"RECOGNIZE SOVIET UNION!" IS RALLYING CALL FOR THE EIGHTH ANNIVERSARY DEMONSTRATIONS

As the eighth anniversary of the Russian Socialist Federated Soviet Republic draws near, the Workers (Communist) Party issues a rousing call to all its units to prepare for the celebration of November 7, the day of victory for the Russian workers and peasants with the opening of an intensive drive for the recognition of the Union of Socialist Soviet Republics, of which Russia is a part.

The capitalist class of the world realizes that their hope and dream of a collapse of the Soviet Union is futile. Soviet Russia today stands out as the only nation in Europe where the conditions of the working class have improved. In Germany, France, England and the other nations the conditions of the workers are

U. S.-FRENCH SETTLEMENT COMPLETED

France to Continue Her Aggressions

(Special to The Daily Worker)

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 1.—After a week or so of quibbling the representatives of French imperialism and the American bankers have come to a settlement of terms.

The sub-committees of the French and American delegations met in secret session and there they decided upon the plan that will be rubber-stamped by President Coolidge. Mellon, Hoover and other prominent republican members are to present their unanimous decision for the president's approval.

Thus French imperialism is given a new lease of life to bomb Syrian and Moroccan villages in her attempt to dominate the world's resources. The terms of the settlement agreed on are arranged in the following manner:

A series of five annual payments of $40,000,000 from 1926 to 1930, inclusive.

A series of seven annual payments of $60,000,000 from 1931 to 1937, inclusive.

A series of 50 annual payments of $100,000,000 from 1938 to 1987, inclusive. The payments cover a period of 62 years.

A safeguard clause by which France can open up negotiations again if her financial condition is such that the currency of the imperialist power is in danger, has been agreed to.

France agrees to pay the American bankers $5,620,000,000 for the $4,200,000,000 loaned during the war.

The terms given to France will allow her to prosecute her military aggression wherever she sees fit as the terms of the Franco-American debt settlement neatly dovetail into the Anglo-French agreement and coincide nicely with France's share of Germany's reparations. If the reich continues to exist to execute the Dawes plan faithfully, France will never be forced to pay out more in any year in discharging her obligations to Great Britain and the United States than she receives from Germany.

France receives 52 per cent of all reparations and the first five annuities under the Dawes plan will give her approximately $104,000,000 a year. Of this she will pay $40,000,000 to the United States and 5,000,000 pounds sterling ($25,000,000) to Great Britain under the terms of the Churchill-Cauliaux agreement of August.

It is only at the expiration of five years that France begins paying London 12,500,000 pounds ($62,000,000) annually, and at precisely that date her annuities to the United States increase to $60,000,000. This leaves France a balance of roughly $2,000,000.

Later on, when the Dawes plan is yielding 2,500,000,000 gold marks ($25,000,000) annually, France's share will be about $325,000,000 a year out of which she will pay $100,000,000 to America and $62,000,000 to England. This will leave a balance of about $163,000,000 a year for her.

growing worse. This anniversary finds the economic condition of Soviet Russia better than ever. Industrial and agricultural production have nearly reached the prewar standard. More and more factories are being erected. Trade is once more being successfully carried on. With these facts facing the capitalist class in the face, their hope of a collapse of Soviet power has given way to a fear of the example shown by the Soviet Union.

The menace of the Soviet Union to world capitalism has increased. It stands out as a guide showing them how their condition may be bettered. The fear of the capitalist class of their own workers is increased as long as Russia stands in the position to materially aid the revolting proletarians of other lands.

Launch International Attack.

The capitalist class in their desperation have launched a vicious attack on an international scale against the Communists of the world and against the Soviet Union. The security pact, the attack on the Communists of Bulgaria, Roumania, Greece, Turkey and other lands serve as good examples of these drives.

Arrange Mass Meetings!

It is up to the workers of America to frustrate the aims of its capitalist class. In the united front mass meetings to be held all over the country every worker sympathetic to the cause of Soviet Russia must be drawn into the drive for recognition of the Soviet Union. As many meetings as can be called must be held on November 7, to celebrate the eighth anniversary of the Union of Socialist Soviet Republics.

Distribute Leaflets!

A million leaflets demanding the recognition of the Union of Socialist Soviet Republics are being printed by the Workers (Communist) Party to be used in the drive to force American capitalism to recognize the only working class republic in the world. To supplement the leaflets, buttons are being made to be worn by the workers to show their active sympathy for the Soviet Union. Stickers and other methods to rouse the workers of America are also to be used.

'B. & O. BILL' DECLARES RECALL PETITION "ILLEGAL", DEFYING MACHINISTS' UNION MEMBERSHIP

(Special to The Daily Worker)

WASHINGTON, Oct. 1.—William H. Johnston, president of the International Association of Machinists, has announced to the executive council of that body his decision that the recall petition filed Sept. 12 against himself and all other members of the council is illegal. Pending appeal by the petitioners to the council, no further steps to resist the recall movement have been agreed upon.

This decision, based upon the view that the charges contained in the recall petition are not specific, was forecast by

A STRATEGIC POSITION

Communists in Big Fight At Labor Party Congress

(Special to The Daily Worker)

LONDON, Oct. 1.—While the nervous capitalist "fat boys" were beginning to heave long sighs of relief at the "rout" of the Communists at the labor party congress at Liverpool, the ubiquitous Reds, seemingly undisturbed by all their "defeats" intensify their attacks on labor party policies advocated for British workers, described by the Communist Delegate Ferguson as one of "crawling, sniveling gradualism."

And it should be made a matter of particular note to those interested, that altho the motion which upheld the order of the labor party executive which "barred" any and all Communists from even being a member of the increasingly respectable labor party, here are thirty of these Communists, many of them national and international figures in the Communist movement right in the middle of the labor party congress, whaling away with might and main with the bitterest criticism of the treacherous opportunism of the Ramsay MacDonald stripe.

Communists Launch Big Offensive.

Delegate Ferguson of Glasgow, a Communist who did not seem to mind a bit that Communism was "defeated the day before," opened a day of good fighting with a resolution ordering James Ramsay MacDonald to apologize to the Soviet government for his hasty and scandalous publication of the ridiculous forgery known as the "Zinoviev letter" without investigation and with his attack on the Communist International as an eleventh hour pre-election effort to appear more respectable than the Tories, and keep control of his then insecure in the "labor" government.

The motion lost, of course, but there were some fine things said for the British workers to read in their morning paper. Likewise, Willie Gallagher, who followed Ferguson, arguing for a resolution condemning the labor party for its indifference to the miseries of the rapidly increasing army of unemployed, took occasion to say a few things for the ears and eyes of British workers.

Perish the Thought.

Ferguson, when MacDonald introduced a resolution providing for the labor party policy to be one of national reconstruction by "parliamentary means and by progressive stages," launched an attack on it as one of "crawling, sniveling gradualism" and proceeded to move an amendment calling for vigorous struggle for the overthrow of capitalism and the establishment of a workers' and farmers' government. The congress, which included among lots of more of her kind, Lady Cynthia Mosely, the noble lady who lends both grace and funds to the British socialist party, voted down the rude Communist proposal for class war.

So it went on. All very mystifying to the ill-informed who could not get the idea why the labor party congress should be so conservative, even reactionary, when the Trade Union Congress three weeks ago, went unanimously to the left with a Communist tone from beginning to end. The Trade Union Congress had adopted resolutions saying that overthrow of capitalism was necessary and that "shop committees are indispensable weapons" to do the job. But the Trades Union Congress had said no such kind things about Ramsay MacDonald and his leadership of the Labor Party.

Communism is the most talked of thing in Great Britain. And Communists are the life of the show at Liverpool, tho they are not "legally" there at all.

Conscience-Stricken German Delegation Uses Rear Entrance

NEW YORK, Oct. 1.—The German delegation to the interparliamentary union congress at Washington on board the North German Lloyd liner Bremen, which docked at Hoboken, were prepared to be off the dock by a rear entrance fearing that there might be a demonstration against them.

A detachment of Hoboken police were on the docks awaiting the arrival of the ship.

TERRORISM AGAINST PROGRESSIVE MINERS IN ANTHRACITE STRIKE SHARED BY POLICE AND FAKERS

(Special to The Daily Worker)

SCRANTON, Pa., Oct. 1.—Police Magistrate P. J. McNamara of Scranton, in court Monday ordered Alex Reid of Springfield, Ill., secretary of the Progressive Miners' Committee; Pat Toohey and August Valentine, progressive leaders in the striking anthracite fields; and Alex Zarek, a striker, to be held to "await the action of federal authorities."

Pat Toohey was unceremoniously arrested when he appeared at the hearing to aid the defense of the other three; while Zarek had been arrested when he went to the police station to bail out the first two. Zarek was first held on a charge of distributing handbills announcing a meeting without first obtaining a permit for the meeting. But later the magistrate said he would not hold him on that charge.

This is "Justice."

The judge declared, however, that: "If the federal authorities will not take care of them I will decide later what is to be done with them." This is taken to mean that if the favorite proceeding of deportation is not begun by the federal government, the progressives will be persecuted on some other frame-up.

That the traitorous leaders of the United Mine Workers' Union are willing and even anxious to play the role of stoolpigeons, is seen in the attendance at the hearing of D. W. Davis, representing the international officials of the U. M. W. of A. and James Gleason and John Boylan, members of the executive board of District 1, U. M. W. of A.

Stoolpigeons Roost in High Office.

Gleason charged the four progressives with "attempting to disrupt" the union, without adducing any proof of such a charge and in face of the fact that the program of the Progressive Miners' Committee especially stresses the need for greater solidarity in the union and urges a militant struggle against the coal operators.

The strange scene of union officials appearing in a capitalist court room with a complaint against members of the union of "disruption" of the union was easily explained, however, when it is known that the union officials are preparing to sell out the wage demands of the strikers and compromise on the check-off, and wish no opposition from the arrested progressive leaders, whose program of greater solidarity and a more militant struggle against the operators is just what the treacherous union officials do not want.

Betrayal in the Wind.

This coming sell-out is understood since the conference between the committee for mediation elected by the Scranton chamber of commerce and John L. Lewis on Tuesday. And the same day there arrived in suspicious conjunction Tom Kennedy, international secretary-treasurer of the U. M. W. of A., James A. Gorman, secretary of the joint conference of union officials and operators, and Samuel Pierce, publicity director for the anthracite operators.

Doheny Shares Big Dividend.

LOS ANGELES, Cal., Oct. 1.—Pan-American Petroleum, E. L. Doheny's California oil company, declared a dividend of ten per cent on its $20,000,000 capitalization here today. The company reported earnings of over $5,000,000 for the first eight months of the year.

ROUMANIAN BOYARS RUSH SECRET TRIAL OF TATARBOUNAR PEASANTS FEAR WORLD-WIDE DEMONSTRATION

KISHINEV, Bessarabia. (By Mail)—The trial of the Tatarbounar peasants opened in Kishinev on August 25. There are 1,000 peasants on trial. The indictment is 600 pages long and 600 witnesses and "specialists" are to testify against these peasants who dared to revolt against the inhuman exploitation of the Bessarabian peasants by the Rumanian boyars. The date of the trial and the indictment was made known to the lawyers but 24 hours before the actual trial began. The crime charged in the indictment is "crime against safety of the state" for which punishment is extremely high, death or long prison terms.

Secret Trial Held.

As the lawyers did not have the proper time to prepare their cases, they demanded that the trial be postponed. This right was denied them. All preparations were made for a secret trial by the Rumanian government. The great fear of the boyars was a demonstration by the proletariat of the world similar to the demonstrations that took place against the Polish lords

BANKERS RAISE HALF MILLION FOR COLLEGES

Make Liberal Donation to Goose Step Plan

(Special to The Daily Worker)

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., Oct. 1.—Delegates to the American Bankers association meeting here fell all over each other giving money to a scholarship fund for economic students. A half million to endow 100 scholarships in economics in various colleges will be raised before the convention is over. The object is to train young men in the affairs of finance to carry on the traditions of banking when the old fellows have passed away, it was said.

"The Good of Our Acts."

One of the bankers, overcome with his own kindness said, "Let us make it possible for others to live abundantly. Let us spread as far as possible the good of our acts." Another said, "I think it is quite possible to work out an economic plan and to show people by systematic and small savings, by systematic curtailment of waste, continued over a period of years, it is possible for the average man to approach the coming of age with a feeling of comfort and serenity."

The bankers all seemed enthusiastic about their plan of turning out a hundred goose-steppers a year and are confident they are performing a great philanthropic deed. After the convention they will go home and pull in some more mortgages, leaving several thousand workers and farmers homeless.

MEXICO CITY, Oct. 1.—Crops are ruined and many thousands are homeless in the state of Guanajuato where the rising of the river Lerta has caused a serious flood.

GERMAN TOILERS IN RUSSIA SAY MENSHEVIKS LIE

Delegation Answers Plea of Traitors

(Special to The Daily Worker) MOSCOW—(By Inprocor.)—Before its departure the German workers' delegation published a letter in answer to a letter signed by the bureau of the Russian social-democratic party.

The letter proceeds: "You write in the name of your party organization, but we found nothing of the sort. Have you no confidence in us, we who hold the same opinions as you? Where we looked for you and found you, you had for a long time ceased to be that which you once were."

Prisoners Not Complaining. "Further: Amongst hundreds and even thousands of people we did not find a single one to corroborate your statements. We had the right of free entry into all prisons and we found mensheviks and social revolutionaries there, but not one of them could complain about anything but the loss of freedom."

Condition of Workers Better. The much hated dictatorship of the proletariat is in reality the true workers' democracy which differs favorably from the so-called "democracy" of the western countries.

Other matters the council wants to talk about include labor banks, employee-and-customer ownership, company unions and the perennial adjudication of the jurisdictional dispute between the bricklayers and the plasterers.

CHINESE PEASANTS AND WORKERS SUPPORT CANTON, SEAT OF LEFT REVOLUTIONARY KUOMINTANG RULE

CANTON (By Mail).—Since the death of Dr. Sun Yat Sen, the world at large has come to know a little more of China and still more of the seat of the national revolutionary movement, Canton.

Under the rule of the reactionary militarists the workers and peasants were burdened with heavy taxes and suffered a great deal so that when the struggle took place between the usurpers, the reactionary militarists, and the warriors of the people, the revolutionary Kuomintang, the victory was complete.

Unequal Treaties. Unequal treaties have been concluded with all the say on the side of the imperialist powers and concessions and settlements have been forced from China ever since the occasion when Great Britain brot in her warship and troops to force opium into China.

Is Soviet Russia in reality that state in which the fundamental principles of Marx and Engels are being carried out? The answer must be that the German working class has an absolutely false idea of the U. S. S. R., says the declaration.

SOVIETS AIDING JEWISH WORKERS TO WORK FARMS

Colonization of Crimea Assisted

(Special to The Daily Worker) NEW YORK, October 1.—The lies spread through the capitalist world about the persecution of the Jewish workers in the Soviet Union, was refuted by Dr. Bernard Kahn, in his report on the Crimean colonization of Jewish workers on farms carried on successfully by the Joint Distribution Committee which is raising $15,000,000 to further the work.

"The new settler comes to the land to become a peasant, but a Jewish peasant. The sabbath and all the holidays are observed," declared Bernard Kahn.

Land Granted. Land is granted the Jewish settlers on the same basis as it is granted to all Russian peasants. According to the law of the Soviet Union, the peasant can get all the land that he can use and it belongs to him and his family as long as they work it.

Non-Productive Occupation. Before the war, the Jewish population was divided into the following categories: 38 per cent were merchants, shopkeepers and traders; 35 per cent artisans; 5 1/2 per cent were professionals; 7 per cent were servants, etc., and only 3 1/2 per cent were engaged in agriculture.

TOM LEWIS APPEALS FOR CORPS OF WORKER CORRESPONDENTS

A letter from Comrade Tom Lewis, district organizer of the California district of the Workers Party, and a fighter well known through the rebel movement, asks worker militants to get behind the worker correspondent move of the DAILY WORKER.

"It seems to me, the call for the organization of worker correspondents is a very essential thing to develop our Communist press. The conditions prevalent throughout the country industrially, the continual intensification in production and the great numbers out of employment, makes it appear, with the abundant material at hand, that the comrades should bet busy and broadcast their shop news when such a splendid opportunity is offered them."

Nationalizing Girls Is Old Stuff, Now We Internationalize 'Em

By W. FRANCIS AHERN. SYDNEY, Australia.—(FP)—One aspect of the visit of the American Naval Fleet to Australia was the manner in which the Big Business press called upon the girls of the cities visited by the sailors to "give the boys good time."

This is a fair sample of the kind of stuff that appeared in the majority of the newspapers. The young girls of Australia did mix freely with the American sailor-lads. There have been many heavy hearts, and sorrowing mothers as a result of the fleet's stay in Australia.

Crown Prince Willy Kidnaps Daughter of German Proletarian

THE LIST GROWS, BUT NOT AS FAST AS THE NEED

WHEN will it be possible to rest in our efforts to save THE DAILY WORKER? This is a question which the slackening in THE DAILY WORKER drive suggests. For during the past week the returns in the campaign have been showing a steady decrease.

We will be able to rest from our labor in saving THE DAILY WORKER when the task we set out to accomplish is finished. So far we are quite a long way from the end. In spite of the good beginning, we have not even yet been successful in our goal for the first $10,000.

The following are the receipts for September 28, 29 and 30. The record is good for those who appear and for those whose names have been on the honor roll previously. What is still lacking in the campaign is the effort to save THE DAILY WORKER on the part of the thousands of readers who have not yet taken part.

SAVE THE DAILY WORKER is the slogan and there can be no rest until it is saved.

Insurance and Banks Lead the Agenda

(Special to The Daily Worker)

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., Oct. 1.—The American Federation of Labor, which will meet here in annual convention next Monday, plans to consider, so it is announced, the further departure from policies of class struggle of entering into insurance just as it has entered banking.

Other matters the council wants to talk about include labor banks, employee-and-customer ownership, company unions and the perennial adjudication of the jurisdictional dispute between the bricklayers and the plasterers.
