SHELBY, N. C., Aug. 28 (UP). -The debris of brick, plaster and twisted planks-all that remains of the three buildings which collapsed today, killing eight persons-was searched tonight for the bodies of four workmen still missing

Police, firemen, relatives of the missing, and friends, pulled and tugged at the mass of wreckage, trying to penetrate its depths.

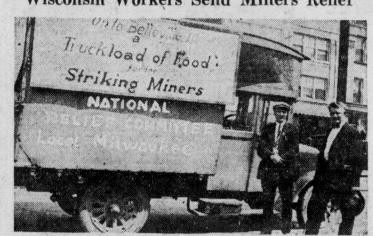

Four Negro laborers remained unaccounted for this afternoon as volunteers dug deeper into the debris. A group of seven had been working in the excavation. Three of them were taken out seriously hurt but the remaining four were believed trapped under the heaps of bricks and plaster.

The four missing men were believed trapped in the basement of one of the buildings, near where a retaining wall they had flung up, them from proceeding, on the gave way, bringing down with it the structures of three buildings in the heart of this town of 4,000

BUKHARIN ON U. S. PARTY SITUATION

Police forced their way into a Meeting of Polish women strikers in At Sixth World Congress of the Communist International MOSCOW, Aug. 27.-From the detailed report of International Press Correspondence we can now give a clearer and more objective picture of the estimation of the American Workers (Communist) Party situation as given by the Sixth World Congress of the Communist International than the short and sometimes unclear and distorted wires containing speeches made at the congress.

The closing remarks of Comrade Bukharin, the official spokesman of the Executive Committee of the Communist International, clarified all issues related to the American Party situation.

Internal and External Contradictions.

Comrades of the American opposition, Foster and Bittelman, and Comrade Lominadze who deviates from the official line of the Russian Party, criticized the theses of Comrade Bukharin from the "left." They made the criticism of the theses and of the American Central Executive Committee, that they underestimate internal contradictions and lay toe much emphasis on external contradictions of imperialism. Bukharin said on this point the fol-

"The basic thing today is the war danger. If we separate external contradictions from internal contradictions it is equivalent to diminishing the significance of this fact. From an objective point of view such an underestimation of the war danger is not a left position but quite the contrary, it is the reflection of right wing dangers in the Com-munist International. The principal danger that threatens us today is the underestimation of the War Danger."

Reserve Powers of U. S. Imperialism.

Bittelman and Foster, charged that the Central Executive Committee overestimates the power and growth of American imperialism and overlooks the fact that "the reserve powers of American imperialism are diminishing."

Bukharin said on this question as follows:

"I absolutely disagree with the argument advanced here by many comrades to the effect that the internal possibilities of American imperialism have been exhausted. They have not been exhausted and in general I am in principle opposed to this point of view. It is wrong both in theory and in principle. It is the Luxemburg theory."

New and Old Unions.

The speakers of the opposition and Comrade Losovsky accused the Central Executive Committee of obstructing the execution of the Profintern resolution because, laying the main emphasis on organizing new unions, the Central Executive Committee stated the necessity of maintaining and increasing our work in old unions, too.

Bukharin took the following position on this deny the necessity for working in the reactionary unions; and attempts were even made to develop a theory for the purpose of fortifying this attitude. Sometimes this tendency is observed among the rank and file and arises from difficulties which the work in reactionary trade unions encounters. The tendency to leave reactionary unions is fostered also by the fact that large numbers of workers in many countries are still unorganized. This is the case in the United States of America and also in France. It is absolutely clear that the task of organizing the unorganized is one of our main tasks at the present time, but this is no reason why we should abandon our work in the reactionary trade unions even in countries where dual unions exist." No Big Political Differences. Speakers of the opposition, especially Comrade

"A dangerous tendency was also revealed in the course of the discussion, namely a tendency to Bittelman, accused the Central Executive Committee that it is advertising American imperialism and that it does not see the possibilities for Communist mass work in America. Bukharin's speech rejects categorically both charges: "Take the American Party. Quite lately-at least so it seemed to all of us-the American Party appeared to be overcoming the internal friction, but now we find that the controversy is flaring up again. The internal Party struggle has 'revived' to such an extent that attempts are being made to utilize the present conjuncture for the purpose of continuing the struggle in the acutest form. Are there really any big political differences in the American Party? No. They are petty. Are the differences so important as to warrant the formation of fractions? I believe they are not. For instance, take the question concerning the attitude towards American capitalism. Some say American imperialism has grown stronger. Their opponents declare that they are advertising American imperialism. Such an expression should not be used. No good can come of it and it does not help clear up the question. I must confess that I do not entertain any hopes of a revolutionary situation arising in the United States in the near future. I say this quite frankly. In no country in the world is capitalism so strong as it is in the United States of America, where it has reached its zenith. Is it a terrible thing to say that there is little likelihood of an immediate revolutionary situation? It is if this is used to back up the argument that there is positively no ground for activity among the American masses. As far as I know, however, no one has made such an assertion. Unemployment is a fact. Changes in American industry is also a fact and so also is the growing discontent among the unemployed workers. Is there any ground for the growth of the Communist Party? Yes, there is, Does this furnish any justification for an acute factionary struggle? Of course not. All steps must be taken to avoid such a struggle."

But Congress to Extend Term

MEXICO CITY, Aug. 28.—With three months of President Calles' term still ahead and the meeting of congress scheduled for Septem ber, two opposing views as to who will fill the vacancy created by the assassination of Obregon are being expressed here. Aaron Saenz, governor of the State of Nuevo Leon, is reported to have said that the Obregonist party will remain unified under all circumstances and "ready to face a solution of the abnormal position.'

Others here doubt the words of Casauranc, and believe that Calles will remain in office as is indicated by the composition of the congress which is predominantly Obregonista and Crom, and the fact that the president recently made three new appointments to his cabinet.

Efforts to secure the public school's auditorium in Pittsburgh for the Gitlow meeting on September 7th have so far proven fruitless, but when the authorities were advised that a protest would be made against this discrimination against a workingclass political party, they asked our comrades to make out an application. Pittsburgh is a stronghold of the Mellon interests and the open-shop coal and steel barons. The radio broadcasting station is now controlled by the big department stores, and their owners are thoroly reactionary.

Contributions to the $100,000 Communist Campaign Fund are pouring in. This fact is published, not to serve notice on the supporters of the Workers (Communist) Party ticket that they can now rest on their cars, but in order to stimulate them to increased activity. I will just quote from two letters, one from a 76-year old compositor and the other from a hobo. The compositor writes: "Enclosed find one measly dollar. Don't waste postage on me. I am an old man (seventysix) and work at my trade for a bare living. If I can raise another buck, you'll get it. I have made a note of your address. Good luck to you." And the hobo writes with his contribution: "This is from an old sympathizer for the Socialist Party, but it turned yellow. At present I am forced to degrade myself by bumming my way in this reactionary land of hypocrisy. Yours for a workingclass government."

It is believed that it is the first time that white men set foot in this particular part of the vast domain of the old Inca empire.

It is possible and even probable that these ruins were ruins already when the Incas conquered the country from the Aymaras, about 600 years before the arrival of the Spaniards at the beginning of the sixteenth century and that they represent a civilization which preceded that of the Inca empire.

Huavnapiccho was discovered in August by a Peruvian scientific expedition.

Four of the explorers swam the Vilcanota and opened a trail through the dense wilds to the base of the mountain. One of the party was bitten by a snake and could not proceed, but the others pushed on to find a wide stone stairway 400 yards long leading up the steep incline.

At the top of the staircase they found a great old fortress. Outside the fortress lay the ruins of an evidently once thriving city. There were big stone constructions, many platform dwellings and characteristic of the Inca architecture, streets, alleys and other remnants of note. But all was covered by a thick wild growth which in the course of centuries had spread itself rampant over the town.

A new exploration party is being organized with the purpose of thoroughly examing the ruins. The present indebtedness of Ecuador is about $10,000,000 to Great Britain and $10,000,000 to the United States.

"In Time of Peace Pacts Prepare for War."

We cannot know what resources may be left to the Union of Socialist Soviet Republics at the present moment of its struggle against the coming imperialist war in connection with the so-called Kellogg Pact. But this much is certain—the brazenly dishonest device of "inviting" the Soviet Union to sign the Pact after the negotiations as to the nature of the pact had been closed is only further proof of what Comrade Chicherin said in a statement to the press some weeks prior to the signing of the Pact:

"The exclusion of the Soviet government from these negotiations leads us in the first place to the assumption that, among the real objects of the initiators of this pact there obviously was and is the endeavor to make of this pact a weapon for isolating and fighting against the Soviet Union. The negotiations regarding the conclusion of the Kellogg pact are obviously an integral part of the policy of encircling the Soviet Union which at this moment occupies the central point of the international relations of the whole world. I would remind you that our delegate Comrade Litvinov, on his return from the December meeting of the Preparatory Commission on Disarmament, gave in his report a short analysis of the Kellogg proposals regarding the conclusions of a pact and ably showed that the 'outlawing of war as a weapon of national policy' is synonymous with preparing war as a weapon of international counter-revolution.'

After the Union of Socialist Soviet Republics is excluded from all negotiations as to the terms and conditions of the pact, so that, without interference by any nation pursuing a real peace policy, the capitalist diplomats could shape the Kellogg document into "a weapon for isolating and fighting against the Soviet Union"-"a weapon of international counter-revolution,"—the belated socalled invitation to the Union of Socialist Soviet Republics can be nothing more than a further maneuver against the Soviet Union. It is one more proof that the imperialist powers feel the active need of a mobilizationslogan for a coming war against the Union of Socialist Soviet Republics. Whatever urse may yet be found by the Soviet Union in this situation, it is certain that the imperialists intend their "invitation" itself to give them a political advantage against the Soviet Union. They offer the Soviet Union the chance to sign a pact facilitating the encirclement of the Soviet Union and war against it; and in the event of refusal to sign, the imperialists will cry: "See! The Bolsheviks alone refuse peace!'

Having once turned pale before the Soviet diplomats' proposal for complete and immediate disarmament at their "disarmament" conference, the imperialists dared not give the Soviet diplomats a chance to propose really to outlaw war at a conference for the "outlawry of war." For thus the Soviet diplomats would have demonstrated to the world that the outlawry of war is an impossibility to capitalist imperialist govern-

The workers of the entire world should know that the signing of the Kellogg-Briand pact yesterday brings the imperialist world war closer by a seven-league stride. The hypocritical farce at Paris is a warning to the working class to prepare for the coming

The Pact was signed in an atmosphere of war, with reservations intended by both Great Britain and France as steps to their particular vantage-points for the coming war. The Pact was proposed by the biggest imperialist power, the United States, which is preparing feverishly an enormous war machine with which to enforce its position as the dominant imperialism of the whole world. And the whole process developed to a farther stage the grouping of war forces in positions hostile to the Union of Socialist Soviet Republics.

The complex of war maneuvers against the Soviet Union is not the only ghost that haunted the Salle de l'Horloge when the treaty was signed. The imperialist rivalry between the United States, an imperialist power almost without colonies and out to conquer a colonial empire, and Great Britain, struggling to keep its weakening hold upon a worldful of colonies, is a vortex for all imperialists intrigues. The impulsion of a series of imperialist nations toward the extinction of the Chinese revolution and the conquest of China is more powerful than the "new parchment from the skin of milk-fed lamb" that Kellogg took to Paris.

Workers of the world! Get ready to defend the Union of Socialist Soviet Republics -for imperialist "Peace" has been declared! The stern duty of the working class, exploited farmers and oppressed colonials, will be to transform the imperialist war into a revolutionary war against the capitalist class-for liberation from wars and exploita-a Negro church (one must remember system of segregation), recently published a statement to the effect that both the democratic and the republican parties are enemies of the Negro people and offering a donation of $200 to the campaign fund of any Negro candidate nominated for public office—presumably meaning one truly representing the cause of emancipation of the Negro masses.

Richard B. Moore, candidate of the Workers (Communist) Party for congress in the 21st congressional district of New York, answered the challenge of the minister, pointing out that the Workers (Communist) Party is the only party that qualifies as the champion of the Negro masses and that it has numerous Negro candidates for office on its tickets in this election. Moore therefore demands that the preacher make the fund to the Communist campaign and by giving the other forms of aid promised to a genuine campaign for Negro rights.

Told You So

By Fred Ellis

THE officials of the wreck that was once the powerful United Mine Workers of America are begging the coal operators to sign contracts with them under almost any conditions. Accepting a reduction of wages for the miners is the least of those lads' worries. Of course there is going to be no reduction in the salaries of the union officials. John L. Lewis will still draw his $12,000 a year with an equal amount

THE officials of the international union and the district officials are not devoting all their time to chasing hard-boiled coal operators with pleas for a conference and a contract. Comrade B. K. Gebert, who is active in the anthracite region, sent in a program of a "Civic Testimonial" in honor of the Right Reverend Monsignor James S. Fagan, of Hazelton, Pa., of which Thomas Kennedy, secretary-treasurer of the U. M. W. of A. is General Chairman. With Mr. Kennedy on the committee is a coal company lawyer by the name of John H. Bigelow.

N his opening remarks brother Kennedy quoted from the "holy gospel" the old gag, "He that exalteth himself shall be humbled and he that humbleth himself shall be exalted." Perhaps the striking coal diggers had exalted themselves overmuch in fighting for the preservation of the Jacksonville scale and now being properly humbled according to scripture by a reduction in wages. Mr. John L. Lewis, who according to the catholic catechism should go straight to hell-provided he can go straight even on that straight road-for his failure to see the true faith, joined in his praise of the Reverend Fagan for "promoting harmony between employer and employe." And so on.
