W. convention. The workers in every mill and in every locality should emphatically inform Mr. Gorman that his arbitration agreements will not be accepted by the workers. Gorman's field representatives may try to prevent the militants from being heard at local mass meetings. But everywhere the job is to break through all such efforts to deny you the most elementary trade union democracy. Every striker has a right to be heard at any union or strike meeting. A point has been reached where to prevent a retreat, to go forward to victory, the workers must make their voices heard against arbitration. Resolutions and telegrams should literally flood Gorman's Washington office against his arbitration proposals This is the immediate task, but this alone will not prevent the betrayal of the strike. At best it can only make Mr. Gorman's retreat more difficult

The only way to move forward to victory is for the workers themselves to take control of the strike.

THE Communist Party urgas all textile workers in all sections of the country to set up their own strike committees at once, and to take all other measures necessary to carry the strike forward to victory. Specifically we urge the following meas-day evening, Sept. 21, at the Bron. Coliseum, 177th Street and West Farms Road.

A motion picture illustrating the 15 years of growth and struggle of the Communist Party will be shown for the first time. Earl Browder, national secretary of the Party, will be seen and heard in the picture.

Four Speakers at Rally There will be four speakers at the celebration-Clarence A. Hathaway. editor of the Daily Worker, I. Amter, candidate for governor of New York in the coming election and national secretary of the Unemployment Council, Charles Krumbein, district organizer of the Party and Steve Kingston, District Bureau member.

The International Workers Order Orchestra, under the direction of Irving Korenman, and the Workers International Relief Band will play.

"This date is of great political significance to the entire revolu-tionary movement," the District communication to working class organizations states. "It marks 15 years of ceaseless revolutionary ac-tivity, 15 years of the leadership of mass struggles, of many historic battles of the American proletariat, 15 years of growth and develop-ment of the Communist Party, 15 Hosiery Walkout years of preparation for a Soviet decisive importance." Describing the growing militancy which is taking on forms of "unparalleled militancy," the race between fascist dictatorship and imperialist war, and the proletarian revolution, the statement tells of the great tasks ahead.

"Because of this extraordinary political significance of the 15th Anniversary of the Communist Party, we whole-heartedly invite your mass organization to participate in a body in this great event. We invite the leaders of your organization to assume a place of honor at this celebration, together with the leaders of other revolutionary mass organizations in New YORK.

Federated Unemployed Delegates to Appear Before Legislature

NEWARK, N. J., Sept. 10 .- The United Unemployment and Relies Workers Association of New Jersey a federated body, is mobilizing all unemployed groups, mass organizations and trade unions to elect deleates to the Special Session of the State Legislature, which convenes on Wednesday, for the purpose of demanding enactment of its program of cash relief and the Workers Unemployment Insurance Bill.

The Unemployed League of Jersey City has accepted the united from call and is mobilizing its membership to send delegates. The organization in Trenton is being called upon to send delegates also.

The seven-point program to b presented at the State Legislature demands enactment of the Workers' Bill by the State; for immediate payment of adequate cash relief controlled by elected representatives of workers' groups and organizations; union rates and conditions on taxes to be paid by the relief administration; gas, light, rent, mediall unemployed; suspension of all laws that might now exist which disfranchise the unemployed.

DAILY WORKER

50 EAST 13th St.

THE other night at the Civic Repertory Theatre I saw for the first time what might be called "revolutionary vaudeville," and it was fine stuff. True, it was rather rough-hewn, but it brought the laughs; what's more, it brought home some pointed political lessons.

The dramatic critics of the bourgeois press will perhaps smile amusedly at this and suggest that it must be pretty poor vaudeville to have revolutionary value, but I can assure you that if you saw "Greek Tragedy," with the cloaked courier bringing the message of strike to the boss of an earlier era, you'd agree that this type of vaudeville was hilariously funny. At the same time it hit the bull's eye more than once with its rollicking satire on the contemporary methods of strikebreaking.

This seems to me to be a dramatic form which has hitherto been very much neglected in the revolutionary theatre movement. Those of us who have applauded even the tepid satire of shows like "Of Thee I Sing" must have longed often for the kind of real biting satire that is more than skin-deep, and which by its devastating humor unmasks all the pretense and hypocrisy surrounding every bourgeois institution.

Many undoubtedly recognized this fine quality in the Workers Laboratory Theatre production's of "Whose Got the Baloney?" and its sequel, "La Guardia's Got the Baloney."

It Brought a Crowd Out

THE "revolutionary vaudeville" which excited me so much the other evening was part of a "Theatre Night" presented by the Workers' Laboratory Theatre for the benefit of New Theatre, the official organ of the League of Workers Theatres. Those who are still in the habit of snickering at the cultural activities of the movement would undoubtedly be startled to see the Civic Repertory Theatre filled to capacity by an audience which displayed tremendous enthusiasm throughout the entire evening. The first skit which the Workers Laboratory Theatre put on, for example, was called "The Great Marriage," portraying the union of "John Worker" and "Mary Boss" and the former's attempt to obtain a divorce thwarted by a court consisting of General Hugh Johnson, Bill Green and Frances Perkins. I'll admit that oftentimes one had a feeling that from a political viewpoint, the skit was a little schematic and crude-particularly in the portrayal of the Socialist Party-but it nevertheless had a gusto and freshness which ought to have splendid propaganda value.

Some years ago I met an able young artist named Louis Bunin, who was absorbed in the art of puppeteering. Bunin had just come back from Mexico where he had put on puppet shows based on plays by O'Neill, J. M. Synge and other playwrights for the delectation of the Ambassador to Mexico, the late Dwight W. Morrow, and his guests

At the performance the other night I found Bunin and his marionettes in a deadly satire on Hitler-as deft a job as one could want. It portrays Schnozzle Durante as a foreign correspondent, representing a paper whose policy is "all the news we print to fit," interviewing Hitler, or as Schnozzle calls him, "Furore."

Bunin and his group are preparing some special election skits for open-air presentation which ought to be extremely effective during the present campaign.

Dramatizing the Fight for Thaelmann

THE "Free Thaelmann" skit presented by the Workers Laboratory I Theatre was without doubt the most impressive thing of the evening. The action never lagged, the direction was vigorous and original. The "Free Thaelmann" act is what some of the theatre comrades call a "collective report." It is more clear to say that it is in the nature of a dramatized speech.

A Communist or a Communist sympathizer would undoubtedly be stirred by the presentaion, but I doubt whether it would be so effective when presented to relatively undeveloped workers. The "Free Thaelmann" play summarizes in a new dramatic form the incidents of Thaelmann's life, the struggles of the Communist Party for unity in the fight against German fascism and the present danger in which Thaelmann now finds himself.

My feeling is that the play takes for granted the general political sympathies of the audience as well as its intimate knowledge of the events. Politically advanced audiences will be inspired by its artistic force, but I am sure that others will not respond so readily to its political meaning, although they cannot fail but be impressed by its artistic genuineness. The authors apparently tried to overcome this defect by citing fascist acts in the United States during the West Coast strike, Toledo, etc., in an effort to convince the spectator that his interests lie with the defense of Thaelmann.

Despite this criticism, I am convinced that this method of dramatic presentation on the whole provides our revolutionary theatre with a splendid vehicle for driving home to the workers many basic

Songs of Betrayal and Revolt

THE vaudeville team the other night sang several songs which scored big with the audience. I wish I had space to print all of them. The following is called "Write Me Out My Union Card" sung to the tune of "Hand Me Down My Walking Cane," and it goes something like this:

> Oh, write me out-my union card Oh, write me out-my union card Oh write me out my union card Organize? We'll all fight hard

Oh the N. R. A.—sue cut our pay We'll all go out on strike today Fime to fight those hunger blues away Oh the government destroyed our crops Oh the government destroyed our crops bread they gave us

So come with me—on the picket line So come with me—on the picket line So come with me—on the picket line We'll stay there till the bosses sign Time to fight those hunger blues away

'seventeen-we went to war 'seventeen-we went to war

Time to turn these guns the other way In bosses' war—the worker gets
In bosses' war—the worker gets
In bosses' war—the worker gets
A bellyfull of bayonets
Time to turn those guns the other way

An Old-Fashioned Melodrama

BEFORE I conclude I want to express what I am sure is the mood of the masses by showing a little irritation at the inclusion of an act from an old Spanish melodrama, "Alma Negra," on the program. I have no doubt that the comrades of the Spanish Art Workers Club are able and conscientious, but since the program was so long it seemed irrelevant to have it on the program. Moreover, the content of this good, old-fashioned melodrama was so much at variance with the rest of the program that its presentation almost dulled the edge

But this is a minor point. The important thing is that the Workers Laboratory Theatre has not only shown devotion to the revolutionary movement by its activity among the masses, but is displaying a maturity of form which combines vigorous agitational methods with a sensitive use of movement, voice and stage grouping.

And this is the time to ask the revolutionary writers of the John Reed Clubs when they are going to get busy and help out in the writing of effective plays and skits

In this situation, the world is faced with two alternatives: one is the throttling of productive forces, and an attempt to maintain decaying and degenerate capitalism by the most violent, savage means, by butchery of the revolutionary working masses, and by criminal wars; the breaking of the death grip of capitalism, and the organization of a socialist society, achieveable only by the road to proletarian revolution under the leadership of the Communist Parties.

Dutt's book shows his encyclope c knowledge of world events, gives ne cream of his omniverous reading, probably not exceeded by any living man. I remember the most unbelievable extent of his reading in my only contact with the man. It was in the critical days of the summer of 1923 in Germany. We were on our way from Moscow to Stettin. I occupied a cabin with Dutt. When I went to bed he would reading, with books stacked up on his berth. Should I wake in the dead of night, he still read. In the fight against fascism, Dutt clearly shows the decisive factor of the united front. To the socialist leaders who reject the united front, claiming they are carrying on the fight against fascism, declaring that will countenance an armed uprising when "democracy" is endangered, Dutt declares: "The present policy determines the future action." There is a lay-off and wage-cut, causing dissatisfaction among the workers. Max Harris, union organizer, comes to town. Cliff and another worker are fired after heading a committee demanding the rescinding of the cut. A strike is called. The local paper raises the "red scare," which Harris explodes. #### Boston Replies!

COMRADE Sparks, the Boston District O organizer, has replied to our editorials on the failure of his District to take up seriously the circulation of the Daily Worker in the textile strike area.

BOSTON, Mass., Sept. 10.-Meeting yesterday Buro and leading strike forces, all agreed splendid job of Daily Worker strike news and especially editorials and directives stop Heartily approved Saturday editorial all report Daily eagerly received by strikers stop Task consists mainly organizing distribution apparatus stop Lowell increasing from one hundred fifty to seven hundred New Bedford increasing next few days from five hundred to one thousand stop Additional forces Lawrence Providence Pawtucket Fall River will increase orders next few days stop Bloomfield going today Worcester mobilize membership on Daily Worker stop District Bureau utilizes this opportunity appeal all members sympathizers in district all forces take initiative multiply many times circulation Daily in non textile towns also as best means helping strike and fighting red scare,

The comrades in the Carolinas are also much more sensitive than the leading comrades of some of the other Districts. They realized that in speaking directly to Boston, the weakest district, we were really talking to all textile Districts, to the Carolinas, to Connecticut, to New Jersey, to Pennsylvania. The Carolina comrades, unlike the comrades from each of these other textile centers, responded with increased orders.

Following yesterday's editorial we received the following telegram:

"Increase N. C. bundles to following figures: Charlotte, Burlington, Concord, 300 each; Danville, Va., 400, and Clover, S. C., 50."

It should not be necessary to urge old established districts to learn from the young Party organization in the South. But all districts must learn to move in critical strike situations like the

A Significant Victory

THE speedy and complete victory of the I united front struggle around the Empire Cafeteria in Harlem for jobs for Negroes has dealt a tremendous blow against the ruling class policy of excluding Negroes from the better paid jobs.

The victory is a direct result of the bold application of the correct revolutionary tactic of the fighting alliance of Negro and white workers for their mutual interests against the common enemy. It is a smashing refutation of the lies of the Negro reformist leaders that the white workers cannot be won for the struggle for Negro rights. It provides a brilliant example of how properly to conduct the fight against job discrimination.

In sharp contrast to the reformist-controlled boycott movement, the struggle around the Empire Cafeteria was carried out on the basis of uniting the working class in a relentless fight for Negro rights, against firing or other victimization of the white employees, and by linking the demands of the white employees for shorter hours, better conditions, etc., with the demand for jobs for Negroes. As a result, the fight for the hiring of Negroes was actively supported by the white employees of the cafetoria and by the white workers patronizing the

The fight must now be carried further, cementing the unity of Negro and white workers, and drawing into the united front movement all organizations willing to struggle for Negro rights.

Gorman's Advance Notice

MR. FRANCES J. GORMAN, head of the strike committee of the United Textile Workers, has declared that he is in favor of arbitration providing the mills are all closed down, while the arbitration is going on.

With closing the mills down effectively we Communists have no quarrel. We have pointed out the need for this day after day. But what does Mr. Gorman's proposal actually mean?

Just this. First you textile workers by your mass power will close the mill gates and, then, after the machines are silenced, when the employers are compelled to deal directly with you, to meet your demands - then Mr. Gorman will hand over the

Every textile worker can see clearly that once the mills are shut, the owners, if they wish to reopen their plants, must deal with you and you alone. Why hand over that power of settlement to a board once the mills are shut

This plan is Mr. Gorman's advance notice of his plans to send the workers back without winning their demands.

This plan must be rejected by the textile

Shut the mills tight! Keep them shut until the employers meet directly with you and concede your just demands, signing on the dotted line the agreements embodying the demands you yourselves voted for at the U.T.W. convention!

This way-and this way alone-can you be sure

Richberg's Blarney

DONALD RICHBERG, executive director of Roosevelt's "Executive Council," in a final report to President Roosevelt yesterday, claims that 4,000,000 jobless have found jobs in industry, a like amount have been given jobs in "temporary public employment," and 675,000 have found jobs on permanent public works after one year of the Roosevelt "New Deal."

As in his past reports, Richberg is content to merely cite these "advances"; authoritative facts are not a part of his reports. Even the most superficial examination shows up these "advances" as ballyhood reminiscent of that which the Hoover regime splashed over the front pages of the capitalist sheets to bolster up its blarney

Thus, to take the employment figures of the A. F. of L., not only have no gains been made in industrial employment during the past year, but a period of recession has actually set in. This is amply borne out by the figures of the National Industrial Conference Board, which cites a job decline in July through which 675,000 workers lost their

Yet, the figures of both these groups do not take into account the 250,000 youth who each year become of working age, the farmers who have been ruined by the drought and A.A.A. "crop reduction." and the tenant farmers who have been driven off the land where the large land owners have found it more profitable to take land out of production.

prove, no appreciable gains have been made in employment by the Roosevelt administration. Richberg's figures on Public Works, modeled after those of Secretary of the Interior Ickes, include 375,000 young workers in the C.C.C. camps.

As the figures of the Labor Research Association

On relief work, which he auphemistically calls temporary public employment," Federal Relief Administrator Hopkins, on the day before Richberg's report, issued statements that at most, 1,600,000 were on work relief throughout the country - these, it must be remembered, are working for their barest "budgetary needs." anywhere from $2 to $12 a week.

Were Richberg not being trifling with human misery, one would be inclined to scoff at his report. Instead, one must characterize it as the worst sort of deception intended to bolster up the Roosevelt regime. In the blunt language of millions of ruined farmers-it is what is spread over the ground to make the roses grow.

Calling U.S. Troops

AS preparations are being made by the employers to reopen the Southern mills, spokesmen for the Government are already speaking quite openly of the "menace of new outbreaks."

By this they mean the renewed menace of more killings of strikers by Government troops.

Now Gorman and his fellow officials of the U. T. W. are calling for Federal troops to "protect" the strikers from the National Guard!

As if it makes the slightest difference whether the troops are State or Federal! Government trops, whether State or Federal, have but one function in a strike-to break the strike by attacking picket lines, permitting scabs to work, and crushing all resistance by open violence.

Was not the Minneapolis strike crushed by a similar trick, the trick of calling in the State troops to "protect" the strikers against the Minneapolis police? And did not the "protecting" State troopers protect, not the strikers, but the scabs?

Federal troops, like State troops, are part of the strike-breaking machinery of the government of the real dictatorship which the employers wield over the workers through the forms of their "democratic" government.

THE Southern ruling class, which is the backbone of the Roosevelt Democratic Party, is already mobilizing its Governors, courts, police and State troops to open the mills by force.

In the South it is Roosevelt's Democratic Party which murders workers to protect the profits of the bosses. In California, it is the Republican Party which sheds the blood of the working class in defense of capitalist interests.

Differing from these two openly strike-breaking parties, the Socialist Party, under the cover of a mild "criticism" of the government, actually supports the strike-breaking policies of William Green, Gorman and company. The Socialist, Emil Rieve, in the U. T. W. acts, by his failure to expose the Gormans, as the fig-leaf for strike-breaking policies.

Of all the political parties, the Communist Party alone has boldly and unequivocally come out in action to help the strikers win their demands expressed in the U. T. W. Convention for better wages and an end of the speed-up.

The Communist Party alone has placed itself on the side of the strikers against all the terrorism, and the "arbitration" trickery of the government and the Gormans.

And through its fight for better wages, and against the Roosevelt terrorism, the Communist Party alone fights to end altogether the whole system of capitalist wage slavery.

This committee should be in charge of the strike in the county, it should maintain closest contacts with the mill committees and regularly report on all activities and proposals to all the strikers.

5. These county or city strike committees should likewise quickly reach the strike committees in neighboring cities or counties and prepare for regional conferences, with representatives present if possible from every mill and at least from every locality where regional strike committees, say, one for New England, one for New Jersey, one for Pennsylvania, one for the Carolinas, and one for the lower South are established.

Such regional committees, truly representative of the rank and file, and made of honest, militant fighters, could, within a few days, set up a National Rank and File Strike Committee which could really lead the strike to victory.

ganize the leadership of your strike. You can take it in your own hands. You can set up a leadership that will lead to victory, and to a powerful organization capable of maintaining your gains.

Don't wait for some one to come in to help you. If there are those there who agree with this policy so much the better. But at any rate follow out this method of organizing your strike and victory is sure

You should also take up the organization of relief. The farmers, workers in other industries, large sections of the lower middle class are ready to help you. Organize relief committees. Recruit strikers to visit workers' organizations, trade unions, farmers, small storekeepers. Ask them for relief. They will help.

Keep up your spirits. Hold regular meetings. Develop sports. Take up singing and other such activities. Draw in the women and children. Make this a fight in which all strikers and their families are rallied for a fight to victory.

Finally, the Communist Party urges you to reach the other workers to aid you in the fight for your civil rights, for your right to hold meetings, to picket the mills, and for the freedom of the workers' press. The workers stand shoulder to shoulder with you. They will join with you in protests against the terror. They can be brought into sympathetic strikes and even into a general strike to aid you on to victory.

Stand firm for your demands. Organize your strike. Arouse the workers in other industries.

The Communist Party pledges its aid. This is

A Friend of Mosley's What Happened in London Two News Reports

CIR Oswald Mosley, the Brit-Ish aspirant for the Hitlerian post in England, has a very good friend working for the New York Times.

When over 100,000 anti-Fascists in London on Sunday met in a counter-demonstration against the Fascist concentration Mr. Charles A. Selden, London correspondent for the Times, came to the aid of Mosley by deliberately distorting ing news of the demonstration.

For weeks before the fascist meeting the Communist Party led the mobilization of a united front counter-demonstration to Fascism in Hyde Park. Mosley, who expected 10,000 black-shirted Fascists to march, could muster only 5,000 (that is, according to the count of his friend Selden). Whereas, according to other capitaist sources between 100,000 and 150,000 people massed to boo Mosley and to express their hatred of Fascism.

THE Times story reports 5,000 Fascists, well protected by 7,000 police, "and an equal number of anti-Fascists, mostly Communists. Selden cannot overlook the 150,000 people massed in Hyde Park, and, since he cannot attribute their presence to the support of the Fascists, he declares: "All, except a few thousand of these, were spectators who had no use for either Fascists or Communists. To show his impartiality still further, he quites Mosleys statements, and omits a single word of the anti-Fascist spokesmen. Now we have not yet received reports from the London Daily Worker on what actually happened, but we have enough information to show that the Times story is a tissue of lies. THE anti-Fascist mobilization, which was fought by the British Labor Party officials and the trade union leaders, was effective in preventing Mosley from speaking, and was a militant massing of anti-Fascists, who turned out 20 to 1 against the Fascists, despite huge provocative police organization to aid the Fascists The United Press is no mor friendly to the Anti-Fascists and Communists than is the Times we get the following details as published by the U. P. in the New York Herald Tribune. The headlines read: "Mob in London Pelts Mosley with Tomatoes. 11 Hurt in Riot of 100,000 Jamming Hyde Park To Boo Young Fascist

Which is quite a different story from Mr. Selden's. Selden makes the crowd of 100,000 appear as spectators who came to see the sport a cricket crowd with the good old English spirit of "fair play," not concerned with whether Fascist terror advances or not. He stresses of the workers are organized today the imaginative peacefulness of the from the facts. We quote the

United Press:

"Sir Oswald Mosley was penpered this afternoon with very ripe tomatoes and fruits, hurled at him during rioting in which eleven persons were injured while he attempted to address a huge gathering of his Fascist followers in Hyde Park. Mounted police charged the milling throng Thousands of police guarded Hyde Park, where 100,000 persons jammed a Fascist mass meeting,

Mosley.' MOST of the 100,000, it is clear from this report, came to express their hatred of Fascism, came in response to the united front appeal issued by the Communist leaders and other antithe Fascist whelp from speaking, despite the 7,000 police and their

most of them present to boo

auto-gyro. The U. P. cable tells how the

When Mosley attempted to speak, the anti-Fascists left their own meeting to join the crowd around the Fascist platform, and started the tomato barrage. They could not get to the rostrum which was guarded by a square of black-shirted Fascists six deep. The demonstrations lasted one hour, after which the Fascists, headed by Mosley, and followed by a jeering crowd, marched to their headquarters in Chelsea and dispersed, while the police shooed the anti-Fascists in other directions." This is a victory for the anti-Fascist concentration, no matter how the Times correspondent would like to pooh-pooh the whole affair.

MOSLEY, as R. Palme Dutt in his book, "Fascism and the Social Revolution," shows, was nurtured and trained by the British Labor Party. While he was one of the outstanding leaders of the British Labor Party, the Communist Party exposed his Fascist trends, while various Socialist leaders were claiming him as their very own.

Dutt quotes the New Leader organ of the Independent Labor Party, who wrote of the Mosley Memorandum, just before he left the Party to organize his fascist bands: "In the main, as is known, his scheme followed Independent Labor Party lines." Fenner Brockway, another Labor Party leader, who admires Roosevelt so much, wrote: "In the dieas of the J. L. P. Group and the smaller Mosley Group there is a good deal in Today these people who claimed Mosley as of their flesh and blood do everything possible to keep the workers divided in their fight against Fascism.
