeps Missouri the only industrial state without workmen's compensation bills John Hammer, a concrete laborer, had Hammer's back as sprained by an industrial accident.

He has six undernourished children, a wife dying of tuberculosis, and 35 cents in cash. His only recourse is a damage suit and the usual farcical outcome of such proceedings offer no hope to victims of injury. The generosity of their grocer has kept the family from starving, but with the bill now in three figures, this cannot last.

Winter wind whistles thru the two room shack. A small stove furnishes heat. A caller found an almost empty tin and no food in the house. Union labor is working for a compensation measure in the present session, but the associated industries have a regiment of lobbyists on the job.

Attention, Milwaukee!

On Monday, March 2, there will be an important meeting of all DAILY WORKER branch agents and all fire-wires who wish to help in this most important party work. Don't fail to attend this meeting and all following meetings of the DAILY WORKER branch agents which will be held on every first and third Mondays of each month.

COMMUNIST CHILDREN COLUMN

A Letter to Russian Leninists. Dear Russian Comrades: We, the American comrades, are sending our warmest greetings to you. We hope that some day you will succeed in the struggle that you have undertaken. Here in America it is pretty hard for our children of the working class to make America equal to all children so that we will all get the same education and destroy child labor. With heartfelt love wishes. The school which is spending in school we have American Youth League.

Massachusetts to Force Arbitration on Paper Workers. (See at The Daily Worker.) HOLYOKE, Mass., March 1.—The state minimum wage commission has given notice that it proposes to establish a wage board for stationery manufacturers and asks the paper mill owners to nominate members for the board.

The board is to consist of seven members, a chairman appointed by the commission, three representatives of the employers and three of the employees. If the required nominations are not made the board has power to fill the vacancies. Local owners who will be affected are the White & Wicks Co., Shurtz & Co., in Highland Hill and the York & Black Book Co.

DEFENSE BODY HOLDS CONFAB IN CLEVELAND

Many Unions Follow Communists' Lead

CLEVELAND, Ohio, March 1.—The next meeting of the Sacco-Vanzetti defense conference will be held on March 4, at the Labor Temple, 3538 Duane Ave., to hear the report of the March 1 demonstration, and discuss the future of the conference. The last meeting of the conference, it was pointed out that not only will it be necessary to keep up agitation but there are also many other cases of a similar nature which must be fought by labor, such as the Tom Mooney case, the numerous I. W. W. persecutions, the Michigan cases involving Wm. Z. Foster, C. E. Ruthenber and many other Communists, the attempt to revoke the citizenship papers of A. V. Severino of Cleveland, for his political beliefs. There is also the McEntire case, setting out to Domestick Venturo, because of the killing of a scab at New Lafayette, O., in the 1922 coal strike, and which those workers familiar with the situation are shortly convinced that Venturo is innocent of the crime. The meeting of the delegates was that something should develop out of this conference and the mass meeting set for the general defense of labor against persecutions by the capitalist courts.

More Unions Assent. The conference when first organized issued a call to the unions to affiliate if they had not already done so upon the original invitation by the Workers Party, and as the various organizations act upon this call, more affiliations are being secured, and the March 6 conference will show quite a few in addition to those already secured.

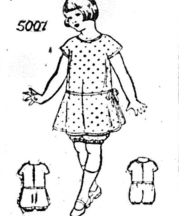

Vermont Loggers Work from Dawn Till Dark

NORTH ADAMS, Mass., March 1.—Loggers employed by the Housatonic Lumber company at Hartwellville, Vt., are working from daylight until dark in the nearby mountains in an effort to get out 30,000 logs which have been cut and are piled up in the mill before the ice is gone, and the wood has to be left where it is cut. Camp No. 1 at Hartwellville is still staying there at all times and last Sunday late to beat the snow which carried away the heavy snow of the past month. Choppers have been hired and extra teams hired to carry the logs over the wood roads which are from two to four inches deep with a hard bottom.

AMERICAN FINANCE ALLIED TO GERMAN BIG CAPITAL IN PLOT TO BEAT DOWN WORLD LABOR

Who rules Germany today? The great capitalists who control the basic industries, answers the Annalist, financial organ of the New York Times. Under the head Heavy Industry in the Middle it says:

"Heavy industry under the power behind the scenes of the heavy industry magnates is enormous. They know no fear. Germany's side of the commercial world is the most important. They threaten to upset Chancellor Luther if he refuses to recognize their pact with the German nationalists under which the latter agrarians group supports iron duties while heavy industry supports food duties.

They have compelled the government to promise compensation for losses of iron, steel and coal during the Ruhr occupation. The mass of the local population was getting no compensation for its losses. Why should only the coal and steel magnates be compensated? The answer to this question is that, as events have proved, the coal and steel magnates have the power."

Same the World Over—Except Russia. The Annalist is not simply describing the prevailing condition under capitalism in Germany, but also in England, France, Italy, Japan, the United States and all the industrial nations.

The agreement which German magnates have forced, proclaim that the manufacturers of finished goods would have no opposition to heavy industry's demand for a big increase in the iron and steel duties.

To Undergo On World Market. This agreement will enable German manufacturers to dump cheap finished goods on the world market, under selling the works of England, France and America. German workmen will look the bill when paying artificially high prices for what they consume.

American Capital in German Industry. American capitalists step along with American labor. Certainly their American enterprises will get out of the bill when paying artificially high prices for what they consume.

They are thus financial partners of August Bismarck who led in negotiating the agreement which will enable German industry to undercut American capital in the same of pitting one set of workers against another to secure cheap labor—in this world scale.

Polish Hyena is Snarling, Fearing Loss of His Subsidy. WARSAW, March 1.—Alarmed at the continued Franco-British suggestions for a pact guaranteeing France along the Rhine but ignoring the German frontier, M. Skrzymski, Polish foreign minister, in a speech in parliament warned the Paris government of the dangerous menace of immediate war in Europe if France deserted Poland and abandoned the defense treaty.

CHAUFFEURS, CAB AND TRUCK MEN ORGANIZE UNION

Springfield Workers Seek Improvement

SPRINGFIELD, Mass.—An organization drive was started at a general meeting of chauffeurs, cab and truck drivers, teamsters, helpers and auto mobile mechanics employed in Springfield, at Central Labor Union Hall. The new union will be affiliated with the A. F. of L.

The principal objects of this drive as stated by the men are the establishment of an eight-hour day for all classes of chauffeurs and increases in the various wage scales.

An effort will be made to establish an eight-hour day and a sixty-day week in this class of work, and to fix the minimum wage at all last drivers at $3. This will compel the employers to organize their business on a three-plant basis.

Ice cream van drivers are now getting wages ranging from $18 to $25 per week for 10 hours a day, seven days a week. Efforts will be made to establish the Chicago scale here.

The drivers of trucks, such as moving vans, who make out-of-town trips on regular schedules, to Boston, New York, Albany and intermediary points will demand pay by the hour instead of by the trip. They are now supposed to get on an average of $15 a trip, which occupies two days and one night. In addition they are supposed to be allowed $1 a day for expenses. They will ask for $6 to 10 cents an hour.

The teamsters in this city at present get from $10 to $14 a week for a 10 to 12 hour day. They will seek an eight-hour day and higher pay. The helpers on furniture vans, also work from 10 to 12 hours daily at an average wage of 24 cents an hour. They will also demand higher pay and less hours.

The auto-mechanics, now receiving less than 15 cents an hour, will demand $1 an hour.

RED CROSS OF RUSSIA FOUNDS NEW DISPENSARY

Arbeiter Ring Gives $15,000 for Work

NEW YORK, March 1.—The Russian Red Cross has established a dispensary in the Hotel district, where the ravages of the white guard counter-revolutionary armies left this disease in their wake. The statement of the American representative of the Russian Red Cross, D. H. Dubrovsky, concerning the Arbeiter Ring, which donated fifteen thousand dollars for this work, follows:

In view of the statement of the Central Committee of the Arbeiter Ring which appeared in the Yiddish press some time ago, we herewith wish to set the record straight. The Arbeiter Ring was organized in a communication from the Central Committee of the Russian Red Cross, a photostat copy as well as a translation of which we herewith append. The communication of the Central Committee of the Russian Red Cross appears for itself.

We wish, nevertheless, to emphasize that the American office of the Russian Red Cross certainly had no intention to believe that the Arbeiter Ring would require a translation of thousands of dollars annually.

The Arbeiter Ring does not see its way clear to cover the upkeep of the hospital and not being in a position to raise the necessary amount, financial responsibility of a successful continuous operation of a hospital and of the necessary staff, in cooperation with the wishes of the members of the Arbeiter Ring who so generously support the work of the Russian Red Cross in this city.

The translation of the letter from the Central Committee of the Russian Red Cross, Moscow, telling of the founding of the dispensary states:

To the Representatives of the Russian Red Cross in America, Comrade Dubrovsky.

The Central Committee of the Russian Red Cross begs you to inform the Arbeiter Ring of the following: "Taking into consideration that the only donation of the Arbeiter Ring does not allow the Central Committee functioning of a hospital in Hotel and that the Central Committee does not possess the material means to take upon itself fully the upkeep of such a hospital, it is possible to fulfill the wishes of the donors, the Central Committee has taken all necessary steps for opening in the city of Hotel, a general dispensary bearing the name of the Arbeiter Ring."

The Central Committee hopes in the future, when it will be able to convert the dispensary into a hospital.

But for the time being for the reasons above mentioned, the Central Committee is compelled to limit to 10 to 12 hours a day. We will provide further details in reports of the operation of the dispensary.

Chairman of the Central Committee, Russian Red Cross. (Signed) Z. Soloviy, Secretary Central Committee, (Signed) E. Korovin

BUILDERS AT WORK

Unusual Building Activity in Milwaukee.

A SUGGESTION TO YOUR C. C. C.

A LETTER just received from Comrade Shklar of Milwaukee not only shows a local campaign gathering "hill steam ahead" but includes so many practical features, that we want all of our readers to note carefully every sentence he writes:

"Dear Comrades: At the time we received your letter it was decided to compel every DAILY WORKER agent to become a subscriber, since we had several cases where the agents were not subscribers themselves. We have followed this up by compelling every city central committee delegate to become a subscriber and now we will go down the line until every member of the party is a subscriber to the party paper. This believe will not only add greatly to the growth of the party but also will help us in building up a party ideologically unified.

"We have in this city a large circle of sympathizers who generally attend our meetings and we intend to assign a certain number of names to every party member to visit for the purpose of securing subscribers to the paper and also to establish connections for the possibility of securing new members.

"I think THIS WAY WE WILL BUILD UP THE PARTY AND THE PAPER AT THE SAME TIME."

Just note the last sentence. These comrades realize fully that to build the party it is essential to "BUILD THE WORKER." One is both the other and when "every local acts on this truth a growth in both is sure.

When we say that fact Milwaukee is ACTING and not simply talking, we should mention the fact that this letter from Comrade Shklar outlines the local plans including 200 new subscribers that procure usual "building" activity among the wide-awake Milwaukee Communist BUILDERS.

We suggest that comrades in all locals could read Comrade Shklar's letter to their C. C. C. for action!

SOVIET PRESS SHOWS ADVANTAGES OF THE RUSSO-JAPANESE TREATY

MOSCOW, Jan. 23 (By Mail).—Following the conclusion of the Russo-Japanese treaty is highly appreciative terms, the Soviet press points out to the mutual advantages of the more.

The Soviet writers treat a Soviet-Japanese Chinese rapprochement as a far-reaching importance for the peaceful solution of the Far Eastern questions and the development of Asiatic peoples.

The Soviet writers treat the agreement reached is the most important for Japan, hearing as it does not only on Japan's immediate economic interests, but on her further political interests.

Japan as a great Pacific power is closely bound with the future development of the Pacific area, and in the event of complications in the Pacific.

The Soviet-Japanese treaty, a leading organ on economic and financial questions, foresees a certain reorganizing of international forces in connection with the restoration of friendly relations between the U. S. S. R. and Japan, more particularly a more speedy solution of America of the issue of full resumption of relations with the Union of Soviet Republics.

Rakovsky States His Views. MOSCOW, Jan. 24, (By Mail).—The friendly cooperation between the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics, Japan and China will certainly have the most favorable consequences. C. O. Rakovsky, Soviet representative at London, at present in Moscow on a business trip, said to a correspondent of the Izvestia in reference to the Russo-Japanese treaty. At the same time he pointed out that the contents of the European press as to the conclusion of a Soviet-Japanese alliance were unfounded.

Replying to a question regarding the effect the new treaty could have on the relations between the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics and Britain, Rakovsky stated that he expected nothing but good results. England ought not to see the look upon the Soviet-Japanese treaty as directed in its own interest against her, but as a step towards a more peaceful relations of peaceful cooperation, for which the necessary basis was created by the now rejected Anglo-Soviet treaty.

Hits Back at Herriot. Referring to Soviet relations with France, Rakovsky expressed profound astonishment at the protest of Herriot against Rykov's, the president of the council of people's commissaries, recent statement on the question of "Hit it been any French pay

DANISH LABOR FACES BATTLE WITH EMPLOYERS

General Lockout and a Strike Loom

COPENHAGEN, Denmark, March 1.—The temporary failure of negotiations between the trade union and the employers' associations for the renewal of the old agreements, which were coupled to a demand for increased wages, led to the issuance of strike notices on a part of several of the unions. This was countered last night by a lockout notice from the employers.

Great Battle Coming. The employers have not yet decided which of the unions will be included in the lockout, but it is believed that Denmark is now confronted by a great labor fight of the present difficulty is not settled at once.

The Copenhagen Typographical union voted last night to reject a new agreement which had been offered. This union will strike on Saturday morning, with the result that the Copenhagen newspapers will not appear.

Conditions Favor Strike. Today the government arbitrator is taking measures to bring the opposing parties together in an effort to obtain postponement of the strike while fresh negotiations proceed.

Whether he will succeed is doubtful, as the moment for a strike from the labor point of view is particularly favorable.
