"Golden Rule" Nash, clothing manufacturer of Cincinnati, Ohio, and Sidney Hillman, president of the Amalgamated Clothing Workers of America, have recently been loudly proclaiming that the agreement entered into between them is a model to be followed both by the unions and the bosses in this country.

Thousands of Amalgamated members have been demanding for some time that the terms of the agreement be made known to them, but Hillman took his time about publishing it, and utilized the delay to spread propaganda among the union members so that when it was published less antagonism would be aroused against it.

I. L. D. Calls on Labor to Release Others

The acquittal of Richard (Blackie) Ford on a charge of murder by a jury at Marysville, Cal., has been hailed by all those interested in the defense of working class leaders and militants as an event of great importance. It is the one outstanding case for several years past in which a worker has ment to achieve thru its operation a escaped the clutches of the class state of industrial democracy in the justice of the capitalists.

By I. L. D. Press Service.

Hailing the acquittal of Richard (Blackie) Ford, on trial for the murder of a deputy sheriff in a strike riot over twelve years ago, as a victory for the entire working class the International Labor Defense in a public statement called on the workers thruout the country and particularly in California to initiate a campaign for the release of all class war prisoners in that state and for the repeal of the syndicalist law.

It is expected that Ford's release will be the signal for a renewed effort to open the jail doors for Suhr, Mooney, NcNamara and the I. W. W. victims of the gag law.

I. L. D. Statement. The statement issued by the International Labor Defense reads:

The acquittal of Richard (Blackie) Ford by a jury of the charge of murdering a deputy sheriff in the Wheatland hop riots in 1913 signalizes the first break in the orgy of persecution that has raged against the working class in the state of California for several years. This is an indication that the forces of reaction are now on the defensive and that the era of hysteria nourished by the propaganda of the anti-labor openshop elements in the state of California is on the decline.

WORKERS! 'WELCOME' 'GOLDEN RULE' NASH IN CHICAGO SUNDAY

The Chicago Forum announces that next Sunday the star attraction will be "Golden Rule" Nash, notorious exploiter of Cincinnati, O., who will explain how he built up his business of $6,000,000 a year.

The recent agreement signed by Nash and the Amalgamated Clothing Workers which was designed to take the stigma of a scab shop off the Nash concern while at the same time maintaining the intensive exploitation of the workers as before. makes the coming speech of Nash of great importance.

All workers opposed to the labor skinning policy of union co-operation with the boss should attend the meeting and demonstrate to Nash that they are opposed to the scheme cooked up between Hillman and him at the expense of the Amalgamated membership. The performance will take place at the Olympic Theater, Randolph and Clark Sts., Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

Operators Make No Move to Settle Strike

(Special to The Daily Worker) PHILADELPHIA, Pa., Jan. 29.-At the session of the conference between officials of the United Mine Workers and the anthracite operators here, the issue raised was the question of arbitration. The operators came out flatly for arbitration and rejected any other means of settling the strike.

Lewis and the other union officials recognized that this stand of the operators meant that no concessions would be made that would enable them to appear before the miners with a chance of saving their faces. Consequently there was a wordy argumen that resulted in nothing but another adjournment.

The operators are determined to force Lewis to agree to arbitration and a no-strike agreement. The refusal of Lewis to call out the maintenance men as demanded by the general grievance committees of the miners. makes the operators sure that they have nothing to fear from Lewis in the shape of drastic strike action.

Davis, Coolidge's secretary of labor, was snooping around here doing his best to aid the operators to secure their demands. What proposals he has made are not announced, but he had a talk with Lewis which may result in him agreeing with the demands of the operators and risking the wrath of the

A Plain Fake to Fool the Farmers

(Special to The Daily Worker)

DES MOINES, Iowa, Jan. 29 .-Overcoming the threatened "dirt farmer" revolt of yesterday, the farm conference supposed to represent the agricultural interests of eleven states, resolved itself into a fraud by selecting a committee of 22 who are pledged to work at Washington for passage of legislation that they hope will benefit the farmer.

Proponents of this idea hail it as the realization of a long standing dream whereby the farmers will be organized to carry on legislative acand industry is organized for the same purpose.

That means that these so-called recrawling posture of the bureaucrats of the American Federation of Labor and that at election time they will try to befuddle the farmers by inducing them to "reward their friends and punish their enemies."

Union in Demand for his forces. A deputy sheriff by the Rangel saw the American flag, he and 1920 Scale

(Special to The Daily Worker)

NEW YORK, Jan. 29 - Conductors and trainmen on all roads in the country will file demands for an increase in wages on Feb. 1, according to instructions sent out today by the union officials. The demand will be for the restoration of the wage scale fixed by the rail labor board in 1920. An answer to the demand is asked by March 2.

Proposed Scale.

The new wages would mean an increase of from $1 to $1.50 a day over the prevailing scale for conductors, baggagemen, flagmen, and brakemen. Conductors receiving in the neighborhood of $6.60 per day and $200 per month would obtain $7.75 per day and $232.50 per month. Assistant conductors and ticket collectors would have increases from $5.40 or 5.60 per day to 6.84 and from $160 per month to Corresponding increases will be asked for yard service employes, which include car retarder operators, foremen, helpers, and switch tenders. In many cases the demands equal an exact advance of $1 per day.

$1,130,000,000 Profits in 1925.

The demands come on the eve of the railroad reporting the largest profits in their history. The net income of 1925 will be $1,130,000,000, it is estimated. The railroad companies will reject the demands in spite of the huge profits piled up during the year by the railroad workers. What action the union will take in event of a rejection of their demands is not stated.

Police Attack Workers.

The strike in the bigger Botany mill that started the fray, was called in thrilling fashion by committeemen returning from a fruitless interview with Colonel Johnson and his associates. The thirty committeemen went from department to department pulling out the workers. Captain Zober and a mob of police rushed in and at tempted to throw them out. But the double task of chasing the committeemen and trying to herd back the workers to their machines was too much. The weaving room, barred in time, was saved for a half day, but a half day only till it was likewise emptied.

Botany Mills are in the woolen council of Passaic, which centralizes employment from one office and keeps a record of every worker. Its blacklist and espionage systems have been exposed many times. Strikers demand old wages with time and a half for overtime and reinstatement of discharged men. They are unaffiliated with an outside union and pay dues into the United Front Committee of Textile Workers, which says it will co-operate with any union entering the Passaic mills for the purpose of fighting wage cuts.

Over 6,000 on Strike.

PASSAIC, N. J., Jan. 29. - The strikers at the Botany Worsted Mills have had their ranks swelled to the extent of over 700 more workers employed by the Garfield Worsted Mills joining them, completely tieing up that mill. The workers of the Gera Mills are also expected to walk out any minute.

At the Botany Mills even the machinists went on strike, thus uniting the more higher workers with the rest in a united front against the bosses, who are making attempts to break the strike by having the little crafts meet separately and make separate agreements with them. They are also trying to frame up Albert Weissbord, strike leader.

The spreading of the strike to the Garfield was achieved by over 2,000 strikers of the Botany Mills en masse calling upon them to join in a united struggle against the wage reductions which they did by a one hundred per

U. S. Attorney General Is ENTHUSIASTIC Revealed As Capitalism's Prize Boob Now in Office Capitalist Press Sees Red

By J. LOUIS ENGDAHL.

TODAY, one of the myths that the working class must knock on the head effectively is the illusion that because some individual occupies an important position in the capitalist state or industry, therefore, he must needs possess exceptional ability, that he is far above the average human being that he is gifted with peculiar talents that separate him from the multitude.

Thus many workers are carried away with the idea that the boss is a gifted human being, that the working class cannot get along without the boss class. The capitalist class, of course, does everything possible to perpetuate and develop Socialists even lend aid to the perpetuation of this myth by raising the question, "Are the workers ready (meaning have they sufficient intelligence) to take power?" "Are the workers able now to take over industry?" and similar nonsense. They set aside the question of whether the conditions are ripe for the workers to seize power, placing implicit faith in the genius of the working class to meet every problem that will present itself.

An example of the kind of 100 per cent dumbbells that capitalism places in responsible positions is found in the voluminous proportions of John Garibaldi Sargent, attorney general of the United States by the grace of his friend, Cal Coolidge, president, another admitted nonentity. Millions of workers in the United States are under the impression that the attorney general, as head of the department of justice, is protecting their "rights."

One of the biggest bandit organizations of predatory capital today is the aluminum trust. The department of justice is supposed to be hot on its trail. But what are the Sargent confessed to a senatorial committee investigating the aluminum case, which involves Secretary of the Treasury "Andy" Mellon, the Pittsburgh multi-millionaire, that he had not heard of the resolution of the federal trade commission refusing to give the aluminum evidence to his department.

Sargent admitted he did not know of the letter of his predecessor, Mr. Stone, stating that it was apparent the company had violated the law. Sargent went on record as declaring that he was positively unaware of any controversy over the Mellon's aluminum trust until a newspaperman mentioned it to him.

Sargent innocently declared that he had not heard of the aluminum trust at all before he came to Washington.

Sargent said he had no recollection that he had ever taken any personal action in the important aluminum case. Later he corrected this because it was found that he had really signed a memorandum to one of his subordinates.

This condition is not the exception. It caused a republican senator, for instance, to exclaim, "incredible as it seems, the attorney general knows less about the department of justice than Denby did about the navy."

The robber interests actually do not need able men in the government. In fact, the more ignorant the government bureaucrats happen to be, the easier are they led about by the nose by the few able thieves who have sold their talents to capitalist industry and finance. Ignorance is therefore at a premium under capitalism, especially when places are to be filled in the capitalist government. Any brainless parasite can be converted into a swivel-chair office holder.

Thru the big fact that he is compelled to work for a living, however, the worker becomes acquainted with industry. Labor furnishes the genius that is exploited by capitalism. But labor in time will learn to abolish capitalism, realizing the fact that it has the brains to build its own social

When workers feel today that they do not possess enough ability to take over power, let them consider the case of the monumental ignoramus, John Caribaldi Sargent. the "know-nothing," attorney general of the United States.

TOLEDO, Ohio, Jan. 29-The Lenin nemorial meeting was one of the most uccessful and enthusiastic meetings eld in Toledo.

The meeting started at eight o'clock vith Comrade Bruce Smith as chairman. Several of the local speakers among which was Comrade Buehler explained the difference between the role that Lenin played and that of Ex-mayor Brough, who died three days before the Lenin meeting and who left behind a labor record that will be remembered by Toledo workers for many years to come.

Robert Minor, editor of the new nagazine section of The DAILY WORKER held his audience for two solid hours telling of the life of Lenin and the work that Lenin had accomplished. It was a lecture that will never be forgotten by the workers that attended the meeting.

At the close of the lecture a numper of questions were asked by workers in the audience. After Minor had finished answering the questions, the chairman spoke on The DAILY WORKER and the need of the workers to support the fighting organ of the American working class.

(Worker Correspondent) LOS ANGELES, Calif., Jan. 29-Communism is making progress-even in this stronghold of the "American plan" and 100 per cent Americanism. This was fully demonstrated at the Lenin memorial meeting in Music-Art Hall. The Lenin-Liebknecht-Luxemburg spirit was there-and it is here to stay. The large hall was too small for the big crowd. Many people stood for three hours, thruout the splendid program.

The orchestra, directed by a lad of about 12, conducted the singing of the juniors, who are "always ready." The Russian, Jewish, Lithuanian and Hungarian singers made the program the est ever arranged.

A large number of new faces were een in the audience. This was, no doubt, the result of vigorous attacks on Communism (for a period of two weeks) on the front page of the capitalist press. The papers are advocating direct action as well as suppressive measures by the authorities.

The police have started to act against the "reds." A meeting of unemployed at the slave market was broken up.

MINERS MIGRATE FROM ANTHRACITE FIELDS TO N.Y.

Correspondents' Class Hear About Strike

(By a Workers Correspondent)

MEW YORK, Jan. 29-An intelligent young miner, 22 years old, influenced by our Communist propaganda in the mining region, came to N. Y. to find work, to join the Y. W. L. and study at the Workers' School at 108 E. 14th

In an impromptu talk to the Worker Correspondent class he presented the miners' point of view of the anthracite strike involving 158,000 miners. He stated that the strike was due to an attempt of the large companies to make readjustments as they term it, or in other words, wage cuts.

The mine owners believe, he continued, that the miners are making too much money, due to the fact that a small group of miners who are contractors can average about $500 a month without doing any work at all. They contract to do so many yards of the coal vein for which they receive $30 per yard. They employ the first miners to do the dangerous work of dynamiting at $6.33 per day; the other miners receive the following Waterproof Workers' wages: those who do the real work of transporting the coal get $5.93 per day, the refiners $4.62, and the breaker boys range in age from 14 to 17, also men over 60, who are too old to do work in the mine, receive $3.75 per day. From this it is seen that miners usually begin and end their careers in the mines as breaker boys.

With the exception of about 10,000 maintenance men, he said, all the miners in the anthracite fields are on

TOUTED TARIFF DON'T KEEP UP WORKERS' WAGE

Children Working for $7 to $10 a Week

By LAURENCE TODD.

WASHINGTON-(FP)-One million workers in the textile industry in the United States find themselves sinking lower and lower in the economic scale, while their rate of production and the profit taken by their employers go rapidly upward, said Thomas F. McMahon, international president United Textile Workers of America, at the opening session of the Washington conference on the people's relation to the tariff, conducted by the People's Reconstruction league.

McMahon analyzed the record of the cotton goods manufacturers under the high protective tariff, and testified that in certain lines they now can undersell products of mills in India and Japan. The machinery used in this country is better than abroad, and the average wage for American cotton mill operatives is about $15 a week. Great numbers of children are employed at $7 to $10 a week.

He declared the socalled woollen industry a shoddy industry, in which good wool is not over 35% of the material, although the manufacturers enjoy a tariff on wool of 31c a pound. Wages in these mills are slightly better than in cotton mills, due to the heroic defense put up by the workers in repeated strikes against reductions in recent years.

The American Woollen Co., whose capital has been increased-from accumulated profits-from $40,000,000 to $100,00,000—is now trying to make its workers produce dividends on this larger capitalization. An independent mill at Uxbridge, Mass., which had long been run on a basis of capitalization in harmony with the actual investment, declared a stock dividend in 1923 of 3,223 percent and then cut wages in an attempt to produce dividends on this flood of watered stock.

Silk workers are rapidly increasing in number, he stated. Unskilled workers in the many mills in western Pennsylvania get $11 a week on the average, as silk-throwers. The wellsilk hosiery get $50 a week. The sold in the English market, after paysuccessful competition with Britishmade goods.

McMahon declared that a good oxample of the use of tariff privileges by the textile barons in this country was furnished by the former tariffexpert senator from Rhode Island. Henry Lippitt, who secured a merger of the Manville mills in Rhode Island with the Jenckes mills in the south. Their combined capital was $20,000,-000. Overnight Lippitt watered the capital to $39,000,000, and proceeded to drive the workers to furnish profits on this transaction.

Agricultural Agent Has False Solution for Farmers' Ills

MT. VERNON, Jan. 29 .- Frederick Benz, agricultural agent for the Northern Pacific railroad, in an address to local rotarians and assembled farmers predicted the collapse of our civilization like that of ancient Egypt and Babylon unless something is done to relieve the distress of the farmers. York section, 799 Breadway, Room raising and more dairy cows and shutout the cocoanut oil substitutes for butter would greatly help the situation. Another interesting remedy he offered was that we should quit wearing shoddy and wear only the finest wool. Mr. Benz also covered the tax question always a sore spot with the farmer, declaring that "the underying strata of society must pay all government expenses." The only worry of Mr. Benz seemed to be that too much was being spent and taxes were so high that the danger was the underlying strata of society will not be able to carry the burden of paying

LOOKING INTO

By WILLIAM F. KRUSE. (Special Moscow Correspondent of The DAILY WORKER.)

MOSCOW, U.S.S.R.-(By Mail.)-During the last summer twelve expeditions were organized for exploration into the vast northland which extending from the White Sea to Kamchatka, makes up approximately onethird of the Soviet's domain. This vast territory is inhabited only by about 200,000 people, mainly Tungus, Samoyed, Vogul, and Ostyak, who mostly lead a nomadic life. A special "Committee for Relief of the Extreme North" has just completed the first year of its existence. during which it sponsored legislative measures for the relief of these peoples These and other measures included freedom from taxation and military service, protection against usury, government grain stores which sold sup olies at cost, rifles and ammunition to native hunters, medical and veterinary service which is still in process of organization, and the establishment of cultural bases by means of which it is hoped to train a staff of native educators to work in co-operation with the teachers sent from the metropolis.

For the first time postal service was extended to the capital of Lapand, Lovozero, a town of 800 people, situated 90 versts off the Murmansk rialway. In winter the mail is delivered by reindeer sleds, in summer by oot owing to utter absence of roads. relephone connection is to be established next spring.

This vast northern empire is by no means the barren waste that most people imagine. One of the purposes of the various expeditions was to ascertain the resources of the land Thus rich deposits of high grade surface coal were discovered in the Petchora valley in the extreme northern Urals. Indications of oil were also found in this district. The soil in the Amga and Lena valleys in Yakutia, in the extreme north of the U. S. S. R. was found to be of highest virgin fertility and plans were outlined for the organization of a series of agricultural experimental stations under direction of the Leningrad Institute of Experimental Agronomy. Important investigations were also carried out to determine the fish currents in the waters of the Archange district in order to stimulate the fishery industry there.

A Former Prosecutor Charges Persecution of Ford: Refuses Case

MARYSVILLE, Cal.-(FP)-Blackie Ford's second trial for a murder he did not commit began with most of the cards stacked against him. The judge is C. O. Busick of Sacramento, the notorious author of the anti-I. W. W. injunction. The prosecuting attorney, Roy Manwell, is son of the man for whose death Ford who did not kill him has already served 11 years. The son depends on winning this case as an election card against A. M. Bundy, Ford's local attorney, out for Manwell's job at the next election. On the other hand, the former prosecutor, W. H. Carlin, has refused to handle this second trial on the ground that Ford is being persecuted. Witnesses of the Wheatland hop riots in 1913 will be called in Ford's defense, and Ralph Durst, owner of the ranch the fearful conditions of which led to the strike and riots, may also be subpoenaed as a defense witness. The defense will show that Ford was unarmed, as were Suhr and most of the strikers; that he had no intention of inciting or conspiring to murder; and that this second trial is illegal, as being practically a trial after conviction for the same offence. They will also show that the Manwell family sued Durst for $150,000, thus blaming him for their father's death.

The Ford Acquittal

A jury in Marysville, California, has acquitted Richard the victors, but irreconcilable antag-(Blackie) Ford on the charge of murdering Deputy Sheriff Reardon, onisms within the capitalist economy during the hopfield strike in 1913. On another charge Ford spent of the world prevented its full realmore than eleven years in the penitentiary. On his release he was ization. rearrested and charged with the murder of the sheriff.

Undoubtedly the release of Ford comes as a surprise to those the tiger of French banking capital; workers acquainted with the record of the courts of California in the Lloyd George, the darling of the Britmatter of persecution of workers. This state is notorious for its ish imperiallists and Orlando of Italy frameups against labor leaders and workers active in the labor move- the treaty and the covenant of the ment. Especially have the I. W. W. suffered from the class justice league were hatched. The primary of the open shoppers in California. It is deemed sufficient to prove purpose of the league of nations was that a worker carries an I. W. W. card to have him railroaded to to throw the mantle of legality over prison.

It was created with the idea thruout the country. Instead of looking upon the Ford acquittal of carrying on war against any state as the end of a savage period the workers must look upon it as an urge toward the establishment of a great mass organization which to the covenant itself, which is called will be able to block the capitalists when they seek to wreck their the annex is recited the names of the wrath on the militant spirits of the working class.

So long as capitalism exists, just so long will the courts be used as weapons against the working class in the interest of the capitalists. Every battle will claim victims. The working class alone has any interest in aiding these working class victims of capitalist class justice. On the shoulders of the working class falls this task. Every worker must see to it that the leaders, the fighters, the daring spirits of our class are defended against the attacks of the capitalists.

In building up an organization to take up this task the International Labor Defense is performing a great service to the working class of this country. All workers should support this non-partisan defense organization of the working class of America.

A Strike Against Wage Cuts

Mill workers of Passaic, N. J., to the number of 5,000, are on strike against a ten per cent wage reduction imposed yast year. They also demand time and a half for overtime and the reinstatement of union officials who were discharged for activity among the workers.

Like all recent textile struggles the mill owners are raising the cry that the trouble is caused by "outside agitators." Of course, in expected to show decisive strikes in the eyes of the mill owners and their kept press, the wage reductions the direction of its formation. are gleefully accepted by the workers who, were it not for the agitators, would petition for still further wage cuts.

Never was there a more pressing need for organization drives among the workers in the whole textile industry and we hope the Passaic strike will be the starting point for such organization.

The League—An Ambitious Dream of World Imperialism. H. M. WICKS

TPON the ruins of the world war the victorious nations endeavored to erect a super-state, an instrument of conquest and vengeance that would subdue all the earth to its will. It was an ambitious dream of world imperialism. Its immediate objectives were to reduce the vanquished nations to the condition of colonies, crush the proletarian revolution in Russia and partition the earth among

The holy alliance signalized the resistance of feudalism to capitalism as this system emerged as a young giant upon the stage of world history; the league of nations is one of the last bulwarks of capitalism as it gropingly and desperately strives to hold the world in check.

But just as the rising power of capitalism shattered feudalism with its holy alliance, so the rising pro letariat of today will conquer the decaving imperialism in spite of and against the league of nations and its world court

Have you adopted a shop nucleus? There are a number of shop nuclei who can turn in a larger number of names for a three weeks' trial subscription to The DAILY WORKER than they can pay for and a number of street nuclei tell us they have the money but not the names.

The plan is to get the names from the shop nuclei and where the street nucleus cannot supply enuf names they should adopt a shop nucleus who can' supply the names. Names of workers to whom the pa-
