With their help, increased success is assured to every undertaking by the DAILY WORKER in the near future.

8,000 In Saklatvala Protest!

WASHINGTON, D. C., Sept. 25.—Such excitement goes on under the nose of the United States government as never before. The proposed removal of the Japanese Consul, Saklatvala, and Japan regarding conflicting radio broadcasts granted by China to the Federal Telegraph company of America, has become a national issue.

Officials refuse to divulge just what the latest Japanese proposal is, but it is understood to suggest a complete armistice. America, with her own Imperialist interests, does not serve, contends that the United States is in violation of the "open door" policy because it grants the United States the monopoly. The United States therefore insists on prying the "closed door" open.

IMPERIALISTS HOLD FAREWELL TO CHINESE RADIO
4 Nations Claim Contract Rights

Further complications are possible if the United States government, which is claiming to have a prior contract with the Federal Telegraph company, refuses to grant the Japanese proposal. The United States government was cancelled by the decision of the allies which alleged it was really a contract of the United States.

Harry P. Love, Secretary of the National Council of the American People, representing the protest of the workers of the United States.

We Hate to Do It

It gives us no joy to chronicle the fall from grace of the official of the Amalgamated Clothing Workers of America, edited by the Daily Worker, and the Daily Worker. First in the interest of veracity we must call attention to the fact that those with the best of intentions sometimes go wrong when confronted with facts that run counter to their conceptions of how things should be done. Thus it is with the honorable Brother Scheinberg, editor of the A. C. W.

Scheinberg goes on the rocks when he essays to produce an article written by A. A. Purcell, president of the International Federation of Trade Unions, for the Labor Monthly. The article deals with the necessity for a united trade union international.

If the editor of the A. C. W. had written a long introduction to Purcell's article, stating that he did not subscribe to all the details of the argument presented by Brother Purcell, it is possible that our intelligence department might have been more lenient. However, when the following sentence hit our editorial eye we immediately got our checks on Brother Scheinberg's track. "This is what got us wronging: 'We preferred to print the article in full, instead of editing it, which, we believe, is a better way of not taking sides in a controversial issue than to eliminate specific references and thereby color the statement of the writer.'"

No doubt the intentions of the editor were of the best, but we should like a paragraph from Purcell's article in the Labor Monthly and the same paragraph in the Daily Worker. You may recall, A. A. Purcell, so that you can see for yourself that the wicked Communists have not a monopoly on all the tricks that cause our yellow and pink scoundrels to grin from ear to ear.

This is the paragraph from Purcell's article as it appeared in the Labor Monthly:

"It is the Second International which interests in its midst an Abrahamson, who represents nobody but himself, as representative of the Russian workers. It is the secretary of the Second International, Friedrick Adler, who has misrepresented the most unscrupulous and contemptible attack yet made on the report of the British Delegation to Russia—on attacks which have received the 'honors' of representative congresses in the Morning Post."

Now read carefully how the official organ of the Amalgamated Clothing Workers, magazine of the highly particular Joseph Shoenberg, gives the same paragraph:

"It is the Second International which interests in its midst a LEONARD who represents nobody as representative of the Russian workers. It is the secretary of the Second International, Friedrick Adler, who has misrepresented the most unscrupulous and contemptible attack yet made on the report of the British Delegation to Russia—on attacks which have received the 'honors' of representative congresses in the Morning Post."

We have emphasized the editing. Go and chase the omission. The editor of the Advertiser would have done better if he had not been so contemptuous in his attitude towards the Daily Worker. There he might have gotten away with the attempt to save the yellow hide of his friend Abrahamson.

There is a possibility that the real villain in the piece is our old friend Charles Evers, former editor of the New York Call, who, we understand, is acting editor of the Advertiser. But Brother Scheinberg is responsible for the article. We are publishing a denouncing article by such a responsible trade unionist as A. A. Purcell, president of the International Federation of Trade Unions.

We May Have More Tears from John H. Walker

In order to keep his political head from getting nailed on the fence Governor Small apparently has decided to meet new alliances and discard some of his old ties.

The governor is more than slightly troubled over the probable outcome of the efforts made by some of his enemies, to compel him to return a large sum of money from the state treasury which is accused of misappropriating while he occupied the office of state treasurer. There is the matter of the state treasury which is accused of misappropriating while he occupied the office of state treasurer.

8,000 In Saklatvala Protest!

WASHINGTON, D. C., Sept. 25.—A large crowd of about 8,000 people gathered in front of the United States State Department today to protest against the proposed removal of the Japanese Consul, Saklatvala.

The demonstrators, many of whom were members of the Japanese American Citizens League, held a meeting at the State Department building. They expressed their opposition to the proposed removal of Saklatvala and their support for his continued position as Consul.

The Japanese American Citizens League, a national organization of Japanese-Americans, has been active in opposing the removal of Saklatvala. They believe that his removal would be a blow to the Japanese American community and to the United States government.

The demonstrators also held a meeting at the Japanese American Citizens League headquarters in Washington, D. C. They discussed the proposed removal of Saklatvala and the steps that should be taken to prevent it.

The Japanese American Citizens League has also been active in organizing a boycott of Japanese goods. They believe that this will help to support Saklatvala and to show their opposition to the proposed removal.

The Japanese American Citizens League has also been active in organizing a campaign to elect a Japanese American to Congress. They believe that this will help to support Saklatvala and to show their opposition to the proposed removal.

The Japanese American Citizens League has also been active in organizing a campaign to elect a Japanese American to the Senate. They believe that this will help to support Saklatvala and to show their opposition to the proposed removal.

The Japanese American Citizens League has also been active in organizing a campaign to elect a Japanese American to the House of Representatives. They believe that this will help to support Saklatvala and to show their opposition to the proposed removal.

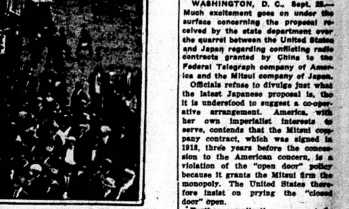

The Japanese American Citizens League has also been active in organizing a campaign to elect a Japanese American to the Supreme Court. They believe that this will help to support Saklatvala and to show their opposition to the proposed removal.

NEW STRIKE
CALL BY VA. COAL FIELDS
Lewis Announced as Fairmount Speaker

FAIRMONT, W. V., Sept. 25.—An attempt has gone out to miners' leaders in the Fairmount field for every mine in his family to take part in a mass meeting to be held here Sept. 26. The meeting is being called by the United Mine Workers of America, which is interested to organize the mine workers of the Fairmount field. This is a new strike call according to the union.

The mass meeting, according to the union, will demonstrate to the coal operators that the miners are determined to stand by their union. The union is in northern West Virginia and is being called by President John L. Lewis.
