POLICE THREATEN SOUTH RIVER MASS FUNERAL

FUNERAL OF BOY IS SET FOR TODAY

Troopers and Police Isolate Town from Rest of State

HOUSE-TO-HOUSE SEARCH Amid Hundreds of Shots Fired by Police

SOUTH RIVER, N. J., Sept. 21.—A reign of terror unparalleled in recent strike struggles in the East was launched against the striking dress-makers here today by local police troopers...

DEMONSTRATE AND PROTEST AGAINST THE SOUTH RIVER SHOOTING!

SUPPORT THE PROTEST STRIKE!

SEND DELEGATES TO MASS FUNERAL OF MURDERED BOY!

OUT WITH THE STATE TROOPERS!

COLLECT AND RUSH RELIEF!

venting all non-residents from coming into it, and the police instituted a house to house search for leading strikers and sympathizers, arresting eight.

The mass funeral scheduled for today (Thursday) for Walter Rozek, 11-year-old son of a striker who was shot through the head and killed on Monday by police, has been prohibited by police authorities but the aroused strikers are determined to pay full workingclass honors to their dead.

A delegation of workers from more than 20 workingclass organizations in New York will attend the funeral as an expression of solidarity with the heroic strikers who have won victories in seven shops and who have declared a protest strike in these shops until Monday in protest at the murder of the boy.

Arrest Strike Delegation Seven strikers who were elected by the Strike Committee to speak at a meeting in Cooper Union in New York, tonight were arrested by state troopers and charged with "instigating" the riot in which police killed Walter Rozek and wounded three others after firing several hundred shots. The police have admitted that they had obtained additional ammunition from police headquarters after using all they carried in their revolvers and revolver belts.

The protest strike remains solid despite the terror in which state troopers accompanied by police are arresting all known militant workers with Jon Doe warrants and are searching homes in the working class neighborhood for alleged caches of arms and ammunition.

The strike started more than two weeks ago when 1,700 women workers in needle shops were given a wage cut. They had been getting as low as $5 a week in many cases. The strike is being led by a rank and file strike committee and is supported by the Needle Trades Workers Industrial Union.

Protest Resolutions. Protest resolutions against the murder of Walter Rozek and the shooting of the three other workers are pouring in on the governor of New Jersey, on the prosecuting attorney in New Brunswick and on the Borough Council of South River from workingclass organizations all over the country.

The strike committees urge workers throughout the country to support the protest strike which has been declared by the victorious strikers against the terror which has been launched to prevent the winning of further victories. It also calls on working class organizations to hold demonstrations throughout the state of New Jersey to demand the withdrawal of state troopers from South River, and to rush relief for the strikers to the Workers International Relief, 11 Plum St., New Brunswick.

HUTCHINSONS IN SCOTLAND ABERDEEN, Scotland, Sept. 21.—The Hutchinsons family, rescued out of the coast of Greenland, arrived here by special plane today from Lairg, Scotland.

Workers Thruout US Send Last Dollars, Pennies, to Save 'Daily'

Letters from All Parts of Country Reveal Mass Support of Our Paper

Workers! Read these letters, written by other workers all over the United States. Their example is a shining beacon, to guide you to the fulfillment of your working class duty! And right now, your class duty is to SAVE THE DAILY WORKER—a Daily Worker which, by its steadfast leadership and guidance has won the devotion and self-sacrifice of thousands of such workers—the base on which is built the strength of our movement.

Speed up your collections of funds! Get every mass organization into activity for the Daily! Rush the half dollars the minute you have them! KEEP THE DAILY ALIVE TO CONTINUE TO INSPIRE SUCH DEEDS AS LIE BEHIND THESE LETTERS!

Speed all funds to the Daily Worker, 50 East 13th Street, New York, N. Y.!

100 INDIAN HEAD PENNIES Coopersburg, Pa. Dear Daily Worker:—Here is a dollar. I wanted to send you some money sooner, but I didn't have any. This evening I suddenly remembered that I had a hundred Indian Head Pennies put away that I had saved a long time ago, so I changed them for this dollar I am sending you. I'm sorry I didn't think of them sooner, and if I get any more money, I'll send it to you. —M.H.

DONATES APPLE TREE. Denver, Colo. Dear Comrades:—Enclosed is a check for $2.20. This money was donated by Comrade U. G. Roberts, who is a steady subscriber for the Daily. She has a small home on the outskirts of Denver, where she raises enough vegetables for her own use and also has some fruit trees. She donated one apple tree to the Daily, and some of us comrades went out this afternoon and picked 120 pounds of apples, which we sold to comrades and sympathizers.

COURT RULES FOR MCKEE TO REMAIN

Communists Demand Election This Fall NEW YORK.—Yesterday Supreme Court Justice John P. McGehean, a good Tammany man, ruled that Acting Mayor McKee should hold office until 1934. This is a decision in the best interests of Wall Street, which regards McKee as a rather better tool for its use than anybody the faction opposed to him has in mind.

There is a strong rumor that Tammany leaders in general are rather glad to be able so easily to slip out of their promises to Walker that he would have a "vindication campaign" this fall.

The decision will have to go to the Appellate Division now for confirmation and reversal. The Communist Party continues its demand for an election this November, and continues to gather signatures to put William L. Patterson on the ballot for mayor.

Patterson Statement Patterson issued a statement yesterday pointing out that McKee is no less an agent of Wall Street than was the late mayor, Jimmy Walker.

When the Committee of the Unemployed Council on September 10 demanded of McKee a definite answer as to whether he would declare a moratorium on the debt service and at the same time have the Board of Estimate approve 100 million dollars as the minimum amount of relief necessary for the unemployed during the coming winter, McKee, first evasively, then categorically, said "No."

Yesterday, McKee, after talking demagogically about his hard-working father, said, "It is a painful task, and so is cutting salaries. . . . The bankers want results, and I have determined to see that they get them."

The bankers demand retrenchment and the cutting of relief. They demand that the workers themselves raise the necessary relief for the more than one million unemployed in the City of New York, and McKee is in full agreement.

Bankers Gather "While McKee was confirming the program of the bankers, a meeting took place in the office of J. P. Morgan and Company, where Mr. Gibson, who headed the Emergency Relief of last year, Cornelius Bliss, (Thomas Lamont, General Harbor, Owen D. Young, Felix Warburg, H. B. Swope, Myron C. Taylor, Charles Schwab, etc., etc., representing the Wall St. bankers, determined on the emergency drive for next winter which will be totally at the expense of the workers.

McKee can no longer pretend any so-called "liberalism" or "interest in the unemployed." He is a downright, open tool of Wall Street, determined to see that Wall Street gets what it demands.

The Communist Party and the Unemployed Council accept this challenge of McKee and Wall Street and will organize the workers and lead them in a fight for adequate unemployment relief and insurance. The unemployed in New York City will not starve and any provocation on the part of McKee will not keep them from getting food and shelter this winter. McKee and Wall Street will get another resounding answer by the workers voting Communist on November 8th.

The present article of Broun is comparable to his previous lying statements that the Communist Party be on the ballot in only 12 or 14 states whereas the party is already on the ballot in 40 states, more states than the Socialist Party, for which Mr. Broun conducts his slanderous campaign.

Registration now going on for Fall Term of Workers' School, 35 E. 12th St., 3rd fl.

James W. Ford, Communist candidate for vice-president of the United States. Hailed by huge crowds of Negro and white workers on National tour. Police attacked his meeting in Los Angeles.

GERMAN FASCISTS TRY TO FRAME 9

Revolver Experts Hit Nazi Testimony (Inpreccor Cable.) BERLIN, Germany, Sept. 21.—Nine workers are on trial accused of murder as a result of a fight in front of the fascist local office. The evidence of the official revolver expert today was that the only bullet marks, twice in number, found on the wall of the house across the street from the fascist office, were those of the persons firing from in front of the fascist office and shooting away from it.

Police Captain Maule testified that revolvers found in the fascist premises were more likely thrown away by the fascists than by the Communists.

Experts Confirm Workers The experts' evidence flatly contradicts the contentions in the indictment and the evidence of the accused workers corroborates the experts' testimony in every respect.

Hearing of the fascist witnesses began today. Although the street where the collision took place was dimly lighted the fascist witnesses declare they recognized the accused workers as their shooters, although they were, so the fascists say, standing across the street.

Even the president of the court was compelled to indicate that the fascist testimony does not tally with the fact that all the bullet marks were found on the wall opposite the fascist office.

The fascist testimony was detailed in a manner impossible to have come about by chance, and indicates careful preparation.

KENTUCKY MINE STRIKE IS WON

Coleman Mine Boss Grants All Demands PINEVILLE, Ky., Sept. 21.—The Coleman mine strike has been won. Now the miners of other mines around here are talking of doing the same.

The mine had been giving its workers no regular pay at all, but only store orders for what they earned. The company store was frequently empty, and the orders were no good anywhere else.

The miners won demands for a regular pay day, for the company store to be kept stocked, and for metal scrip instead of the orders, so that they could trade with peddlers.

The National Miners Union is active here, but there is considerable terror against it, preventing an open organizing campaign.

MARTIAL LAW IN OIL LANDS OKLAHOMA CITY, Okla., Sept. 21.—Martial law has again been declared by Gov. Murray to enforce military restriction on oil fields.

Cleveland Mayor Denies Housing and Food to Veteran Delegates

TO FORM UNITED FRONT TO FORCE BONUS PAYMENT

Delegates Arriving in Cleveland, Will Meet in Painters' Hall

CLEVELAND, Ohio, Sept. 21.—A committee of ex-servicemen, which appeared before the mayor and the city council to demand immediate housing and food for the delegates who will attend the National Rank and File Veterans' Conference which will open here Friday, were definitely refused through a communication received from Mayor Miller at the headquarters of the Workers' Ex-Servicemen's League.

Despite this refusal, the Workers' Ex-Servicemen's League has been successful in securing the Painters' Hall, 203 Euclid Ave., for the conference. Arrangements are being made to take care of the delegates as they arrive.

The Workers' Ex-Servicemen's League, backed by masses of war veterans and unemployed workers, will continue their demands on the city government for food and shelter for 1,000 delegates from Sept. 22 to the morning of Sept. 26 and also garage facilities for the cars and trucks which the delegates will arrive in. Leaflets were distributed broadcast throughout the city today exposing the "liberal mayor" and urging the workers to support the rank and file conference and the veterans' fight for the bonus.

Delegates are already arriving in Cleveland and over three hundred delegates are on the road. More are preparing to leave.

"The conference," said Walter Trumble, National Secretary of the W. E. S. L., "will be the broadest representative united front rally of veterans held thus far in the United States. The delegates coming to Cleveland will represent every post of the Workers' Ex-Servicemen's League and a large number of the delegates will be from posts of the American Legion, Veterans of Foreign Wars, fraternal organizations and clubs. A representation of Negro delegates will be present."

The conference will take up and discuss plans for another national bonus march to the capital when Congress opens. An intensified mass campaign for an increase in disability allowances will be launched during the opening sessions of the conference.

For Negro Rights. Outstanding among the issues to be taken up will be the working out of plans for a vigorous struggle against discrimination against Negro veterans. Following the war Negro veterans have been jim-crowed in the government hospitals and in many cases refused treatment altogether. The conference will demand equal rights for Negroes.

Heywood Broun's Lies! Slandering Wm. Z. Foster

NEW YORK. — C. A. Hathaway, chairman of the Communist National Election Campaign Committee, issued the following statement: "Heywood Broun's statement in the World-Telegram to the effect that William Z. Foster has been removed from the leadership of the Communist Party and is out of the election campaign is a deliberate lie."

"With this statement Broun attempts to even use the sickness of Foster in a futile effort to deceive the masses and to stem the tide of support which is growing for William Z. Foster and the Communist candidates.

"Foster is still the outstanding leader of the Communist Party. He is a member of the secretariat of three which leads the Party.

"Foster is now sick at his home at 1038 Anderson Avenue, Bronx, N. Y., where he has been interviewed by the press, his interviews having been printed by the Herald-Tribune and other papers, but deliberately buried by the World-Telegram.

"The Daily Worker has regularly carried announcements of Foster's health and also statements of Foster on the issues arising in the campaign.

"The present article of Broun is comparable to his previous lying statements that the Communist Party be on the ballot in only 12 or 14 states whereas the party is already on the ballot in 40 states, more states than the Socialist Party, for which Mr. Broun conducts his slanderous campaign."

USSR SHOWS POWERS DO NOT DISARM

Litvinoff Boycotts the Sham Gestures in Commissions

HENDERSON HIDES AIM Spills More Pacifist Demagoguery

GENEVA, Sept. 21.—Maxim Litvinoff, Soviet Foreign Commissar, yesterday informed the League of Nations "disarmament" committee that the Soviet Union would refuse to participate in the technical commission of this "disarmament" conference unless the conference takes decisions in principle promising real disarmament.

Flood of Demagoguery.

Arthur Henderson, discredited British labor leader who is furnishing the labor facade for the elaborate "disarmament" structure of pacifist lies, prepared up intensive imperialist war preparations, informed the steering committee of the Soviet decision. Henderson then launched into a flood of demagoguery aimed at putting over the "disarmament" swindle on the toiling masses who are groaning under the load of increasing armaments and war preparations. He said, nearly eight months after the conference started, governments are still struggling in the matter of economic and financial difficulties. It is right to ask peoples to continue armament burdens. Let us start afresh on a new road. Our arguments are now stronger than ever.

Help War Drive.

Henderson like the leaders of the American Federation of Labor and the Socialist Parties of Europe and the United States, are faithfully helping the imperialists in their frantic drive toward war as a capitalist "way out" of the economic and especially war against the Soviet Union where the workers rule and there is no crisis but an increasingly rapid improvement of the material and cultural conditions of the toiling masses.

Record in Last War.

Today, the reformists are indulging in pacifist phrases in pretended opposition to imperialist war. But, workers, what is their record? In the last World War, they all supported the slaughter of millions of workers in the interests of their various capitalist masters. Vandervelde, one of the present leaders of the Socialist International declared in a speech in Paris on April 18, 1915:

"I have come to you today to speak of the war, to speak in favor of the war, as an international and socialist friend of peace. I am in favor of war to the end. I feel anger with those of our comrades who want to make peace. No! Not until the crime has been followed by its punishment."

Hoover's Disarmament Swindle

WASHINGTON, Sept. 21.—Presenting the Geneva "disarmament" swindle as holding "such promise of progress for the entire world," President Hoover yesterday called upon the German fascist-Junker government to reconsider its decision of non-participation in the new "disarmament" conference which is soon to open in Geneva.

On the same day, the capitalist press reported that the U. S. Navy was spending, with the approval of Hoover, the sum of $8,600,000 for additional war preparations.

In his appeal to Germany, Hoover repudiated the reports contained in Tuesday's Paris dispatches that the Wall Street Government was supporting France and Great Britain in their rejection of Germany's plea for the right to arm openly along with the other imperialist powers. Hoover intimates that he seeks assurance that German arms should be used against the USSR and to strengthen the position of U. S. imperialism in Europe.

New Murder Boat Launched

They called it a disarmament treaty the powers signed in London in 1930 but here is the latest British submarine built under that treaty, the Porpoise, one of the most powerful boats in the world. The fact that U. S. imperialism is also frantically building these undersea murder boats shows the imminent danger of imperialist war.

MASS PICKETING IN REX STRIKE

Refuse to Disperse; Do It Again Tonight

NEW YORK.—The strike of the 200 metal workers of the Rex Products Corp. entered its third week yesterday (Wednesday) with the most militant mass picket demonstration held since it began. Despite the repeated attempts of the cops to disperse them by force the long line of pickets continued to march back and forth in front of the shop, two abreast, enthusiastically shouting their demands and singing picket-songs.

The boss has succeeded in getting a small handful of scabs into the shop, but these are unable to put out any work. The strike is as solid as ever, with the key departments in the shop crippled.

At the strike meeting yesterday morning steps were taken to reorganizing the strike committee and broadening it out.

Separate meetings of all departments were held which elected department committees so as to better be able to check up on the activity of all strikers.

All workers are called to the mass picket demonstration to be held this evening in front of the shop this (Thursday) evening, 5:15 p. m. The address of the shop is 87 University Place, cor. 11th St.

Republican Ward Boss Brings Some Pressure

NEW YORK.—An example of pressure on voters is seen in the sending of personal hand written post cards to certain of them by the Republican party captain. They are ordered to come, bringing the card to the polls in the primary just passed here, and present themselves to the captain. No threats are made in the card, but the worker knows what will happen if he doesn't come. The regular Republican party machine candidates were nominated in the primary.

PIONEER RALLY AT BREADLINE

NEW YORK.—The two children who were freed in the city court after being held for demanding food and milk will speak at a Pioneer rally in front of the Salvation Army breadline at 35 Street and 10th Ave. at 6 p. m. tonight. Workers are requested to attend as this is the first time a meeting is being held in this area.

What's On—

Volunteers wanted to distribute posters and leaflets for the Workers' School fall term. Call at 35 East 12th Street, third floor.

CALL OFF R. R. PAY CUT SESSION

Will Now Use Watson Parker Law

WASHINGTON, D. C., Sept. 21.—The original railroad wage cut plan goes through. The cut will be made by the machinery provided by the government. It will follow the course laid down in the Watson-Parker law, with the companies demanding 23 per cent reductions.

The proposal made last week for the Railroad Brotherhood heads to meet on the wage cut with the Committee of Nine representing all the railroads, was either a sham, to give the Brotherhood chiefs a chance to pretend militant rejection of the cut, or it was countermanded at the last minute by Brotherhood officials fearful of revolt among the rank and file.

Whitney's Letter.
Today A. F. Whitney, Chairman of the Brotherhood's negotiations committee wrote to W. P. Thiehoff, head of the company's committee.

"We are unanimously of the opinion that a wage conference at this time would be unwise, and that, having no authority to enter upon such a conference, we should not either seek such authority or encourage any effort to inaugurate wage negotiations.

"You know that the railway employees have suffered not only a 40 per cent loss of employment," Whitney told Thiehoff, "but that a majority of those working have had no part, time employment with a 10 per cent deduction from compensation.

"You know that our conditions have grown steadily worse since the agreement of January 31, 1932. No one would truly represent the employees by encouraging any effort to do anything except to improve present conditions."

Form Committees!
The Trade Union Unity League long ago urged the Railroad Workers to prepare to resist the wage cut by electing rank and file committees of action in all lodges of the Brotherhoods, and by starting agitation and introducing resolutions in the lodge meetings to reject any cut.

LO PRESTI SHOE STRIKE IS WON

75 Workers Led By Militant Union

NEW YORK.—The strike at Lo Presti Shoe Co. conducted by the Shoe and Leather Workers Industrial Union was settled yesterday with a victory for the strikers. This firm employs over 75 workers. Two weeks ago the bosses tried to break their organization in the shop by refusing to deal with the shop committee. The whole crew went out on strike. The boss could not break the lines of the crew with his threats that he is closing up the shop.

The firm was compelled to call the committee for a settlement. The settlement is on the basis of:

1. Shop Committee recognition.
2. Hiring of new help through the Committee.
3. No discrimination.
4. Equal division of work.

The crew expressed their full conviction that the policy of the union will finally lead to full union recognition.

Important Meeting
A special membership meeting of slipper workers only will be held tomorrow, September 22, 9 p. m. at the Manhattan Lyceum, 66 East Fourth St. The union calls this meeting to begin the organization drive in the slipper trade. All slipper workers are called to come to this very important meeting.

All shoe workers are called to celebrate the Negro population, parades, demonstrations, visits to Negro organizations for funds and support.

Thursday, Oct. 6, city-wide distributions of leaflets announcing large central demonstrations. Visiting of fraternal and cultural organizations.

Factory Gate Meeting

"HOUSE OF DEATH" OPENS AT ACME THEATRE TOMORROW
One of the darkest spots of Russian history—the reign of Nicholas I—is the background for the new Soviet film, "House of Death," which will be shown at the Acme Theatre starting tomorrow. The picture tells the story of the Russian author Dostoevski.

It was during the rule of Nicholas I that the first signs of opposition to the old regime appeared. The middle class was rising and with this the beginnings of a workers movement. These conflicting forces clashed and the czar used exile, flogging, imprisonment, censorship and every other means to suppress the revolutionary circles which carried on the propaganda for the new order.

One of the most important circles of this period was the Petrashevsky group, named after its leader. The members of this organization were young teachers, army officers, writers without a definite program, but they all offered their individual remedies of mysticism, religion and utopian communism. Dostoevski was a member of this group and for associating with them he was exiled to Siberia. The film, "House of Death," traces the activities of this group and shows the young, fiery Dostoevski capitalizing on the autocracy as a result of a sentence to hard labor in Si-

Painters Turn Lockout Into Strike; Compel New Boss to Settle

NEW YORK.—Three weeks ago the painters of the Lubinsky Paint Shop committee, - Jake a strike breaker of the Brownsville Local of the Brotherhood of Painters got busy supplying scabs. This is the only work he could get the union members.

One contractor by the name of Epstein, found that it does not pay to try and fight the Alteration Painters Union, because it is a losing battle.

In spite of the supply of scab contractors and painters by the Brotherhood, the workers in the shop turned the lockout into a strike, and under the leadership of the Alteration Painters Union won the strike. Lubinsky has been forced to give up the painting business. A contractor signed with the union by the name of Manister took over all the work, and put to work all the painters who were locked out.

The strike at the Skaler Construction Co. is continuing solid. The workers have turned back about 100 scabs who tried to work. The strikers are determined to fight until the strike is won. The strike is for an increase in wages.

DOCK WAGE CUT STILL PENDING

Ryan Has Already Given Big Reduction

NEW YORK.—Ryan, the International Longshoremen's Association president stated yesterday that the committee of the shippers that the offer of 75 cents per hour and $1 an hour overtime was rejected. Ryan himself had proposed the 75 cent strike time scale, a wage cut of ten cents an hour from the present wage. He also proposed a rate of $1.10 an hour for overtime, a wage cut of ten cents an hour.

Such opposition has been aroused among the longshoremen that Ryan hesitates to go through with the thing strictly on time scale, a wage cut of ten cents out of negotiations, however, but promises another meeting Friday.

While this haggling over ten cents on the overtime is going on, the Marine Workers Industrial Union has urged the longshoremen to prepare to strike, under leadership of their own elected committees, against wage cuts in overtime or in straight time.

Call Needle Workers, Furriers to Take Part in Press Bazaar Work

Needle trades workers, particularly fur workers, are called upon to give active participation to the campaign to make the Sixth Annual Press Bazaar at Madison Square Garden a success, according to a statement issued by the National Press Bazaar Committee, 50 E. 13th St., yesterday.

"Only two weeks are left for preparation," reads the call. "Work must therefore be intensified immediately."

The committee also stated that greetings from individuals and organizations must come in immediately to assure the publication of the souvenir program.

Miner States "S. P." Collections Don't Reach Coal Fields

NEW YORK.—Luther Williams, a Kentucky miner collecting relief here for the strikes in the mine fields, states that he was at the Socialist Party meeting Sunday, and saw a collection taken up ostensibly for the miners. He states further, that to his personal knowledge, the miners do not get any of this money.

MILLS' CASE IS SENT TO DOAK

Marchers' Militancy Saved Him Once

NEW YORK.—The case of A. W. Mills, who is threatened with deportation for his activities among the unemployed workers, was referred to Secretary of Labor Doak for a final decision, after yesterday's hearing before Immigration Commissioner MacIntosh at Ellis Island.

The hearing started at 10 o'clock yesterday and ended at 4 o'clock in the afternoon. Mills was assisted by Schwab, attorney for the International Labor Defense. He was charged with having organized the National Hunger March in which thousands of workers participated last Fall, and with having mobilized workers for struggle in Pittsburgh and Buffalo.

Asked whether and why he thinks that his deportation should not be carried out, Mills maintained his right to organize the employed and unemployed workers for the struggle against misery and starvation.

The hearing brought to light an important document showing the importance of mass fight as the only means of defeating the attempts to arrest and deport workers. Mills was shown a statement by the Washington Police Department and the Department of Justice addressed to the Immigration Inspector who had demanded that Mills be arrested while addressing the workers participating in the National Hunger March.

The statement declared that "in view of the excitement and the militancy of the workers to call upon Mills while on the platform or to take him off the platform while speaking would mean just as much as if a stick of dynamite would be thrown in the hall. Such action would cause a terrible fight and the Negroes would fight like tigers."

Had it not been for the fighting mood of the workers and especially the Negro workers, Mills would have been arrested in Washington, this document revealed.

Member of Communist Party.
Mills declared that he is a member of the Communist Party but frustrated the efforts of the Immigration officials to label the National Hunger March as a purely Communist demonstration. Mills stated that while the Communist Party supported the National Hunger March, its leader was the National Committee of the Unemployed Councils, representing workers of every political opinion.

The hearing established beyond even the shadow of a doubt that the deportation of Mills, as well as the deportation of Berkman and other militant workers, is being sought as a means of weakening the struggle of the employed and unemployed workers against the hunger offensive of the bosses.

The workers must therefore intensify the struggle in defense of Mills, Berkman and others, flooding "Secretary of Deportations" Doak with telegrams of protest.

Trial This Morning of Four Bronx Workers

NEW YORK.—The trial of the four workers brutally beaten up and arrested by police thugs who attacked a meeting at 170th St. and Walton Ave. will be held this morning at 10 a. m. at the court at 161st St. and Brook Ave. Workers are asked to turn out in mass at the trial.

Tonight an open air protest meeting will be held at 170th St. and Walton Ave. under the auspices of the Communist Party. All workers' mass organizations are urged to participate.

Skaler Strike in Good Shape, But Needs More Pickets

NEW YORK.—The Skaler Construction Co. strike is in its second week with the morale of the strikers as good as ever. The boss has some hired gangsters and the aid of the police from the nearby station house. With the air of the other locals of the Alteration Painters Union, the strikers held a mass picket demonstration Sept. 10 that stopped even the work in the boss' office.

The strike is in good shape, but help is needed on the picket lines. Pickets report daily at 1130 Southern Blvd. at 8 a. m. and 4 p. m.

CALL 2,000,000 TO FARM STRIKE

Picket Despite Order Against It by Ass'n

DES MOINES, Ia., Sept. 21.—Today is the official date for the beginning of the farmers' strike in 11 middle western states, with a farm population of 2,000,000. The strike is declared by the Farmers Holiday Association, along with "advice" against picketing.

Farmers in Nobles and Clearwater County, Minn., are already on strike, and are picketing in defiance of Farmers Holiday leaders' orders to the contrary.

Mass meetings in North Dakota seem to have rallied the farmers of 30 counties for the strike.

In Cambridge, Minn., some 4,000 farmers gathered Saturday, Sept. 10, from Chicago, Kenebec and Isanti and voted to strike, practically unanimously, only two voted against it.

Farmers at this meeting told of selling a 500 pound steer for $5. One said he shipped a cow to market and got back only nine cents.

Form District Class On Negro Problems

The immediate necessity of clarifying the Party membership on the Negro question is today one of the most important tasks facing the Party in the New York district. Recent reports show that there is a great lack of understanding of the Negro question as that of a national minority.

As a step toward overcoming this situation, the district has organized a central district class on Negro problems for members of Section Buros and Committees and leading activists in Negro work. The class will start on Saturday, September 24th at 3:30 p. m. at the Workers School, 35 East 12th St., 3rd floor. Comrade Jim Allen, author of "The American Negro" will be the teacher.

Sections which have not sent in their application blanks must do so at once. Only those students whose applications are in the hands of the district will be admitted to the class.

AMTER TO TALK ON TAMPA TERROR

Thursday Meet Also to Hear McBride

NEW YORK.—The United Front Tampa Committee announces that Israel Amter, candidate for Governor on the Communist Party election ticket, will speak at an open air meeting Thursday evening at 106th St. and 2nd Ave. Amter will deal with the Tampa case and its significance for the workers of Lower Harlem.

The Committee also announces that Al W. McBride, just returned from Tampa, where he spent seven months in jail because of his activity in organizing the Tampa workers and farmers, will also speak.

—This meeting is one of the several being held in preparation for the mass demonstration to be held throughout the streets of Lower Harlem on October 1 in protest against the terror in Tampa, and against the Federal injunction outlawing the members of the Tobacco Workers' Industrial Union, and for the release of the 14 class war prisoners of Tampa.

MOVE TO OUTLAW ALL RENT STRIKES

Unemployed Council Calls for Struggle

NEW YORK.—The Unemployed Council of Greater New York, 10 E. 17th Street, yesterday vigorously condemned the attempt of the Bronx Landlords' Association to have the City pass a law making the organization of a rent strike a crime, and called for united action on the part of the workers to fight the proposed bill.

The statement issued by the Unemployed Council said, in part: "The Bronx Landlords' Association has launched a campaign to have the New York City government pass a law making the organization or agitation for a rent strike a crime.

"The answer of the workers to this attack on our right to organize must be more organization. In every house and block let us build the Unemployed Councils. Under the leadership of the Unemployed Councils we must unitedly resist every eviction. The mass rent strike, spread over whole sections of the city, must be our answer to the landlords who charge rober rents and to the city and its courts which evict those who cannot pay. Not through appeals to the bosses' courts such as are being indulged in now by the Socialist Party misleaders of the Tenants' League in the Bronx, but militant united struggle of the workers will the fight for lower rents be won."

Hail the Protest Strike of the South River Workers!

WORKERS all over the United States must hail the action of the South River, New Jersey strikers in continuing for one week their victorious strike against wage cuts as a protest against the murder of nine year old Walter Rojek and the shooting of three other workers by hired gunmen imported from Newark by the Mayor and needle trade bosses of South River.

This protest strike, coming after the successful termination of a militant battle in which the workers forced the return of the wage cut, has the highest political significance. It is the angry answer of the aroused working class of South River to the bestial wave of capitalist terror, which sweeping over the United States, has invaded the little industrial town of South River and attempted to drown in blood the struggle of the workers there against the starvation policy of the bosses.

The experience of the South River workers is that of workers in every corner of "free, democratic" America. The young strikers of South River have received a lesson in American democracy they were never taught in the public schools they left so short a time ago. Capitalist terror at the hands of racketeer scum, hired by the bosses and cloaked with police authority to cow the workers—this is the answer of the capitalist class to the mounting wave of working class struggle against hunger and starvation.

The murder of nine year old Walter Rojek is of a piece with the burning out of the veterans from Washington, with the attempted legal lynching of the nine Negro boys in Scottsboro, with the murder of workers resisting evictions, with the bloody suppression of unemployed workers everywhere demanding relief, with the slaughter of four workers by Henry Ford-Mayor Murphy police in Detroit. It is part of the whole campaign of terror instituted by the capitalist class against all sections of the toiling masses.

AGAINST this black reaction, the militant working class are forming and will build a solid united front to resist with granite hardness every effort of the boss class to pierce its ranks. The action of the South River workers in declaring the one week protest strike against this terror is a beacon light to workers everywhere. In this political protest strike the workers are forging a new weapon to beat back the brutal capitalist offensive. Workers everywhere should back up this strike with greeting, resolutions of solidarity, delegations expressing support and material relief. The immediate widespread response from the toilers to this action will mark a new page in the rising tide of battle. It will stimulate the unification of the workers ranks, that will strike terror into the hearts of the brutal enemy.

The splendid militancy of the young workers of South River in the face of police terror is a striking confirmation of the fact that the youth, under the hammer blows of the crisis, are more and more coming to the fore as leaders, together with the adult workers, in the struggle against hunger, starvation and terror.

The mass funeral for Walter Rojek, to be held today, will be not only an occasion for mourning. It will be a symbol of determination of the workers of South River, as of the workers all over the United States, that this bloody campaign of capitalist terror will not go unchallenged by the working class. It must be the signal for militant workers everywhere to close ranks and march forward in the fight against the capitalist attacks and around the six central demands of the Communist Party in the coming elections, one of which is "Against capitalist terror; against all forms of suppression of the political rights of workers."

All hail to the protest strike of the workers of South River!

Mayor McKee and the Bankers

A FURTHER and more drastic cut in the miserable relief is foreshadowed in Mayor McKee's retrenchment program ostensibly designated to stave off the "bankruptcy of the treasury." "The city must economize to satisfy the bankers," the mayor said. "The bankers want results and I am determined to see that they get them." All of which only shows that the new mayor is the worthy successor to Jimmy Walker, and is a tool of the big banking interests. It further shows that the real rulers of New York, as of the other cities of the United States, are not the "people" but the bankers.

The mayor makes the plea that the city is facing bankruptcy, which would mean that the expenditures of the city far exceeds its income. His conclusion is that to stave off bankruptcy, the masses of the toilers must make sacrifices. Sacrifices, of course, are not demanded of the bankers.

ACCORDING to the mayor, the bankers must have their loans repaid, loans which go to keep up the large army of police, pay huge salaries and which go into the pockets of the big capitalist politicians and their henchmen in the form of graft. If these expenditures would be cut down and the huge wealth of the bankers and the industrial magnates taxed, the city would not be bankrupt. There is enough wealth accumulated in New York and scattered out of the toiling masses to supply the needs of the hungry and starving. But Mayor McKee does not want to tax the wealth and income of the bankers. He prefers to cut the salaries of the low paid city employees, to reduce relief already on the starvation level, to introduce more forced labor, to throw the burdens of the crisis and capitalist waste upon the shoulders of the poor. McKee works hand in hand with the bankers. He uses the same false plea of bankruptcy to cut relief as did Mayor Murphy of Detroit whom, the socialists praised and supported.

THE workers of New York must realize that against the bankers and their tools the city government, only united ranks and mass struggle can get relief. To plead with the bankers and its tool in office will avail nothing. The formation of committees of the unemployed, united with the employed workers in the shops with those who are suffering wage cuts, and the carrying of demonstrations and other mass actions can force relief for the coming winter. But it is likewise clear that day to day fight for relief, against the city governments alone, that are cutting down relief, will not give assurance against hunger. The need for unemployment insurance paid for by the bosses and the government stands out clearer than ever before. In the election campaign, the workers must rally around the Communist Party as the only party fighting for relief and unemployment insurance, fighting to overthrow the rule of the bankers.

Editor, Daily Worker, Dear Comrade:

Did you know that one "Daily" on a newsstand gets five readers within two weeks? Well, it does. I've tried it at several candy stores and about the same thing happens. Order your Daily and insist that they put it on the stand until you call for it. Also after you read it pass it to your fellow workers in the shop. First she calls you a Red, then she gives you an earful of "those dirty Reds," but because the paper is free, she'll read it. Next day she'll ask questions. "A war? Unemployment insurance, etc.?" Then she tells you all she knows. Two workers killed 'township. Where is the nearest club in the neighborhood of Fifth St. Workers, another reader! Another

Enclosed $1.00 donation, and I want to say the Daily has improved the past few months. The articles and stories are great, the international news, in more detail form, is a vast improvement over the news flashes, and such articles as "Foster's Speech" in Ohio was very good. Altogether I have noticed a very much improved workers' paper. Good work, comrades. It's needed more than ever now. Comradely yours, ALBERT COOK.

Problem of Cadres in the Party

By TZIRUL (Installment IV.)

THE PROBLEM of strengthening the Party must be solved by making a number of changes in the methods of Party work. This applies particularly to the methods of work in the Party committees. The Party organs must guarantee the activation of all their members: more workers must be drawn into active Party work than heretofore. We must no longer have a state of affairs where the work is done not by the whole committee but only by a few members or the secretary. This does not mean that we must have a larger staff of paid Party workers. On the contrary, in some cases (for instance in the C. P. of America) this staff must be reduced. A redundant Party apparatus leads to the bureaucratization of Party work, to work by circulars, to isolation from the masses.

WORK IN PARTY COMMITTEES. Comrades must be made to understand that it is their Party duty to work in the Party committee. This applies above all to the members of the given committee, and after them also to other activists. Members of the Party committee from the factories must above all establish a connection between the committee and the factory; they must keep the Party committee informed about the mood of the workers in their factory, about their own activity and that of their nucleus, they must secure influence for the Party, first in the factory, and then also in their own district.

Collective work in the leading organs must be accompanied by the development of self-criticism. This will be conducive to bringing to light new forces and giving them an opportunity to show what they can do. On the other hand, this guarantees the possibility of finding out incapable workers and replacing them by others.

In order to help the new Party workers, one must organize conferences of instruction on various questions, courses, etc. Great help can be given them through instruction, who certainly must not only familiarize themselves with the situation in the various nuclei and organizations, but must also help the local workers to bring a change and an improvement into their work.

To equip the Party cadres with the revolutionary theory of Marxism-Leninism is one of the most important parts of cadre training, all the more so as there are Party members still in the grip of social democratic traditions, and as many Party workers have not had a serious Marxist-Leninist preliminary training.

"THEORY AND PRACTICE." Meanwhile, one frequently notices an inadmissible disdain for theory on the part of some Party activists. "Over-burdened with practical work," such is frequently their excuse for not giving more time to reading Marxist-Leninist literature, of which in most cases there isn't very much in the various Parties. Neglect or theory is demonstrated by the, in some cases, inadmissible small editions of Marxist-Leninist literature, and of periodical publications of the Parties.

With the exception of a few Communist Parties (the C. P.'s of Germany and Poland) which have already a definite, though far from adequate, network of Party education, there is hardly any serious attempt to raise the theoretical level of the Party activists. The network of schools and circles is restricted and not permanent. The school syllabuses are too ambitious and dissociated from the immediate tasks and activities of the Party. It frequently happens that sensible and well written literature is conspicuous by its absence. Problems of Party construction do not receive sufficient attention in the periodical press of the Parties, in Party journals, in the newspapers, etc.

Hardly any of the Parties (except some beginnings in the C. P.'s of Czechoslovakia and France) have as yet been able to produce a manual on the history of their Party. Without bold promotion on a large scale of new forces of the proletariat, armed with revolutionary Marxist-Leninist theory, it is impossible to do justice to the overgrowing tasks of the Communist Parties—winning of the majority of the working class and leadership in the class struggles of the proletariat. More attention to Party cadres!

(The End)

HUNGER IN A RICH CITY MOUNT VERNON, N. Y.—Out of a population of 22,000 there are 10,000 unemployed workers in Mount Vernon, yet the only relief this rich city gives is work for 100 to 150 a week, for $3 to $4 a day. Those who get work are either friends of politicians or heads of big families in desperate need.

When I asked for relief at the relief bureau the answer was: First, you are single, and we can do nothing for you, and second, you hang around the Workers' Center on South 8th Ave.

We are organizing our Unemployed Council, and when we go to the relief bureau by the thousands we will make them listen.

—Unemployed Worker.

Correction

In a review of "The Farmers' Way Out" published in the Sept. 21 issue of the Daily Worker, the price was erroneously given as 10 cents. The correct price is 1 cent each, to be ordered from Workers' Library Publishers, Station D, New York.

Digging Coal at Muzzle of Guns in Southern Illinois

By FRED GILLETTE.

WEST FRANKFORT, Ill.—Despite the peace and calm of the early September afternoon you get the impression of dozens of unseen eyes watching your movements; the husky with the gray slouch hat who eyed you when you got off the train, the policeman on the beat, everybody knows a stranger in town. And a stranger in town nowadays when goods are rotting on the shelves is hardly likely to be a traveling salesman, these fellows figure. Therefore, every stranger is a probable Red.

After a few hours in this town you understand more clearly what it's all about; a veritable Chinese wall of terror has been thrown up about Franklin County.

Edmondson's gangster rule like a bevy of drunken czars. (Edmondson is a Lewis agent—at one time self-appointed leader of a "rank and file" movement.—Ed. Note.)

MINERS are forced to work at the muzzle of guns. One miner, an old grizzled resident of the fields for the last fifteen years, said: "The whole county of miners is a wanting to come out. But they can't come out while Edmondson's gun thugs run riot over the fields. He revealed that a number of miners have been shot for speaking their minds. That if a miner does not appear at work in the morning he is visited during the day by a committee of gunmen who 'want to know the reason why.' Every foreign born miner is considered 'a god damned Red hunky son-of-a-bitch'."

EVERYBODY WEARS A BADGE

Terror equalling that of Harlan County, if not exceeding it, exists here. Every businessman in the city has been deputized: the local barber, the doctor, the grocer has had a gun flung into his hands and a badge pinned on his chest. "If you don't—well, ain't responsible," they are told by the thugs. A barber, satisfying himself he was speaking to no secret emissary of Lewis or Peabody, said as he looked warily about him, that he had been terrorized into acting on the "Citizens' committee" the fascist militia organized since the march on Franklin County. "I was told unless I did so, I would be fined $200—and his voice fell to a whisper, 'maybe more would happen to me.' Boy scouts 15 and 16 years of age packed guns as deputy sheriffs during the march on Franklin County.

The miners' lot is hell on earth here. As one native, ex-100 per center told me: "They might forgive Lewis and Walker in heaven for what they have done to us, but I'll be god damned if we'll ever forgive them down on earth here. Their bitterness was never so great. They are looking across the horizons of the county boundary for aid from the newly organized union, the Progressive Miners of America. They are looking for another decent organized march—not like the well-hazard one last time—which will succeed in breaking down the terror. One miner blaved Ansbury and Allard for not having endorsed the march at the beginning of the revolt, in April, for the creation of broad strike committees in Franklin County. "We could have halted this terror if we'd organized then," he said. "But Ansbury and Allard did not get behind us."

"P.M.A." As It Is in Action

The miners dare not assemble in groups of three on the streets; they are forbidden to talk in the gloom of the mine rooms; their locals dare not hold meetings; a 15 cent levy on their wages above the regular dues forced from them by the Lewis-Walker gang—a tribute they must pay to the union for the privilege of having an army of gun thugs fostered on them; or paying the super-salaried salaries of Lewis and Walker who are driving them into the ground.

One miner reacted bitterly at the mention of Ansbury's name: "One week before the march," he said, "On August 18 at the mass meeting in Zeigler, we asked what to do next. Ansbury threw up his hands.

The Meaning of Wall Street—

Wall Street, By Anna Rochester.

International Pamphlets, 50c.

Reviewed by ROBERT J. KENTON

WALL STREET, says Anna Rochester in her excellent pamphlet, commonly means "the world of trading in stocks and bonds." This, it is pointed out, while important, is of lesser importance than the "wealth drawn directly from industry and banking and the resulting power which centers in the Wall Street area." Wall Street grew up with the country—the development of large scale industry and the consequent need of huge sums of money for industrial purposes gave control into the hands of those able to supply this need. Today, there is no real line of demarcation between industry and banking. Wall Street has resulted in the fusion of the two.

Wall Street, the pamphlet shows, is still dominated by a small number of financiers. The oldest and still the most powerful is the banking firm of J. P. Morgan and Co. Morgan is believed to have controlled in 1929 over one-sixth of the total corporate wealth of American capitalism. The Rockefellers, Kuhn, Loeb, and other Titans, and also the richest bankers and industrialists outside of Wall Street proper but within its orbit, reach out over the country as a gigantic octopus, involving in its grip every industry, every large corporation and practically every important bank.

Wall Street makes certain of its control of the economic life of the country by its control of the various political parties, the pamphlet points out. It is well known that the Republican and Democratic Parties are the handmaids of the banking and industrial fraternity. But the Socialist Party also bolsters up the rule of Wall Street, while seeming to oppose it.

This little volume should be distributed by the thousands all over the country, and its price—only five cents, three cents if ordered by the hundred—makes this wide distribution possible. Order from Workers' Library Publishers, Box 148, Station D, New York City, or from the Workers' Bookshop in your city.

"Fellows," Ansbury said, "I don't know what the hell to advise. Go back to your locals and decide for your selves." The miner's opinion was that at that time Ansbury did not gauge the mass solidarity thru-out the fields; that he was ready to capitulate to the terror in Franklin County; that he fled the Keystone County of the field in the face of the terror. "Only when the masses of miners insisted on marching on Franklin County, did Ansbury fall behind the march. And then he led the march five miles in the air—in an airplane, instead of being on the firing line, the miner said.

SOME of the mines in this county are dumping the coal on the ground; storing up what they can't sell at the moment, foreseeing the possibility of an irresistible revolt within the county one of these days. The attempts of the mine owners to fan into flames prejudice against the foreign born miners will not succeed. For conditions are growing unbearable even for the native-born miners. The county garchy, of Edmondson, a republican, the democratic sheriff and district attorney, the Shelton gangsters from East St. Louis can only last so long and no longer. "The straw is coming soon that will break the camel's back," this miner said.

It was enlightening to learn that "Buddy" Moore, state policeman who was "discharged" from the force for beating up too many miners, and whose life was in constant danger, has been appointed night watchman of Orient Mine No. 1 to replace the killer Sutton, who shot Joe Colbert, the militant secretary of Local 203 of Orient No. 1, August 17. Sutton is said to have murdered nine men to date.

BIGGEST IN THE WORLD

The 7,000 miners of Franklin County are employed chiefly at Orient No. 1, at Orient; and New Orient No. 2, at West Frankfort; the C. W. and F., Ild Ben Coal Co. mines, the Brewton mines and the Bell Zoller No. 2. To give you a picture of the capacity of these mines: Franklin County in 1931 produced more than nine million tons. First in production came the New Orient with 651,000 tons; next the Old Ben Coal Co. No. 15, with 534,000 tons, and third the Bell Zoller No. 2 with 373,000 tons. The New Orient No. 2 at West Frankfort is said to be the biggest mine in the world; it holds all the world's records for hoisting.

THESE are the reasons the UMWA and the coal operators are determined not to allow Franklin County to exercise the "democratic rights guaranteed us by our Constitution" as the leaders of the PMA put it very, very mildly. Then the pendulum swings to talk of "fighting fire with fire on the next march to Franklin County." Right now, the heat of strike still pervades the coal fields.

Howard, at a mass meeting in O'Fallon yesterday, Barney O'Flaherty, a leader of the PMA appealed to all the miners who can pray to get down on their knees and pray for the success of the new union; but as a miner said to me afterward, "prayer won't get you into Franklin County." The rank and file of the new union must press their leadership forward for action on this keystone point, before it is too late.

FRESH AIR IN SOUTH BEND

FORCED LABOR IN THE STUDEBAKER PLANTS

By GEORGE COOPER.

EVERY year, in the spring, it was the custom in South Bend, Ind., to wash from the stores and housefronts the year's accumulation of soot from the hundreds of factory chimneys. It was not only a custom, but a necessity, for the thick smoke pouring out, day and night left a black pall on the city and its 120,000 population. But for the last two years South Bend has not cleaned its fronts, for it has not been necessary; little smoke has appeared over the housetops. For two years the air in South Bend has been clean. The workers have had plenty of fresh air, but since this is the capitalist system, with everything owned by the bosses and without unemployment insurance, clean, fresh air in South Bend has meant poverty, hunger and starvation.

"RELIEF" ON ACCOUNT!

The huge Studebaker automobile plant dominates this city; and it has been running at a fraction of its normal output for the last two years. Twenty-five thousand men used to work in Studebaker's; most of them have not been fired, but neither do they work. Fifteen thousand of them, those with families, receive "relief" from Studebaker; but the relief has a big long string attached to it. Each family gets about $4 a week in groceries; but the relief is charged against the men's future salaries; and, needless to say, the Studebaker Company sees to it that any man gets just enough work to pay for his groceries. In other words, the men get no relief at all; they are simply getting work sufficient for a $4 weekly pay check. This saves the company money, which means saving money for Studebaker, which pays so much less taxes. It amounts to a new wrinkle in the country-wide system of forced labor for relief.

NEXT to Studebaker, the largest plant in South Bend is the Bendix Brake Company. Its president, Vincent Bendix, is one of the great playboys of the fast wealthy set; it is nothing for him to spend $25,000 on a single wild party at his Florida home. Meanwhile, his workers starve or work themselves to death. I have seen a pay check for $22 for ninety hours work in a week. The factory seems built for the purpose of creating drafts in which the workers take sick.

Now all the factories in South Bend are closed. There is Wilson Brothers, which makes shirts, who have worked up a scheme for making goods cheap. Pay practically no wages, use strong, young girls and work them to a frazzle. The wages run from $3 to $5 a week; the girls are employed only in their best years of youth, from sixteen to twenty years of age; no girl over twenty years is employed. And before any girl is employed she is given a very thorough examination to make sure that enough work will be gotten out of her. SINGER AND RED FODDER I drove by the enormous Singer Sewing Machine plant; empty, dark, silent, a handful of men at the gate. What a contrast to the picture recently presented in the Daily Worker by Myra Page of the former Singer Sewing Machine plant in the Soviet Union! Here unemployment and hunger; there happy workers secure whether they work or not.

The fight for adequate unemployment relief moves slowly, "thanks" to the socialists and the churches. If anyone wants to see what is meant by the social fascist danger, let him come to South Bend. The socialists have gone the whole hog. They have actually gone so far as to organize fake Unemployed Councils and to call them by the name of "Unemployed Councils!" And they claim the national affiliation, so that the "American Guardian" declared, when South Bend fake councils endorsed Norman Thomas, that the national committee of unemployed councils had endorsed Thomas!

THE clay officials appreciate deeply the function of the socialists. While there is a terror continually going on against the real Unemployed Council, and two of its most active workers, Leo Lipinski and Antony Yakinski, are now held in prison for deportation, the socialists are not only not molested but are given aid. The city and the bosses give them quarters rent free, free electricity, and provide them trucks for their humming expeditions, while the real Unemployed Council struggles along on the pennies its own workers scrape together.

TWO UNITED FRONTS!

One third of South Bend's population is Polish and Catholic. The priests exhort their parishioners to yield to the boss to suffer excommunication. Here is the command of Monsignor Osadnick, the head of the Polish Catholics, to his starving flock: "If any Communists come to your doors to call you to the Unemployed Councils, greet them with boiling water."

SUCH is the united front of politicians, bosses, socialists and priests, with which the fight against starvation has to contend. The workers—employed and unemployed—are beginning to answer this unholy trinity with a real united front of labor.

THE SCOTTSBORO MOTHER'S ARREST

Jailing in Czecho-Slovakia Coincides With Welcome to Mayor Cermak of Chicago

By J. LOUIS ENGAHL.

THE SCOTTSBORO Negro Mother, Mrs. Ada Wright, spent three days and three nights in the police stations, jails and prisons of Kiochno and Prague, in Czecho-Slovakia. This attempt to silence the Scottsboro appeal failed. It may be said that it was heard louder throughout Czecho-Slovakia, and out into the neighboring nations, with the Negro Mother in prison, than in any of the dozen countries so far visited where the attempted humiliation of prison bars was not forced upon her.

PRESS IS FAVORABLE

The Czecho-Slovakian press, with few exceptions, was filled for days with favorable mention of the Scottsboro struggle. The outstanding exception was the "Veser," personal organ of Minister of the Interior Slavik, who sent Mrs. Wright to prison. This government organ and voice of the agrarian reaction loudly applauded the expulsion decree issued against Mrs. Wright, whom it denounced as a "Bolshevik Negro Woman" and as "A Black Communist."

THERE are no doubt many reasons why the Scottsboro Negro Mother should be jailed first in Czecho-Slovakia. The president of the republic, T. G. Masaryk, at one time professor in the University of Chicago, the Rockefeller Standard Oil University, is keenly sensitive to the pressure that emanates from Washington through the American Embassy in Prague. October 10, when the United States Supreme Court in Washington will hear the Scottsboro appeal is rapidly approaching, and embassies all over Europe are getting progressively more nervous with the increasing protest against the planned judicial lynching of the Scottsboro boys. It may be said that the American Ambassador, in all the thirteen countries he sought to smash the Scottsboro Mother's tour with prison bars. This resulted in two expulsions from Belgium. The diplomatic ambition, however, has so far been successful only in Czecho-Slovakia, and with it the Scottsboro issue looms bigger than ever in the Masaryk republic. Mrs. Wright went to prison with head erect and firm faith in her cause, and she was vindicated by the ever-broadening basis developed for the Scottsboro struggle.

"AN UNDESIRABLE FOREIGNER"

She was charged with being an "undesirable foreigner." What "undesirable" means in this instance may be judged by the fact that this same Czecho-Slovakian government, not many days before had acclaimed the mayor of Chicago, Anthony J. Cermak, born in the same Kiochno where Wright was arrested. Official Kiochno had prepared festivities for Mayor Cermak, head of the Chicago police department that carries through the worst oppression of workers, especially Negro workers, two of whom were shot dead in the police war against the protest of the jobless against the eviction of some of their comrades from their homes. Official Kiochno sent Mrs. Wright to jail claiming she had come to talk "politics," that she intended mixing in the "internal affairs" of the country.

It may be said, however, that Czecho-Slovakia's official regime unwittingly helped themselves in giving added political significance to the Scottsboro persecution which is an outgrowth of the national oppression of the Negro masses in the United States. The Germans, Slovaks, Ruthenians and other national minorities, forced into this artificial creature of the Versailles peace, easily identified the basis of the Scottsboro persecution with their own oppression.

THE International Red Aid, which organized the Scottsboro campaign and gave it leadership in Czecho-Slovakia had been outlawed by the government but, with the presence of the Scottsboro Mother, even in prison, the bourgeois press declared that, "It seems as if the Red Aid is still with us and as active as ever."

The regime of Masaryk-Slavik with its chief of political police, Rejcek, prepared for the Scottsboro Negro Mother's coming by prohibiting all the meetings and demonstrations arranged at which she was to speak. New meetings had to be organized by special invitation as order by Paragraph Two of the Criminal Code. With Mrs. Wright in jail, and later expelled from the country, even these meetings were smashed by the police.

WILL PRESS ISSUE

But the government has made the Scottsboro issue a major political issue for itself. The vicious treatment of the Scottsboro Mother will be made the basis of an interpellation in parliament. Slavik's organ, Veser, will be called to account in the courts, with no illusions as to the decisions of this "capitalist tribunal. A special delegation will raise the whole question as order by Paragraph Two of the Criminal Code. With Mrs. Wright in jail, and later expelled from the country, even these meetings were smashed by the police.
