Hands Off China! Call of the Workers Party to Workers and Farmers

The upheaval of China, the new feeling of unity manifested against the atrocious exploitation of the Chinese toiling masses by foreign imperialists and the attempted insurance of that exploitation by brutal armed intervention and invasion of Chinese territory by foreign arms, is causing the great powers to gasp with astonishment...

GET OUT OF CHINA! Withdraw All Troops and Warships from China! Stop Strikebreaking and War on the Chinese Workers, Peasants and Students!

To all Trade Unions, Workers' Political Parties, Working Farmers and Working Peasants: We must not wait until war comes to fight war. We must show the imperialists that the masses of workers and farmers in the colonial and semi-colonial countries is known to us for work in the rehearsal of the struggle by which the capitalist class intends to suppress us when we refuse to be enslaved any longer.

The biggest American war fleet ever assembled is in the Pacific. The Chinese masses are defending their right to national freedom as the American colonies did in 1776. They fight against the rule of foreign capitalists and landlords and all the capitalist nations are united against them.

Have the American masses, who will be called to fight and die for capitalism if war results from the imperialist rivalry in the Pacific, been asked for their consent to the murder of the Chinese workers and peasants?

A United Front of all workers and workers' organizations against Imperialist War. A United Front for the withdrawal of all troops from China. Bring home the businessmen who rob the Chinese masses day in and day out and who then yell for gunboats and marines when these masses will be robbed no longer.

Hands Off China! Mass Meetings, Demonstrations, Protests to Congressmen, Senators and the President. Resolutions of Protest from Unions, Workers Fraternal Societies and Farmers Organizations! Demand that the Pacific Fleet be Brought Home! Demand that the Chinese Workers and Peasants be let alone!

AS PEOPLE'S ARMIES MARCH TO RELIEF AGAINST YUNNANESSES

(Special to The Daily Worker)
CANTON, China, June 8.—Civil war grips Canton following the firing begun yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock between the Kuomintang troops and the army of mercenary Yunnanese led by Yang Hai-min and Lu Chun-wan.

Later Saturday several of the Cantonese (Kuomintang) gun-boats steamed up the river past Shamoon for Homan, the fortified position of the Kuomintang forces, dropping shells as they went into the Chinese section of the city occupied by the Yunnanese.

Machinist gun fire across the Canton river continued until 5:30 in the afternoon.
Say One Thing, Do Another
The Yunnanese claim that they support the policies of the dead leader Sun Yat Sen, but this is contradicted by their acts which can find no other explanation than that they are fighting the battles of imperialism by attacking the heart of the Kuomintang party by armed force.

The trouble broke when the Yunnanese demanded that the Kuomintang cease moving troops in such a way as to place them in at position of disadvantage if hostilities began between the two armies. Evidently they intended to assume the position of besiegers under the guise of friends. The Canton forces replied with discipline, and the Kuomintang troops were ordered to retreat. Evidently they are afraid to approach the consular body, he advocates retention of all armed forces until the situation is completely safe and sound. Cunningham is notorious for his opposition to the Chinese liberation movement.

Two Armies March to Reinforce Cantonese
The Cantonese are expecting heavy reinforcements of the people's army commanded by Hsu Chung-chi approaching from Kiangsu and Chu-Pai troops arriving from the north. But both are being held back by the appointment of Chu Pa-tai to command of their forces.

Much depends upon the highly drilled and expert leadership of the people's army, the Kuomintang. Still more depends upon the support furnished by the workers of Canton and the peasants of the surrounding territory. The cargo loaders at the wharves are already out and the Kuomintang party may ask the workers to wait on general strike in the Yunnanese.

Foreigners are fleeing Canton, the boats to Hong Kong being crowded.
More U. S. Troops in China.
(Special to The Daily Worker)

SINGHAI, China, June 5.—Three hundred more U. S. Marines rushed over on the U. S. S. Jason from Fort Cavite in the Philippines were landed and began patrolling the boundary line of the foreign settlement today. Yu Yu Ching, head of the local Chinese Chamber of Commerce, named by the Peking government to serve on the government's investigation board, appeared yesterday in Canton, declared that no evidence of his life was threatened because he had not sided with the strikers and students.

reason he is really serving: "Had you been more concerned with your duties and less with your rights, you might not have been in trouble."
Arrests in California
In California, where eighty men are in jail under the infamous criminal syndicalism law of that state for members of the I. W. W., another trial is in process. Tom Connors, former secretary of the California General Defense Council, was brought to trial for the third time on a charge of "attempting to influence a juror." His cases is before the infamous 23rd to 25th in San Francisco. "Buckin Junction," Judge Chas. O. Buxton of the superior court of Sacramento.

Report from Honolulu tells of the jailing of 77 Filipino sugar workers for striking against the inhuman wage paid them on the plantations of the sugar trust.
In addition to numerous deportations of foreign-born workers of late and the almost certain prospects of widespread industrial unrest throughout the country, seem to make highly timely and necessary the conference called by the Labor Defense Council to convene in Seattle on the 25th to discuss ways and means for rallying all forces in the labor movement for workers' defense.

Frame Up Union Men
An indictment has been handed down by a Rochester, N. Y., grand jury charging William B. Fitzgerald, president of the Street Railway Union, and W. P. Collins, general organizer of the A. F. of L., with conspiracy to dynamite the tracks of the International Railroad near Buffalo on August 17th, 1922. This is an obvious frame-up and is merely a reward for the activity of these union leaders who until their arrest, were recently active in Detroit.

Efforts to effect the release of Joseph Roth, a Cleveland Post-Intelligencer editor, by his local union, who was framed-up by the authorities in 1923 for his activities, have so far not met with success. He was arrested in the city of Cleveland from the mails but the words of the judge in sentencing Roth to five years imprisonment are an indication of the

Hearst's Seattle Paper Remains Scab

SEATTLE, Wash., (FP)—After one year of publication by strike-breakers, the Seattle Post-Intelligencer is still at outs with the Typographical Union. The union printers called the strike June 1, 1924, when the Hearst daily after many months of stalling finally refused to pay the Seattle and meet the demands of all the other plants in the city. The typesetters and motters were locked out the same time when they refused to handle scab material sent down from the composing room by imported strike-breakers.

KELLOGG HURLS BRICKS AS CAL COMPLIMENTS BLOOD SONS OF THOR

MINNEAPOLIS, June 8.—While Coolidge confined himself to outlying incidents, Kellogg hurled bricks and throwing bouquets at their descendants, his secretary of state Kellogg, threw a few bricks at those who strayed away from the G. O. P. Wall Street, the past few years.

Kellogg attacked the farmer-labor movement by implication, assailed those who advocated "foreign born" and told those who wanted to take the power away from the capitalists to go "where they can find a government which does satisfy them."

The speech was regarded as a threat by the workers and farmers of Minnesota and will not aid the G. O. P. in the election. Kellogg is the wandering venter of the field.

FOSTER ASKS AID FOR PARTY PRESS AT ITALIAN PICNIC Fight Reformist Betrayals, He Urges

"The betrayals of the labor leaders and social-democratic leaders have now demonstrated to great masses of workers and farmers that the party is not a party of reformism," declared William Z. Foster, national chairman of the Workers (Communist) Party, Sunday afternoon at the picnic of the Chicago Italian branches of the party, at Garden City Grove.

Foster pointed out clearly that the co-operation of British and Russian unions in the great movement for international trade union indicates that the workers must cease to look to Amsterdam for leadership and are turning their eyes toward Moscow. This, he showed, is the important factor in the unity movement.

Appeals for Italian Organ.
Comrade Foster closed his address with a ringing appeal for support of the Italian organ of the Workers Party, Il Lavoratore. He pointed out that the growth of the Italian section of the party is bound up with the growth of Il Lavoratore. No sacrifices must be spared, he said, to build up the paper, declaring that it must be transformed from a weekly into a daily at the earliest possible moment.

Following Foster's address, Fay Lovestone, the party's research director, spoke, calling attention to the opportunities now before the Italian federation. "The Communist movement is everywhere confronted with great difficulties," he declared, "but we must learn to face them and conquer them." He reiterated Comrade Foster's remarks in support of Il Lavoratore.

International Color to Picnic.
Altho arranged by the Italian branches, the picnic proved to be a thoroughly international affair. A large number of non-Italians were present. Towards evening the "tombola," concert was held.

The annual picnic of the Young Workers League was held in Beyer's Grove, California, Ave., and Irving Park Blvd. Max Schachtman, editor of the Young Worker, who has recently returned from the Soviet Union, was the speaker.

At all the picnics, the revolutionary merry makers enjoyed the dancing, and ample music, entertainment, and refreshments.

Bootleggers Get Jail Privileges.
Frank Lane and Terry Druggan, Chicago's bootleg barons, have been playing ball and smoking cigars in the jail yard. They are serving a sentence of one year for contempt of the federal court. The two wealthy beer kings played ball with two prison guards. It is rumored that the two bootleggers have been granted special privileges following a liberal bribe.

Restore Tolstoy House.
MOSCOW (By Mail).—The restoration has been undertaken of Leon Tolstoy's house in the Khamovniki sector of Moscow. The custodian of this museum-house is Tolstoy's son, who is his caretaker. He is seeking to restore the whole house in all its minutest details as it was in the famous writer's lifetime. This work is to be completed very shortly.

Beer Runner Arrested for Shooting.
Charged with the killing of Harry Hines, a well-known Chicago beer runner, was arrested yesterday by Walter O'Donnell in a suburban road house, Tony E. (Red) Mallon, was arrested today. Authorities assert he is a beer runner and himself in the "transfer" business. Sixteen other men are being detained for questioning.

Expect Loeb to Recover
JOLIET, Ill., June 8.—With slight improvement in Richard Loeb's physical condition noted today, Joliet officials are optimistic that the boy, who had his mind will become normal again.
He was, however, still strapped to the bed and constantly under guard of two men.

Class Conscious Labor Is Invited By Kellogg to Get Out of Minnesota

By J. LOUIS ENODDAHL

TODAY, the best way to judge Cal Coolidge's trip to Minnesota to make the state safe for the republican party, is thru his selection of William D. Mitchell, the St. Paul corporation lawyer, as solicitor general of the United States to succeed James M. Beck, director in big banks and insurance companies.

Coolidge has been good to Minnesota: the Minnesota of the great capitalists, Frank B. Kellogg, one of the pets of Minnesota's capitalists, ex-U. S. senator, is now secretary of state; Pierce Butler, an associate justice of the U. S. supreme court, and now Mitchell is solicitor general; three legal battlers for capitalism entrenched in powerful positions in the government.

There is unity between this trio. Mitchell once belonged to Butler's law firm. Butler rose to fame and wealth as legal adviser of the now bankrupt Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul railroad. He was also an ardent defender in court of the "open shop" law which the Pullman Co. traction trust that has Minneapolis, St. Paul, Duluth and other Minnesota cities in its grip. Mitchell is a graduate of this "open shop," pro-corporation school. But his job in Washington, as solicitor general, is to fight the criminal corporations. His record up to the present time is a prophetic of the class struggle that he will carry on. He will be good—to big business.

It is also interesting to note that Mitchell is a democrat, appointed by a republican president. That is easy to explain.

When the Minnesota city and land workers organized their Farmer-Labor Party, the democratic party was crushed. It was ground to pieces in the developing class struggle. The republicans welcomed the democrats, their former enemies, with open arms, offering them a place of refuge. So Mitchell, the "open shop" law supporter, Coolidge, the republican pro-president. In order to seal that demo-republican marriage, Mitchell gets a fat job for himself and a strategic position for great capital in the government at Washington.

But the Coolidge-Kellogg-Butler-Mitchell combination is not above making overtures to the place seekers who have found a spot in the sun on the shoulders of the worker and farmer masses of Minnesota. The reports state that farmer-labor and partisan league officials participated in the Coolidge program at the Minnesota state fair grounds, when the strikebreaker president said, of the migration of the Quaker to class or caste," and when Secretary of State Kellogg later declared:

"Either stand wholeheartedly behind the government and institutions of the United States or go elsewhere and find a government that satisfies you. There is no place for you here."

Kellogg thus admits that there is a class cleavage among the peoples of the northwest. His speech was a direct challenge to the class conscious workers and farmers, not only of Minnesota and the northwest, but of the whole country. Kellogg is class conscious. He knows that the workers have been pushed into high places by the rise of the farmer-labor movement were found class-collaborating on the side of the capitalist interests they were chosen to fight.

Every incident of Coolidge's trip to Minnesota shows that Minnesota's masses must build anew and more solidly on the basis of the class struggle. They must fight the leaders who have betrayed them.

Let the slogans of the Workers (Communist) Party, raised in the Minneapolis municipal election on the day that Coolidge came into Minnesota, ring in the ears and stir to renewed and more intelligent action the masses in that state: Defeat the "open shop" bosses! Join the trade union of Quaker! Build the Labor Party! Join the Workers (Communist) Party and aid in the fight to realize this program!

The traitors to the workers and farmers have been revealed again in Minnesota. Let the laboring masses make the most of it.

11 WORKERS DIE CAUGHT IN TRAP BY FREIGHT TRAIN Others Die in Wreckage of Coal Cars

BULLETIN.
CONVERSE, Ind., June 8.—The toll taken by the C. & O. railroad wreck near Converse this morning amounted to 17 dead and severely injured late today when a second coal car was raised and 7 additional bodies were recovered. Four of the 17 dead bodies were being made at Peru.

CONVERSE, Ind., June 8.—Eleven bodies have been recovered and eight are missing from the Converse wreckage of twenty-five men, caught under fifteen coal cars which were derailed on the C. & O. railroad near here, where the C. & O. runs beneath the Pennsylvania trestle.

Three of the section hands dug from beneath one of the coal cars were the only ones who were not seriously injured late today when a second coal car was raised and 7 additional bodies were recovered. Four of the 17 dead bodies were being made at Peru.

SCOPES' DEFENSE DODGES ISSUE OF CHURCH DPE

Catering to Powerful Anti-Labor Parsons

NEW YORK, N. Y., June 8.—John T. Scopes, teacher of biology in the Dayton, Tenn., public high school, is denying this week to confer with the Civil Liberties Union officials on the conduct of his defense against the indictment for teaching evolution. Scopes' defense will also take part in the defense of the teachers of the day.

So far, most of those connected with the defense have not defended the Darwin theory of evolution, but have contended that the demand for the abolition of the Tennessee anti-evolution law on the grounds that the right to teach a theory is granted in the federal constitution. The defense lawyers seem anxious not to offend the preachers.

Prof. John R. Neal, attorney for Scopes' motion to quash the indictment on the grounds that the charge of the religious aspect of the case, and expects to call eminent theologians, both orthodox and liberal to the witness stand. Neal is trying to show that the language of the defense lawyers seem anxious not to offend the preachers.

Scopes' attorneys are expected to make a motion to quash the indictment when the case comes before Judge John T. Raulston on July 10, on the grounds that the charge is vague, and unconstitutional.

Darwin's Law on Evolution.
LONDON June 8.—Speaking before the Victoria Institute here, professor of geology, George McCandless, of New York, declared that no scientific fact "scientific facts bear out the literal truthfulness of the first chapter of Genesis," and that "evolution" is false.

Leonard Darwin, 75 year old son of Charles Darwin, the great scientist, and originator of the theory of evolution, declared that no scientific man disputes evolution. He said:

"This attack on evolution is a retrograde movement, but it is only a passing phase which will disappear. No scientific man disputes evolution, also he may argue in regard to the manner in which evolution came about from a child and originally from a germ or small particle of organic matter, the process of development from the original germ, there is no break in the series. We cannot say where mind or consciousness began."

"I feel sure American scientists will meet me with the same fearless spirit and I am certain it will be with the same results."

Shepherd Jury Nearly Completed.
The jury for the trial of William D. Shephard, charged with having caused the death of his ward, William Nelson McCintock, may be completed by nightfall.

Indiana Investigation.
INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., June 8.—A thorough investigation into the wreck at Converse resulting in the loss of eleven lives was ordered by John McCordie, chairman of the public service commission, immediately after he was notified of the fatal accident shortly before noon today.

McCordie dispatched Ray Mishap, railway inspector of the commission, to the scene with instructions to make a comprehensive probe of the accident.

Known By First Names Only.
PERU, Ind., June 8.—Considerable difficulty was being experienced here this afternoon in identifying the bodies of seven section hands brought down from the scene of the wreck at Converse.

Officials explained the section gang for the most part was composed of Negroes and Italian who were known by their first names only and a careful check of the payroll was being made to learn the identity of the dead. Only one body, that of William McMan, 18, white, of Peru, was identified of the seven brought here this afternoon.

Communists Denounce Monarchy.
ROME, June 8.—The opposition parties joined the fascists in proclaiming the monarchy during the celebration of the 25th anniversary of King Victor Emmanuel's rule. The Communists were the only party refusing to take part in the demonstration.

JURY TRIAL WEDNESDAY IN FREE SPEECH FIGHT OF WORKERS PARTY

J. Louis Engdahl, editor of the Daily Worker, was brought to the municipal court yesterday when he demanded a jury trial at the Chicago avenue police court, following his arrest in the case of an open air meeting at W. North Ave. and Orchard St., Saturday night. The case was set Wednesday morning, June 10, 10:30 a. m., in Court Room 105, City Hall. Other cases growing out of the free speech fight conducted by the Workers (Communist) Party at the same place are scheduled to come up Wednesday.

RED INTERNATIONAL OF LABOR UNIONS. CORPAGE COMPANY MAKES PROFIT EASILY

Boys and Men Need A Shop Committee. By GEO. BENDER (Worker Correspondent) EASTON, Pa.—This company is manufacturing all sorts of rope, cable and twines for the use of steam and coast ships...

Wages vary. For adult workers that have been working there for the past 15 to 20 years well Yellie get 80 and some "bonus" if he works fast enough. For other workers the wages are from 35 to the per hour. For boys from 15 to 18 years in 2c for first few months, other boys 2c for practically same speed of work as men do.

The company also employ young workers at 2c per hour. 20 years engaged in spinning with five double spoked mchaps. About 15 young workers are employed of which three attend partial school, and the company's machines are already worn and unsafe to work with, especially for young workers.

Young Workers Demand Increase of Wages. In the first part of March about ten of the young workers decided to ask the boss (Mr. Ringus the owner of the firm) for a raise.

As usual he refused to come to terms with the young workers, so the young workers, in turn, quit the job. Of course in a few weeks some returned and others looked elsewhere.

Names and organization mean nothing to the members outside a limited few. Running "John" against "Arthur" in the last election, for instance, was a blind contest to the members, moreover, it is a craft union makers' custom which leads to corruption.

Let every candidate for all offices be required to state in writing to the membership the policies which he intends to carry out if elected. Then give him power and respect so long and so long as he carries out these policies.

Shoe Workers' Wages: The shoe capitalists in Massachusetts are getting ready to cut wages. Their excuse is the moss-grown one of "high labor costs."

Wages of boot and shoe workers according to this report, increased in the New England 48.5 per cent since 1916. But the efficiency of the workers measured in output per man-hour, has increased 25.1 per cent.

What do these figures mean to us workers? It is not that wages are too high, but that they are too low. The workers do not get enough wages to buy back even an important portion of their product.

Coolidge Klucks in Minnesota: President Coolidge in his speech to the Norse-American society in the Twin Cities made no statements that could not have come from any lad of sixteen.

The Ensavement of China

By Wm. F. Dunne

SCENE OF PRESENT STRUGGLES IN CHINA

TO force recognition by China of a sphere of interest was a joint program of the imperialist nations growing out of their desire to exploit unhampered either by Chinese government influence or the intrigues of rivals.

England had no desire to see the "break-up" of China, of which these successive concessions (of 1898) seemed to be the beginning; and she was on her unvarying policy in China, her one wish was to maintain the equality of opportunity which had been secured by the treaty.

Great Britain was disturbed by the trend of events and the opinion of her representative, Lord Salisbury, as given by H. B. Morse in the "Foreign Relations of the Chinese Empire," was:

Russia had the concession for the Chinese Eastern railway across Manchuria by the railway line that since the Russian revolution has been such a bone of contention and which, now opposed jointly by the Chinese and the imperialist nations with two great anti-imperialist leagues a bond that the imperialists are striving mightily to break.

other that there was honor in the ranks of the fraternity. Dera could not stop the policy of the "natural" relations of the 1900 after a stage of the foreign legations which was broken by the combined military might of all the imperialist nations with the United States playing a leading role with troops which had already wrested the Philippines from Spain.

Russia had the concession for the Chinese Eastern railway across Manchuria by the railway line that since the Russian revolution has been such a bone of contention and which, now opposed jointly by the Chinese and the imperialist nations with two great anti-imperialist leagues a bond that the imperialists are striving mightily to break.

Its essential element is a negative one: namely, the term expressed the principle that NO OTHER POWER except the one in whose favor the "sphere of interest" exists shall be permitted to acquire concessions or exert and control of influence whatsoever to speak of spheres of occupation—the same time giving the privileged power a monopoly of the right to seek concessions.

NO policy better calculated to make itself felt in the sphere of semi-colonial—and at the same time intensify the imperialist rivalries rather than submerging them—than a policy adopted by common agreement the great powers have never ceased to enmesh on each other's sphere of interest.

Interest policy does not lessen imperialist rivalry. The growth of the particular adventures of one power in a particular sphere merely intensifies the rivalry of the rest.

The "break-up" of China through the acquisition of concession territories by Germany and Japan was a step toward a lessening of her opportunities to plunder undisturbed.

NOT ready for war over Chinese concessions, British diplomacy was, in a twisted, one day champion of the integrity of China.

But Great Britain had the edge on all her competitors in this period both in mining and railway concessions. Says J. O. P. Brand: In 1896, with the acute development of the "sphere of influence" regime and the assertion by Great Britain of special rights in the Yellow Sea, the exclusively British railway concessions in that region were extracted from China under severe diplomatic pressure.

China's national spirit and the events which followed. The thing for the progressive carpenters to do now is to vote the ticket headed by Frank Stahl.

TALKING OF the "mass convention" of the defunct socialist party recently held in Cleveland, Ohio, Joseph Sharts, a lawyer of Dayton, Ohio, described the affair thus: "The biggest thing ever happened in Cleveland," bigger we suppose, than even the expulsion of the socialist Willert from the city.

SHARTS is funnier than the colonel, but in a different way. He means well, but Wagenknecht could not have written a more humorous skit on the socialist gathering than this: "Socialist troops in from all sorts of forgotten holes, by train, tractor, bus, airplane, and foot, the call came out to come to the Cleveland convention as like the trumpet sounding for the restoration day. They crawled out from the intellect-caves, hunched, around off dirt and mud, blinking around, stretched themselves—and came. Yes, brother Sharts, they came, and they went and it will take the trumpet for the Prince of Wales, his arrival at this Zululand town but were forced to give up their arms during the ceremonies, "so they could not be shot."
