Mrs. Knapp's Relatives Got $25,000

Republican Party Machine Named Appointees COUNSEL APPEARS to Share in Census Fund Thefts

ALBANY, Jan. 23.—It looks as if the workers of New York AS and the nation were going to get an unusually detailed view of and the nation were going to get an unusually account of party politicians up to their elbows in the public funds in PIRIC INTEREST the million dollar Florence E. S. Knapp census fund graft case Center of Census Frauds

Charged specifically with forgery, grand larceny, false audits and certifications and illegal removal of state records, Mrs. Knapp, of Syracuse, republican former secretary of state, today faced an investigation by the March term of the Albany county grand jury of her administration of the $1,200,000 New York State census fund in 1925. A University Dean.

These charges are made against Mrs. Knapp by Randall J. LeBoeuf, Jr., Albany attorney, who as a Moreland commissioner last fall investigated Mrs. Knapp's administration. The report was made public today by Gov. Alfred E. Smith.

Owing to the inflated prestige enjoyed by the holders of university degrees it is significant that Mrs. Knapp is dean of women at Syracuse University.

The report comes as a result of political expediency on the one hand and of unusual boldness on the part of former republican party raiders on the other hand. The presidential aspirations of Gov. Smith, leading democratic candidate, are being publicly cited as a reason for the detailed nature of the report.

LeBoeuf charges in his report that Mrs. Knapp illegally spent and wasted $197,000 of the $1,200,000 census (Continued on Page Two)

Document Made Public by Governor Charges I. R. T. Bases Injunction Plea on "Yellow Dog" Contract

Opposing Lawyers in Friendly Bout

By ROBERT MITCHELL.

Taking up the unusual role of defender of the city's interests, James L. Quackenbush, general counsel for the Interborough Rapid Transit Company, yesterday argued before Justice Isadore Wasservogel that unless an injunction is granted his company restraining the Amalgamated union from organizing the traction workers a strike is inevitable in New York

Basing his case almost entirely of the legality of the individual "yellow dog" contract, Quackenbush took up the offensive in the long-heralded battle against the officers and the 3,000,000 members of the American Federation of Labor. The chief support offered by the "dictator of the I. R. T." for his position was the famous Hitchman decision by which a coal company of West Virginia secured a decision against the United Mine Workers of America.

The Hitchman Precedent. This decision by the United States Supreme Court establishes the validity in law of the "yellow dog" contract. Battle Looms as United States Troops Invade MANAGUA, Nicaragua, Jan. 28-War has been resumed in Nicaragua. While hundreds of peons from the east coast are streaming to swell the ranks of the Nationalists under General Sandino one thousand United States marines marched out of Leon today on their way to renew the war against the Nationalist army in the district of Nueva Segovia.

Batteries of mountain guns, mortars, artillery and hundreds of lumbering ox-carts loaded with supplies and ammunition passed between the rows of silent Nicaraguans lining the streets of the town to watch the long files of United States marines marching to invade the northwestern district of their country. One hundred mules were taken with the troops to aid them in the difficult mountain fastnesses of Nueva Segovia.

The long tramp of the marines will take them from western Nicaragua to the extreme north where those who survive the fevers and fatigues of the march thru the Nicaraguan jungle will be thrown into battle

Local Papers Suppress All Accounts

CLEVELAND, Jan. 20. (By Mail) A few months ago, Joe Judson, leader of the Unemployed Council of Cleveland, was arrested on a charge of vagrancy. When Judson came to trial, his lawyer, Mrs. Yetta Land, pointed out that there is no vagrancy law in Cleveland, although thousands of men have been sent to the work house on that charge. The result was that Judson was discharged.

Finger-Printed as Criminal. When arrested, Judson was taken to the Bertillon department and duly photographed and fingerprinted. He became a duly accredited member of the rogues' gallery. When he was discharged, Mrs. Land immediately began proceedings to have the plates of his fingerprints destroyed, especially as the law provides that only one charged with a felony may be fingerprinted. Mrs. Land won her point and the plates were to be

The plates were called in from the state capital, Columbus, and from Washington, and on the day that Judson faced the court on another count, the ceremony of destroying the plates of his fingerprints was to take place.

This ceremony took place today. Chief George Koestle, superintendent sent their reporters and their photographers. Superintendent Koestle was astounded at the presence of the reporters and photographers. He ok Mrs. Land aside and told her that this was not part of the game.

"If it should be known that we had to destroy these plates, hundreds of men would be round here demanding the same thing. And that would be bad for the police department," he

Rail Consolidation Would Hit Workers

WASHINGTON, (FP) Jan. 23.— Daniel Willard, president of the Baltimore & Ohio railroad, testifying before the Senate committee on interstate commerce in favor of a four system railroad consolidation scheme for the Eastern traffic territory, denied that his company had conspired to injure the United Mine Workers of America. The union had repeatedly charged that eastern trunk railroads had boycotted union-mined coal in an effort to destroy the organization.

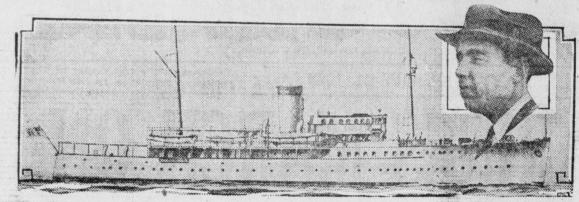

Willard admitted that many workers will have to move from their present homes in certain division-point towns, when rail consolidations are made. ALIENISTS' DUEL TAKES PLACE OF LYNCHING SPREE

Hickman Trial Thrills Morbid in Los Angeles

LOS ANGELES, Calif., Jan. 23. -The trial of William Edward Hickman, the maniac who kidnapped and cut in pieces the young daughter of Perry M. Parker, is to be a spectacular battle of hired alienists. Seven brain specialists work for the state and will swear that Hickman is perfectly sane, and ought to be hanged. Four have signed up with the defense, and will use their wits to convince the jury that young Hickman was not quite normal when he did the carving.

Los Angeles citizenry, who tried to lynch man after man because they thought they looked like Hickman, and who did succeed in so badly shocking one man that he hanged himself, have given up hopes of burning the defendant at the stake in their interest in the gladiatorial combat among the hired witnesses.

The trial begins in two days. Eva Hickman, mother of the defendant will testify, and so will the father of the murdered girl.

UNION MEETINGS

ROME, (FP) Jan. 23.-Mussolini has ordered that the fascist trade unions shall hold no more meetings until he shall give permission. A circular issued by his Ministry of Corporations assures the fascist workers that this is not intended to "restrict their trade union activities," and that certain meetings, strictly limited in membership attendance, may still be held in fascist labor halls. But these meetings must not discuss anything except the founding of new unions, and like matters. Reports of these deliberations must not be published except in the form of notices posted by specially qualified committees.

This means that Mussolini dare not let fascist workers talk over, in meetponents of the McNary-Haugen farm ing, their hours, wages and conditions. relief bill, with the equalization fee The circular says the order is deintact, are being given renewed as- signed to limit "outside manifestasurances of support from ex-governor tions, really not necessary for trade

Goethals Gets Military Funeral for Services

Major General George Washington Goethals, builder of the Panama Canal and first civil governor of the Panama Canal Zone, who died Saturday in New York, is to be buried with military honors in West Point, as a tribute to the services he rendered American imperialism in its early drive to destroy the independence of the South and Central American republics.

A Roosevelt Appointee. Goethals was an appointee of Theodore Roosevelt, during the presidential term of the latter, and charged with supervising the building of the Panama Canal which was stolen from the government of Columbia. "Pacified" the Country.

This canal cut off thousands of miles travel to the west coast of South the program of American imperialism. Goethals, appointed by Wilson in 1914 as civil governor, is credited with pacifying the country-that is, maintaining such a powerful military apparatus that the supremacy of the United States could never be challenged. The result was a government completely subservient to the imperialist power of the north.

Trade With Russia Growing.

After pointing out that trade between the Soviet Union and American business firms is growing in spite of the failure of the U. S. government to recognize Soviet Russia, the reply to Woll goes on to say: "As a matter of fact the department of commerce of the United States includes in its current publications dealing with world trade opportunities, information about Russia."

The letter says in another section: "The chamber does not share your belief that trade with Russia endangers in any way the stability of American institutions.'

A Labor Imperialist.

The American Federation of Labor in recent years has consistently followed the lead of the U.S. state department in foreign policy. Woll has been the chief spokesman for government policy within the labor movement. The present policy of the United States towards the Soviet Union is in the process of change.

Hughes' Havana Speech a Threat Against Nicaragua

That the imperialist government of the United States is determined to continue its predatory course against the liberties of the Nicaraguan people was clearly indicated by the head of the American delegation to the Pan-American conference, Charles Evans Hughes, in a speech before the Havana Chamber of Commerce. With the customary sophistry that characterized the utterances of every spokesman for American imperialism at the Havana conference, Hughes dealt with the invasion and occupation of Nicaragua. He declared:

"We have no desire to stay. We wish Nicaragua to be strong, prosperous and independent. We entered to meet an imperative but temporary exigency, but we shall retire as soon as it is possible."

No attempt was made to expound the details of the "imperative" exigency, or to explain under what conditions it is "possible" for United States armed forces to get out of Nicaragua. Another part of the Hughes speech, however, very clearly showed to the Nicaraguans the picture of their own dismal future as slaves of American imperialism if Hughes and his associates have their way. Their fate is to be a repetition of the monstrous throttling of Haiti. In relation to that country, first ravaged by the marines under the Wilson government, a policy continued under Harding and Coolidge, the chief of the Wall Street delegation at Havana said:

"We would leave Haiti at any time that we had reasonable expectations of stability and could be assured that the withdrawal would not be the occasion for a recurrence of bloodshed. Meanwhile we are endeavoring in every important direction to assist in the establishment of conditions for stability and prosperity, not that we may stay in Haiti, but that we may get out at the earliest oppor-

What is clearly meant here is that the United States intends to stay in Haiti until it has succeeded in so training and equipping with military force a puppet government composed of servile natives that the regular armed forces of the United States can be released from service in Haiti in order to ply their vandalism in other parts of the world the resources of which may be desirable to United States imperialism.

According to Hughes we will get out of Haiti "at the earliest opportunity." United States armed forces have held that country in the grip of death for thirteen years. Using, in relation to Nicaragua, slightly different language, which means the same, Hughes told us that the armed forces will leave that country "as soon as possible." Clearly Hughes' speech can be interpreted in no way other than the open avowal of a determination to remain in Nicaragua until such time as the imperialists are assured of the utter extinction of the national liberation movement and the establishment of a puppet government that will never offer resistance to the unrestrained plundering of the country, but will itself be the hired instrument for the enslavement of the masses.

The whole farcical scene at Havana was revealed in bold relief by the comments of utterly debased aggregation of Latin Low Wages for Women, Lower American delegates "representing" Cuba, Haiti and Nicaragua.

Dr. Carlos Caudra Pazos, head of the Nicaraguan delegation handpicked by American military officials, a creature thoroughly In certain industries women are being despised by the overwhelming majority of the population of Nicaragua and who could not even live in his own country without the protection of the bayonets of the imperialist invaders, thus grovels before Hughes:

"Mr. Hughes' declarations vindicate the widely denounced policies of the Nicaraguan government and ought to convince our citizens of the justice of the United States' efforts to establish peace in

Thus, at a time when hundreds of defenseless men, women and children are being slaughtered in air bombardments, when whole towns are being reduced to smouldering ruins, the vile prostitute, Pazos, licks the boots of one of the imperialist butchers!

Two other depraved grovellers, Dr. Jacob Varela, Uruguayan minister in Washington, and Fernando Denies, chief of the Haytian delegation, likewise play the role of lickspittle before yankee despotism, and in almost the same weasel words. The real representatives of the masses in Haiti were prevented from attending the conference by the simple ruse of using the Cuban immigration department to bar from the country all critics of the United States government.

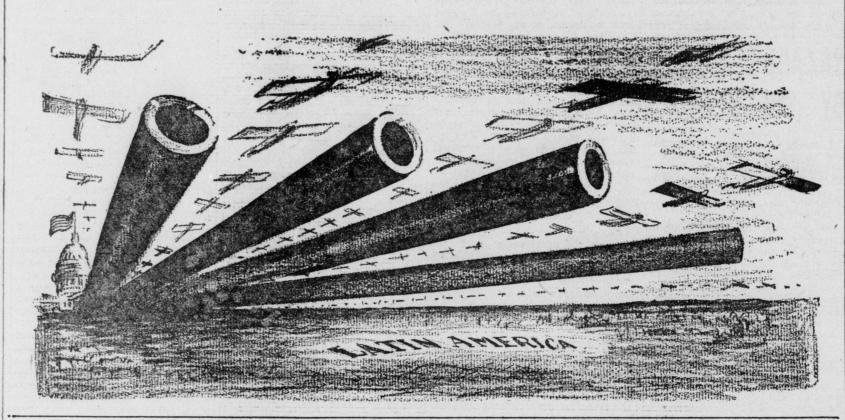

So criminal, so indefensible is the course of the United States government in Central America that it dare not even attempt open discussion with the representatives of the peoples of the eleven states, and even there they are suppressed nations. Its dastardly crimes must be concealed at not the best kind of laws. all costs. The fraud of the Havana conference was revealed at the first utterance of Hughes when he declared that the United States would favor the abolition of the secrecy that has veiled all previous conferences of this agency of imperialism, and then encouraged the adoption of a qualifying clause that secret sessions must be held on motion of any one delegate. This means that day of ten hours for women, while whenever anything arises that cannot bear the light of day some one of the many pawns of imperialism will move that the sessions be secret.

The only hope for the Latin Americans is a bloc of anti-imperialist nations against the United States. In spite of the efforts to conceal the crimes against the peoples of Nicaragua, Haiti, Santo Domingo, Colombia, Cuba and Latin America generally, the movement against the Northern despot is gathering force and as the imperialist rampages increase in volume and frightfulness the peoples of all Central and South America will come to a realization of the fact that again they must unite to repel the despot them when the day in the mill is just as more than a hundred years ago they united to drive from over. their lands the bloody reg ? es of Portugal and Spain.

In this they will have one support of the workers and farmers of the United States who more and more are coming to realize that the same power that throttles them at home draws a considerable portion of its power from the super-profits it obtains through the of their children also. WHY THE WORKING WOMAN NEEDS A LABOR PARTY

By VERA BUCH.

The position of the American workbad one. The bosses are using her labor power to lower wages for the the long hours, the general wear and her harder than the man worker.

The woman worker is struggling, oo, with the problem of keeping house and bringing up children without enough money and in a wretched environment. In a hundred ways in which she is oppressed, the working woman can find in a Labor Party some help for her difficulties.

Woman's Minimum Wage Law. Perhaps the first need of the worklaw. The low wages paid to women workers in some lines are almost unbelievable. The studies of the U.S. Women's Bureau bring to light such remarkable facts as these:

In Ohio, of 30,735 women studied, half earned less than $13.80 a week. In Mississippi, out of 2,853 working women, half the white women earned less than $8.60 a week and half the Negro women less than $5.75.

In Oklahoma, of 4,135 women workers, half the white women earned less than $13.00 and half the colored women less than $8.20.

Standard for Men. Low wages are not merely the concern of the women who receive them. hired in recent years for half the wages of men, for the same work. Thus we see in New York City that products industry are receiving an average of $16.24 a week, and men $44.02. In wood manufacturing, women are getting $17.02 and men $35.76. In chemicals, oils and paints, women's wages are $16.64 and men's $30.55. And so on down the line. It is plain that there is a tendency, at least in certain trades, for women to replace men at a lower wage. Thus the standard of pay for the whole industry is threatened.

Courts Kill Minimum Wage Laws. In the face of these facts, do we see anything being done to protect romen's wages? Do we see minimum wage laws being enacted, under the guidance of the republican and democratic parties? On the contrary, withmore and more wiping out such minimum wage laws as did exist for the protection of women and child workers. Such laws exist now in only

Women's Working Hours Long. In the matters of hours of labor, there is again the same lack of protection for women workers. The states of New Jersey, Maryland and South Carolina have a legal working in Alabama and Iowa there is no limit to the hours which a woman may legally be made to work.

Women Workers Do Two Jobs. When we consider the hours that vomen work at their job, it must be kept in mind always that many thousands of working women-in fact, a quarter of all of them-are married women and are keeping up a home. The factory job is not the only job for these married women workers. Several hours of housework await

The Ohio Governor's Appeal

By I. AMTER

CLEVELAND, Jan. 23 .- The governor of the State of Ohio, Vic Donahey, has sent out an appeal to the people of the state to furnish clothing and food for the needy miners' women in the stone, clay and glass families, especially in the Hocking Valley. He has ordered the national guard units to participate in the gathering of these essentials, and has designated the armories thruout the state as the centers for collections. Donahey emphasizes the need of the miners: Their impoverishment, the fact that the children receive no food, have no clothes or shoes and consequently must remain away from school by the hundreds. His picture good standing socialists as Mac-Donald and Snowden, class collaboration in England is having tough sledding. The Conference of Industrial Cooperation, promoted by such violent anti-union British capitalists as Sir Alfred Mond, is up against it. Called to secure "peace in industry," it could not face the problems pressing upon the workers. The militant miners' leader, A. J. Cook, dealt it a solar plexus blow before it even got started. Then the British Cotton Employers' Association immediately put on the order of business for the achievement of industrial peace, a wage cut of 121/2 % and leng hening of the working hours from 48 to 521/2. This is the "reconstruction" plan of British capital.

CLASS collaboration in England is today facing a different test from what it faced in the United States when it was applied here, on a large and systematic scale, for the first time about five years ago. When class collaboration was thus first applied in the United States as a system of war against the workers, American capitalism was heading towards a peak point in its imperialist development. Today Britain is applying it when British capitalism is heading towards the trough of the curve of its imperialist development.

Such comment belongs in a funny column.

Even the smallest insect can do incalculable damage. The socialist party is a corpse. But precisely as a corpse it is still a source of deadly infection in the labor movement. It works overtime, fighting the organization of a labor party.
