WORLD-WIDE STRIKE WAVE FOR SACCO, VANZETTI

Gurrent Events

By T. J. O'FLAHERTY.

THERE is little else that one can talk about nowadays except the Sacco-Vanzetti case. doomed to death on the tenth day of this month. The governor of the state of Massachusetts has decreed it. Nothing can halt the hand of the executioner except the mass protest of the entire labor movement of the United States. Will this protest be made sufficiently strong to impress the

SOMETIMES we are charged with unfairness, even by sympathizers with the Communist movement. Many well-intentioned persons believe that the capitalists, taken individually, are fine fellows, but that they don't see things in the right way. Hokum. They see things in the way that benefits their class as a whole and themselves individually. Governor Fuller of Massachusetts, himself a millionaire capitalist, hates the ideas that Sacco and Vanzetti stand for and takes a pleasure in sending them to the chair. That is what there is to JUSTICE! Hell! Would I think of justice if I had a portly capitalist burglar in front of me and if I were on the bench with a portfolio of commissar of proletarian justice surrounding me? I would simply consider, if it were expedient from the point of view that I held to blot this parasite off the map or otherwise. This is the standard of justice in a class society. Any one who enis considered a menace by those who profit by the existing order. Can you blame them for feeling sore? No. But that is not all there is to it.

HERE is where we get to fundamentals. The class that Sacco and Vanzetti stand for, produce what the whole human race lives on. But those that produce do not enjoy all they produce. Parasites who never put hand to plow or machine, cross the ocean whenever they feel like it and command any luxury they crave for. Under the social order that Sacco and Vanzetti envison only those who produce, according to their ability would share the products of society as a whole. Is it surprising then that the bawdy plutes who batten on the unpaid labor of the workers (Continued on Page Four)

CHALLENGE TO WORKING CLASS CHICAGO, Aug., 5 .- Sharp condemnation of the decision of Governor Fuller in the case of Sacco and Vanzetti, which is to result in their execution on Wednesday, August 10, if present plans go through, and an appeal to American labor to fight for Life and Freedom for the two convicted radicals to the very last ditch, is contained in a statement made today by James P. Cannon, national secretary of International Labor Defense, which has been in the front ranks of the campaign to obtain the release of Sacco and Vanzetti.

"The action of Governor Fuller," said Cannon, "in approving the decision to execute Sacco and Vanzetti is not only a vicious white-washing of the criminal revenge of Massachusetts reaction, but it is a challenge to the entire working class. It is not only an issue that involves the lives and freedom for these two innocent workers, but it is a defiance of the de-

Preparations for huge national strikes and mass demonstrations to snatch Sacco and Vanzetti from the hands of the Massachusetts hangmen who have doomed them to burn in the electric chair next Wednesday are being made by workers thruout the world.

Following the appeal of the Workers (Communist) Party for a general nation-wide protest strike on August 9th, the Sacco and Vanzetti Emergency Committee, representing half a million workers, the Sacco-Vanzetti Liberation Committee, with 275,000 members, the International Labor Defense, with half a million

The convict admits that he had been assigned a part in both the South Braintree and the Bridgewater holdups and brands as murder the attempt to fasten the crime on Sacco and Vanzetti.

When the convict carried his story to Governor Fuller, he was refused a hearing and told to carry his story to the state police. When he carried his story to the state police he was told that "this was no time for it."

TRADE UNION EDUCATIONAL LEAGUE CALLS FOR NATION-WIDE STRIKE TO SAVE SACCO, VANZETTI

The Trade Union Educational League has addressed the following statement to the American labor movement:

"To all workers: Sacco and Vanzetti will die August tenth if the working class allows Governor Fuller's decision to be carried out. This is a blow against the entire working class. "It is now apparent to all that Fuller's investigation was designed merely to stop the protest movement sweeping the

The T. U. E. L. has also addressed the following message to the whole labor movement: "Governor Fuller has affirmed the death sentence on Sacco and Vanzetti. The Trade Union Educational League calls upon the world's labor movement to join in emphatic protest against this legal murder which is a blow at the work-dangers the present order of society Declaration of the Central Executive Committee of the Workers (Communist) Party of America

To Working Class Organizations all over the World: In five days, Sacco and Vanzetti are to be murdered for loyalty to the working class unless the organized might of the workers of the world saves them. The decision of the Massachusetts governor is the crowning infamy in a series of acts which began with the farcical frame-up trial. No one can any longer doubt but that there is no justice for the workers in capitalist courts.

The Central Executive Committee of the Workers (Communist) Party of America has already issued a call to the entire working class of the United States and to all workers' organizations in America to unite their forces to free Sacco and Vanzetti. In this declaration we called upon the labor organizations of America to set aside Tuesday, August 9, for strikes and for demonstrations in front of all government buildings and in central places.

Now we turn to the working class organization of all the rest of the world and ask them for help in saving these two American labor leaders. We ask you, whatever differences there may be among you, at such a time as this not to let these differences stand in the way of common action on behalf of these two men. We ask you to call strikes thruout the world on the same day as we and other American working class organizations have set for the American workers. We ask you to demonstrate with us on that date. We recognize the splendid service you have already given in these seven difficult years in throwing the light of world publicity upon this frame-up and staying the hand of the executioner for so long a period. We thank you on behalf of the two condemned men and the American working class and we ask you to intensify your efforts in these few days that remain before the date set for execution so that the united protest and the united action of the working class all over the world may free these two innocent workers' champions.

GEORGE L. DARTE, Adjutant General of the Military Order of the World War, initiator of the prosecution against The DAILY WORKER, and representative of the enemies of the labor movement, has sent the following telegram to Governor Alvan T. Fuller, upon his decision to send Sacco and Vanzetti to the electric chair.

"Please accept congratulations upon your courageous decision in the Sacco-Vanzetti case and your maintenance of the principles of American law and justice."

This same George L. Darte, who glories in the prospect that Sacco and Vanzetti, labor's two champions, will soon be legally murdered, acts as the instigator of the prosecution of The DAILY WORKER before the Federal Grand Jury. It is clear that the case against The DAILY WORKER is inextricably bound up with the effort to railroad Sacco and Vanzetti to the electric chair, and that it is part and parcel of an attack upon the entire labor movement of this country. The decision in the Sacco-Vanzetti case should give new impetus to the sale of certificates to the GUARD THE DAILY WORKER FUND. It should stiffen our determination to free Sacco and Vanzetti and to protect The DAILY WORKER, which is fighting for their

KEY to the Death House

Is the development of a mass movement of protest against the execution of Sacco and Vanzetti. The power of labor, united in a gigantic effort to secure their freedom, is the only power that will save them. In addition to the huge mass meetings and demonstrations which are being held throughout the country and throughout the world, it is necessary that a daily agitation be carried on among the workers, it is necessary that they be kept constantly informed of the nefarious efforts of the capitalist henchmen to murder them, and of the growing force of the movement which is fighting for their freedom. Under these circumstances the drive for Five Thousand New Readers for the Daily Worker takes on a new importance. It is in the interest of Sacco and Vanzetti, that the Daily Worker Army must grow. It is in the interest of the successful fight against the attack of the bosses, we must get Five Thousand New Readers.

An insufficiently strong party life, as the result of an insufficient mass basis, the inadequate contact of many members of the former language groups with the specific problems of the class struggle in the United States, favor the development of groups and factional struggles, the existence and intensity of which we seek in vain to explain through serious differences of principle."

The most important task confrontng the party and its coming convention is to realize the resolution of the ECCI in the life of the party - to break down the factional barriers, to liquidate the outlived factions and to unite the party on the basis of col-lective leadership. The political basis for this unification has been steadily developing, but the organization unification of the party leadership has not kept pace; it has even been artificially hampered by the persistence in factional methods and the attempt to permanently maintain factional organization. In order that the obstacles may be overcome it is neces-We draw the special attention sary that the reasons for this condi-

> The Comintern resolution says: "The majority of the Party Executive (Political Committee) did not sufficiently understand how to create such a condition of affairs as to bring about an amalga mation with the forces which are today in opposition. Within the ranks of the majority, a breach with the Cannon group took place and the Weinstone group also split off from the majority. It is clear that the majority of the Political Committee followed a too narrow course within the party and themselves' essentially contributed to the continued existence of fraction walls. A struggle of the majority of the Political Committee (Lovestone) against the groups at present in opposition (Foster, Weinstone. Cannon) would be justified if it were a question or anti-Communist comrades who threaten the further development of the Party (like Lore). This is not so in the case of comrades like Foster, Weinstone, and Cannon.' And further:

"Therefore, the majority of the Political Committee must recognize the necessity to do their utmost to bring about the closest collaboration with the Foster group and with the Weinstone-Cannon group in order to attain complete fusion of the groups at the Party convention. Non-recognition signifies the revival of the faction struggle and signifies in the last analysis the degeneration of the faction into cliques and the creation of a party

Under these corcumstances the minority of the Polcom, in behalf of the opposition groups, has been compelled to issue its own statement in order that our position may be put before the party. In doing so we re-affirm our stand for unity and collective leadership. We declare our readiness to collaborate with the majority of the Polcom on the basis of equality in the spirit of the CI resolution and the joint agreement. We restate here as our opinion that "the leading forces of all three groups can work together as they contain in their ranks complementary forces." The unity of the party in face of war danger and the offensive against the party-is an incontestable necessity. The way to this unification has been correctly indicated in the resolution of the ECCI and the joint agreement of the American delegation drawn up ing groups into a collective leader- and practice of hegemony ad thus lay ship, without the hegemony of any the basis for real unity in the party.
