ARMOUR'S CONFERENCE BOARD PUTS ACROSS BOSSES' SPEED-UP SYSTEMS IN CHICAGO "YARDS"

The history of the packing house workers has been one of active militant struggle against the exploitation of the food trust. Time and again the workers of this industry have organized, downed their tools, and defied the slavedriving tactics of this powerful combination of interests that levies its toll from every living person in the nation. Tho the packers have been able to down the workers' organizations and break up their solidarity and force them back at their terms, the grievances of the workers grow greater and greater. The attempt of this trust to make more and more profit is creating greater and ever greater dissatisfaction.

In order to stave off the organization of the workers into industrial unions in this industry, which the food trust fears, they have created conference boards in their plants, where so-called representatives of the employes +and the bosses meet around a table in the company office to "discuss the grievances of the workers" and to out-

CARDINAL Mundelein pulled a good one when he addressed the holy name society here a few days ago. The society was organized for the purpose of abolishing blasphemy and from recognizing the identity of intercursing. Mundelein said: "I have est that exists between all the worklived for more than fifty years in the ers in the packing plant-wthether he larger cities of this country and I like others of my contemporaries, have noted with satisfaction the change in speech that has taken place." Evidently the cardinal never had the experience of spending a night in the detective bureau and the same benefits." This, in subhearing the holy name policemen test their obscenity on the prisoners.

THE cardinal also complimented President Coolidge for receiving a body of holy name men at the Capitol a year ago. TT is rumored the prince of Wales is about to wed one of the few remaining princesses in captivity. She is Swedish. It seems that the Swedes are rather good natured people and don't mind having a royal family hanging around, provided they don't throw their cigarette ashes on the carpet or park their second hand chewing gum on the family armchair. A modern princess is liable to grab anything for a husband that looks like a man but more careful girls would just as soon hitch on to a virulent germ as to the prince if credence can be given to reports of his South American exploits.

Our capitalist papers tell us that king George's subjects are rather worried over the failure of the prince to take unto himself a wife and beget an heir to the throne. Perhaps the prince does not believe in waste motion, or in supplying something that may not have a market after it is produced. ## FARMERS FORCED TO MIGRATE FROM LAND AS CRISIS GROWS THRUOUT THE WHOLE MIDDLE-WEST

(Special to The Daily Worker)

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Jan. 5.—The condition of the farmers of the middle-west is becoming rapidly worse according to a brief submitted here before a committee of the interstate commerce commission which is conducting hearings regarding the agricultural crisis.

Farm abandonment by families forced into bankruptcy by the forclosure of mortgages, the growth of farm tenantry, the flocking to the cities of the children of farmers, and the terrible impoverishment of hundreds of thousands of farmers was portrayed in the brief submitted by Rex E. Willard, farm economist of the North Dakota agricultural col-

From 1910 to 1920, Williard said, 8,000,000 acres of farm land were abandoned in 20 western states. He said this condition was brot about because of the discrepancy in the price the farmers receive for their products and the price they have to pay for manufactured products. The point under discussion was the demand of the western railroads for higher freight rates. Williard argued that higher rail rates would still further increase this difference in prices and cause still greater devastation among the farmers of the country. Proposes No Solution.

Williard confined his objections to the question of freight rates and did not touch upon the role of the banks, the millers, the grain trust in general, the various extortionate swindles practiced by the middle men, all of which contribute to reduce the farmer to pauperism.

It is appropriate that this question should come up at this time when thousands of families of farmers are flocking into middle western cities and haunting the slave markets for a chance to be shipped to various parts of the nation as common laborers on construction gangs.

lowa Crisis Grows. Iowa farmers, unable to dispose of their crops for enough money to meet the loans the banks have advanced them on the crops, are being driven from their farms and the smaller banks, unable to dispose of the grain crops at the prices they loaned the armers are going out of business and their assets taken by the larger banks. There are dozens of bank failures every week, which eloquently portray the horrible conditions existing in this once prosperous cultural state. The crisis is also felt by the small merchants of the towns and if the present exodus from the farms continues, Iowa will soon be dotted with deserted villages that formerly supplied agricultural sections with commodities. Coolidge Considered Fraud.

The farm crisis is too young yet to develop definite political movements, but the entire middle west looks with hatred and contempt upon man, "Joey," "Silvy" and "Young Coolidge and his fraudulent farm re-Hef proposals and if the president of last $2,100 of a total amount of $3,600, the United States were running for reelection today, he would not carry one state in this vast region. At the same time the farmers look with suspicion upon the frantic efforts of congressmen who propose various panaceas for farm relief, as they do not forget that a few weeks ago these same "statesmen" were on the Coolidge bandwagon.

All government agencies, such as of Galata, Carrier Mills, Raleigh and the interstate commerce commission, are considered enemies of the farmers and servants of the big bankers (Continued on page 6).

MEXICO CITY, Jan. 5-The Mexican congress, before it closed its sessions, enacted all of the legislation that President Calles had asked for making him virtual dictator of Mexico. He has been given such tremendous dictatorial powers that he may regulate and enforce the laws in any manner he may see fit. He will have charge of the nation's income and will appropriate as much of the budget as he wishes. He is given supreme command of the army. He was aso given power to revise the Mexican civil and criminal codes and control the judiciary. He is also given the power to administer the petroleum laws in any manner that may suit his purpose. These measures were proposed and highly desired by Calles. who has the backing of Luis Morones, the Mexican "Sam Gompers." Calles in his new role as administrator of the republic will be able to give American capitalism all the ploit the Mexican workers.

GANGSTERS ATTACK OFFICIAL OF NEW YORK BOX MAKERS' UNION

Resented Withdrawal of Graft Booty

NEW YORK, Dec. 5 - George E. Powers, organizer for the Paper Box Makers' Union of Greater New York, was beaten up here by four gangsters nesting in Norfolk and Delancey Sts.

These same gangsters, Moe Gross-Frenchy" only got thru collecting the having been paid Dec. 2nd, 1925, a blackmail booty of the most treacherous kind.

Not satisfied with this, they went a step further. They went to work for the Maderight Paper Box Co., 46 Wooster St., a firm owned by a Mr. Meister and three other partners, where a strike of paper box workers is in progress, and intimidated the pickets on the picket line, telling them that they would "allow" girls on the picket line but no men.

Last Tuesday night, Dec. 22nd, the organizer of the Paper Box Makers' Union, while in front of the struck shop, was approached by "Moe" and "Silvy" and told by the former that "they" won't "allow" any men on that picket line and that if he would show up again they would "chase" him and the girls from the picket line. When the organizer told them that he was an official of the Paper Box Makers' Union and would come to do his duty, then "Silvy" told him, "that means a fight."

Attack Organizer.

This threat was carried out in less han one week. Monday night, at about 5:20, while Powers was talking to the girl pickets, the four gangsters came out of Meister's place and began to beat him until he went down, then kicked him, up he came and down he went, under the weight and pain of more blows rained from all sides by the four gangsters.

This gangster attack expresses their resentment of a policy inaugurated by the new administration of using the money of the union in the interests of the 2,500 workers who make up its membership, instead of turning he treasury over to an unprincipled erew of double-crossing, grafting 'guerillas," who, leech-like, have been for years sucking the vitality from the Paper Box Makers' Union of Greater New York, and who still infest many labor organizations in this city.

Build Opposition to the SCOTLAND YARD World Court and League HEAD ON TRIAL on Working Class Basis

By J. LOUIS ENGDAHL.

TODAY, a harvest of chaos is being reaped in the ranks of organized labor as a result of the pro-world court and pro-league of nations' seeds planted by Sam Compers during his regime at the head of the American Federation of Labor. Gompers supported the court and the league. The administration of President William Green continues to do so. But over the nation other officials of labor, and senators and congressmen elected with the votes of workers and farmers now rapidly drifting toward independent political action, are coming out against the court and the league.

In Illinois the organized workers have been placed on record by their officials as supporting the candidacy of Colonel Frank L. Smith, candidate for the nomination for United States senator against the present incumbent, Senator William B. McKinley. Frank Farrington, the anti-progressive head of the Illinois Mine Workers' Union, is out for "the colonel," who is already waging an extensive campaign on an anti-world court and anti-league platform. The Illinois Federation of Labor, headed by John H. Walker, supporter of Farrington, has taken a similar stand.

Both Walker and Farrington were present at the last annual convention of the American Federation of Labor. when support of the league and the court was voted. They did not raise their voices against this decision, that enlists the A. F. of L. as an adjunct of Wall Street imperialism. But when they returned to Illinois they immediately developed political policies of their own, to fit their opportunist tactics. The Green regime may trail with Wall Street, while Farrington-Walker rule over labor in Illinois accepts the political leadership of the puppets of the mid-west industrialists, who are no less the enemies of the workers.

Similarly, in Minnesota, the farmer-labor senator, Hendrik Shipstead, who was elected with the support of the Minnesota branch of the A. F. of L., denounces the world court as "a war-bred institution, conceived by scheming statesmen to protect the vast booty gained by European nations from the world war." He does not want the United States to enter the world court and the league because it would pledge this country to aid European nations retain their war

Shipstead does not believe there are classes under the present social system. He knows that Minnesota politics, at the present time, is dominated by industrialists and rich farmers instinctively and materially opposed to Wall Street's imperialist ambitions. Shipstead does not want "the United States" in the court or the league. He does not oppose it from the viewpoint of class conscious workers and farmers struggling to establish their own power.

Yet it is only when the working class approaches the question of the court and the league from the class viewpoint that it is able to formulate a constructive class program and organize for a united class struggle in behalf of its own interests. The court and the league are the instruments of the great predatory nations, of which the United States is the richest and the most powerful at the present time. Entry of this country into these organizations for insuring capitalist plunder marks the victory of American finance capital over industrial capital in dictating the policies of the United States government.

It is, therefore, not sufficient for some sections of the working class to adopt a nonpartisan attitude in opposition to the league-court twins spawned by the imperialist Versailles peace. The opposition must be built on a firm class basis; for effective international struggle of all workers against the imperialist bandits of this and all other nations.

CUDAHY MEAT PACKERS GIVE WORKERS ICY DEAL; UNREST SPREADS THRU ENTIRE PLANT

By a Worker Correspondent.

OMAHA. Nebr., Jan. 5 .- Following an announcement in the local papers that Cudahy would begin cutting ice and that 500 workers would be needed, over 1000 applied for the jobs. They tor general of the international or hired about 80 of the 1000 and instead of paying the 40 cents per ganization which administers the cus hour that they had promised, they offered the workers 25 cents

This year most of the work is being done by machines, cutting with circular saws the long way, and with band saws the ceipts, but the Yangtze River and cross way; also using a conveyer to hoist and stack the large ice blocks. All the workers do now is to propel the blocks toward the conveyor. Last year they had only the circular saw, all else was done by hand. So whether the worker got a job on the "ice," or was left off the "fee," he got an "icy" deal either way. Omaha has had a more or less serious problem of unemployment during the past year. During the past two months conditions have grown worse Packing house laborers are paid 421/2 cents per hour, and this is from 71/2 to 121/2 above that paid on the outside. This further intensifies the struggle for jobs and forces the speedup pace to an almost super-human

Unrest Spreads.

The spring is always an uncertain quantity for the packers. The pentup discontent of the workers, and their hatred of the speed-up, spy system, brutalizing work and the oppressive rules that keep them going like machines or dumb cattle, is always liable to break loose with the approach of the warm months. The packers know this, so the work of their spies is redoubled in order to ferret out the least sign of open discontent or agitation. The skilled workers especially are watched close for signs, as the laborers readily follow the lead of such workers in a struggle against the packers.

Recently the secretary of Local 602, Butcher Workmen and Meat Cutters Union, who works for the city during the summer months, and on finishing up earlier than usual this year he applied for work at the Dold's packing plant. He was hired by one of the contractor bosses, and after three days was sent to the doctor for examination. The doctor passed him, but on the same afternoon word was ment from the superintendent's office that he was not strong enough for the work. J. W. Burns, the secretary. is a husky, well built fellow so the facts are it took three days to find him and get the blacklist in operation. Altho Local ouz represents a mere handful of members and is now dormant the blacklist is still in effect.

Try to Get Building.

Another member of Local 602, Jack Davis, who calls himself district organizer for the Butcher Workmen and Meat Cutters' Union, and who was appointed to this office in spite of the fact that the whole delegation from Omaha to the last convention were against him; this fellow Davis has a steady job with the city. He is now reported to be trying to get hold of the Omaha Butcher Workmen Building for the International. This building is owned by individual workers in the packing plants, who are determined that it shall not get out of their hands: "It is the union headquarters and will be there when we get a real union some day," they say,

The packers have tried to buy the stock held by the workers, but with very few exceptions the workers have been loval in spite of the fact that they badly need money.

Now the workers are trying to keep Denny Lane, the secretary of the International Butcher Workmen and Meat Cutters' Union, from getting his hands on their building: for they know he will sell it and use the money to pay the large salaries of those do-nothing officials. Denny gets $500 a month whether the widow and will not succeed any better than the those officials.

DAILY WORKER STARTS SERIES OF ARTICLES ON

CONDITIONS IN "YARDS"

The first article on the conditions in the "yards" of Chicago appears in this issue of The DAILY WORK-ER showing up the conference board that is maintained at Armour & Co. and how it functions in behalf of the bosses enforcing their speed-up systems and alding the packers make more and more profits.

In the second article, which appears tomorrow, The DAILY WORK-ER will show how the conference board, which is controlled by the packers, is planning to lengthen the 54-hour week to a 60-hour week, and to remove the ten-hour maximum day provision and thus allow the packers to exploit the workers 12 to 14 hours per day.

The company maintains a violous speed-up system which exhausts the workers after six or seven hours and many oftentimes drop to the floor overheated and exhausted.

The company does not depend upon the conference board alone to enforce its decisions but gives the workers bribes in the forms of bonuses to speed up and to eliminate workers in their departments.

Another scheme that the company uses to the utmost is that of selling shares in their holdings to the workers. They then say to the worker, "Now if you want to earn dividends you must work faster." Not only does the worker who owns the shares work harder but he also attempts to make the worker next to him speed up.

Sanitary conditions in the plant have been improved but very little. The looker-rooms of the workers are small, dingy affairs, with slime and all kinds of muck on the floor and dirty water dripping thru the celling onto those in the locker rooms.

In order to forestall organization efforts and keep the workers from other they maintain an extensive police and spy system, with a number of stools placed among the workers to probe out and report union men or workers who desire better conditions.

Race prejudice is fostered and nurtured in the "yards" to the greatest possible degree. National hatreds and personal hatreds are played upon to get the workers to distrust each other. On the floor race prejudice and national personal hatreds are not allowed to show themselves, but the moment these workers get out of the plant they will not fraternize with one another. In this way the company keeps the workers from organizing into powerful industrial unions.

The International Workers' Aid has sent the following telegram to Wm. E. Borah, chairman of the foreign relations committee, Secretary of State Frank Kellogg and Esme Howard, British ambassador, Washington, D. C.

Fancy Reasons.

"Tientsin China port police under control of British consular authority forbid distribution of food and clothing by Workers' International Relief among starving workers. ### TOM MANN TELLS OF EVENTS OF BRITISH LABOR MOVEMENT; SENDS GREETINGS TO U.S. LEFT WING

LONDON, (By Mail.)-The coal commission sitting at Westminster Hall nquiring into the conditions of the mining industry, has been a center of interest the last few days owing to the personality of the witnessess.

The duke of Northumberland is probably the most completely reactionary of all among the class to which he belongs, as unquestionably he is one of the most pugnacious. He owns very large estates, containing very valuable minerals. He also owns the Morning Post, the chief tory daily paper in the country.

The duke has said the bitterest things a human tongue can command, not only against Communists and socialists but equally against labor men and trade unionists.

Lives Without Working.

The duke draws £75,000 ($375,000) year as royalty rents alone, but is for permitting mining operations to be carried on under the land he owns Under cross examination the duke maintained his right to receive this while admitting he rendered no servce in return.

On the commission he was examined by were the officials of the Miners' Federation, Herbert Smith and A J. Cook. Many sharp passages took place between the workers' representatives and the duke, frank and free and straight from the shoulder came question and reply, real good home thrusts, leaving nothing to be desired in the matter of straight hitting Pungency is given to this owing to the determination of the miners to fight for the nationalization of the mines and minerals.

Operators Lenghten Work Day.

Meantime, the mine owners are pressing on their campaign sectionally, thus in County Durham some months ago the owners gave notice to the men that after a given date all underground men must work not less than seven-hour shifts, twenty minutes of this to be used as hauling ime to raise the men from the mine. To understand the meaning of this it is necessary to realize that the coal hewers of Durham have not worked on the average more than six hours per shift for well over sixty vears, many of them not working more than five hours at the coal face At present there is a strike on in parts of the Durham coalfield to resist the attempt of the owners to establish the seven-hour shift.

Railway Award Attacks Unions. The award of the railway board in the matter of wages and working conditions does not insist upon the immediate reduction of wages of any section but it stipulates that in Feb

There has been a new thing come up in the last few days, that shows how much the workers are dictated to in the Armour plant. There was an insurance proposition offered to the workers some time ago, but many did not take it up, so these workers were informed that those who refused to carry the insurance would lose their jobs. When one boss was asked what would happen if the worker was let out of his job, with the amount paid in, he was told not to ask so many questions. Another who had been out of work 5 months and had only been at work 4 months said he had not worked long enough. The boss answer was "O yes you have." The proposition was 15c. a week on a $1,000 life

ON Dec. 29, 1925 the party held its first organization conference . The sessions were devoted strictly to a discussion and a consideration of the various problems arising in the different districts in the campaign to reorganize the party on the basis of shop and street nuclei. In addition to the members of the central executive committee attending the full session of the C. E. C. there were also present all district organizers except those from Seattle and California. The different district organizers placed before the conference their experiences and problems of reorganization in their districts.

Boston District Slow.

Reporting on the progress of reoranization in District 1, Comrade Ballam indicated the difficulties in the Boston district because of the small number of English-speaking members and the character of the industries in which the party membership was employed in his territory.

Because of the achievements of the Finnish national convention, the Finsh branches of District 1, constitut. ing the overwhelming majority of the membership in this section, are now responding quite well to reorganization. The city of Boston has been divided into seven sections, 375 out of employers is feared by some of our the 425 members in the city have registered for reorganization. Lawrence is already partially reorganized. A big shop nucleus is expected in one of the textile mills in Maynard. Shop nuclei are being organized in the shoe factories of Peabody and Lynn. In Brockton two shop nuclei are already

Comrade Stachel, reporting for District 2, gave an elaborate and instructive report of the substantial progress and good results achieved by the New York district in the reorganization campaign, 2,800 members were registered in the city of New York alone Real difficulty has been met in the local Finnish branches. The city has been divided into eleven sections and 34 sub-sections. At the first sub-section meetings held about 1,700 comrades were present. This is much better attendance than in the old branches for the same territory. Today there are 207 shop nuclei with 934 members. There are 61 concentration groups or working area groups with a membership of 720 These are really street nuclei consisting of comrades working in certain factory districts in whose places of employment there are not yet three ganized. or more party members employed for the formation of 'a shop nucleus There are also 36 street nuclei or international branches with a membership of 846.

More than half of the membership in the street nuclei consist of comrades working in the building trades. The shop nuclei are well distributed in the clothing, shoe, metal and other industries. The main difficulty at present is to secure enough comrades with capabilities to direct there new party units. The nature and function of the old territorial branches necessitated a small fraction of the number of party functionaries now required by the reorganized party.

Philadelphia Progress. In reporting as to the progress of reorganization in District 3. Comrade Tallentire told of the opposition to reorganization in one of the Lithuanian branches, and the extra difficulties incurred because of the anthracite strike. The city of Philadelphia is completely registered and will be functioning on a shop and street nucleus basis in a week.

Buffalo Finishes Registration. Comrade Sullivan reported that Buffalo is thru with registration. Finnish convention has brought very good results in registering the big Finnish branch of the city. Eight shop nuclei are being organized in the city of Buffalo, primarily in the steel and automobile industry. Erie, Utica and Syracuse are completely reorganized Binghamton, Schenectady and Rochester are being reorganized. The Finnish comrades in Schenectady are objecting to registration. In certain instances in this district comrades are refusing to give their correct names and addresses in their opposition to reorganization. There are several sections of the district which are really company-owned towns and this accounts for one source of opposition to reorganizatino. The terrorism of the Pittsburgh Practically Reorganized. In the Pittsburgh district Comrade Jakira reported practically complete reorganziation. The problem getting the greatest attention now is that of reorganizing the isolated branches Good shop nuclei have been organized in the steel mills and coal mines Comrades are meeting with difficulty in working in the shop nuclei without being interefered with by the employers because in this district the industrial spy system is the most vicious and the best developed.

The change of employment, such as the transfer from mine to mine, or even the transfer from industry to industry and moving out of the state, have proved a source of interference in the reorganization campaign in this district.

In instances where nuclei are com posed of members of one nationality Comrade Jakira has adopted the correct practice of transferring comrades of another nationality into that nucleus so as to prevent that nucleus from functioning, in any respect at all, as a language group.

Cleveland Winding Up. The Cleveland district, according to the report of Comrade Amter, the district organizer, is now completely registered and shop nuclei and street nuclei are being organized. Functioning. In the Detroit district the problem of reorganization is on the whole simpler than in other districts. Here we have one basic industry, the automobile industry, in which most of the members are employed. There are 15 well-functioning shop nuclei in the city of Detroit. Shop nuclei papers have been issued here and have brought good results. A central fund is being established for issuing shop nuclei papers. Ten of the best comrades of the Finnish branch have been mobilized to draw in Finnish comrades into the reorganized units. ### PLUMBERS' HELPERS' CLUB IS BEING ORGANIZED IN THE BRONX

Start Campaign for Admittance of Plumbers' Helpers Into Union

NEW YORK,-The Plumbers' Helpers' Club of Brooklyn is now out to organize similar clubs in all parts of New York. The membership realized that if the club is to carry on a successful campaign for the admittance of the helpers into the union it cannot confine itself to Brooklyn only.

The club realized that it must call upon all plumbers of New York, all over the country if necessary, to unite in a joint struggle for the admittance of the helpers into the union. The struggle for better conditions of work for the helpers means at the same time a struggle for raising the living standard of all the workers in the industry.

A committee was elected to organize the first helpers' club in the Bronx. The call for this organization meeting appears below.

To All Plumbers' Helpers of the Bronx: Dear Brothers:

You, better than anybody else, know under what cruel conditions the plumbers' helpers are forced to work. The plumbers' helpers are more exploited than any other worker in the building trade. The plumbers' helper is getting Boss: My stars, the plumbers' help-building worker? Don't you put ers are organizing themselves.

less wages, a maximum of $4. He is treated worse than any other worker in our industry. Did you, brother, ever ask yourself why it is so? What is the difference between the plumbers' helper and all other workers in the building trade? Aren't you working as hard and in many cases harder than any other in as productive a day's work as any other worker? What is it then that prevents you from making more than the miserable $4.00 you get? What is it, then that makes you subject to treatment worse than anybody else in the building trade?

The only answer to that is that all other workers are organized into unions and you are not. All other workers fight for better wages and better conditions of work in an organized manner and you do not. The plumbers' union does not organize you, the united association has never bothered about you, the American Federation of Labor has never taken up the question of the plumbers' helpers. We must organize ourselves in order to force the plumbers' union to admit us

There is a wise ancient saying: "The slave that does not protest is worthy of remaining a slave." If the plumbers' helpers will not protest, if they will not demand of the union to organize them, if they will not organize themselves for that purpose, they will be worthy of remaining in the position they are in now.

The Plumbers' Helpers' Club of Brooklyn therefore calls upon you to demand and fight in an organized manner for the UNIONIZA-TION OF ALL PLUMBERS' HELPERS IN THE TRADE.

You can do this only through a body which will unite and represent all plubers' helpers, of the Bronx. This body is a Plumbers' Helpers' Club of the Bronx. A club like this, together with the one in Brooklyn and others that are being organized will be in a position to accomplish our goal-UNIONIZATION OF THE PLUMBERS' HELPERS.

The first organizational meeting will be held on Thursday, January 7th, 8 p. m., Bronx Lyceum, at 3693 Third Ave., corner 170th street Every conscious plumbers' helper is called upon to attend this meeting and create a basis for a strong organization of the helpers in the Bronx. Tell every helper you meet about it and bring him down to the meeting.

By A Worker Correspondent NEW YORK CITY, January 5,-

After the New York district council had refused to seat Morris Rosen as delegate to the district council, for the second time, because he was a candidate for general president on a progressive program against Hutcheson, Local Union 376, in a communication to the labor fakers informed them that the time has passed when the local could be dictated to, as to who should represent them. The members will elect only their most militant fighters for their welfare, as representatives.

The local then called their attention to Local 2717, where three different delegates were elected, and were not seated because they opposed the reactionaries. Later a non-elected delegate, who is a staunch supporter of these fakers, was seated by the Elect Rosen Anyhow.

Then, to hurl their defiance in the teeth of these fakers. Local 376 elected Morris Rosen as business agent at a special meeting held on December 21. The membership discussed the issues freely and pointed out that Rosen fought for election of district council officials every year by referendum vote, a five-day week and $12 per day wage, job control, for world trade union unity, a labor party, amal gamation of the building trades, and other progressive measures.

In reply to the arguments that the local ought to elect someone else beprogressives pointed out, that to elect another is to admit defeat by the reactionaries and give up the fight for the progressive program. One member said they would not seat anybody unioss they were certain that he could be controlled, and that he would not fight for the membership.

Complete Victory in Showdown Fight. Rosen took the floor before the ballots were distributed and said that he did not expect to be seated as a business agent, because he will not compromise one bit from the progressive carpenters' program, that it may be a struggle for years before the membership will force the district council to seat progressive delegates and busi ness agents.

Altho he was the only candidate nominated, he asked all the members to express their opinions by voting or leaving their ballots blank. After the votes were tallied Rosen received 254 votes and only three ballots were blank. With such a fighting spirit a was employed in. ### IF YOU HAVE NOT WON A PRIZE IN THE WORKER CORRESPONDENT CONTEST, YOUR TURN IS COMING

Why do we offer prizes?

We are glad someone asked that question.

We offer prizes because we want to show our appreciation of the worker who has taken the trouble to write, tho it came hard. Because he has worked industriously to produce the best kind of work he is capable of. And because it develops in the writer who wins the prize an appreciation of Form League to Aid the

We do not offer these prizes on a hit or miss basis. On the contrary, we select the books we offer with great care and regardless of the cost of the book. Some of the books come high because they are valuable books, but if they convey to the winner in a small measure the deep appreciation we have of him, then we feel well repaid.

If you write for The DAILY WORKER we want you to win a prize. And we have it in mind when we read your article. If you have not received a prize yet, that does not mean that you will be overlooked. Your turn is coming. Your name is on the list. Just keep on trying.

ORDERS FRIED HAM FOR WAITRESS, COUNTERMAN FORFEITS RIGHT TO JOB

By A Worker Correspondent

I got a job as a counterman in a Greek restaurant. I didn't make agreement with the boss as to wages. He told me the hours of work were from seven in the morning until eight in the evening. After I worked a week the boss told me he would pay me $16 a week, which he said was too much, but that he would do me a favor because of the scarcity of lobs.

Then he hired a waitress whom he paid $15 a week. In the evening she ordered some fried ham for dinner. I gave the order to the cook for her. The boss heard me give the order and became very angry. "Why didn't you ask me before you gave the order? Don't you know that the waiters and waitresses can't eat fried ham? They can eat only what is left over."

The funny part of it is that he claims to be a friend of the workers. After the waitress had eaten her fried ham he told me that he had no more use for my services because I pay too much attention to the other employes. And that's how I lost

BOSSES TEACH LABOR LESSON IN SOLIDARITY

But Break Up Workers' Own Organization

By A Worker Correspondent

When workers' unions are broken up the bosses, does this mean that the bosses at the same time disband their own organizations? Just the contrary! Bosses' unions become all the stronger in fighting the workers and they maintain their organization in order to keep the workers down and to gain a monopoly in their own business as well.

This is illustrated by Chicago boxmaking firms. A year ago Maxwell Bros, box shop at 23 South Morgan burned down. But their salesmen continued turning orders for boxes just as if nothing had happened to the shop. Strange to say, the orders were all accepted and were filled, too A few days ago, Goodwillie's big shop at 22nd and South Racine was destroyed by fire. But this did not stop the company from receiving and filling all orders. All the other shops

This indicates how much solidarity the box manufacturing firms show and how they help each other out when in trouble. But most of the former union boxmakers still believe that when their union was busted up, the bosses followed suit by giving up their own organization as well.

Packing House Workers' Problems

It is the function of a Communist paper to take the lead in every fight against the rapacity of the exploiters of labor. It is not sufficient merely to furnish news of the struggle, but the experience failures of dual unionism: of the workers in industry must be analyzed, the various grievances confronting the wage slaves under capitalist production must be explained upon the basis of the class struggle and turned into conscious direction to better the conditions of the workers. The series gressives, amidst a blare of trumpets of articles appearing in The Daily Worker on conditions in the great packing industry emphasize the crying need for organization of the miserably underpaid slaves of this gigantic trust.

Surely all workers must bitterly resent the nefarious spy system in the meat packing industry, the snivelling sneaks prying thru the pockets of the clothes of the workers as they hang in the company lockers to detect anything that may suggest a desire for unionization of the plants. This practice is so brazen that even the dullest

Then there are the more subtle forms of oppression of the workers. A case in point is the system of conference boards such as exist in Chicago, or the "50-50" committees in Omaha and other places. These boards and committees exist for the purpose of devising schemes for more intensive exploitation of labor by raising the productive power of the plants thru intensification of the exploitation of labor. They are simply institutions thru which a more methodical and scientific exploitation of labor takes place. The result is greater production and greater profits for the bosses, with less expense to the capitalist. Increased production means unemployment for the packing house workers. When workers in the industry are deprived of their jobs the employers are able to beat down wages. Workers who participate in such boards help the employer reduce their own

THE DAILY WORKER in exposing the real character of this swindle practiced against the workers furnishes them with ammunition that will enable them to combat the bosses, thereby striving to fulfill its mission as the spokesmen for the working class, a newspaper to which the workers can look for leadership in their everyday struggle.

Modern scientists are lucky they did not live in the days when the church had armies at its command. To doubt one of the church fables exalted as dogmas was equivalent to inviting an experience with the rack, thumb screw or the iron

THE church is no longer in a position to burn people at the stake for doubting its fallacies but it has yet considerable power which is always thrown in the scales on the side of reaction. Religion and science have nothing in common. One is based on supersition, ignorance and blind faith. The other rests on knowledge.

Chicago Civic Opera Has Popular Priced Night on Saturday

Saturday night, Jan. 9th, will be a popular price night at the Chicago Civic Opera with a double bill of unusual interest.

Humperdinck's ever popular opera of fairy tale background, "Hansel and Gretel," followed by the ballet production, "La Fata a Robinson," with Serge Oukrainsky and his ballet. The composer, Gabriel Grovlez, will con-

On Sunday afternoon, Jan. 10, Florence MacBeth, who has been absent from the cast for weeks thru illness, and Tito Schipa, the matchless lyric tenor will appear in the only presentation of "L'Elisir d'Amore," (The Elixir of Love).
