The Next Steps in the FIGHT FOR BONUS PART Fight for the Bonus

THE march of the "Bonus Expeditionary Forces" to Washington marks a new high point in the disillusionment with the promises of the capitalists and the capitalist government, which is taking place in the ranks of the American working class.

It is a new high point in the radicalization of the masses. The Communist Party of the United States supports the bonus marchers with all forces at its disposal. It calls upon all worker veterans to expose, fight and defeat every attempt of the class enemies of the bonus to divide their ranks, weaken their forces and crush their militant struggle. It calls upon all workers throughout the country to demonstrate in solidarity with the worker veterans for the bonus, for immediate relief, for unemployment insurance and against imperialist war.

The bonus march received its first impetus from the Hunger March to Washington December 7th, 1931 which demanded unemployment insurance and the bonus for ex-servicemen. The same causes (now multiplied by the continually deepening crisis and the sharper wage attacks and growing mass unemployment and hunger) that gave rise to the Hunger March, have created the bonus march. Basically it is a struggle of unemployed workers with many ruined middle class elements included.

But these marcners are mostly workers. They are the section of the working class which American capitalism tried with the greatest energy to win from their class and to use to defend capitalism. It is this upsurge of world war veterans who composed the only conscript army raised by the United States since the Civil war, and upon whom every patriotic device has been employed, that gives this movement special sig-

The full meaning of this movement will be clear when it is remembered that American imperialism has created two special organizations, with which to delude the ex-soldiers-the American Legion and the Veterans of Foreign Wars-both of a definitely fascist character. But so rapid has been the increase in the number of unemployed and so sharp has become the pinch of hunger, that the fascist leadership of these organizations is no longer able to demagogically promise the payment of the bonus without running counter to the interest of American capitalism at this point of the acute crisis.

This leadership has failed to hold in line the rank and file of their organizations, thousands of whom joined because it believed the leadership was fighting for the bonus and in their interests. These workers have nothing in common with the fascist policy and method of struggle against the working class. The bonus march and the working class support it is receiving, the nation-wide character of the movement and its great militancy all constitute in fact a mass repudiation of the leadership of the American Legion and the Veterans of Foreign Wars.

American capitalism therefore faces the task of creating a new fascist leadership trying at the same time to give it an apparent rank and file character. This is the key to the struggle which is taking place in the ranks of the thousands of veterans now in Washington and the groups which are on the way. It is a struggle in which the forces involved do not show clear class lines but it is nevertheless a struggle to determine whether this huge section of unemployed masses shall be in the hands of militant workers headed by the Communist Party or shall be in the hands of a newly created fascist leadership whose demagogic possibilities have not yet been exhausted.

This especially explains the police persecution and fascist attacks on the members of the Workers Ex-Servicemen's League and other militant veterans. This is the meaning of the frenzied efforts to keep working class politics out of the bonus march and the meaning of the coalition of the police, military, secret service agents and declassed business men, underworld gangster and officer elements against the worker bonus marchers and veterans in general.

What are the next steps in the carrying through of the fight against the Wall Street government and for the bonus?

It must be clear to the worker ex-servicemen that the organized strength and consciousness of the movement is not yet great enough to force through their demands. It is therefore the first and foremost task to increase the mass base of the movement and to organize the ranks against the fascist leaders whom the government and police are trying to impose upon the movement. The leadership for the whole struggle of the bonus must be placed in the hands of rank and file veteran commit Itees, elected democratically and all police agents, secret servicemen, the officer caste and other fascist henchmen, must be eleminated from leadership and as fas as possible from the ranks.

Secondly, the worker veterans must be made to see that only by mass action, militant demonstrations and by breaking with any policy of mere lobbying and relying on the good will of capitalist politicians, can relief be won. The strength of the veterans may not be great enough to force the payment at this session of Congress, because of the disruption tactics of the police and fascist leaders. But as soon as Congress adjourns, the fight must go forward and the returning bonus marchers must organize groups of rank and file veterans regardless of race, color, religion, political affiliation or membership in the veteran organizations, in all cities on their route home as a first means of strengthening the Third, the struggle for the bonus should be organized on a state and district basis with corresponding rank and file committees. Marchers should be organized to the capitols of every state. In this way the ground will be prepared for a wider and better organized movement to Wash-

Fourth, the struggle for relief should be tied up with the fight of the millions of unemployed workers for immediate relief and unemployment insurance. It must be joined up with the fight against imperialist war for which huge millions are being expended while the workers are left to starve. The movement of the ex-servicemen should be organized in closest relation with the Unemployed Councils and militant unions of the Trade Union Unity League with special efforts to carry on work in the unions of the American Federation of Labor to expose the reactionary officials who are opposed to the bonus.

Only by taking steps for firmer organization and by linking the movement closer with the working class and its organizations, can the fight be successful and the ranks of the working class organized into revolutionary battalions which will defeat the hunger and war policy of American capitalism and lead the struggle of the millions for liberation from capitalist exploitation and oppression.

SOCIALISTS SLUG WORKERS Nominating Convent'n

Answer to Question

NEW YORK .- A Socialist Party speaker at a meeting Tuesday at 7th St. and Second Ave., run by the "Ypsels" and the district headquarters of the "S.P." at 327 9th St., called on his gang of blackjack, knife and iron knuckle armed thugs and had five young workers slugged. An attempt to ask a question by one of the young workers, members of the sports section of the Workers Zukunft Club, 31 Second Ave., was the excuse.

A message to the Zukunft Club that Socialist Party gangsters were attacking workers at the 7th St. open air meeting caused a few of its members to go down. When they got there they found a Socialist Party speaker addressing about 60 people.

One worker asked a question, and the speaker shouted, "Start a fight with them!" None of the Zukunft workers nor anybody else except the Socialist speakers' guard of six thugs was armed.

Isadore Korenzweick was slugged between the eyes with an iron glove. The same thug, with the same weapon, did the same thing then to Morris Gebelman.

Jack Blank was cut on the lip and across the temple with a knife by several of th thugs. When he went to Beth Israel hospital, the doctors worked two hours on him-and called the police, who finally let him go.

Sam Kurzwell was blackjacked across the back, and Sam Bitter was hit on the face with a blackjack. The Zukunft Club will point out that this is how the Socialist Party treats workers, and call for workers to rally against these vicious enemies, not only in the unions, where Socialist Party officials always hire gangsters against the members, but

Daily Worker MR. HOOVER, WHERE IS YOUR CHICKEN IN EVERY POT?

The Republican Party will open its national convention on June 14 in the city of Chicago. It will nominate again "the great engineer," Mr Herbert Hoover, as its standard-bearer, it will nominate him and his record as a candidate for President of the United States. In 1928, the Republican Party and Mr. Hoover carried on a campaign under the slogan of "A chicken In every pot, an automobile in every garage, work for everybody, prosperity for the whole country." 'This was the election platform of the Republican Party in the year 1928 and on this basis Herbert Hoover was elected President of the United States. In accepting the republican nomination for President of the United States Uerbert Hoover, on August 11, 1928, declared:

"Unemployment in the sense of distress is widely disappearing. . . . We in America today are nearer to the final triumph over poverty than ever before in the history of any land. The poor-house is vanishing from among us. We have not yet reached the goal, but given a chance to go forward with the policies of the last eight years, and we shall soon, with the help of God, be in sight of the day when poverty will be banished from the nation. There is no guarantee against poverty equal to a job for every man. That is the primary purpose of the economic policies we advocate.

American Masses Shall Fully Examine the Record of the Hoover Administration

the face of the pauperization of the farming population, in face not only of starvation, but death from starvation of not only hundreds, but thousands of workers in the richest country in the world. The statement of Hoover on August 11, 1928, in California, was sheer demagogy!

On Sept. 17, 1928, Mr. Hoover declared, in a speech, as follows: "Within a year we restored five million workers to employment. But we did more; we produced a fundamental program which made this restored employment secure on foundations of prosperity; as a result, wages and standards of living have during the past six and a half years risen to steadily higher

Will Mr. Hoover dare to repeat this statement again? The wages of the workers in the U.S. have been cut approximately 50 per cent. In the city of Chicago the payroll of the workers has declined, compared with September, 1929-March, 1932, 72 percent. The record of Mr. Hoover and his administration for the last four years is a record of wage-cutting policy together with his friends, the leaders of the A. F. of L., Greens, Wolls and Lewises. The record of the Hoover administration, the administration of the Republican Party, is a record of wagecuts, mass unemployment and starvation and impoverishment of the farmers and bankruptcy of hundreds and thousands of farmers whose farms have been taken away from them by the bankers for unpaid taxes and mortgages.

On Oct. 6, 1928, Mr. Hoover declared: "As never before does the keeping of our economic machine in tune depend upon wise policies in tha administrative side of the government."

So, in line with the policy, Mr. Hoover and his government refuses to give a red cent in the form of unemployed relief in the form of unemployment and social insurance for the masses, but three billion dollars was given to big business so that they will not feel the economic crisis. It is clear that the Hoover government policy is a policy of Wall Street, of the multimillionaires of the U.S.

Oh, yes, Mr Hoover has also something to say to the working class in this situation. Mr. Hoo-of the circulars of this organization has the following to say to the masses of unemployed:

"Other problems press for attention, to provide for the satisfying use of the free time of the unemployed."

And how, do you fellow workers think Mr. Hoover suggests to use the free time of the unemployed? Very simple-Mr. Hoover's administration proposes "Educational and vocational training and recreational activities." Splendid! Fifteen million unemployed men and women, with their families, starving, with empty stomachs, thrown out on the streets, in rags, are to be amused by Mr. Hoover that they should take up vocational training and recreational activities. This is cynicism in the face of the starving millions which can be compared only with the French Queen, Marie Antoinette, who, when she was informed that the masses of Paris were starving for the want of bread, answered: "Why don't they eat cake?" Fifteen million unemployed are starving and the problem facing them is not a question of "vocational training and recreational activity," but is a problem of bread. Mr. Hoover, from time to time, also was very humorous. For instance, he declared on March 8, 1930,, according to the dispatch issued by the White House, as follows:

"President Hoover predicted today that the worst effect of the crash upon unemployment will have been passed during the next sixty

It was a long sixty days, wasn't it?-sixty days to which there is no end. Hr. Hoover and his republican administration have proven by their everyday acts and deeds that they are against the working class. It refuses vid fights against unemployment and social insurance. It refuses to accept the demands of the great National Hunger March to Washington in December, 1931. It refuses the soldiers' bonus. Mr. Hoover, at the same time, is very active in planning a war against the only country where there is no unemployment, where wages are on the increase. where socialism is being built. That country is the U.S.S.R. According to the "San Francisco Chronicle," as was stated by Marsh, of the Peoples' Lobby, Hoover said:

"The ambition of my life is to crush Soviet Russia."

Yes, Mr. Hoover also has a plan. You know, fellow workers, that the Five-Year Plan in the Soviet Union is a tremendous success, so much so that Mr. Hoover, bitter enemy of the Soviet Union, attempts to copy the plan. In his speech on June 11, 1931, in the City of Indianapolis,

"I am able to propose an American plan to you. . . . We plan more leisure for men and women and better opportunities for its enjoyment. We plan not only to provide for all the new generation, but we shall, by scientific research and invention, lift the standard of living and security of life of the whole people. We plan to secure a greater diffusion of wealth, a decrease in poverty and a great reduction in crime. And this plan will be carried out if we just keep on giving the American people

No Plan Possible Under Capitalism. The only trouble with this plan is that it does not work. No plan is possible under capitalism.

The statement of Hoover about "the American plan" is as much demagogy as is the statement of Aug. 11, 1928 that "with the help of God, poverty will be abolished in our land." Poverty and war, misery and death from starvation is part of the capitalist system, of which Herbert Hoover capitalist way out of the present crisis is the way as indicated by Hoover, by wage-cuts, by reducing the miserable relief that was gotten by the militant struggles on the part of the masses of workers, and by planning a war against the Soviet Union. This is their plan out of the crisis The working class of America shall fully examine the record of the Hoover administration. We must popularize it amongst the broadest possible masses of workers and explain the Hoover program, a program of hunger and war, and in doing this to point out the way out of the crisis, as is presented in the platform of the Communist Party-the revolutionary way out of the crisis, the abolition of the capitalist system and the establishment of a Workers' and Farmers' Government, and, leading to it, by developing struggles for the immediate demands.

We must rally around the standard-bearers of the working class, the outstanding fighters and leaders of the employed and unemployed, of the Negro masses and poor farmers, William Z. Foster, for President, leader of numerous struggles of the working class, and James W. Ford, Negro leader of the working class, for vicepresident, candidates of the Communist Party.

stration was able to form up, one of them was arrested by the police. The workers in groups of two or three moved to Tonhsinehiao. Again, there, over one hundred armed French police were on guard. The workers then left the French town and went to the heart of the Foreign Settlement. At the corner of Chekiang and Foochow Roads, they finally lined up and started demonstration. While the procession was marching northward, shouting revolutionary slogans and distributing various pemphlets, they were reached by a large band of the British armed policerunning to them in a riot van. A clash between the demonstrators and the police ended the demonstration, with one of the British police injured and two of the demonstrators ar-

Toward Revolutionary Mass Work (THE 14TH PLENUM)

Decisions on Literature Applied in Practice

The article given below shows how the decisions of the Plenum Conference on Literature can be carried out in practice. The Conference discussed ways and means of attaining a MASS distribution of our literature. It outlined organizational measures to make it possible to reach millions of workers with our literature.

The comrades in Chicago have used some very original ideas in applying the new line on literature distribution in practice. One scheme they used, that of using one pamphlet intensively for many different purposes during a campaign, is outlined below.

FEW days ago you asked to write some of the experiences in the distribution of the Scottsboro pamphlets in connection with the campaign, and am herewith sending you how we worked it here, which can be of some help in planning mass distribution of other literature in connection with campaigns as they are planned and carried out.

Pamphlets Used For Speaker's Outline

When we first planned the campaign the immediate problem was of sending speakers to organizations, and these speakers had to be supplied with outlines. Most of the comrades not remember exactly the facts of the case and the further developments. So, instead of preparing an outline, it was decided to order the Scottsboro pamphlet, which contains the material necessary for every speaker.

Mass Organizations Order the Pamphlet Then we thought it best to make known the facts of the case to the workers in general, and therefore, at the first conference held, the question of distribution of this pamphlet was taken up. The same evening we had orders for nearly 1.000 copies from representatives of different organizations as well as from individuals. The pamphlets were sold to them at cost price.

The finance committee in preparing for the tag day, considering as to what to use for tags.

Pamphlets Replace Ribbons on Tag Day

decided to use the pamphlets instead of flowers or buttons, although it costs a little more, but in return it was considered that the contributions will make up for this. When any individual gets a pamphlet instead of a little ribbon, he is bound to make a bigger contribution. The entire campaign was conducted on the basis of popularizing the facts regarding the Scottsboro boys and we found .this the best medium. So far we have ordered and paid for 11.000 copies: 6.000 were sold prior to the tag

Pittsburgh, Is It Really So?

THE Central Committee Plenum adopted a special resolution on the need of popularizing Plenum decisions and its resolutions. One of the means for it is to acquaint the membership wit hthe content of the Plenum

Our records show that the Pittsburgh District has not ordered one single copy of the Plenum pamphlet "Towards Revolutionary Mass Work."

The May and June issues of THE COM-MUNIST were special issues to popularize the Plenum resolutions. The June issue is a special trade union issue taking up our trade union work in light of the ECCI resolution on lessons of strike struggles in the U.S.A. It is of special immediate importance for the Pittsburgh district. Yet only 50 copies of the June issue were ordered. The same number were ordered of the April and May issues.

We might even be compelled to stop the sending of THE COMMUNIST, as none of the previous issues have been paid for.

Pittsburgh is one of the most important concentration districts. The line and spirit of the Plenum resolutions must be thoroughly studied and digested by the Pittsburgh District. The failure to order the Plenum pamphlets, to popularize the issues of THE COMMUNIST must be considered as one of the serious obstacles in mebilizing the Party membership for the carrying out of the Plenum line and decisions.

We might also mention the fact that the Pittsburgh District has not contributed a single article to the Plenum discussion in the Daily Worker.

day and 5,000 were ordered for the tag days. Of Wherever you go you find workers selling these these, there are some left, which will be sold in the course of the campaign which still continues and perhaps more will be ordered in the future.

Linking Up a Pamphlet Organizationally with the Campaign It is important to take at each campaign when planning it as to the methods of mass distribution of literature that is connected with the campaign specifically. And because this was done I found for the first time so many people

Educating Those Who Contribute I also think that for tag days especially it should be considered at all times to use some kind of pamphlet directly connected with the campaign for which purpose the tag day is carried instead of buttons or flowers. This way the contributor also is made acquainted with the purpose of his contribution. There is no doubt that better methods of mass distribution of our

How Soviet Workers Spend Their Rest Days

(A Letter From Moscow)

DEAR COMRADES!

We, workers of Moscow, want to tell you how

At 7 o'clock in the morning the Moscow street cars took us to the Jarovslavsky Station of the Northern Railroad. Two years ago the road was electrified and now electric trains run to the station, which bears the name of our workers' paper "Pravda," and where the Green City

MOSCOW WORKERS' CLUB

The workers' government of the Soviet Union, is building clubs, health and cultural centers for the masses, such as the Green City described in this interesting letter.

At the Jaroslavsky Station we hardly had to wait; a loud speaker in the waiting room announced that the train is ready and told us the number of our platform; doors opened, leading to the platform and we quickly went for our places in the cars.

Pleasant Trip

The well kept cars and the speed with which we're going made our trip very pleasant .Without noticing we covered 40 kilometers; we arrived at the station "Pravda" and in a few minutes were in the Green City. Strictly speaking the Green City is not a city as yet, but will be one in the near future. Meanwhile there is only a tourist base, which is our rest house, surrounded by fir trees and pines.

In the rest house 200 factory shock-workers from the October section of Moscow come together. They represented a collective of 300,000 workers. After we got acquainted with each other we found out that on that day the tradeunion active came out here on excursion, which was organized by the trade-union council of the October section. We, there ore, decided to utilize our rest day not only for rest, but to discuss trade-union work and prepare a report on trade-union activities to the All-Union Trade-Union Congress. But, we are interrupted by the leader of physical culture of the rest home; we had to stop our discussion and form into lines for morning excercises. The leader, after a short explanation, began his command: one, two, and so on.

women, but they did not lag behind and participated in all the exercises together with the younger comrades.

After the exercises we rushed for breakfast. The dining room, which is located near the rest-house, impressed us with its immaculate cleanliness. Rays of warm, spring sunshine poured into the windows, playfully shining on the sparklings dishes and seemingly together with us enjoying this beautiful morning. We distributed ourselves at the tables and began to

After breakfast we again go outdoors, warm ourselves in the sunshine, make plans for the day, get better acquainted with work.

These who are interested are invited for a conversation with the doctor. We all go. The doctor tells us the history of the Green City. We find out about the special attention our Communist organ "Pravda" pays to the organization of rest for workers in the Green City, the trouble it takes in organizing us, by devoting much space in its columns to this problem.

The object of the Green City is to organize workers' rest days so that they are full of activity and recreation. Our rest day was spent according to this plan.

We Issue a Wall Paper

A udarnik (shock worker) from the "Pravda," comrade P, brought in a proposal to issue & wall-paper and to read a letter from a German workers. This proposal was accepted unanimously and a campaign editorial board was elected; in the meantime we decided to devote the rest of the meeting to discussing trade-union activities and prepare a report to the IX All-Union Trade Union Congress.

At the end of the meeting the editorial board made an appeal for articles on trade-union work for the wall paper.

In one moment pens and pencils appeared in the hands of the udarniks; all that was not yet said about trade-union work at the meeting the vacationists and supplemented in their articles Thirty articles were handed in the editorial board in 2 hours and the work of issuing the paper began. At 4 o'clock the paper was already hanging on the wall. Then we had din-

After dinner is rest-hour. During this hour the vacationists are to take naps or rest and not interfere with others taking their naps. We lie down in camp beds, men on the first floor and women on the second floor of the building. We lie still; the majority is sleeping.

Entertainment and Education

After rest-hour we get tea and cakes, there is music, piano, harmon'ca and mass plays. Right here the majority roads the wall-peper. In conclusion we have a concert with Moscow

The electric train is speedily moving onward; here we are already in Moscow; we mingle with the noisy crowd. The day is finished. We have 5 working days ahead of us. We will meet them with new vigor, new faith in the victory of so-

(Chinese Workers' Correspondence.)

MAY DAY of this year was welcomed by the Chinese toilers amid their bloody struggles against the Kuomintang and imperialism. Thousands of mill workers in Putung, as well as in the western district in Shanghai, continue their strikes. The armed people in Manchuria are developing their fight against the Japanese invaders. Red armies have not only gained new victories in Kiangsi, Fukien, Hupeh, but also extendede their activities into the frontier of Kansu-Shensi, and the famine struggle intensified along the Yangtze Valley. All these situations gave the masses a greater militancy for celebrating the International Labor Day. Devoting their full strength to breaking the preparatory arrangement of the Shanghai toilers and revolutionary fighters for the May Day demonstration, the imperialist and the Kuomintang police in the city had a very busy time toward the end of April. Informed by the British police, the Kuomintang Bureau of Public Safety raided a house on April 27 off Ferry Road and made two arrests. On April 28 the French police, in the presence of more than 200 armed men, raided 800 housese in the French Concession and arrested some ten young men. On April 0. 19 arrests were effected by the French police in the Y. M. C. A. building on Pashienchiao, where a meeting was held by a group of student delegates of Shanghai colleges and universities. French police, a few days ago, following the bombing of the Japanese highest officials in Shanghai at Hongkew Park during the Japanese Emperor's birthday ceremony, arrested over 50 Koreans and handed them over to the Japanese authorities. The French imperailists have manifested most activity in assisting the Japanese invasion of China.

As its reactionary demonstration, the Nanking Garrison headquarters of the Kuomintang government on April 30 executed 25 Communists in Nanking. All bourgeois dailies in Nanking and Shanghai published, by order of the Kuomintang, this news on May 1 in order to terrorize the masses. Those 25 fighters were mostly connected with the 19th Route Army, which fought heroically the late Japanese invasion of Shanghai. Contrary to the policy of capitulation of the Kuomintang militarists, they intended to convert the late anti-Japanese war into a national revolutionary war. This is the very 'crime' that led them to be arrested and massacred by the Kuomintang authorities. A dispatch from Ninpo, the biggest seaport of the province of Chekiang, dated April 29, stated that 13 men, alleged to be Communists, had been arrested by the local police within the last two

The whole city of Shanghai, the Foreign Settlement, the French Concession and the Kuomintang-ruled town, was put under a garrison of heavily armed police throughout the International Labor Day. Riot vans of the imperialist and the Kuomintang authorities patrolled unceasingly on the streets, important points were posted with armed detectives of both sexes and police, who were instructed to make random search of th epedes-While bans were placed by the Kuomintang police on all meetings and processions intended to be held by public bodies during the month, the foreign authorities have announced a state of emergency in the city to begin from May 1. However vigilant the reactionary agents have been, they could affect very little the activities of the Shanghai revolutionary masses on May Day. On that day, the Shanghai revolutionary workers, particularly, the vanguard among the masses, skillfully performed their celebrations by holding separate demonstrations in the industrial districts as well as in the central district
