The Workers (Communist) Party of the State of New York has elected me as its candidate for United States senator. In accepting this honor, I do so with the knowledge that our Party represents and fights uncompromisingly for the interests of the workers and farmers of the United States. Our campaign is a challenge to the capitalist parties and to the capitalist class and its government, which now controls the wealth of this nation, all of the productive machinery and the very lives of the millions of American workers and

The campaign committee of the Workers (Communist) Party of District 2 has outlined a very big campaign for this district, which will require a great deal of money. The plans call for at least two special campaign numbers of The DAILY WORKER and of the Freiheit. We also plan to distribute at least 200,000 pieces of free literature during the campaign. Plans are being made to plaster the entire city of New York with posters of the party and Communist slogans. In order to do all this it is absolutely imperative that we have a great deal of funds. The district is launching a campaign for a fund of $50,000 for the election campaign in this district, and the district executive committee calls upon all comrades and units of the party to throw themselves into the campaign and begin the raising of funds. THE Workers (Communist) Party is unalterably opposed to the rule of capitalism. It will fight determinedly and unceasingly against it. It will and fiterature, please fill in the blank below and address it to continue to be untiring in its efforts to mobilize the workers for the overthrow of capitalist government and the establishment of a workers' and farmers' republic.

The Workers (Communist) Party in the campaign of 1926, fully aware of the tremendous tasks confronting the workers in the United States, raises the slogan of unity of the workers on the political and industrial field.

A GAINST the powerful ferces of capitalism on the political field we must Name have the united power of labor. The united power of labor on the political field can be achieved thru a labor party. Labor in the United States must discontinue its support to the parties of the capitalists and must support its own party, a labor party.

A labor party must be organized on the basis of the trade unions and must discontinue its support to the parties of the capitalists and must support its own party, a labor party.

THE Workers (Communist) Party of New York, true to the interests of the workers in the election campaign of 1926, proposed that steps towards the formation of a labor party be taken by inviting the socialist party and other working class organizations to form a united labor ticket so that there would be one set of candidates and one program for the coming election campaign as far as the workers are concerned.

.The refusal of the socialist party to participate in the formation of a united labor ticket made a united labor ticket impossible. The socialist party is to be condemned for its action in this respect because while mouthing phrases about the nacessity for unity is doing everything in its power to prevent working class unified political action.

TN so doing, the socialist party serves the interests of the capitalists and not those of the workers.

On the industrial field the Workers (Communist) Party urges that greater unity must be achieved by the workers against the powerful consolidation of capitalist enterprises now taking place. The craft unions cannot defend the interests of the workers against the encroachments of powerful trustified industry.

THE working class in the United States must therefore be unified, must consolidate its forces on the industrial field. This can be achieved only thru the amalgamation of the craft unions of a particular industry into one union for the industry and the organization of the millions of unorganized workers in the United States.

The aim of the Workers Party is to support such movements in the trade the capitalists deem it necessary. against a government of the industrial unions like the Trade Union Educational League that works for progressive Striking workers are met with the inpolicies and has for its main object amalgamation and organization of the junction as in the I. L. G. W. strike.

THE working class in the United States needs to meet the present situation: one union in the railroad industry, one union in the needle industry, one union in the building trades, etc., as well as the organization of the textile workers, steel workers, rubber workers, automobile workers and all "THE WORKERS (COMMUNIST) PARTY—WHAT IT STANDS tion.

The Workers (Communist) Party calls upon the workers to get into the unions to build them up. Amalgamation and a labor party will unify the workers and give them the power necessary to combat the formidable forces of capitalism.

THE Workers (Communist) Party will, in the campaign, also point out to the workers that only thru united action and a militant fighting policy can the workers achieve their ends. This is especially necessary because the reactionaries who dominate the organizations of labor are pursuing a policy of conciliation and peace with the capitalist class.

The strike weapon is being discarded for class collaboration propositions. The B. & O. Plan, the Watson-Parker Bill, the efficiency measures in the last anthracite agreement between the United Mine Workers and the operators, Hillman's agreements in the clothing industry are outstanding examples of this policy.

BESIDES, our reactionary labor leaders are becoming the direct agents of the capitalist government. Mr. Green praises the Citizens' Training Camps and thus gives his approval to the military policy of the government, Mr. Green backs up the state department in its refusal to recognize the first workers' and farmers' republic in the world, the Union of Soviet Russia,

The reactionary officials are meeting the demand for unity and progressive policies by expelling the best fighters from the unions, thus disrupting the labor movement.

The Workers (Communist) Party will support every movement in the trade unions against the treacherous policies of the reactionaries. It will do everything in its power to popularize and win the approval of the trade union masses for militant progressive measures,

THE Workers (Communist) Party is the only revolutionary working class party in the United States, It supports the revolutionary movements of the workers in all countries, It wholeheartedly supports the Soviet Union because it is the only government that is run by and for the interest of the workers and farmers, In this campaign the workers will be rallied by the party to demand that the United States immediately recognize the Soviet American imperialism is threatening the peace of the world, American imperialism is sowing the seeds of a future world carnage more bloody and costly than the one just experienced, The workers must fight imperialism. thruout the land. Non-Partisan Policy a Sham. THE sham non-partisan policy imposed upon the workers by the reactionary labor officials at the ser hasten the revolutionization of the vice of capitalism and its political parties, is a fundamental obstacle in the way of building up a Labor Party and has chained the labor movement of New York State to the tail of Tam many's cart. The labor bureaucrats have become part of the local and state capitalist political machine and have sold their influence and their alleged power to deliver the vote of labor in exchange for soft jobs, graft The slogan of "Reward your friends and punish your enemies" has meant in practice the dividing of the workers and their betrayal to their ene mies by these reactionary labor leaders for a price. This policy has poisoned the mind of labor and made it schemes in place of unyielding struggle for its own interest. The complete divorce of labor from the capitalist parties and the establishment of a policy of independent political working class action thru a Labor Party is the immediate task of the workers of the state of New York.

For a United Labor Ticket. THE Workers (Communist) Party L has in recent years been the foremost fighter for the formation of a Labor Party. In July of this year, it proposed to the Socialist Party of New York the establishment of a United Labor Ticket for the present act it gives the lie to any declarations labor and the establishment of united political action by the working class. The Socialist Party must once again bear responsibility, jointly with the Our party stands for the immediate reactionary labor officials, for the campaign.

THE Workers (Communist) Party I has therefore been compelled to put forward its own candidates but pledges itself to make the fight for the unity of labor's forces politically ants' Government of the Soviet Union and economically the center of its campaign. It will continue to call capitalist class for the immediate needs of the divided and exploited workers. To this end, the Workers (Communist) Party stands ready to withdraw its candidates at any time during the campaign in favor of a political groups will take similar ac-

WORKERS HAVE BEEN FOOLED TOO LONG BY CAPITALIST POLITICS: WHY NOT BUILD A LABOR PARTY?

FEW months ago, Governor Smith's recommendations and policies set A his republican legislature agog. "Paternalistic," even "socialistic," were upon the Socialist Party and all other the epithets hurled at his projects by indignant fossils. Very few of Smith's reform measures have been actually enacted. We have some workmen's compensation acts (most of them with strings tied to them); we have compulsory education laws. But where are the fortyeight hours a week for women, the minimum wage law? These have not been enacted by the legislature.

And is Smith a sincere friend of the workers? In April, 1925, and again in May, 1926, he vetoed the Ricca Bill raising teachers' salaries, which had received such wholesale support from the voters of the state that in 1925 the legislature passed it unanimously. During Governor Smith's encumbency we have seen a state police force given the right to interfere in case of riots.

How Does this Happen?

What does this mean? That these state troopers can be brought out in a strike to crush the workers. We 3. By ROBERT DUNN.

I the workers must be apparent to Mrs. Maud Porker Child, well-known anyone who has observed the workings of the Tammany machine in New York City and its relation to the leadpleas court of Monroe county here, ers of certain labor unions. The object of this article is merely to sketch some of the incidents in this relationship. The reader can judge for himself what the effects of it must be upon the trade union leaders and upon the general problem of trade union political unity.

To barter the "labor vote" for political preference has been one of the favorite parlor tricks of the trade union leadership almost since the days when unions were first organized in this state. The labor leaders have Has No Funds and Owes always taken part in politics of the most partisan character, tho, of course, professing publicly that they were interested in the game only as "non-partisans."

> ND the labor leaders have for decades been more or less strenuously opposed by the socialists and socialist-laborites, who have claimed that the trading of votes for personal jobs was not the way to get labor ahead in the political field.

> One of the most militant and articu late exposers of the labor leader in this role was Daniel De Leon, who declared in season and out of season that the trade union leadership was betraying the workers at every election. In the national, state and local councils of labor the socialists carried on the same constant attack upon the "fat boys" who were feathering their nests by trading the labor vote for business and political jobs.

RUN down the lists of the important officers of the New York State Federation of Labor, for example, and you find a goodly number of them who found their way into happy political positions thru these methods. Even before the days of the State Federation, when the state body was known as the Workingmen's Assembly, we find the first president, Jim Connolly of the Practical Painters' Union, ending up as a state factory inspector. He was followed by W. N. Thayer of the Typographical Union, who was later president of the common council of Troy and the warden of Dannemora Prison. The next president, Tom lions remain, out of which one-half Dowling, a blacksmith's official, was rewarded by the position of state commissioner of labor statistics. After him came Bill O'Brien of the granite cutters, who was later the sheriff of New York county.

THEN, with the formation of the State Federation of Labor, we find tion that perhaps the directorate has Jim Lavery, a typographical man, the have representatives from Cuba, Porto not even spent this insignificant first president. He was later appointed to the state civil service commis-Central American countries and labor tion, because one of the first acts of sion. Martin Murphy of the molders, followed Lavery. Finally we come to Jim Holland, the present inof the budget for public works and cumbent, who has held several appointive tho apparently not so lucrative offices from the state while still in labor office. He is now on the > Holland's appointment by Mayor Walker as a "lay member" of this board at a salary of $7,500. The New York Times says: "He formerly held the same position at a per diem rate of $10 for each session . . . but was dropped by Mayor Hylan after he came out in favor of Walker for mayer in the last campaign."

THE same evolution of labor leaders could be followed thru all the DAILY WORKER sent to you regular vice-presidents and legislative agents Alexander Troup, later a collector of federal customs under President member of the state industrial board; passed yearly by the New York State Edward Bates, later deputy secretary Federation of Labor-child labor and of state: John Williams, later a state the injunction. phasis ours). The above are but a ords of this state.

TO come down to more recent days, a look at the current shakings of the plum tree will convince the most skeptical that the labor officials have not been slighted in return for their ervices in the field of "non-partisan politics." Take first the state department of labor, where labor men would most naturally be found. Some 28 are now on the roll and six of these belong to the class exempt from the civil service examinations.

These six are Mr. Curran, referred to above; Mr. Gernon, Mr. Deering, Gompers and M. Jacksonr. Mr Donahue, who is a director of the bureau of workmen's compensation, probably achieved office because as an official of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers he had organized and acted as chairman of the "Railroad Men's Non-Partisan League of Greater New York," supporting Governor Smith. The other five appointees were apparently deserving democrats. THEN we must not forget some of the present day luminaries in the local and state labor movement, mentioning first Mr. Peter J. Brady, a former official of the photo-engravers and the Allied Printing Trades Council. He was for many years the supervisor of the City Record, the daily official publication of the City of New York. The modest salary accompany ing this office is $6,500. Mr. Brady within the last year turned over this office to a friend and now devotes his time to banking, being the president of the Federation Bank of New York. Mr. Stephen Kelley, former president of the Allied Printing Trades Council, was very glad to pick up Mr. Brady's job with the City Record. It is understood that in addition to the $6,500 the job carries with it a small amount of patronage.

THEN we have Mr. John Sullivan, president of the New York Trades and Labor Council, a former official of the Brewery Workers' Union. Since position as director of the Industrial Aid Bureau of the city. Mr. James F. Costello, of the executive council of the Central Trades and Labor Council, is assistant director of the same bureau, receiving $3,000 per annum in addition to his income from the Metal Polishers' and Buffers' Union.

Other labor officials who now hold nonorary, or $10-a-session, positions in the city or state government are such well-nown figures as Hugh Frayne, Jerome B. Keating, John Muniolland, John K. Hallett and several others. Alderman Kenneally, pal of Brindell and a power in Tammany circles, is still an official of the Steamfitters' Union.

FTER considering this list, one AFTER considering the rades and Labor Council of New York City swung from LaFollette to Davis, accompanied by the officials of the Allied Printing Trades Council of the city and the State Federation itself in the person of Jim Holland. The Tammany Tiger had only to swish its tail and these gentlemen walked away from their LaFollette oledges and delivered in a body to the Tammany candidate.

One must remember also that the "Al Smith socialists" in the needle trades deserted their candidate. Dr. Thomas, and lined up with Al. Just what the considerations were is not known to this writer. Dr. Thomas opines it was "rum, race and religion" that provided the issues on which Al could amble away with the socialist vote. Whatever there may be in this, one cannot overlook the close political relations of the needle trades leaders and certain democratic politicians who had performed substantial favors for the trade union bureaucrats in their struggles against the left wing and the Communists.

OF course the labor leaders have been systematically "sold" to Smith other offices of the state federation. for a good many terms. Al's plat-Among the secretaries and treasurers, forms have reeked with civic right eousness and social reform. On the cal moments he has not delivered.

These are but typical examples of 'labor's reward" in the way of protective legislation for dancing to the tune of the Tammany gangsters. But the labor leaders should worry. They "The long list of vice-presidents and get something more tangible and per-

Manhattan, judges, aldermen and so on down the line.

Of course, in the primaries the labor saders sometimes make mistakes. Witness Jim Holland, who came out or Hylan. But the Building Trades Council made him write a letter repuliating his action and telling Tammany his followers would back Walker, Tammany's choice. Witness also Hylan trying to discipline his former labor friends by taking a quarter of a million dollars of the city's noney from deposit at the Federation Bank. And Jimmie. Walker putting it right back in again the minute he ecomes mayor thru the support of the labor bankers.

THE workers' rank and file should also take note of the mutual compliments and back slaps exchanged between the "big" labor boys and the politicians around election time. The spectacle is interesting and informing. Says Senator Walker, for example, addressing a Labor Day audience on Governor's Island in 1925:

. . . my congratulations to you (he was talking to the masses) for the great leaders you have picked out, who have come into official bodies with sober mind and strong hearts, with great intelligence and with a manifest understanding of what they were doing" . . . cetera, et cetera-ad nauseum.

A ND finally Calvin Coolidge himself, addressing Peter Brady on the celebration of the second anniversary of the Federation Bank in 1925:

"We are now at the dawn of a new day for labor, and we firmly believe as a result of our experience and influence, also the dawn of a new era between the wage earners and their employers, between capital and labor."

Strikebreaker Cal's idea of the dawn, the new era and the millenium will have been fully reached when every labor skate and every worker 1921 Mr. Sullivan has held a $5.000 eats out of the bipartisan pot. The purpose of a Labor Party is to keep this dawn from ever breaking.

Many local have ignored the policy of the National Executive Committee of keeping the workers from uniting to fight their immediate battles against the capitalist exploiters. There are, in the Socialist Party, many sincere workers who still believe that the Socialist Party is an organization fighting in the workers' interests. Branches of the Socialist Party in which such workers predominate have, in spite of all the past warnings, and denunciations by the leaders of the Socialist Party, joined in united front action in the interests of the workers even tho those actions were initiated and led by Communists. ## POLICE JUDGES PROTECT CHILD LABOR LAW VIOLATIONS IN MD.

BALTIMORE, Md.-Maryland employers continue to violate the child labor law despite the alleged rigid enforcement policy adopted in 1924. The annual report of T. Knox Insley, Commissioner of Labor and Statistics states almost as much.

Under the Maryland law, the responsibility for violations of the law rests with the employer. There were 458 violations during the year.

The first Maryland child labor law was passed in 1912, with provisions for inspectors under the State Child Labor Bureau to enforce it.

Committee, N. Y. Garment Workers. issuance of the injunction against the International Ladies' Garment Workers brings forward again the need for independent workingclass political action. Injunctions are being employed by the bosses on an ever-increasing scale. The right to strike and picket is a life and death necessity for the maintenance of union organization.

The purpose of injunctions is to deal a death blow to the right to strike and picket. Workers must exert their maximum effort in order to defeat the use of such methods intended to establish the open shop in industry.

Present Assembly Anti-Labor. The New York state assembly has in the last year engaged in an orgy of reactionary legislation. It has turned down the very simple demands for labor legislation presented by the plan for simplification of the government, means that more injunctions and greater police power are put in the hands of employers interested in destroying unions and reducing the living standards of the workers.

The workers in this election must demonstrate their readiness to support proposals aimed at uniting their power, of bringing nearer the day when a labor party based upon the strength of organized labor can be established.

Support the Workers' Party. They must support the campaign conducted by the Workers' Party, for improving the standards of life of the workers against militarism and war, against injunctions and measures to stifle the voice of labor, for the recognition of the Soviet Union, for social equality to the Negro and for all measures that will build up the power of the working class.

TOM MANN, VETERAN LEADER OF BRITISH LABOR, SPEAKS TO THE NATIONAL MINORITY CONFERENCE

The National Minority Movement, or revolutionary left wing of British trade unionism, recently held its third annual conference at Battersea Town Hall in London. (Continued from previous issue) Rank and File All Right.

THE general strike did not fail because of any weakness or lack of courage, or unreadiness to act on the part of the rank and file. It failed because those upon whom responsibility fell at the time had no belief in the general strike; very few indeed of the members of the General Council have any real understanding of what is involved in the general strike and those who claim to have a knowledge of it have spoken and written against it.

Thus these persons temporarily supported the strike in order to make it a failure, holding themselves in readiness to frustrate and destroy its chances of success. They believe in and resort to the policy of class collaboration to the serious detriment of the position of the workers.

The leaders of the future must rest with those who-

1. Understand the real nature of the class struggle and are ever ready to take militant action to travel towards the workers' control of industry.

2. Have a well-thought-out policy to meet the varying conditions on a national and international scale.

We declare that the National Minority Movement has acted as a nucleus of such leadership and that the principles we have popularized and the policy we pursue are destined to revolutionize the movement.

Capitalist Dictatorship. TT is necessary to make reference to I the role played by the government during the period under review. Probably never in our history have we had such a clear demonstration of the truth of the statement of Karl Marx that under capitalism the government is the "executive committee of the capitalist class." The government, by its daily behavior, has shown unmistakably that it is ready to use all the powers of the state, not in the interests of the people, but exclusively in the interests of the capitalists.

The government has been utterly regardless of the millions of workers and has listened only to the voices of its financial overlords, the Federation of British Industries and the Mining Association of Great Britain.

By means of the emergency power act it wipes out the constitution and carries on a ruthless and tyrannical crasade against those who do not kow-tow to its dictatorship. Never in our history has this country been under such a ruthless capitalist dicour fathers won for us the right to organize. This carried with it the right to link up with fellow workers; now at this time of day the government is beginning a new attack to prohibit sympathetic strikes, and demanding the disaffiliation of civil servants from the Trades Union Congress and the labor party.

The government is not against all trade unionism, it is only against that trade unionism which is strong enough and directed by those who are capable enough to achieve something of value to the workers.

The attack on the civil service trade unions is very significant. In the general strike, railway clerical workers were out with manual workers. This is essential for complete success. Solidarity with those who wield the pen and all others who work is the object we aim at. If we examine the position to understand what the government is after it presents itself in three ways:

1. An attempt to make unity between clerical and manual workers impossible.

2. An attempt to clear out of government service all other than reactionaries, thereby making the workers in the state departments 100 per cent safe for capitalism

3. Attempt to entrench reactionary elements in government service in order to enable capitalists to sabotage a labor government.

The attack on the civil service is made under the cry, "the civil service s a neutral body, it must be free from politics." This is similar to the parrot ery of "the army is a neutral body, it must be free from politics." This shows how inextricably mixed are industrial with political questions.

We have in this present government several of the most bitter and intolerant reactionaries this country has ever produced; in this list I place Lord Birkenhead and Winston Churchill. These members of the present government are the most unscrupulous vilifiers of the workers that have ever filled public position. They are continually concocting schemes to tie up the workers, and they often succeed in getting the backing of their colleagues. With effective organization and courageous leadership we shall be easily able to deal effectively with these and all their kind.

THE greatest stimulus to the formation of a labor party is the use of the courts, police and other governmental agencies as strikebreaker. Yet, except in the basic industries in big national strikes such as railroad and coal strikes or the big steel strike, it is the local or state courts and the local police or the state constabulary agencies generally that do the strikebreaking. That made Dad rather warm, because he had been reading this news for three or four months and believing every word of it. He wanted to know if Paul didn't believe there had been any killing of the rich classes in Russia. Paul said he didn't doubt there had been some, because he had read about the French revolution. What you had to remember was the way the Russian people had been treated by their ruling classes and the kind of government they were used to; you had to judge their revolution by their standards and not by ours. Paul smiled and added that it was a mistake for an American employer who had tried to give his men a square deal, to identify himself with those masters in Russia who had beaten their men with knouts and turned them over to the Cossacks if they attempted any protest.

That pacified Dad a little, but he said the way it seemed to scale farming and in other regions, him, these Bolshevikis were jist so many German agents. He told about the train that had carried Lenin-Dad called him Leenyne-through Germany. But Paul asked whether he had watched the news that had come from the peace negotiations; the Germans had apparently been as much afraid of the Russians as we were. These Bolsheviks were fighting the ruling classes of both sides, and the Germans might find the peace they had made more dangerous to them than the fighting; the revolutionary propaganda might spread in their armies and even to the Western

There was no use expecting Dad to see anything so complicated as that. The declared that if the Russians had really wanted to help the cause of peace and justice they should have stood by the allies until the Kaiser was put out of business. Then Paul asked whether Mr. Ross had read the secret treaties of the allies, and Dad was obliged to confess that he had never even heard of them. Paul explained how the Soviets, after demanding that the allies should make known their war aims and having no attention paid to the request, had revealed to the world all the secret agreements which the allies had made with the Tsar, for and the local and state governmental dividing up the territories they meant to take from the Germans and Austrians and Turks. Paul declared that the text of these treaties, the most important news of the day, had been suppressed by the American newspapers. If we were going into this war blindfolded, to help Great Britain and France and Italy and against him and makes a demand that Japan in their imperialist aims, then our people were being dea workers' government be set up in ceived and some day they would have a bitter awakening.

Dad's answer to that was simple: Paul might rest assured, those secret treaties would turn out to be Bolshevik forgeries. Had not our government already given out a lot of documents it had obtained in Russia, proving the Bolshevik leaders to be German agents? Those were the true documents, and Paul would versely, when capital wishes to block into states containing industrial cen- find it out some day, and be ashamed of having doubted our allies. It was puzzling, and hard to be sure about, but it seemed to him that Dad was right, what could a good American do, in war-time like this, but trust his government? Bunny was a little shocked to The constitution of the United army and the national government hear a man wearing the uniform of the army sit there and express doubts about his superiors, and he considered it his duty to get Paul off by himself and tell him some of the things the four minute men had said in school and try to inspire him with a more intense patriotism. But Paul only laughed and patted Bunny on the back, saying that they got any quantity of propa-

One evening they all went to hear Eli; in a great tent such as would hold a three-ring circus, with thousands of cars parked in the fields about and sawdust strewn in the aisles and hundreds of wooden benches crowded with soldier boys and ranchers and their wives and children. There was a platform with the evangelist, wearing a white robe with a golden star on his bosom, for all the world like some Persian magus; and there was a "silver band," with trumpets and bass-tubes gleaming so that they put your eyes out. When those big blarers started a hymn of glory, and the audience started to rock and shout, "Praise the Lord!"

the top of that tent would bulge out! Eli preached against the Hun, telling how the Holy Spirit had revealed to him that the enemy was to be routed before the year was by and promising eternal salvation to all who died in this cause of the Lord-provided, of course, that they had not rejected breaker in the case of the railroad, their chance to be saved by Eli. In the middle of the stage was a tank constructed, with steps descending into it and the converts sitting in rows on the platform, garbed in white nighties; when that stage of the ceremonies arrived, Eli descended into the water himself, and grabbed his victims one by one by the backs This year, however, it is obvious of their necks and in the name of the Father and the Son of the Holy Ghost, he swung them forward, souse! into the water. Next day the family drove home and how much they had to gossip about on the way and for weeks thereafter! Bunny was looking forward to living this camp-life the coming summerexcept that, because of the preparation he was getting in school and also because of Dad's influence, he was to be in an officer's training camp. He was full of consecration and working harder than ever at his duties.

Late in March began that long-dreaded onslaught on the western front; one of those battles to which the world had grown accustomed, extending over a hundred miles of front and lasting all day and all night for several weeks. Such a battle was not named from a town or a city, but from a province; this was the battle of Picardy. The German rush broke through the British line and drove them back in rout for thirty or forty miles and conditions from above so that in 1928 captured a hundred thousand men and it seemed that Dad's worst forebodings were to be realized.

But neither the Germans nor the allies knew that in an obscure village amid the fruit orchards of California a mighty prophet was exercising his magic on their behalf. It chanced that Eli Watkins read a news item from the front, declaring that the only thing which could save the British armies was rain; and forthwith he assembled his hosts of prayer, and all night long they rocked upon their knees and wrung their hands unto the Lord, invoking storms in Picardy; and the Lord heard them, and the Nearly 500 workers at the Hays-Hunt | floodgates of heaven were opened and the rain descended and the Corporation have struck, according to feet of the Huns were stuck fast, yes, and their chariot wheels announcements by officers of Local 13, also and their might men at arms were downed in mud; but on the side where the hosts of the Lord were battling there fell no rain, but the ground was clean and reinforcements came up and the British line was saved and back amid the California oraccording to the state (the question pany. ### The Injunction Against the New York Garment Workers

Officials of the Amoskeag Mills in Manchester, New Hampshire, delegation told me yesterday that have announced their intention to chop off the economic heads of anyone who still maintained, in Gerone hundred overseers and second hands and to slash the salaries of two hundred more.

This is base ingratitude. Those boys took an active part in the 1922 strike, as strikebreakers. Those workers who were marked by those slimy stoolpigeons were blacklisted in every New Hampshire mill.
