FIGHT SURRENDER TO GOAL BARONS

Current Events By T. J. O'FLAHERTY

THE eighty women who ware sentenced to jail for picketing, as a result of a decision of the Illinois appelate court will not find much consolation in the wonderful "victory" won by the labor bureucrats when their "friends" in the Illinois legislature put over the anti-injunction bill. Everything was running along nicely until a certain judge found the law was unconstitutional and after that things began to run just as usual. In other words picketing became as illegal as ever.

Not that a labor party is an infallible cure for the ills that afflict the working class. It is a step in the right direction. It is important, because for one reason, it gets the workers acting together in a political party against their class enemies. And furthermore they will learn by experience that nothing short of the complete overthrow of the capitalist system can bring them relief.

THE December 5, issue of the New Leader, contains an article from the pen of Dr. Norman Thomas, expressing the conviction that a united front with the Communists on certain issues would be possible for the socialist party. So the hated phrase "united front" is at last coming into its own! It is not necessary to prove that the willingness of the socialists to stand on the same platform with the Communists is not motivated by any good intentions towards the latter. The new policy can very likely be attributed to the growing and well founded conviction that the socialist party found itself nearing isolation from the masses in its last stronghold: the needle trades, and is adopt- Establish 44-Hour ing this ruse in an effort to get some pink paint on its old bones.

THE socialist party laughed itself almost to death at the Communist slogan of the united front. Matheson's allusion to "reformers, psychiatrists and penologists" evidently harks back to a lecture given, under the auspices of the Science League of America, by a criminologist connected with the University of California. At this lecture Matheson, who was present by special invitation, became so enraged at the professor's plea for kinder treatment of criminals that he got up and begged for an opportunity to give the other side of the case.

FRENCH BREAK ARMISTICE ON DRUSE AMNESTY

Syrians Reply with Shots at Troops

(Special to The Daily Worker)

DAMASCUS, Syria, Dec. 31.-The French, now that they feel confident shacks. that the troops, arriving every day, have become strong enuf to give the French high commissioner the military mastery, are unwilling not only to make more concessions to the natives who are fighting for liberation, but now also refuse to keep their armistice pledge.

This attitude being taken by Henri Jouvenel, the French high commissioner, he began to break his amnesty agreement with the Druses and thus force them to make the apparent first break in the armistice. The French delegation made harsh demands for punishment as individual and civil criminals of Druse soldiers for acts of war in attacking towns and killing French and French sympathizers.

The Druse delegation reported this as delaying the final peace arrangements and as breaking the armistice pact. The Druses therefore, yesterday, began an attack by armed sortie against the Damascus garrison, killing several French military police in the streets. The renewal of firing caused great disturbance. But the French think that they are now safe in breaking their promise as more troops are arriving every day.

School Teachers Will Lose Savings in Movie Company Bankruptcy

Government officials, who went over the books of the defunct Consolidated Theaters and Realty corporation, which was headed by Frederick H. Gruneberg, Sr., and his son, declared that investors will not receive more than one cent on the dollar. Most of the investors are school teachers and professional men.

They found $13,000 now in the hands of the receivers and $26,000 which was paid to the government as excess income taxes to mislead investors as to the earnings of the corporation, they said. Both Gruneberg, together with eleven others will be arraigned January 6, charged with using the mails to defraud.

But Hires 16,000 at Lower Pay

DETROIT-(FP)-While filling the papers with publicity on its 8% payment to employe holders of Ford investment certificates, the Ford Motor Co., with typical Ford strategy ordered 10,000 men off the payroll a few days before Christmas and replaced them with 16,000 at lower pay, according to workers at the River Rouge

The switch was made without warning to the 10,000. By this maneuver the Ford Motor Co. grows richer. Sixteen thousand men now give their labor for eight speeded hours a day for total wages no greater and perhaps actually less than the total paid 10,000 up to the time of the change. The dismissed men were simply given slips to sign saying they held nothing against the Ford Motor Co. A worker knows he would never be rehired if he refused Motor Co. a clean record in an investigation or a suit for damages.

The 16,000 new men were taken into the plant without knowledge that 10,000 were at the same time being driven out the back door. This replacement has not been reported in any capitalist newspaper. The only Ford Motor Co. report generally published at this time in the capitalist papers has to do with an 8 per cent payment on employe investment certificates. Since the plan was devised about 30,000 employes have in this manner turned back part of their wages for use by the company, deriving a small gain for themselves. But the company discontinued selling the certificates last April and has been gradually retiring them. Last April

HOOVER THREAT OF S8 WHEAT MEANS NOTHING

Without He Means Something Else

WASHINGTON, D. C., Dec. 31 .-Herbert Hoover, secretary of commerce, is a careful speaker and preludes his remarks concerning reprisals against the Braish by saying that of course no reprisals should be taken for Great Britain's holding up the American automobile and other rubber users by a monopoly of rubber and a monopoly price.

Gentle Hint-But Empty.

But Hoover said that on the same basis as the U.S. pays England for rubber, the English should have to pay America $8 a bushel for wheat and 75 cents a pound for cotton. A J. S. WHEAT CROP word to the wise Britishers ought to be sufficient. Of course the United States has no monopoly on wheat or cotton, that is the difficulty.

Meanwhile, now that the U.S. is developing its own independent rubber supply sources, it should, according to Hoover, use as little rubber as possible, and it would be a popular inventor who could finally discover a real substitute.

Price Going Up. In 1925 the imports of rubber by the United States will probably be only 135,000,000 pounds more than in of 1924. is estimated that imports for the the farms brings food shortage and a pounds, valued at about $415,000,000, of life. against imports in 1924 of 734,845,218 pounds valued at $174,321,331.

The United States is countering the British monopoly by a bill introduced in congress to investigate the control of raw materials by monopolies thruout the world. This is one large order, and has bound up in it all kinds of explosive materials.

While Great Britain's control of the ubber supply is the conspicuous point of attack, the department of commerce is striving to formulate some to sign. And the slips give the Ford kind of understanding whereby the American consumer will not be charged exorbitant prices. The motive, therefore, is one of ultimate benefit, but the comprehensive nature of the investigation may prove a frank-

For the truth is no inquiry of such wide scope as is being discussed can be undertaken without looking closely into the operations of American companies and corporations with foreign affiliations. Altho sugar is not being mentioned at present as one of the commodities involved, nevertheless it is a good example of how American capital controlled in New York city actually manages the sugar supply in Cuba.

Americans are heavily interested nowadays in corporations all over the world. In fact, American funds may be found in many an enterprise which is being called a monopoly by the

Nationalization of Mines Only Remedy

MONTREAL—(FP)—"International trade unionism has not been responsible for the unrest in the Nova Scotla coal fields. And the miners have few grievances against the lower company officials. It is the policies of the corporation officials higher up who can't be seen that has caused the troubles." This was in effect the testimony of Alex Stewart of the miners union, before the Nova Scotia coal inquiry.

British Empire Steel Corporation officials blame the unrest upon the United Mine Workers of America, which organization some years ago superseded the Provincial Workmen's Association.

Stewart, a war veteran, said he had been in seven countries since 1914, and it required 100 per cent more to live in the Cape Breton mine fields than in the countries he had been in. Nationalization of the mines, he said, would promote efficiency and lessen

NOT ENOUGH TO FEED COUNTRY

Indicates the Decline as Agricultural Nation

Bread and circuses was the demand of the dispossessed Roman proletariat and the dominant financiers of the empire had to meet it or risk social 1924, but the cost will be twice that upheaval. A similar cry is likely to go up from the city proletariat of the From the figures for the eleven Anglo-Saxon empires as the developmonth period ended in November, it ment of urban life at the expense of year will amount to 875,000,000 rise in the prices of the necessaries

But, you say, that time is far ahead. Don't miss the significance of the department of agriculture's final crop report for 1925 which shows a total wheat crop of 670,000,000 bushels, not enough to meet the country's domestic requirements. Street Journal:

"There have been crops a little smaller than this one, but our population then was not so large. In terms tion increases at the rate of about 7,000,000 bushels a year. On the basis of percapita consumption, 1925 shows one of the smallest crops produced in modern times. The October report estimated durum wheat at 67,000,000 bushels. Deducting that from the total leaves a crop of bread wheat but a little over 600,000,000 bushels. Our average consumption of wheat for food, feed and seed is 630,000,000 bushels.' So the United States like the older industrial countries must depend on the surplus grain produced by Canada, Argentina and Australia. To meet the demand these regions must show a surplus of 550,000,000 bushels. Their ability to do this today is open to question.

But what of tomorrow, as the great financial empires go on developing industrial exploitation on a world scale? In the opinion of O. E. Baker, agricultural economist of the department of agriculture, "Future generations will see a world shortage of unless rational land and population policies are formulated by the white

There are no indications that the financial rulers will formulate such policies. For a time they will meet the situation with something in the nature of food rations. Such a development has already been suggested n England. But when the provinces fail to produce enough surplus food the present empires will follow those of the past and farm life will reassert its primacy.

No Capitalist Complaint Against the Products of Colleges of Journalism

By J. LOUIS ENGDAHL.

TODAY, the gathering of the American Association of Teachers of Journalism, in New York City, gives testimony to the fact that the American capitalist class, with its gathering of collegiate henchmen, is pretty much satisfied with its kept press. Big business has no fundamental fault to find with its subsidized newspapers.

College journalism is a development of the last 15 years. Previously editorial workers for great business were trained on the job in the newspaper offices. Since that time elaborate courses have been provided for them in carefully watched departments of practically every university and college in the land. The mind is moulded while it is young. From the campus to the editorial typewriters there flows a steady stream of human material that lends itself obediently to every enslaving demand of the dollar press.

Dr. Nicholas Murray Butler, president of Columbia University, where the teachers of journalism are meeting, has his complaint. But his criticism is not that the press of his class does not level down to his reactionary ideas. He merely pleads that the terms "rap, assail, attack and flay," be eliminated from the vocabularies of the press writers, especially they should refrain from the use of these words in news stories and headlines. No doubt even the use of these words is disquieting to the jerky nerves of Butler's friends in Wall

There was a time when the moneyed interests were not satisfied with their press. That was in the days before the schools of journalism, especially 20 to 25 years ago, during the era of trust busting that was featured by a tidal wave of exposures of the criminal deeds of the predatory interests. John D. Rockefeller, under the lash of Ida Tarbell; graft and corruption in politics bared by Lincoln Steffens; Lawson's crusade against Wall Street, with a host of other writers sharpening their pens for the moneyed men in the high places, constituted an irritating influence.

No rebellious voice was raised among the professors of journalism now meeting. The magazines and the daily papers now conform, thus the center of the stage is given over to the arch-fundamentalist of capitalist journalism, lvy Lee, publicity man in waiting to American capitalism. This is the infamous Lie-vy Lee, who has long directed the publicity work for Rockefeller's Standrad Oil interests. He furnished the Rockefeller propaganda to the kept press during the miners' strike against John D.'s Colorado Fuel and Iron company, that was crimsoned by workers' blood at the Ludlow

Lie-vy Lee spoke to the college professors advocating the cause of "unsolicited publicity." He declared there was a legitimate place in journalism for the publicity man, since newspapers found it impossible to gather all news of interest. The professors will go back to their classes and obediently parrot this viewpoint, with the result that prospective journalists will go forth from the universities to the editorial desks of the nation, ready to jump and give preferred space to the "publicity" of the great corporations.

To be sure, about the only time that these corporations need publicity is during strikes, or other attacks on the workers they employ. It is taught that it is sacrilege to even consider any favorable publicity from the workers.

When labor, therefore, fully realizes the absolute grip that the exploiters have upon the capitalist press, it will rally as never before it support of its own working class

Against the capitalist schools of journalism the products of an increasing American army of Worker Correspondents.

Workers of New York to Hold Protest Meet to Aid "Blackie" Ford

NEW YORK-(FP)-New York vorkers will protest for Richard Ford, California striker, the day before he goes to trial in Marysville, Cal., for the death of a police officer in the Wheatland hopfield strike of 12 years ago. Two officers and two workers were killed. Ford and Herman Suhr were sentenced to prison for life for the death of one officer. They were not charged with killing him themselves but with responsibility as strike and now goes to trial for the death of the other officer.

Killing Blacks Gets Six Months Jail

CAPE TOWN, South Africa-(FP) -"In 13 cases of the murder, homicide or manslaughter of (South African) natives by whites the severest penalty was six months jail in one case; in three cases the white culprits got £25 ($220) fine, six weeks jail and detention till the rising of the court, respectively; while in the remaining nine cases the accused whites got off scot free."

This is taken from a letter to The Star, a newspaper of the South African whites. "Some of these crimes." says the correspondent, "were most foul and cruel, and included death by stoning, death by mogging, throat cutting, death of a young girl through strangulation, death by shooting, and so on. In most cases the victims were unoffending, and in some they were nelpless, and in no case can one say that death was justifiable."

These cases occurred all over the country and are, according to the correspondent, merely a sample of the justice meted out to whites when the victims happen to be natives. "The thing is general all over South Africa," he says; "and the conviction and execution of a white for a black murder is, I fear, unheard of in the

RISKS MONROE DOCTRINE IN

Muddled Diplomacy

(Special to The Dally Worker) WASHINGTON, Dec. 31 .- A decided air of mystery fell over official Washington today in regard to the Tacna--Arica question. No one in authority professed to know definitely when General John J. Pershing, head of the plebiscitary commission that is attempting to settle the boundary row between Chile and Peru, would come home, nor did anyone care to definitey appraise Pershing's physical con-

Worrled.

The White House abhorred the idea that the United States intended to eave the plebiscite flat, but there was andisguised apprehension in official uarters over Chile's action in pro esting Pershing's conduct of the ple iscite.

Chile and Peru are now submitting riefs to President Coolidge, who wil ecide on Chile's protest about Jan. after reviewing the reports.

The president it is claimed, will not iscuss with Pershing, Chile's protest, which is aimed at the manner which he general has arranged for registraion and voting of Tacna-Arica citiens. But he undoubtedly will see ershing about the "general aspects" the question.

Pershing has set the period Februry 15 to March 15, for registration voters. The vote for citizens to etermine whether they want to be affiliated with Chile or Peru is schedled for April 15.

Fear For Monroe Doctrine. Some reports today indicated that Chile may "ditch" the plebiscite and try to forestall a vote. That, of course, would lead to serious complications so far as American prestige in South America is concerned. If Chile persisted, there would arise the question of enforcing the vote by force, or withdrawing.

The president and state department fficials see in the situation possible langer to the Monroe doctrine. Hence uture American moves will be made cautiously with as little public demonstration as possible.

The Porto Rican Nationalist Party is not a mere duplicate of the party in the Philippines. The program and present social composition of the new party are reason to believe that the Porto Rican nationalists will follow quite a different line from the confused and vacillating movement of the Philippines. It is, however, too early to make such a prediction with any degree of confidence. Whatever the ultimate role of the party may be the fact remains that a political party has been created in Porto Rico standing on the unequivocal program of independence from American rule-and the party has stretched out its hand to another party, many thousands of miles away, on the basis of a community of struggle against a common enemy. These facts alone are of significance.

Centennary of Council of Nicea

In the hall of the benediction in the vatican at Rome the pope, in the presence of 23 cardinals, on Monday celebrated the sixteenth the brokers, Goldman, Sachs, and centennary of the council of Nicea. The council of Nicea was held in the year 325 and marked the emrgence of christianity into a fullblown state religion. From an impotent sect practicing the black art of the magicians of the East, christianity became the slave religion par excellence of ancient Rome. When the Emperor Constantine was sorely beset by his enemies he professed to be converted to that religion when, in the midst of a terrific battle, he claimed he saw a cross flaming in the sky bearing the legend, "By this sign ye conquer." A clever politician, he knew the abysmal ignorance of the ial operation is necessary in almost christian hordes in the rat holes of Rome, and so concocted his weird every line of business. In almost

Before the and that the problem was to get a time of Constantine the "Greek, the Roman and the Barbarian knelt larger part of this for labor. This before their respective alters and were easily persuaded that, under fundamental assumption regarding different names, they worshipped the same god." The other emperors tolerated all beliefs and embraced none. Constantine adopted christianity as a war measure. It is this fact that is celebrated tributed to all consumers in the protoday in Rome.

Nicea is the starting point of that ghastly dogma that has served for sixteen centuries as a slave religion—under chattel ers of rent and of interest, etc., do slavery, feudalism and capitalism. It was Frederick Nietzsche who not altogether receive enough to enstigmatized christianity as "the greatest calamity that ever befell the human race." And, tho we cannot accept this opinion as sound, it is not difficult to understand historical justification for Nietzsche's tinue to make use of the facilities of estimation. In the sixteen hundred years of christianity there is a period of one thousand years, during which that religion held sway over mankind in feudal Europe, that will ever be known to history as the dark ages. During those ages intelligence was a crime and ignorance a virtue. And even today we see priests of the church still standing with their black cloaks raised, like flocks of vultures, trying to keep the world in darkness.

But the light of modern science, in the hands of proletarian revolutionists, penetrates ever deeper into the crevices of superstition and reveals the church as the hideous instrument of slavery cent in recent years, while wages had endeavoring to perpetuate the most frightful system of oppression the world has ever seen.

WAGE QUESTION

Difficult Problem

NEW YORK CITY, Dec. 31 .- There now going on in New York a discussion of social problems by a motley collection of brokers, manufacturers, "labor leaders," liberals, and so on, conducted by the American economic association.

One Mr. Catchings who represented company, set forth his ideas of wage increases, saying that one way was as doubtful.

"Real wages," said Mr. Catchings, can be increased by increasing total production, or, by increasing labor's hare in what is now produced. Some Trouble.
