EX-SOLDIER DEMANDS JUSTICE FOR SACCO AND VANZETTI IN BOSTON

He Is Jailed for His Audacity in Urging That Two Workers "Must Not Die!"

By J. LOUIS ENGDAHL.

"WE WERE SUPPOSED TO HAVE FOUGHT FOR JUS-TICE! GIVE JUSTICE TO SACCO AND VANZETTI! THEY MUST NOT DIE!"

These words, emblazoned on a placard where all could see, brought Morris William Gurkin, an ex-soldier, of Schenectady, N. Y., into the nervous but hungry grip of the Boston police.

It was only after a three-day hunger strike that he was released on bail, being held on two charges, for carrying a placard without a permit and wearing a soldier's uniform illegally.

The fact that Gurkin wore his uniform, long after he had been discharged from the service, was not the real crime, however, that bothered the police. The police said they would gladly let

Prepare for Strikes. In most cases the new demonstrations begin on Thursday and will continue thereafter, being developed wherever possible toward strikes on the twenty-second.

An illustration of the intensified activity and determination of the militant workers for Sacco and Vanzetti is contained in the report from the anthracite coal field district that thirty meetings, three parades, and several strikes are being organized.

Miss Rose Baron, secretary of the Emergency Committee, issued the following statement early in the afternoon: "The Sacco-Vanzetti Emergency Committee calls upon organized labor in this city to demonstrate to the master class the solidarity of labor. Only the united strength of the workers can now save our condemned comrades. As Sacco himself has said, 'Only the united action of the working class can save us now.'

TURN ON THE LIGHT!

The capitalist press is gradually pushing the news of Sacco and Vanzetti into the background. There is good reason for this. The capitalist bloodhounds of Massachusetts dread the white light of publicity. They intend to carry out the cold-blooded murder of our comrades, Sacco and Vanzetti, under cover of the silence of the capitalist press, within the dark walls of Charlestown jail.

But fortunately there is one newspaper that will fearlessly keep the light burning, a paper that has thrown open wide its columns to spread before the public eye the full details of the horrible crime, which the state of Massachusetts is about to perpetrate. The DAILY WORKER is in this fight with all the power and resources at its command.

Will you help us fight the powers of darkness and crime? Will you help us keep the bright light of publicity on the dark forces of capitalism? Will you help us, through public pressure, to force open the secret files of the Department of Justice? Will you help us keep up the fight of Sacco and Vanzetti until capitalism is compelled by the might of the aroused working class to release its victims? # The Bomb Hoax Still Offers! Serves the Murder Gang

Again the reptile press screeches with weird tales about bomb explosions by Sacco and Vanzetti sympathizers. This time the provocateurs of a blood drenched capitalist despotism blew off the front porch of the house of one of the twelve creatures who sat on the packed jury that convicted these two innocent workingmen. The reports of the explosion appeared simultaneously with the hearing of pleas for an appeal to the full bench of the supreme court of Massachusetts.

Some trivial police chief of the town of East Milton, Mass., where the explosion occurred, got on the front page of the kept press with the assertion that it was an act of Sacco and Vanzetti sympathizers. The state police, professional strikebreakers and crooks, who between strikes confine their activities to blackmailing bourgeois motorists and protecting bootleggers who use the highways, are conducting an "investigation," as if their opinions on anything really counted with intelligent people. Reinforced guards are thrown about the homes of "public men," and the terror stage is again set for the next move on the part of the murder crew to carry out their fiendish plot.

No worker should be deceived by this sort of thing. We can say definitely, without fear of successful contradiction that the bombs thus far exploded were planted by those who want to aid the case of Fuller and his Back Bay advisory committee. They are counter-blasts to the agitation of workers all over the world for the release of Sacco and Vanzetti.

The only reply to this provocation is more tremendous demonstrations that must culminate in an impressive mass strike on Monday, August 22, the date of the expiration of the last respite. All those unprincipled fakers who profess to speak for labor and who talk against this strike are guilty of aiding the executioners and the provocateurs in the pay of Sacco and Vanzetti Shall Not Die!

The Blast

F public opinion has temporarily stayed the hand of the executioner.

Mass protest, mass strikes have halted the act of legal murder of Sacco and Vanzetti.

But the executioner bides his time.

The capitalist class ' is still thirsting for the lives of its victims, and is determined to accomplish its evil purpose.

Again the working class will have to mobilize its forces to save Sacco and Vanzetti, this time on a far more effective and far-reaching scale.

Again the Daily Worker will send forth the call to workers in the mines, mills, factories and farms, to down the tools and pour into the streets in thousands upon thousands as a mass protest against this crime against the working class.

Help to spread the call by putting your shoulder to the wheel in the drive for Five Thousand New Readers to the Daily Worker.

Help build the army of Freedom for Sacco-Vanzetti, by securing new readers for the Daily Worker.
