Lynch Plans Ready Dimitroff Acquitted

New 'Treason' Trial Threat for Torgler in Nazi Press

BERLIN, Dec. 22 .- The verdict of the Leipzig court in the now world-notorious Reichstag fire frame-up is expected to be handed down this morning, Saturday,

Despite the obviously inspired press despatches in the German press and foreign papers, that the four Com-munist defendants, Dimitroff, Torg-Popost and Taness are no longer any danger of a death verdict, e lives of the Communist defendants are now in greater danger than

Determined To Execute

The Nazi press hints at acquittal for all the Communist defendants, with Torgler returned to tail for another trial with Ernst Thaelmann leader of the German Communist Party, for "high treason." This means that the determination of the Hitler government to execute both Thael-mann and Torgler is now greater than ever, particularly since the Reichsta frame-up has broken down so badl in the face of Dimitroff's heroic de

Sentenced to Three Years for Leipzig Trial Testimony

to achieve their end

BERLIN, Dec. 22.-Because he told the truth and testified that Taneff, one of the Reichstag fire defendants, was at his home during the night of the fire, and therefore could not have taken any part in the firing, Rudolf Scenke, a Communist worker, was sentenced today to three years at hard labor by a Fascist court.

Scenke will be taken to one of the notorious Nazi concentration camps, where thousands of Ger-man workers are being murdered and tortured by Nazi troopers. This lottest Nazi verdict is evidence of the vindictive fury of the Fascist courts against the Reichstag defendants.

HITLER'S verdict of vengeance against the four brave, innocent Communist defendants in the Reichstag fire trial is expected momentarily. Now in the very brief time that is left, we must arouse the stirring vigilance and protest of the American workers.

For this end we address ourselves directly to the Communist Party membership and to the lower units and fractions. We appeal to the Party units, sections and fractions to take immediate action everywhere, to arrange meetings, particularly in shops and workers' neighborhoods to demand the release of these four heroic comrades.

WE APPEAL directly to the initiative of the units and sections. Here is where the units and sections can show their capability of the

The danger that faces our comrades is so great and so imminent that only your immediate action can help them. Units and Sections of the Communist Party, show your initiative!

"Men From Bread Lines"
Johnson this morning characterized the N.R.A.-C.W.A. wage differential "But it is up to the C.W.A. All can do is to call their attention to the situation," said Johnson. He considered it "ridiculous" that C.W. employees, "men from the bread lines," should be paid more than those normally employed in industry In fact the General continued, the code wages are supposed to represent the utmost that industry can afford pay. Harry L. Hopkins, Federal Emer gency Relief Director and C.W.A. Administrator, this morning pointed out, in answer to Johnson, that the average C.W.A. wage in the South is about $7 a week, taking time out for bad weather. He said that workers in the South, mostly Negroes, were being paid 4c an hour on State road projects and that a strong effort is being made by certain Southern in-terests to return men to the 5c an

Unemployed Council Calls on League to Attend Jan. 13 Meet

NEW YORK .- The National Committee of the Unemployed Councils has issued a call to all central bodies and locals of all unemployed leagues, associations and committees, and to all relief workers unions and associations to take part in the national convention against unemployment which will take place in Washington on Jan. 13, 14 and 15.

"The fifth winter of the prolonged crisis confronts all workers with grave problems, the employed and part-time workers as well as those who make up the army of 17 million totally jobless," the call states. "It is now evident to most of us that these are no longer temporary problems that can be met with 'emergency measures "It is also evident that these problems are not of a local character, but arise from a nation-wide crisis and require a national program. The fact that the Federal Government has been forced, despite its reluctance, to take over more and more of even such inadequate relief provisions as now prevail, is proof in itself that united action on a national scale is imperative.

"For this reason we believe that every unemployed organization, regardless of its affiliation or lack of affiliation will be concerned with the problems to be discussed at the National Convention

"Your delegates will, of course, be accorded equal rights and privileges with those of all others in the convention. The decision of the convention will be subject to your ratification upon the return and report of your delegates, and will not be otherwise binding."

The National Committee of the Unemployed Councils, which took the institutive in calling the convention, is making every effort to bring together not only delegates from organizations already affiliated with it, but also from all other organizations which are concerned with the development of an effective fighting program in behalf of the victima

During the afternoon session of the Conference, a mass membership meeting of the M.E.S.A. was going on at the same time. The united front policy had its similar effect in the M.E.S.A. membership meeting. This was especially demonstrated first, in the nomination of new officials for the organization, by a large section of the rank and file insisting that the militant leadership active in the strike accept the nomination of national officials. Second, by a unanimous vote for a resolution demanding the freedom of Comrade Torgler and all working class leaders in Germany from the bloody hands of Fascism.

The Conference and the general activities in the shops and in the reformist unions under the leadership of the Party has checked the decline in the A.W.U., and as was shown in the Conference and in the reformist unions increased the confidence for militant activity and the necessity for building of a united front which must have as its task to lead and F. of L. automobile locals, from the guide this mass upsurge into daily Mechanics Educational Society of struggles against the attacks of the automobile companies and for a united industrial union of all automobile workers.

Ford living up to the N.R.A.weak as is this answer, the strikers accepted it. Lacking counsel, leadership, etc., the strikers knew no other course of action to follow. The statement "seven new names added to payroll" has its answer in the fact that anyone who worked for the company in the last seven years was on the payroll. Many men laid off during these seven years were called back. After the acceptance of this "reply," strikers trying to get back to work experienced difficulty, although scores of new men were being hired daily at the plant. A few union men got as far as the doctor's examination, but were refused work employment manager When Smith was questioned by men for the reason—his answer was, "the less you know the better." Several union men did get to work but did not last long. When they asked reason for firing—the answer was, "Guess you know as well as I do." "Is it my say anything about your work," he answered.

A committee of strikers were delegated to inquire at the plant of this discrimination on Nov. 29. Answer from Harris, superintendent— "There is no discrimination; we have more union men in the plant than you have outside. We are picking we get the right kind in here." We were asked to write to the plant to work. The following Monday, Dec. 4, we sent a delegation of 3 to the N. L. B. in Washington. Presented our case to Milton Handler, counsel of N. L. B. Of all Lenin's writing, Fisher, as did Professor Beard before him, se-lects Lenin's pamphlet, "The Threat ening Catastrophe and How to Fight as a "guide" for Roosevelt's New Deal swindle.

The Class Purpose of His Madness What is the class purpose of this American capitalism is "threatened with a catastrophe" and it is necessary to fight it, and above all, it is ecessary to save the capitalist sysem, with the right of a handful of inancial magnates to rob and murder the majority of the population and in the first place, the working class.

The N. R. A., the instrument of monopoly capitalism, paves the way

The New Deal is the midwife of The N.R.A. is the instrument, the forceps, for giving birth to fascism. To be sure, we still, in the main, have with us bourgeots democracy, the masked dictatorship of finance capitalism of Wall Street. But precisely because the "threatening catastrophe" is approaching, fas-clsm is growing by leaps and bounds, the New Deal, the N. R. A., is accelerating its growth.

Confusing the Masses

But it is necessary for the ruling class to distort, to confuse, and blind the masses to the growing menace of fascism. Above all, the con crete sources that give birth to fascism, must be hidden from the searching eyes of the workers. Nay, in this period, of the growing popularity of the Soviet Union and its founder, Lenin, in this period of DE-CLINING faith in capitalism, and GROWING faith in Socialism ery instrument of monopoly capitalism, the very instrument for ushering in fascism is represented as an in strument of socialism, a twin child of

Lenin, the N. R. A. and the Historical

Fraud of A Liberal Journalist

Here Mr. Fischer very neatly, bu with the typical fraud of the liberal ournalist, places the N. R. A. on the ame historical footing (as Lenin did when he discussed) the 1917 March evolution. (Note Mr. Fischer's rackets in the quotation.) But the ource of the unpardonable deception which Mr. Fischer is out to spread is to confuse the CONCEPTION of control, supervision, and accounting," which Lenin speaks of in order to curb famine and the profits of the bankers and the trust magnates and the "control, supervision, and acounting" of the N. R. A. codes, which recisely raise prices, create more rofits for finance capital, thus creatng more famine in the country. Here lies the crux of the discussion. In justice to Mr. Fischer we will say that every distortion and historical mism has a certain "objective base." And that is as put by Fischer "It cannot be repeated too often that Lenin conceived of this program of state economic control within the framework of capitalism . . . "

But to understand the class mean ng of Lenin's proposal to be carried through, "within the frame work of capitelism," one must grasp the historical situation in which they were made. It was the period fol-lowing directly upon the 1917 March revolution, when alongside of the capitalist provisional government, there existed Soviets. It was a time when the masses were armed. It was a time when the bourgeois could not rule openly. The Mensheviks (coileagues of Kautsky, Scheidemann, Millquit) social revolutionaries were in a coalition government with the ourgeoisie. The Mensheviks and Socialist Revolutionaries, the masses at the time still had confidence, made endless promises, but in the name of Socialism allowed the pankers and trust magnates in Russia to continue profiteering, and the bourgeoisie to organize a counter-

Lenin wrote in the pamphlet:

"In order to do something seri-

One must turn to the initiative of the workers and employees, to call THEM (Lenin's emphasis) immediately into conferences and conferences and congresses to give over to THEM (Lenin's emphasis) a certain share of the profits on condition that a thorough centrol be organized and production be in-creased. Had such revolutionary steps been taken immediately promptly in April, 1917, then Russia, one of the richest countries of the world in reserves of liquid fuel, could have done during the sum mer, with the aid of water transportation, a great deal in the way of furnishing the people with the necessary amount of fuel."

This is really the keynote and purcse of Lenin's proposals. In a "revolutionary way" Lenin

Social Support of Imperialism

To free the Russian proletariat italism within its own ranks (i.e. the Mensheviks and Social Revolutionaries) was the main task in morevolution. This is the purpose and meaning of Lenin's program made to the Menshivks "within the frame vork of capitalism."

Stalin brilliantly expressed this main Leminist-Bolshevik strategy in the following words:

"In this period (the period of the preparation for the October Revolution) the most dangerous social support of imperialism were the petty bourgeosie democratic parties, the Menshevik and Social Revolutionary parties. Why? Because these parties were the parties of conciliation, the parties of class under-standing between imperialism and the toilers. Naturally that the Bol-sheviks directed their main blows against these parties, because with-out ISOLATING these parties, we could not count on the break of the could not count on the victory of the Soviet Revolution."

The revolutionary meaning of Lenin's proposals "within the frame-work of capitalism" was to isolate the parties which were "the most dan rous social support of imperialism.

A philistine has laid his hands on Lenin's pamphlet and soiled its revo-lutionary soul! But the whole pur-pose of Lenin in his pamphlet "The Threatening Catastrophe and How to

A Natural Method Comrade Luke:

The recent articles on children have been most interesting. I hope to see more from time to time, and to hear from other comrades in this respect. There is a point about the education of workers' children that is important. Many working-class parents. thoroughly imbued themselves with the revolutionary spirit . . want their youngsters to grow up young revolutionists. Unfortunately, howintensity of their desire, often over-do the job, with the result that the children either grow away from the class struggle, or else acquire an intellectualized and superficial attitude toward it.

This is because young children (up to early adolescence) are not yet in-tellectualized and are incapable of grasping consciously adult concepts and theories. If parents constantly preach class-struggle and Communist theory, such children, because they are not emotionally ready for such preaching, will build up a defense against it.

The most practical way to properly educate working-class kids is to have the basic attitude you want them to quire to be almost unconscious. If the parents are truly class-conscious. if the conversation, songs, and general life of the home is truly revolutionary, if there are pictures of our eaders, and revolutionary literature in the home, the child will be in an environment that will become a part of him.

As all children in all environment do, he will ask questions, want to hear stories, to be sung to, and all that. And the clear-cut answers to his questions, the pointed stories, the definite attitude that only revolutionary parents can provide, will more than do the trick.

Let the child grow naturally. The whole environment will be constantly at work. And don't be impatient, and force intellectual concepts and theories upon him. If you do, you will be forcing upon the child something that will be unpleasant to him

ELLIS JONES, who sent in the above, used to be one of the wits of the old Masses and Socialist days. It is good to see that he has gotten fed up with the tactics and leadership of the Socialist Party. I don't believe we are destined in America to pass through the Socialist

These burocratic parties with their mass of well-fed comfortable functionaries serving as a wet blanket on the revolutionary flames need a long period of bourgeois "prosperity" in which to flourish. In times of crisis they are too quickly shown up. Their last crime was to get the German workers to vote for Hindenburg. Today only the Communist Party is left there to lead the fig. against Hitler. In America a crisis is on us; and the Socialist party has no program to offer that is much different from Roosevelt's. Abe Cahan, editor of the Forward, holds the moneybags of the Socialist party and is its real leader, Norman Thomas, being merely the front. And it was Cahan who said recently with much glee: "President Roosevelt is as good a Socialist as This may please some Americans, but it will not persuade them to leave the Democratic or Republican parties and join the party of Abe Cahan. The Socialist Party has no real future. All its old barnacled leaders will swing over to American fascism when Roosevelt or any other such leader gives the signal.

But the youth and honest rank and file workers still in the Socialist party are coming to understand. There is a growing sympathy for the Soviet Union and the American Communist movement

ONE of the ways you can tell the corruption of the Socialist movement is to see how little fear is displayed by capitalists when occasionally a Socialist is elected to office.

Jasper MacLevy recently was elected mayor of Bridgeport. He is resumably a Socialist, and was elected on that ticket. But the old line politicians and big industrialists and every other plute interest in Bridgeport welcomed Jasper like a June bride.

They made flowery speeches about good-will and justice and the like, and you could tell from their manner that Jasper had told them in private not to worry, he was just one of the boys.

A Communist mayor doesn't get this cordial reception from the plute. We had one in Minnesota, and he led unemployed demonstrations, and organized a worker's council which advised him. He was a militant, and sed his office as a battlefield of the class war.

Jasper promised to give the bosses a cheap and graftless government that would keep the taxes down. But he promised nothing to the unwill give them nothing-or at best, the mangy relief that Mayor Hoan has given them in Socialist Milwaukee.

Every Socialist in office turns into a Ramsay MacDonald. This has happened so often that one would imagine the lesson had been well learned. Unfortunately, some of these leaders are still popular. But this will not last. Even Lydia Pinkham is losing her popularity.

The subjects are handled with humor, with tragedy, with militant class-consciousness. Some are merely comments on the times; the more thoroughly Marxian show also direction, imply the growing revolt of the masses. Gropper ridicules the greed of the capitalist by giving him six or eight arms and hands, all reaching for everything in sight. He grabs machinery, food, clothing, homes, even laborers, stuffing into his mouth everything it will hold. Ben Kopman, in two fine litho-

the bitterness of poverty, and have a certain destructive function, are still defeatist. They lack the resistance, the spirit of revolt which is truly characteristic of the masses

A more militant note is struck in the many pictures of demonstrations, hunger marches, and workers' struggles. One of these by Alexander Wilson is called, "We've Starved Long Enough," and shows an angry worker tearing himself away from the ruins of capitalism. Another "Workers De-mand Their Rights" by Mark Baum shows an enormous red fist banging on the green baize table top at a bank lirectors' meeting.

What Do YOU Mean By Discipline, Mr. Thomas?

MORMAN THOMAS speaking about "discipline" is a strange twist. But when two leading Socialists go over to capitalist government or to open capitalist parties, like Sinclair and Blanshard did, the Socialist leaders find it necessary to cover some of their naked-

In the December 23rd "New Leader," Norman Thomas Writes: "The defection of Sinclair in California and of Blanshard in New York has naturally revived considerable interest in party discipline."

No sooner does he mention the word "discipline than Norman Thomas begins to crawl back, to avoid the crux of the whole question. "On the other hand," he writes, "I think we may fall into certain Communist errors and into the Communist unpopularity if in labor unions, farmers' societies, cooperatives, or other organizations, not involving political action or any repudiation of fundamental socialist principles, we bind our members to act only on one line."

Mr. Thomas doesn't want discipline if it embarrases the strikebreaking tactics of Mr. Green & Co. to the A. F. of L. He doesn't want discipline if it hampers any strikebreaking actions of the IL.G.W.U

The wily Thomas does not want so much looseness as to be embarrassed by Blanshard and Sinclair. But he wants to continue his freedom in the Socialist Party so he can do as he pleases to help Mr. Rooseveit or Mr. Green. He wants freedom to continue to fight against a revolutionary class struggle.

HE DOES not want that democracy in the Socialist Party that leads to a serious discussion of problems and then when a decision is made, to be bound by it. Norman Thomas, who advises the workers "this is not the time to strike," does not want the discipline the workers find necessary in their struggles. The workers have learned discipline and its value through their bitter struggles against the bosses.

They discuss their demands. They discuss strike action and a vote is taken. When the strike is on all workers are bound by proletarian discipline. They enter into the strike to carry it through to victory and even those who voted against it are expected to join in the struggle. Those who betray the struggles are looked on as scabs and traitors.

Norman Thomas and the Socialist leaders want none of this discipline. The only discipline they seek is to oust members the Socialist Party who try to achieve a common front of struggle with the Communists

You, Mr. Thomas, and your ilk in the Socialist Party, don't hesitate to take action against Socialist Party locals who voted for a united front in the struggle against war by participation in the Anti-War Congress. Party members and Y.P.S.L. members have been expelled for declaring for the united front with Com-

IITHAT you want, Mr. Thomas, when you speak of discipline, is more authority to smash the actions of the workers in your ranks.

But, at the same time, Mr. Thomas wants full freedom of action for himself and the trade union bureaucrats to support the N.R.A., the Roosevelt inflation program, contrary to the interest of the Socialist workers. This high priest of the Socialist Party wants no discipline to hamper him in such activities

In the Communist Party we have real democracy Every unit, every section of the Party has the fullest opportunity for a discussion of all questions. The policy of the Party is collectively decided on, in the same way as workers collectively decide to strike and act on their decisions. The whole Party acts as a single body on its decisions.

IN THIS WAY, the Communist Party is able to aid the workers in their struggles, for higher wages, for union organization and against the slave program of the N.R.A. It is able to prepare and steel itself for the struggle against war, and to meet the conditions of illegality that the workers meet in the revolutionary struggle for the overthrow of capitalism and the seizure

What this means is shown by events in Germany. There, the Communist Party, based on discipline, has withstood the attack of the fascists. The Social-Democratic Party, based on Norman Thomas's conception of discipline, has surrendered to the blows of the Nazis. This would inevitably occur in every country.

Thomas wants, in reality, neither democracy nor discipline. The Communist Party insists on both nocracy and discipline.

The discipline of the Communist Party, one of its most outstanding and revolutionary features, grows out of its revolutionary principles and organization. As the fighting organization of the working class it calls for discipline to carry on the most effective struggle for the workers' needs, for the revolutionary struggle against capitalism.

The Socialist Party-an organization whose theory and practice is based on class collaboration, on betraying the interests of the workers, based on disorganizing the revolutionary struggles of the working class for the overthrow of capitalism-denies and rejects the need of discipline. A fighting organization eeds discipline. An organization of peace with the bosses rejects discipline, but maintains a bureaucratic apparatus to stifle revolutionary criticism from its own rank and file membership.

THE discipline of the Communist Party has nothing of the discipline of the church or army.

It is based on the revolutionary conviction that a united party of the workers is necessary, firmly founded on the revolutionary principles of Marxism-Leninism. It is the discipline of conviction. Within the Party open discussion goes on around all questions of struggle. There is established the principle of democratic centralism—the democratic functioning of the Party units, with a centralization of leadership for the most effective revolutionary struggle. When decisions are reached, the whole force of the Party is mobilized behind them. Here the iron discipline of the Communist Party is based on inner democracy, democratic cenuralism.

The question of discipline has been put as one of the central reasons for the victory of the proletarian revolution in Russia by Comrade Lenin.

REYOND question," wrote Lenin, "almost every one knows by this time that the bolsheviks would not have been able to hold power for two and a half years, nor even for two and a half months, had there not been the strictest possible discipline, truly from discipline, within the Party."

To understand the basis of this discipline is to know why the Communist Party is the only revolutionary Party leading the struggle against capitalism Lenin explains the roots of discipline in the fol

"How is discipline maintained within the revoletionary Party of the proletariat? What controls this discipline, and what strengthens it? First of all, there is the class consciousness of the proletarian vanguard, its devotion to the revolution, its selfcontrol, its self-sacrifice, its heroism.

'Secondly, there is the capacity of the proletarian vanguard for linking itself with, for keeping in close touch with, for to some extent amalgamating with, the broad masses of those who labor . . .

"Thirdly, we have the soundness of the vanguard's political leadership, the soundness of its political strategy and tactics . . . "

This is the type of discipline the Socialist Party can never have and does not want. Norman Thomas' talk about "discipline" is a shield to cover the exposure of the Socialist Party's service to capitalism

Only the Communist Party has this discipline. Only a Party unflinchingly, unitedly, unswervingly fighting against capitalism, steeling itself for the leadership of the victorious revolution can have this discipline, a discipline which workers can understand.

We appeal to all workers to join our ranks, to help knit a powerful, disciplined revolutionary Party as the most effective weapon in the struggle against capitalism and all its agents.

Save Them from Goering!

TODAY, the verdict of the Nazi judges at the Reich stag frame-up is expected.

To prepare for this, the latest dispatches from Germany, printed in the capitalist press, bear the alltoo obvious mark of Goering's Nazi publicity agents. They are craftily calculated to give the impression that the Fascist murderers of the Leipzig Court, that Goering's Storm Troopers have experienced a sudden softening of heart toward Dimitroff, Torgler, Popoff and Taneff, the Communist defendants. This strategy, forced upon the Fascists by the rising power of world mass protest, is also connected with the Nazi Leipzig court move to seemingly relent toward Dimitroff, Popoff and Taneff by admitting their innocence in the Reichstag fire. But this sudden "liberalism" of the Hitler gov ernment is nothing but the sugar coating of the Nazi fury against our comrades. The Hitler Fascists are the same brutal torturers. They have not changed. Every day, reports come from Germany of the shooting down of German workers, and imprisoned Communists in the concentration camps. At this very moment 36 German Communists await the Nazi axe, doomed to execution by exactly such Nazi Courts as the Leipzig Court.

Our comrade Thaelmann, Communist leader of the German working class, is now in the hands of the Fascist jailers, kept in isolation. The concentration camps are filled with thousands of the best workers and anti-fascist fighters in Germany, who daily feel the lash of Nazi torture, whose bodies are found mangled and beaten.

PHE Fascist news releases in the capitalist press talk hopefully of a new trial for Torgler. This means that Torgler will go back again into a Nazi dungeon to feel again the tortures and isolation of a prison This means that Torgler's life is in greater danger than ever.

The press talks about Dimitroff and his Bulgarian comrades as if they are no longer in any danger since the Fascist prosecutor was forced to grant their

But the cry of Goering at the Court: "Wait till you leave the custody of this court. Then you will have reason to be afraid!"

still the real program of the Hitler government. One thought burns in the minds of the workers—as long as Dimitroff, Torgler and their comrades are in the hands of the Fascists, they face torture

The mass protest against the Leipzig frame-up cannot be permitted to slacken for one moment. It is this alone that stays the execution of our heroic comrades. This alone can save them.

We Communists, answering the call of Dimitroff, ringing throughout the world as the challenge to Fascism, must go to the A. F. of L. workers, to the Socialist workers with the comradely hand of United Front struggle against Fascism, for the release of the Reichstag defendants.

The United Front struggles of the aroused masses of the world, united with all intellectuals, professionals, can wrest our comrades from the hands of the Nazis, can force them to release them in safety.

The Nazis have their eyes on us, warily calculating the strength of our resistance. Can we fail to meet their challenge?

Toward United Front Mass Actions, demonstrations, protests against the Nazi frame-up!

Roosevelt Buys Silver

DOOSEVELT has just taken another step along that road of inflation on which he is now traveling with accelerating speed. He has ordered that the United States Treasury buy all the silver mined in this country, at a price 211/2 cents above the present market. The amount involved is not grand, $15,000,000, though it undoubtedly means sudden, easy profits for the investors who own silver mines.

Roosevelt, in preparation for the coming Congress in January, is, by his silver buying, attempting to disorganize the so-called "silver bloc" of "wild inflationists," the group that is attempting to precipitate him toward "greenback" currency, faster than he wishes

At the same time, Roosevelt continues his own method of inflation, the method that is in the interests of Wall Street monopoly capital.

The real meaning of Roosevelt's act is that it gives unmistakable indication that the Roosevelt government is continuing its inflationary drive in an effort to hold up the jacked-up price structure, which begins to sag as soon as the inflationary shots are stopped. Particularly, Roosevelt's action is part of the growing imperialist drive of Wall Street against its rivals, British and Japanese imperialisms.

It is particularly against Britain and Japanese imperialism, against whom the Wall Street Roosevelt government is now waging bitter commercial and financial warfare over the textile markets of China, India, Argentina and Brazil.

By cheapening the Japanese Yen, Japanese imperialism succeeded in beating British manufacturers to the Indian markets. Now India, under the heel of British imperialism, has declared an embargo on the import of Japanese textiles. This has forced Japan to drive ahead into the Chinese markets dominated by the Wall Street imperialists.

So fierce has been the Japanese inflationary "dumping" drive of Japanese imperialism against its American and British rivals, that U.S. exporters are being forced out of the South American markets.

Roosevelt's raising of the silver price is, therefore, a renewed imperialist drive to beat off the imperialist rivals of Wall Street in the Chinese, Indian, and South American taxtile markets. And it is a drive that brings the explosion of imperialist warfare

British Seek to Win French Government to Nazi Demands

Push Drive for Armed Intervention Against Soviet Union

PARIS, Dec. 22.—Sir John Simon, British Foreign Minister, was closet-ed today in a secret conference with Premier Camille Chautemps and French Foreign Minister Joseph Pauloncour, on the question of the Nazi demands for arms equality.

The British Foreign Minister, beore leaving London yesterday, made t clear he would seek to persuade the French government to adopt a conciliatory attitude to the Nazi denands. For the past week there has been an increasingly aggressive sup-port for the Nazi demands in British mperialist circles, seeking to aid the Nazis in their proclaimed intention of onquering and partitioning the Sov-et Ukraine. This support coincides with Sir Austin Chamberlain's at-tack yesterday on the World Inquiry into the Reichstag fire and its report exonerating the Communist defend-

The French imperialists, while sympathetic to the anti-Soviet intervention scheme, distrust the Nazis and fear that increased German armaments would in time be turned against France. The discovery of a wide-spread Nazi spy system in France has further crystellized the opposition of the French government to any compromise on the question of German arms equality.

Manifesto of League of Struggle Against War Outlines Plans

NEW YORK .- Calling upon all organizations and groups to initiate a ember and January against the continued appropriations of the govern-ment for war purposes, the Executive Committee of the American League Against War and Fascism issued to day through its secretaries, Donald Henderson and Francis A. Henson, national manifesto "urging all op ponents of war to mobilize nation wide action to culminate January 29 with demonstrations throughout the country and a delegation to Washington to present these demands."

Calls for Protest, Strikes on War Jobs The manifesto issued by the League points out that more industries are daily turned into war shops and that funds appropriated for public works are converted for war purposes.

"Day by day the policies of this war government," continues the ma-nifesto, "are turning more factories into war shops—munitions take the place of machinery; uniforms take the place of clothes; battleships take the place of schools and houses; civil conservation encampments take the place of homes for the youth; war chemicals take the place of fertilizers; tanks take the place of tractors."

"The American League in its stirring call to all workers and farmers, to people of all faiths and political affiliations, urges the immediate backing of the delegation to Washingtor tions and meetings throughout the country, in every state and city of the union. The call especially urges all workers to organize "temporary stoppages of work in the factories, on the docks, on all war jobs on

In its campaign for Public Works and not War Works the League urges all organizations and groups to "elect or appoint a representative to join the Washington delegation to call on President Roosevelt and Congress on Peoples Commissars and by the All-Union Central Committee of Trade Unions. This decree completed the work of a preliminary preparatory decree issued last June.

The effect of the two decrees, and particularly of the last one, was to merge the Peoples Commissariat of Labor with the trade union apparatus. That is, the unions actually take over and begin to operate one of the parts of the government, equivalent roughly to what would be called the Department of Labor in the United States government, though its powers were greater than those wielded by Secretary Perkins.
