"AUTOMOBILE—SYMBOL OF MODERN SLAVERY"---NEW OCTOPUS RISEN TO POWER

"Horseless Carriage" Becomes Vehicle of Business

Driving Force to War

By BEN LIFSCHITZ

From the laughable little "horseless carriage," but of the jokes of the practical and sane, the automobile has in a short generation grown into an octupus of transportation which helped empires to build their economic greatness. The past fifteen years in the life of this remarkable industry has witnessed a boom development unprecedented in economic history.

Vast fortunes have been made literally overnight in furthering its progress. Bankers and finance capitalists have staged the most dramatic battles for its control. Hundreds of thousands of workers have been drafted into its service -- and slavery. Speed-up, exploitation, standardization, mechanization of the human being-the Belt!-these and a thousand other revolutionary developments have occurred in the short span of its life-time.

Whither Automobile?

Has this giant attained in the U.S. its maturity or is it still in the upward stage of development? Upon the correct answer to this question depend other, vastly larger, questions of economic perspective.

This much may be said: The Bonanza period of the industry is drawing to a close!

Capital, investment in unbelievably enormous amounts has flowed into the industry. The rapidly concentrating money power is leading to bitter competition between capitalist combinations not only in the United States but between those at home and abroad.

In the United States this struggle most clearly marked in the rivalry between the gigantic Ford General Motors Company groups. The development of the new model Ford car, accompanied by the production of the new model Chevrolet, reflects this conflict. This

Will Call Convention

Holding what the hall keeper termed, the largest crowd that ever filled the building, old Cooper Union last night was crammed while at least 4,000 fur workers enthusiastically voted endorsement of the resolution of the International Fur Workers United Front Committee that a new national organization of fur workers, independent of the A. F. of L. be launched.

Jam Hall.

People literally jammed tight every inch of available standing space, including the large corridors beyond the doors and many hundreds were turned away from meeting that proved to be one of the most historic steps in the exciting history of that organization,

After listening attentively in an almost overpowering heat to speak ers from nearly every American and Canadian local of the International Fur Workers Union, including speakers from the group which split off from the right wing New York Joint Council, the assemblage rose as one man for the standing vote asked on the resolution calling for the formation of a new and real International union of fur garment and fur pelt workers.

Although more locals are official participants in the new union move ment, the time and crowded condi tion of the hall permitted speakers only from Local 1, 5, 10, 15, 25, 30 40, 70, 54, 58 and Progressive Bloc of the Joint Council. FASCIST JAILS NEARING DEATH

Hard on Communists

GENEVA, Aug. 15 .- After the sentence against the members of the Central Committee of the Communist Party in Italy, last April, the prisoners have been subjected to a very sharp prison regime. They are in single cells, forced to be silent, never allowed to come out into the air, for the 40-minute walk allowed other prisoners is not granted them.

They are given only bread and thin soup for food. No prisoner can last this cruel regime very long and the health of Gramsci and Terracini is very bad and cause for real worry to-their relatives and friends.

BERLIN, Aug. 15 .- Those sentenced in the many Italian trials are suffering terribly in the fascist prisons. Many are those who would rather have been sentenced to death, and many are in grave danger of losing their lives.

German Social Democrats Explain How Vote for Cruisers Is Not Vote for Cruisers

HAVE ONLY DONE WHAT REICHSTAG

Warships to Cost Nine Million Marks

BERLIN, Aug. 15 .- The mass resentment of thousands of German workers over the social democratic conniving at the building of a new German cruiser fleet as one of the firsts acts of their tenure of cabinet power, has forced the Mueller government to attempt to evade some of the onus for its stand.

In an official statement issued yesterday the social democrats explain how their vote for the cruiser fleet was not a vote for the cruiser The Reichstag had already voted to construct the boats, the statement reads, and the unanimous cabinet sanction was merely to discover whether or not the treasury was in a position to stand the strain of such heavy armament taxation. The vote was undertaken at the request of the Federal Council, the comminique states.

In spite of the poor shape in which the government finances now find themselves, work on the cruisers is reported to be going ahead. The social democrat slogan, "Child feeding but no warships" is being shouted in derision through the streets of Berlin and in front of the social democratic headquarters.

It is estimated that to build the new cruisers will cost the German nation 9,000,000 marks.

The "Happy Warrior" Smells Powder

The first big blast touched off in the election campaign exploded last Tuesday, when the announcement was made at Smith campaign headquarters that the big powder and politics magnate, Pierre Du Pont, cached $50,-000 in Al's treasure chest. The news rocked Wall Street. Indeed not since the Du Pont powder wagon exploded in front of Morgan's headquarters in 1921 was there so much excitement in the lair of the financial pirates of the United States.

Fears were expressed that the "Happy Warrior," hitherto a stranger to the smells of the battlefield would not stand up under his first whiff of powder. But according to reports from the war correspondents stationed in the bomb-proof dug-outs of the General Motors Building, Al came up smiling after the smoke cleared away. Told You So

By Fred Ellis

HERBERT HOOVER has accepted the G. O. P. nomination for the presidency and the country car breathe easier. It would be a ter rible situation if he had turned it down and put the public thru the ordeal of enduring another republican convention. Herbert trotted out the old dinner pail which exhaled a delightful odor of garlic and onions in addition to the pork and beans of former G. O. P. presidential campaigns. It is true that Hoover scorned the "full dinner pail" slogan as inadequate. So he threw in the flavoring by sugges-

HOOVER talked money and no doubt he expects that money will talk back in the elections. Billions for public works are dangled before the eyes of the workingclass voters. The old delusion that a victory for the republican party meant more corn on the workingman's cob and more fat on his ribs is expected to ring the bell again for the G. O. D. And when the worker learned from hungry experience that this was the hokum he decided to switch his vote to the democrats only to find that he was only jumping from a cess pool into a sewer.

HOOVER'S acceptance speech places him definitely with the most consciously reactionary wing of the republican party. He has digested Harding, Jess Smith, A. B. Fall, Harry Daugherty, Gaston B. Means and William Burns, the "prophesying stool-pigeon." Hoover boasts of the successess of the G. O.
