Let Us Make It $15,000 by Election Day To Keep The DAILY WORKER

By JAY LOVESTONE.

IN the last few days the funds to Keep The DAILY WORKER haven't been coming in as rapidly as previously. We are not speaking of the fact that the funds haven't been coming in on the minimum satisfactory rate to Keep The DAILY WORKER.

Of course, we understand that the same break-neck pace in rushing funds cannot be maintained all the time but we must emphasize the fact that we cannot afford to slow down in our efforts. The whole campaign has been planned with the idea of getting maximum results in the shortest possible time. This means that we can afford no postponement, no delay, no hesitation in mobilizing all possible resources and energies to Keep The DAILY WORKER.

Chicago is approaching the $3,000 mark in its collections. New York has collected about $2,500. Philadelphia is rapidly date sent in about $700 each. Detroit has outstripped Philadelphia in the rate of getting funds. Detroit has already collected about 45 per cent of its full quota. This is doing very well. In this respect, Detroit is at present the banner district. New York will have to do some tall hustling to catch up. for at present it has collected only about 16 per cent of its quota of $15,000.

All in all, we have collected to date from eleven to twelve thousand dollars. This means that we have up to October 26, collected 22 per cent of the total of $50,000 which we must have within the next few weeks in order to Keep The DAILY

Not every member of the Workers (Communist) Party has yet sent in his minimum $5 contribution. If we succeed in carrying thru only this phase of our plan, then we will have much more than $50,000 collected.

solicited the various labor organizations in behalf of the Keep The DAILY WORKER Campaign.

There are many local unions thruout the country that are ready to give substantial financial support to The DAILY WORKER. These organizations must be approached. It is up to the friends and supporters of The DAILY WORKER to put the case and the needs of the only militant, English, labor daily in the United States before these proletarian organiza-

Our minimum possible budget requires that we have at least $15,000 collected in the campaign by election day. This is not asking too much. There have been days in the campaign which show that the army of DAILY WORKER builders can do better than even this. We have had days on which $2,000 came in. We have had days in which at least $1,000 came to the fund. These were not accidental. These were simply redbanner days must be repeated with increasing frequency. Otherwise, the campaign will collapse. The collapse of the campaign can mean only the collapse of The DAILY WORKER.

When we speak of the collapse of The DAILY WORKER. we are not speculating. There is nothing abstract or panicky about our calculations. We have to face the hard facts of the difficult situation. It costs quite some money to run any paper, especially a labor paper and particularly a workers' paper fearlessly defending the interests of the workers as a class.

That means that if you mean business, you must Keep The DAILY WORKER agoing.

Just now there is one way to Keep The DAILY WORKER. This way is to give, give generously and quickly. Get your local union, get whatever labor organization of which you are a member to fall in line and carry us over the top to Keep The DAILY WORKER.

SIX Chinese provinces are now in the hands of the Cantonese, according to reports appearing in the capitalist press. Only a few short months ago the same papers gleefully admitted that the Cantonese were licked. So it is not safe to believe everything you read in the capitalist press. Except when they admit something in favor of an enemy. We also learn that the Cantonese are playing more havoc with propaganda than with arms. But the best propaganda is the conduct of the Cantonese troops, which compares so favorably with that of the armies of Wu-Pei-Fu and Chang-Tso-Lin that the people who have experienced both do not stop to ask any more questions.

THE territory now occupied by the the Cantonese covers over 600,000 square miles and has a population of 179,000,000. The Cantonese troops do not make a point of raping and robbing the population as do the armies of the imperialist tuchuns. So that their conduct is even more convincing than their propaganda. Of course the imperialist press is very sorry that the Cantonese are winning, even tho they have to admit that the Chinese masses are not. And they have to admit that Soviet Russia is friendly to the Cantonese.

THE Cantonese stand for the unity free organizational expression of the cable received by the Near East reneeds of the workers and peasants of China. Where Wu-Pei-Fu and Chang- general of the Near East relief in Ar-Tso-Lin use the gallows, the Cantonese come with a helping hand. "China for the Chinese!" is their slogan. And the Chinese mean the Chinese masses, not those lickspittles who are in the pay of the foreign imperialists and are living in luxury at the expense of the people.

QUAKE VICTIMS FACE WINTER IN THE OPEN FIELDS

Homeless Thousands of Leninkan Suffer

BULLETIN.

MOSCOW, Oct. 27.-Soviet officials and near east relief workers at Leningrad were still toiling today to save victims of the recent Armenian earthquakes. Official reports reveal that the catastrophe was worse than the first estimates and it is now stated that there are 365 identified dead and 8,000 homeless and the damage amounts to more than $100,000,000.

The successive earthquakes over a period of four hours drove many into a frenzy of fear that has resulted in madness. Twenty persons are reported to have died of heart failure.

BIRKENHEAD IS AGITATING FOR SOVIET RUPTURE

South African Premier Is Making Trouble

(Special to The Daily Worker)

LONDON, Oct. 27 .- Lord Birkenhead continues his efforts to make opposition to the Soviet Union the main subject of discussion at the empire conference. He has already or ganized his caucus and is said to have secured the support of Australia, Newfoundland and a Hindoo prince, who does not even represent India unofficially.

However, the cabinet is for going slow as the empire has enough trouble on her hands now without borrowing more from the Soviet Union which is credited with being able to mak trouble in proportion to her size, an likes nothing better than to bedevi John Bull's sleeping hours.

The cigar strikers had their first experience the next morning with the local boss-serving police Cossacks, whose brutal tactics in connection with the big strike of textile workers in this city have made them notorious thruout the world.

Upon the appearance of a picket line, the boss summoned Chief Zober into his presence. Shortly after Zober had been closeted with the boss, he gave orders to his police to break up the picket line, which was done with their customary violence. Whereupon Zober, constituting himself the official strikebreaker of this region ordered the strikers to appear at his office to meet their employers. This the strikers refused to do.

Their leaders issued a statement scoring the malicious propaganda of the bosses and declaring that "all the false statements that have been given out by the bosses will not bring the workers back to work, but we stand willing to return to work on the basis of the agreement, as prom ised by the firm. SOVIET UNION COMMUNIST PARTY OPENS 15TH PARTY CONFERENCE

By JOHN PEPPER (Special Cable to The Daily Worker.)

MOSCOW, Oct. 27 .- The Fifteenth Conference of the Communist Party of the Union of Soviet Republics opened yesterday at Andrew's Hall in the big Kremlin palace, which was filled to capacity. There were present 817 delegates, with 194 decisive and 634 consultative votes, the latter including 36 representatives of sections of the Communist International.

After standing in honor to the memory of Comrade Dzerjinsky, the conference unanimously chose a presidium of 37 members, including Comrades Stalin, Bukharin, Molotoff, Tomsky, Kalinin, Voroshiloff, and Kuibysheff.

Bukharin met a tremendous ovation when he reported on the international situation. In the beginning of his report on the question of the stabilization of capitalism, Bukharin dwelt on three signs of this stabilization: the growth in world production of pig-iron and steel, the restoration of the world foreign trade turnover, the improvement of the currencies of the various countries.

HRU an analysis of the pertinent statistics Bukharin showed that capitalism is nearing the end of the restoration period. Another typical feature of stabilization, he pointed out, is a certain overproduction, finding expression on the one hand, in an energetic search for markets and on the other hand in rationalization. As a definite success of capitalism we must also consider the concentration of capital as seen in the growth of trustification whereof the newly organized Continental Steel Trust is a striking example.

Bukharin further pointed out that the events in China confirm Lenin's observation at the Second Congress of the Communist International regarding the possibility of a peculiarly rapid development of the oriental countries. The abnormal burden of taxation aggravated by economic and political oppression on the part of foreign imperialists is leading to the pauperization of huge masses of Chinese people and is driving them towards the revolutionary struggle. The prospects of the Chinese revolution are at present the most favorable.

Following up his analysis, the reporter refuted the social-democratic theory on a supposedly new phase or era of capitalist development. He presented an estimate of the present German imperialism and pointed out the next tasks of the German Communist Party and the Comintern. He touched upon several questions in reference to the international situation of the U.S.S.R.

Before the close of today's session there was read the address of the German Communist Party bringing up some details of the common factional work of the leaders of the opposition within the Communist Party of the Soviet Union and of the ultra-left elements of the German party. The address recorded satisfaction at the victory of Leninism over the opposition.

WHITE STUDENTS FIGHT ACTION OF N. Y. SCHOOL BOARD ON NEGRO TEACHER

(Special to The Daily Worker)
NEW YORK, Oct. 27.—Students at the New York evening high school have vigorously protested the action of the board of education in transferring J. Juggins, Negro teacher, from that school to Jamaica.

The students, most of them white, feel that Huggins was transferred because of his race, and that the board felt he would resign if placed at Jamaica school.

Huggins is a graduate of Columbia and Oxford and is now studying for his doctor of philosophy degree at Fordham University. He teaches civics and modern European and American history.

The student committee in charge of the protest includes Irving Wagner, Max Hoffenbach, A. Leshner and Sol Blitz.

JUDGE THAYER READY TO KILL SACCO AND VANZETTI

(By Federated Press)

BOSTON, Oct. 27.-Judge Webster Thayer is ready to pronounce sentence of death by electrocution on Nicola Sacco and Bartolomeo Vanzetti. The judge who five times fore refused the two Italian workers a new trial has again denied them the opportunity of proving on new evidence their innocence to a jury.

Defense counsel William G. Thompson is taking exceptions from Thayer's denial to the Massachusetts su preme court, which will give the apparently doomed workers life at least until January, unless the supreme court makes a special effort to hear exceptions sooner.

Thayer mainly attacks the character of Celestino Madeiros, whose confession to participation in the South Braintree crime and exoneration of Sacco and Vanzetti was the basis of the new trial motion.

Muskegon Babbits Are Getting Worried

(Worker Correspondent)

MUSKEGON, Mich., Oct. 27.-The board of education of the Muskegon public schools has jumped into the fight to prevent G. Sherwood Eddy, international secretary for Asia of the Y. M. C. A., from coming to this city for a series of public meetings November 2 and 3

As with the members of the Muskegon Employers' Association they fear that Eddy with preach the message of the Russian Soviet government, and no doubt he will say something of the conditions of the workers there and perhaps will reaffirm his stand flavoring the recognition of Russia by the United States government.

Board Meets Especially.

Governed largely by the words of L. C. Walker, president of the Shaw-Walker Filing Cabinet Company of this city, who is a leading member of the board of education, that body has held a special meeting and notified the superintendent of schools, M. W. Longman, that Mr. Eddy must not speak at the senior high school and junior college, as had been planned. -

The board of directors of the local Y. M. C. A., under whose auspices Mr. Eddy is being brought to Muskegon, met this noon and, altho no action was taken, several members, influenced by the stand which has been taken by the employers' association, attempted to show why the Y. M. C. A. should withdraw its invitation to Eddy.

Hold "Secret Sessions." What the final result of the battle will be, submerged as it is behind closed doors and decided upon in secret meetings the results of which are not being given to the press, is not apparent. Meetings at the Y. W. C. A., which organization also is co-operating in bringing Eddy to Muskegon, the Occidental Hotel and at the Central Methodist Episcopal Church cannot be stopped by the employers, no matter how hard they try.

· Telegrams are being sent to various cities thruout the country in which Eddy has recently talked to get statements as to how he was received by the community and the manufacturers.

MINERS GIVEN SMALL INCREASE SO BARONS CAN RAISE ON USERS

By ROMA, Worker Correspondent.

MOUNDSVILLE, W. Va., Oct. 27. -When the Ben Franklin Coal Co. of this city increased its wage scale from the 1917 basis to an equivalent of the Jacksonville agreement much comment was aroused as to the cause of such a move.

The statement of the company officials that their action was due to the favorable bituminous coal market alone was disproved in a day or two, when the price of coal to the consumers was increased 5 cents per bushel.

In line with the Ben Franklin Coal Co., the McKeefrey Coal Co., operating a local non-union mine, announced that their wage scale would be increased from the 1917 basis to that paid the union miners in Ohio. This will be effective November 1, 1926. It is rumored that this increase will be general in the entire county.

SCORN REQUEST OF NEEDY WIDOW OF FORD WORKER

Can't Give Her Job. Says Aid Head

By ROSE LOMAK

(Worker Correspondent) DETROIT, Mich., Oct. 27.-In the Special Ford edition of The DAILY WORKER there was an article which doubt, Marie is an English duchess stated that Ford pries into the private affairs of his employes. Many toria, the intended picture of being readers may doubt this statement. I want to tell them about an experience of this kind which I had acting as an interpreter for a widow of a Ford worker who died after nine years of faithful service in the Highland Park plant. The widow had two children and needed help badly. She went to the Ford factory and was referred to the sociological department. She was willing to go to work in the factory and provide for her children that way. The sociological department is in charge of a man named Anderson, who no doubt was picked for the job because of his cold and heartless look which he uses to throw a scare into people who come to see him.

The following interview followed: Anderson: "What do you want

Widow: "I want help, my man die, two children hungry, no money, give me job. I work same as my man." Anderson: "What have you got left from your husband?"

Widow: "Nothing left." Anderson walked to a file got the man's record and informed her that she got $1,000 insurance from a certain insurance company.

"What did you do with the money from your husband's insurance?" Widow: "I gave him a decent burial and the rest went to pay the doc tor bills."

Anderson: "I am sorry I can do nothing for you, you have been too extravagant to spend $500 on the burial. You could have buried him for $200 or less and live on the rest of the money. As for a job we employ 600 women and no more, there are now 145 on the waiting list. If one of the 600 quits or dies the next on the list and you may get a job about two years from now. Good bye."

This is the way the widows of the Ford workers are treated, the best that can be done for them is a job at $5 per day if they can wait long enuf.

TORONTO, Ont., Oct. 27. - The arge Ukrainian colony of Toronto. thru its representatives, pressed into the unwilling hands of Queen Marie of Roumania a "petition" that had rather the tone of a protest against the treatment of the Ukrainian popu lation of Roumania.

An official guest of the city and provincial governments, because, no and a granddaughter of Queen Vicgreeted by an admiring population was worse than spoiled when, much to her annoyance, the royal lady was forced to acknowledge the document at the crowded station as she was departing for Montreal.

Brands Tyranny.

Dealing specifically with the tyrannical regime that rules in the name of greater Roumania over the province of Bessarabia, formerly part of the Ukraine, the document drew the qeen's attention to the political, educational and economic restrictions exercised upon the population by the new rulers and told of the robbery of the peasants and the jailing of at least 2,500 political prisoners. It ended "We are convinced that the conditions of our brethren under your government are deplorable and far worse than they were before the war."

III at Ease.

The resolution was taken from the queen's hands by a retainer. She was obviously ill at ease. But she made no comment, and the indignant Ukrainians had to be satisfied with the knowledge that they at least caused the representative of the oppressors of their countrymen some annoyance on a triumphal tour on which she is being lauded by the bourgeoisie of two coun-

United States Supreme Court Decision Reveals Growing Dictatorship

By J. LOUIS ENGDAHL.

THE courts are but the creatures I of the capitalist social system that they serve.

This has again been vividly shown in the decision just handed down by capitalism's highest tribunal, the United States supreme court, that has decreed to President Cal Coolidge, or any executive that may follow him, the authority to remove White House appointees without the consent of the senate.

This is just another step making the executive power supreme in the government, centralizing the governmental dictatorship in the hands of the president, making of him a constitutional czar under the merest chimera of fraudulent "democratic"

In order to reach this decision the majority of the supreme court kicked over all precedent until even Justice McReynolds, in a minority dissenting decision, was forced to

"This goes far beyond any practice heretofore approved or followed; it conflicts with the history of the constitution, with the ordinary rules of interpretation and with the construction approved by congress since the beginning and emphatically sanctioned by this court. To adopt it would be revolutionary."

This case shows clearly how the judicial system bends to the will of the dominant ruling class. Like the dog in the phonograph advertisement, the United States supreme court hears "His Master's Voice."

If the exploiting class, therefore, can mould the opinions of the highest court in the land, dictating its decisions in its own interests even against a minority of this same court and the outraged parliamentarians in congress, workers may readily realize how much easier it is for this same owning class to get the kind of a decision it desires in the isolated court room of Judge Webster Thayer, in Norfolk County, Mass., against two working men, Nicola Sacco and Bartolomeo Van-

This latest opinion of the supreme court, that gives extreme tyrannical powers into the hands of the president, is the result of a suit brought by Frank S. Myers, former postmaster of Portland, Ore., who was removed by President Wilson and who sought to recover back salary on the ground that his removal was illegal without the consent of the senate, which had ratified his appointment. Wilson, the democrat, initiated this move in the centraliration of capitalist government. while it is approved by the supreme court headed by William Howard Taft, the former republican president. Both of the capitalist parties, therefore, stand back of this decision. It has already been shown how the great army of postmasters is used in support of the dominant political party. This supreme court decision means that any postmaster, if he does not dance to the snap of the White House whip, will lose his job. But it also means that the president will get tyrannical powers over all the numerous members of the multitudes of government commissions that inject themselves into every avenue of human life. Congress will be helpless. It will be permitted to conduct endless debates. The senators and representatives will be permitted to have their remarks, including the leave to extend, in the congressional record. But when decisions are to be made in the various departments of government, they will be dictated from the White House, because, according to the editorial. heading in the Chicago Tribune, "The President Holds the Reins," and it is "common sense," it declares, to give the president the power to "remove those who do not accept his leadership." It urges that this is the road to "discipline." meaning of course, the discipline imposed by a political tyrant nestling in the lap of the Wall Street

In the meantime the school children will continue to be taught the same old bunk to the effect that the United States government is one of "checks and balances" between the three branches of the government, the executive, the judicial and the legislative wings of the government.

Nothing can testify more to the disrepute into which the legislative wing of capitalist rule has fallen than the present meaningless congressional campaign where old party candidates are permitted to run wild over the country, making speeches about any and everything, as long as they do not touch vital issues. In the meantime the judicial branch smirkingly does the bidding of the executive department of the government, which dominates

What the children of the workingclass, however, are taught in the public schools dominated by the capitalist class, they will later unlearn as workers in the growing class war.

The United States has developed during these recent years into the mightiest empire on earth. Its political head is the uncrowned emperor, Cal Coolidge, in whom capitalism centralizes its power, knowing that "Silent Cal" is its obedient agent, its ever-ready office boy. In order to give Coolidge new powers, which means strengthening its own position, capitalism thru its own courts, overthrows the accepted precedent of a century and a half. It reiterates, "What is the constitution between friends."

It is this same Cal Coolidge that heads "The New England gang" that is seeking the lives of Sacco and Vanzetti. This gang sneers at labor's demand for a "just trial," "a fair trial," for the enjoyment of constitutional guarantees, for the safeguarding of the civil liberties of speech, press and assemblage.

There is nothing in the form or substance of the United States government today that guarantees anything to Sacco and Vanzetti, or any of the other class war prisoners, except the certainty that the vicious hatred of the present ruling class of exploiters and profiteers will be invoked against them to the limit.

It is stating the whole truth to say that labor must achieve its own emancipation. It is equally true that only the working class, thru its own organized and militant power, can prevent Sacco and Vanzetti from being legally murdered by the judicial assassins who cloak cedure of "the most perfect form of democracy."

The United States supreme court, in its latest decision, has helped tear the shielding mantle of socalled "democracy" off the hideous body of the anti-labor Wall Street dictatorship. The butcher of workers stands revealed before labor thruout the nation. Let labor rise against this horror.

CANNON ON TOUR OF MEETINGS IN MEMORY OF DEBS

I. L. D. Begins Drive for "Bebs Enrollment"

James P. Cannon, national secreary of International Labor Defense. will tour the country to address a series of Debs' Memorial meetings which have been arranged by I. L. D. to pay tribute to the life and work of the old rebel fighter Debs in the abor and revolutionary movement. These meetings in the numerous centers of the country will also initiate the "Debs Enrollment Campaign" of organization into the I. L. D. of workers from all sections of the labor movement to help to carry on the work to which Eugene Debs so enthusiastically gave him support.

Debs' Message.

In a mesage sent before his death o International Labor Defense, upon he national committee of which he had served since its inception, Debs

"We must not for an instant pause m our activities in behalf of the vicims of the class struggle. We must emember and never for a moment forget Tom Mooney, Warren Billings, Matthew Schmidt, Anita Whitney. Sacco, Vanzetti, Rangel and Cline, the seventy members of the I. W. W. in the festering black holes of California and all other rebels under capitalist imperialism in prison or on trial, or placed under arrest for their loyalty o the working class. Not only this but all the liberal, radical and progressive forces of the labor movement and all others who believe in he right of free speech, free assemblage and free press should rally to the support of the International Labor Defense in the campaign to wipe all anti-criminal syndicalism and antisedition laws from the statute books of the states which have enacted them for no other purpose than to gag the lips of the working class and strangle all progressive tendencies of the labor movement."

Schedule.

The meetings to honor the work of Gene Debs in the movement of the working class have thus far been arranged as follows:

WOMEN OF WORLD STILL NEED TO FIGHT FOR RIGHTS, OLD TIMER IN SUFFRAGE WARS SAYS IN CHICAGO

(By Federated Press.)

Women still have far to go to achieve equal opportunity and equal legal anding with men, says Alice Park, old-time suffrage worker and sex equalitarian of California. She stopped in Chicago on the last lap of a trip around the world. She did not visit Russia where women are freer and better cared for by social legislation than anywhere else in the world, but she did observe the level of her sex in Japan, China, the Philippines, India, Burma and west

"In every country I visited," Park under 30 years are similarly deprived declares, "the people who live there report progress toward equal rights for women and report also the great need of immediate further progress. In Japan the national organizations of women working for suffrage, tempernce, detention homes for girls and elimination of prostitution are cooperating, using the same building in Tokio for their national headquarters. On the other hand, many Japanese women are still bound by the old customs of seclusion."

The civil war in China prevented er from getting into the interior.

Budget for Japanese Navy Cut, Bringing a Split in the Cabinet

TOKIO, Oct. 27.—That a split in the Japanese cabinet exists over war preparations, is indicated by the speech of the minister of war at the aunching of a cruiser, attacking the finance minister, who is backed by the premier, for cutting the naval budget $60,000,000 below the amount asked by the war ministry.

Even at this, the navy gets $230,000,000 from this year's budget o expend on a five-year building pro-"Filipino women represent all gram. The whole budget amounts to $1,999,000,000. tion crisis, the occupation of the Ruhr, followed by the Dawes plan, are still fresh.

The situation has changed quantiatively, but not in quality. The interional financiers hope to save the sitnation by permitting unhampered and extended export possibilities even into the United States. The American industrialists cannot emulate the England of early 1815 which Engels describes as having "supplanted the proection she practiced at home by the free trade she forced upon her possible customers abroad." There is a developing antagonism of interests beween the capital-exporting bankers. who want some way out of the blind alley of non-payment of European debts, and the home industrialists who cannot-given the standard of living of American workers-compete suc-

Officials at Washington acknowledge that this manifesto will be an issue in the election campaign. The probabilty that the next congress will revise the American tariff downward is not to be excluded from an analysis of the question. Such a downward revision of American customs duties would have the following results:

1. A temporary spurt in European industry, with the probability of favorable export balances and strengthened ability to pay the European debts to Anglo-Saxon bankers and a lengthened period of stabilization in Europe. 2. Entry of American industry into more direct and sharper competition with European industry, increase in the rate of exploitation of American labor, intensified wage slashing campaign, lengthening of work day, anti-union drive, with an increase in tempo of the radicalization of the American working class.

3. Intensification of imperialist conflicts in the scramble for new export markets and increased resistance in Europe to American financial pressure and attempts to broaden the American sphere of hegemony in Europe; increased exploitation of small agricultural countries by strong Industrialized Euro-

World imperialism is in that hopeess quandary which comes when the bourgeoisie attempts to solve a problem which can be solved only by its own overthrow. How desperate is their condition can be realized by the self-destructive measures they propose for a way out, for, as Marx said almost eighty years ago in his address to the Democratic Association of Brussels: ". . . the free trade system works destructively. It breaks up old nationalities and carries antagonism of proletariat and bourgeoisie to the uttermost point. In a word, the free trade system hastens the social revolution."

---Weekly International THE BANKERS, THE DEBT AND 100.000 marks. Surely a bright pic showing that the height of tariffs in THE TARIFF.

THE manifesto of the bankers of the world, headed by J. P. Morgan, Montagu Norman of England and Hjalmar Schacht of Germany, calling for the breaking down of the tariff walls of all nations, is one of the most significant documents and events since the ending of the world war, and another step towards the liquidation of the Versailles treaty. The statement which has stirred up not, of course, any immediate prospects of adoption by the governments of the world, is an attempt primarily of Anglo-Saxon, and chiefly American, financiers to establish more widely and certainly their hegemony over the countries of Europe and to secure the payment of the debts which, with the impending collapse of the Dawes plan, is becoming more and more remote.

THE proposals of the manifesto, if A adopted, would have far greater results than are hoped for by the American bankers who signed them. If carried to their logical conclusion, these proposals would lead towards a strong basis for a United States of Europe, having its beginning in a customs union, which would be directed not only against the colonial peoples and the Soviet Union, but also against the United States as a creditor nation. They would lead inevitably towards the lowering of American tariff walls, which must result in throwing American industry into direct competition with European industry, with the concomitant low wages, long hours, and "super-efficiency" system upon which German industry, for example, is being rehabilitated for participation in the world market. The revolutionary implications of such a development especially for the American working class, are almost incalculable. THE daring proposals made by the international bankers are based on a critical situation which they are fac-

Massachusetts in Need of Enlightment

BOSTON, Mass., Oct. 27.-The 1926 election campaign in Massachusetts is fundamentally a fight for free speech, for the freedom of Sacco and Vanzetti, for the organization of the unorganized thruout the state and for the establishment of a labor party.

The campaign began under very favorable circumstances. There was first of all the months of agitation for Sacco and Vanzetti, all of which revealed the hostile attitude of the Massachusetts courts towards labor: In addition to this, there had been numerous injunction decisions against labor thruout the past year. In spite of the talk of prosperity, the year had witnessed severe unemployment in the textile, shoe and metal industry, with general wage cuts. The situation this year was therefore very favorable for a protest movement on the part of Extensive Campaign.

The Workers' Party election cam paign has been carried to every principal industrial center in the state. The message carried was "Organize the unorganized," to Gardner, Lawrence, Lowell, New Bedford, Worcester, Maynard, Everett, Cambridge, which are unorganized.

The present campaign has also been characterized by the large number of free speech fights against the black reaction reigning in Massachusetts today. In Lynn the mayor was so enraptured with his restrictions on free speech that he even revoked the street privileges of the Salvation Army. In Fall River the raising of the free speech issued by the Workers' Party resulted in much publicity for the party and also in illuminating the dispute between the democratic mayor and the republican chief of police. In Gloucester, Brockton, Lowell, Chelsea and Boston the party had to use the most persistent and determined efforts to secure the right to speak in behalf of its candidates.

For the first time in the history of this state the party held shop noonhour meetings before certain factories. particularly before the Mason and Hamlin piano factory. In the course of the election campaign the party was enabled to distribute on a wide scale its literature.

Key Campaign.

The election campaign in Massachusetts is a key campaign, as far as national politics are concerned, be cause a defeat for Butler would mean a defeat for Coolidge.

FORD EDITION WORRIED BOSSES

Workers Who had Them Were Threatened

(By a Ford Worker.)

HAMILTON, Oct. 27.—On October 8 a local newsdealer, J. Halperin, had two boys pass out some sample copies of The DAILY WORKER dated October 7 at the local plant of the Ford Motor Co., this issue being a special Ford number. It did not suit the local management to have their employes told how Henry was flim-flamming his workers about going to get six days' pay for five days' work.

So the watchman at the gate, apparently acting under instructions, invited the boys to stand inside the gate and pass out the papers, which is against the rules, and then, having gotten the boys on the company's property, the general manager, O. A. Anderson came out and took the papers away from the boys. He was followed out by Mr. McKinney with a bodyguard consisting of one of the hired help, Hoffert by name.

McKinney appeared out on the street to stop the papers being circulated. But he and his bodyguard got cold feet and turned their attention to the men, threatening them with the loss of their jobs if they accepted any of the papers, but many of the men took the papers regardless.

Mr. McKinney and his bodyguard followed the men passing the papers for four of five blocks to intimidate them and the workers that accepted the papers.

Still Waiting.

The workers here have not as yet eceived the six days' pay for five lays' work, but have been producing six days' work for five days' pay for a long time, and to hear them talk they are getting very sore about it. The Dearborn Independent, which Henry calls the "chronicler of the neg-

HUGE WISCONSIN LABOR TURNOVER SHOWS BAD CONDITIONS AND BIG

By LELAND OLDS, Federated Press.

Hundreds of thousands of dollars are loaded on the cost of production in Visconsin industry by high labor turnover. That is the natural conclusion from figures of the state industrial commission showing that Wisconsin employers must each year hire over 100 workers for each 100 on the payrolls in order to maintain their working forces.

workers are constantly leaving their jobs, voluntarily or by request, it means unsatisfactory working conditions.

Careful estimates place the cost of hiring new workers at $10 to $300, according to the skill required.

· Huge Turnover Shown. The Wisconsin report for August covers plants employing about 25,000 workers. At the rate of labor turnover in that month it would be necessary to hire about 30,000 workers during the year to keep this force going.

workers at an average of $50 the turnover costs these concerns $1,500, 000 a year. This must either be added to prices or subtracted from wages. The rate of labor turnover, the report shows, varies considerably from industry to industry. But in August it exceeded 100 per 100 workers em-

WORKER WRITERS! JOIN CLASS IN WORKER CORRESPONDENCE, FRIDAY

NTENSIVE activity to develop and strengthen the worker correspondence movement in the Chicago district will be launched at the first meeting of the class in worker correspondence to be held Friday night, October 29, in the editorial rooms of The DAILY WORKER, third floor, 1113 W. Washington Blvd., Chicago, Illinois.

The class will meet weekly on Friday nights. The success of this class last year indicates that an excellent response can be expected during the fall, winter and spring terms that lie ahead. All phases of worker correspondence will be developed. The class will not only write for, but help edit The American Worker Correspondent, the publication of the worker writers of The DAILY WORKER.

The class will be under the general direction of J. Louis Engdahl, editor of The DAILY WORKER, assisted by Harry Kletzky, who supervises the Worker Correspondence Section of The DAILY WORKER.

Special lectures will be given from time to time, on the various phases of worker correpondence and on problems confronting the labor movement by the members of The DAILY WORKER editorial staff, including William F. Dunne, Thomas J. O'Flaherty, Harrison George and Thurber Lewis. Talks will also be given on such subjects as shop papers, wall papers, living newspapers as well as lessons in English by Jay Lovestone, M. A. Stolar and Nancy Markoff. COME READY FOR WORK FRIDAY NIGHT.

(Special to The Daily Worker) SIOUX FALLS, N. D., Oct. 27 .-Tom Ayres, candidate for governor of the farmer-labor party, and John G. Soltis, farmer-labor party speaker from Minnesota, will assume the role of preachers here Sunday, Oct. 31.

A meeting was arranged for the Coliseum on that date by Alice Lorraine Daly, but the mayor declared that the Coliseum could be used only for "sermons" on Sunday, and would not give his permission for the meeting. Miss Daily then countered with the offer that Ayres and Soltis would preach sermons instead of "political speeches." The mayor had to give permission then.

So on Sunday Ayres will preach a sermon on the text: "Render therefore unto Caesar the things that are Caesar's; and unto God the things that are God's." Soltis' text is: "The foxes have holes and the birds of the heaven have nests; but the son of man hath nowhere to lay his head." They are selected from Matthew.

Firm Calls for Sluggers.

The swarm of private detectives who were guarding the scabs, have been changed for another swarm of about 15 "tough guys." The boss went to the agency and demanded harder sluggers, saying, "We have to win this fight by Wednesday or settle. We can't hold out any longer."

The firm has lost two or three big furniture companies as customers because of its fight on the union, and other contracts are pressing.

Picket Line Strengthened. Monday, the pickets were not much impressed. In fact the picket line was stronger than before. Four scabs, one equipped with a knife and two with clubs, tried to get by. Two finally got in, one changed his mind and jumped a taxi, and one is visiting the Cook county hospital.

As a result, the police took up four pickets, picking them at random, choosing three colored strikers and one white, and hailed them into court. Asking for jury trials, the case was continued until November 10.

Bosses Inject Race Prejudice. The bosses, in the court, tried to inject race prejudice by complaining that white pickets were speaking to colored girls and colored girls among the pickets speaking to white men-to tell them a strike was on and not to go to work there. The boss never complained about getting white and colored workers to work together for his profits, however. In his view a colored man is a fine fellow if he will

A Class Question.

There are only 10 or 12 scabs now, mostly ignorant colored girls, and the Negroes among the strikers know that the strike is a working class question, not a race question, and together with their white union brothers are sticking solidly, not one striker having turned scab and gone back,

Restaurants used to bring lunch into the factory, but the pickets to that, so the police obligingly act as waiters now, to "tote" sandwiches.

Unionization the Solution.

The solution of the machine probem. Bright and Union Secretary Ernest Bohm agree, is not opposition o the introduction of the machine but complete organization of office workers. The organized workers can then fight to lower their hours of work and keep their wages rising as they are required to operate more nerve straining machines.

That office workers are largely depended on to "sell" the new machines the International Union of Steam and to their employers was indicated by Operative Engineers, and A. O. Wharthe press director for the show. He ton, president of the International said that he had "killed" a story that Association of Machinists, defining the thousands of office workers would be made jobless by the new machines because the workers' good will is necessary in selling the machines.

Machine Eliminates Workers. An elaborate calculating, bookkeep ng device is supposed to eliminate 15 workers. Several mailing devices stamp letters with a mailing permit sign while sealing them—running them thru from 8,000 to 16,000 an nour, depending on the size of the machine, and doing away with about six workers. Much of the improved machinery has been devised to simplify and cheapen the work of wholesale direct mail advertising, a parasitic industry which has been thriving as a method of sales-making because ning repairs are necessary the engiof its supposed personal appeal.

Bertie came along, making one more effort to drag her brother out into this play world, to which by right of inheritance and natural gifts he belonged. Bertie had broken off her affair with Eldon Burdick. He was a "dud," she told Bunny, and always wanting to have his own way. There was another affair paign against the abolition of gas on, a very desperate one, Bunny gathered, since his sister exposed her feelings even to him. It was the only son of the late August Norman, founder of Occidental Steel; the boy's name was Charlie, and he was a little wild, Bertie said, but oh, so fascinating and rich as Croesus. He had nobody to take care of him but a rather silly mother, who was still trying to be young and giddy, dressing like a debutante, and having surgical operations performed on her face to keep it from "sagging." They had a most gorgeous yacht down at the harbor, and had asked Bertie to bring ner brother, and why wouldn't he go and help her, as he so easily could, with his good looks and everything?

Bunny thought his sister must indeed be hard hit, if she was counting upon his reluctant social charms! But he went; and as they drove to the harbor Bertie coached and scolded himhe must not talk about his horrible Bolshevik ideas, and if they mentioned his disgrace at Southern Pacific, he must make a joke of it. Bunny had already learned that that was the thing to do; and so he did it, and found that it was very easy, for Charlie Norman was one of those brilliant persons who found something House when the legion had gone on funny about everything that came up; if he couldn't do any better, he would make a bad pun out of your remark.

Here was the "Siren," a floating mansion, all white paint and shining brass, finished in hand-carved mahogany, and upholstered in hand-pained silk. The sailors who shined and polshed and the Filipino boys who flitted here and there with trays full of glasses, were spic and span enough for the vaudeville stage. The party of guests would step into a launch and from that into several motor-cars and be transported to a golf-links, and from there to a country club for luncheon; they would dance for an hour or two and then be whirled away to a bathing-beach. and then to a tennis court, and then back to the "Siren" to dress or dinner, which was served with all the style you would have expected at an ambassador's banquet. There would me manycolored electric lights on the deck, and an orchestra, and friends yould come out in launches, and dance until dawn, while the waves lapped softly against the sides of the vessel and the tangle of light along the shore made dim the stars.

The people talked about the appearance and pecularities and dventures of all their acquaintances, and it was hard to follow heir conversation unless you were one of their set; they even ad slang words of their own, and the less possible it was for an utsider to understand them, the funnier they seemed to them-They talked about clothes, and what was going to be the newest "thing." They talked about their bootleggers, and who was reliable. For the rest of the time they talked about the hiting of little balls about a field; the scores they had made that lay and previous days, and the relative abilities of various experts in the art. Was the tennis-champion going to hold his own or another year? How were the American golf players making out in England? Was the polo team coming from Philadelphia and would they carry off the cup? There were beautiful silver nd gold-plated trophies with engraved inscriptions, which helped o hypnotize you into thinking that the hitting of little balls about field was of major importance!

Sitting on the deck of this floating mansion, Bunny read about the famine on the Volga. The crops had failed, over huge listricts, and the peasants were slowly starving; eating grass and which resulted in the frame-up of coots, eating their dead babies, migrating in hordes and strewing heir corpses along the way. It was the last and final proof of he futility of Communism, said the newspaper editors; and if Charlie Norman dd not take the occasion to do some "joshing" of Bunny, it was only because Charlie never read a newspaper.

Bunny had talked wth Harry Seager, and got a different iew of famines in Russia. They were caused by drought, not by Communism; they had been chronic ever since the dawn of hisory, and their occurrence had never been taken as evidence of he futility of Tsarism. Conditons were bad now, because of the preakdown of the railroads. But people who blamed that on Communism overlooked the fact that the railroads had broken lown before the revolution; and that under the Soviet adminisration they had had to stand the strain of three years of civil war, and of outside invasion on twenty-six fronts. Newspapers which had incited these invasions, and applauded the spending of hundreds of millions of American money to promote them, now blamed the Bolsheviks because they were not ready to cope with

You can understand how a young man with such thoughts in his mind would not fit altogether into this play party. He tried his best to be like the others, but they found out that he was different; and presently Charlie's mother took to sitting beside him. "Bunny," she said—for you were Bunny or Bertie or Baby or Beauty to this crowd as soon as you had played nine holes of golf and had one drink out of anybody's hip-pocket flask— Bunny, you go to the university, don't you? And I'm sure you study some."

"Not very much, I fear."

man, the cut of the cablegram together with the statement of Comrade Stalin published in the number of the cited (which is available to all interested persons and the subscription rate of which is only six dollars per year) exposes the pitiful artifice to which he has resorted in an attempt to excuse and explain one of the most despicable attempts to distort the statements of world revolutionary leaders ever made in America.

THE editor of the New Leader, like L the leaders of the moribound socialist labor party and other enemies of the Communist International and the workers' and peasants' government of the Soviet Union, follows what is called an "inside strategy."

Such a strategy is resorted to by leaders of discredited and nearly delost hope of winning new recruits and have to spend all their energy in keeping what they have.

"Inside strategy" of this kind spesigned to prove to the still faithful few that bad as their decrepit or-

The editor of the New Leader, to use a term originating in the Roman arena when gladiators fought sword and shield with net and trident, has been caught in his own net, the net of deception he attempted to weave to show that leaders of the Communist International, the leader of the world revolution, had abandoned all idea of revolutionary struggle against world capitalism-as he, his paper and his

V. F. CALVERTON Author of "The Newer Spirit."

Contributes another brilliant article

The American Jungle

in the unusual series on "Labor and Literature." Serious illness of the author prevented earlier publication. Beginning again with this splendid analysis of American literature and the role of Upton Sinclair in it, our readers will be given the pleasure of other articles to follow. Don't miss these unusual features of great interest and value to every worker!

The Dream of Debs

A timely abridged reprint of the famous story written years ago by Jack London.

Curiosities of Nature

Beginning the first article or a permanent feature of pepular science written by experts and scientists.

Slush Funds

At truly unusual and spar-kling account of the sen-atorial primaries from the pen of

"Sure, Sure"

A short story of merit as a feature of the women's page by ROSE PASTOR STOKES with illustration by the

Green Pretends to Be Offended

A keen insight into Detroit convention of the A. F. of I. no worker should miss. With the added value of a clever satirfual drawing by the noted artist,

WILLIAM GROPPER.

Karl Marx

Another generous install-ment of the personal recol-lections by PAUL LAFARGUE.

The Week in Cartoons

delightful satirical summary in cartoons M. P. (Hay) BALES.
