SPEED FUNDS TO WIPE OUT DEFICIT

Readers:

Because of the dangerously slow pace of the present drive, the Management Committee of the Daily Worker deems it essential to give all readers the details of the paper's income and expenditure, so they will realize how disastrous it would be if the campaign for $60,000 should fail.

The great bulk of the revenue of the capitalist paper comes in the form of advertising. We don't get it for reasons known to our readers. The "Daily" exists on the pennies and dimes of the working class its only master. The revenue the "Daily" receives from circulation is insufficient to maintain life. To exist it must ask for outright

To study the running expenses and income of the Daily Worker is to understand how difficult it is to put out a working class news-Each week on the average the "Daily" receives this income: Subscriptions, $536; bundles, $2,083; advertising, $430. Total $3,050. Each week it must pay out these amounts: Composition, engraving, press, paper and ink, $1,871; Editorial wages, telegrams, news services, photos, Washington Bureau, etc., $1,021-postage for National edition and circulation costs, $774-Office wages, rent, electricity, etc., $417. Total. $4.083.

The difference-THE LOSS-is $1,034.20 a WEEK!

Is this weekly loss or deficit scandalously high? Yes and no! In comparison to the past it is low. In 1932 with a four page paper the deficit was $1,800 weekly. In 1933, by economies, it had been cut to $900. With the increase to six pages the deficit mounted to $1,034. With the increase to an eight-page New York paper the deficit must again be increased. The deficit is high if we realize that with an increase of 10,000 circulation it could be cut by two-thirds.

In spite of the deficit, by credit and loans, the Daily Worker is able to continue publication for months, but then comes a dangerous crisis. This is the situation today. Although the Daily Worker Finance Drive is well into its second month, less than one-quarter of the necessary $60,000 has been raised. The drive is in great danger.

Are we to take this to mean that the working class will not support its own paper? Such a meaning is impossible! Only the loyal sacrifices of the working class have enabled the Daily Worker to come out every day-to organize and lead the struggles of the working class

What has been lacking in this campaign is the active participation of every reader of the Daily Worker, every Communist Party member, every class-conscious worker. Therefore the Daily Worker calls on its friends to act immediately in the interests of the $60,000 fund. Will you see that your unit,

CHANGE

LYIN-GENEVSKY, a veteran Bolshevik, has written an interesting pamphlet which describes the stirring, difficult days in Russia just before the Soviets under Lenin

During these crucial months this comrade was the editor of the Bolshevik newspaper which circulated among the soldiers. It was a most important task, and the newspaper was very successful and popular. It played a great role in organizing the soldiers against the imperialist war and for the Soviet regime.

A newspaper is one of the chief weapons of a working-class movement. It is interesting to study the reasons that made this soldiers' paper in Petrograd so popular.

To begin with, two-thirds of its contents, according to the editor, consisted of letters from soldiers in the trenches on the various fronts, or in barracks in the Russian cities. They told of their hardships, the hunger and filth that they endured, the cruelty of the Czarist officers, and of their longings to be free of all this horror, and back on their

They groped toward a political understanding of the causes of their vast misery. They asked many questions of Lenin's party. These questions were answered in the paper, point by point; it was rooted in the mass, and expressed intimately their daily life and struggles. It gave them leadership in every situation, however seemingly minor. This paper, "Soldiers' Truth," never forgot to be concrete. It didn't lose itself in those large abstractions into which some of the windy Hamlets fall as into an empty gulf.

Theory without practise leads to exactly nothing. This soldiers' paper never took its feet out of the mud where its readers lived.

A Newspaper Problem

DUT practice without theory also can lead to futility. We have seen many examples of this in recent history. It was the false theory of Socialists like Kautsky and Bauer that led the Germans and Austrian workers into the trap of Nazism, even though these workers were brave and ready for action.

The soldiers' paper constantly educated its readers in Communist theory. And here is where an amusing note creeps into the editor's

For this man had a mania for simplicity in language. He knew that millions of these peasant soldiers had never had a college education. In order to talk to them, it was necessary to be plain as a peasant. One must avoid the mandarin language they had never

One must not sit high on one's mountain of words and ideas and expect them to make a sacred pilgrimage to one's temple.

So everything that went into the paper that had to do with theory or politics was carefully written in soldiers' words. The determined editor made that his main job. And it brought him, as he relates, into many a conflict with some of the more academic leaders among the Communists. They resented having their pet two-dollar words eliminated. The matter came up as far as the Central Committee of the Communist Party. Here was an editor who dared to edit his paper for the workers, and not for the intellectuals. Communists with strong intellectual bias felt this as a blow to their pride in long two-dollar words. But the Central Committee sustained the daring

Pleading for Mercy

WE ARE having this problem in America. Time and again, weary workers have written to the Daily Worker and other Communist Journals pleading for mercy. They were tired of being forced to read with a dictionary. Some of them didn't own dictionaries, and had to give up reading; others complained that even the dictionaries failed to explain some of the curious language found in the Daily.

Last week a cartoon by a worker appeared in the Daily which beautifully summed it all up. The cartoon showed a great Chinese Wall separating the Communist Party from the American workers. This formidable wall was made up of great stone blocks, and each block was one of those terrific words like hegemony, fascization, periphery, functionary, liquidation, bourgeoisification, activization, and

In the greatest crisis America has ever seen, the workers are desperately searching for a way out, and they come to us asking for bread, and we give them these worthless, indigestible stones.

There is no doubt of it, this inability to talk to the workers has now gone beyond the problem of rhetoric. It has become a major political problem, as the cartoonist pointed out. There are many organizers of the Communist Party who are still incapable of making a simple speech on Communism that an audience of non-Communists will understand. How can a movement grow when its education is conducted in what is often like a foreign language to the mass of

A Brake on Progress

WE MUST not be too extreme in our self-cirticism, of course. There has been a great improvement in the use of this basic tool of speech and communication during the past year. Certainly when Earl Browder or Clarence Hathaway and dozens of other leaders write or speak, one finds clarity, precision and strength in their rhetoric. Bloor needs no one to instruct her in the fine art of reaching the heart and mind of the American worker and farmer.

There are hundreds, yes thousands of Communist bees at work daily in the field of organization who are close to the mass.

But there are the others, and they are a brake on progress. And what is worse, there is a tradition of this kind of thing, a hangover from the factional days of the Communist Party, when it was afflicted with members who thought of it as some kind of secret religion. This tradition still affects most of us, and the effort of resisting it is itself a form of waste of energy.

There are other reasons for this disease of verbalism. One of them I believe, is sheer laziness. Many of our speakers and writers find it easier to use the cliches and avoid any kind of original thought. Another motive is vanity. The shorter words seem too plebian, and these Comrades want to make a thundering impression of profundity. Another motive is a fear of vulgarization. They believe simplicity means talking to the workers. Still another motive is the sectarian fear that unless one has crowded all the long economic and philosophic words into a speech, one is perhaps deviating.

Lenin, the greatest political mind of our century, had none of this unhealthy fear of the masses. He was not too proud to address them directly in the folk-speech. His burning manifestos and appeals might well be made models of rhetoric by some of us. Where the logical structure is sound, one doesn't need the flimsy decoration of long Latinical words. Lenin knew this, and the Russian masses could Simplicity of speech doesn't mean vulgarization. We do not need to adopt the wretched style of the tabloid papers. It happens that the genius of American speech lies in a laconic simplicity. Even the professors of English acknowledge this; and we can go to popular writers like Mark Twain for our style, rather than to the tabloids.

Yes, here is a political question of high importance. We are a Party of teachers. We teach the masses, not only through deeds, but through the words that must explain the deeds. And these words should not be fuzzy, vain or obscure; they cannot be a secret jargon; they must be clear as sunlight and flexible as tempered steel. It is time to study this question. Contributions received to the credit of "Change the World" in

Plotting the American Pogroms

Sensational Expose of Wide Anti-Semitic Activities

By JOHN L. SPIVAK

Through the courtesy of the New Masses, the Daily Worker has been given permission to reprint the remarkable articles appearing in the magazine weekly. by John L. Spivak, well-known journalist, and author of "Georgia Nigger." These articles, documented, with irrefutable proof for every statement made, show the existence in this country of a widespread anti-semitic movement, growing rapidly as the forces becomes more bold. emanating from and encouraged by officials in lofty places in the government, business, universities.

In his first article, which ap-peared in the New Masses of October 2, Spivak announces that he will set out to prove the fol-

1. That Americans, acting as Nazi agents, some of them in high Government positions, are among the secret directors of antisemitic propaganda.

2. That American "patriotic" organizations to which rich Jews contribute, are secretly using this for anti-semitic prop-

3. That much of this antisemitic and fascist propaganda is smuggled into this country; how it is smuggled and secretly distributed, and by whom.

5. That Ralph M. Easley, head of the National Civic Federation of which Matthew Woll, vicepresident, distributed anti-semitic propaganda imported into this country by George Sylvester Viereck, paid Nazi agent.

6. That despite the American Federation of Labor's stand in favor of the German boycott, Easley secretly tried to get it 7. That Easley, head of the National Civic Federation of which Matthew Woll is vice-president, secretly reported on these efforts 8. That high officials in the State Department worked with Easley while he was reporting to Viereck, paid Nazi agent. 9. That a Pennsylvenia Congressman (to be named), who attacked the Jews in Congress, took a bribe of $25,000 and is consequently just a plain crook. 10. That the North German Lloyd and the Hamburg American lines, in violation of their agreements with other shipping companies, often gave free passages, many to anti-semitic propagan-

11. That German exchange students in this country are organizing Nazi cells in the universities and carrying on anti-semitic propaganda. 12. That the effect of this propaganda has already reached into big business and that at least insurance company has started to refuse insurance to

In this first article, Spivak exposes the role of one Col. Edwin Emerson, Nazi agent, organizer of the "Friends of Germany, who in conjunction with Royal Scott Gulden, Fred R. Marvin, Richard Rollins, J. Schmidt and William Dudley Pelley, her l of the Silver Shirts, held a secret meeting on March 19th, at 138 W. 57th St., and launched their program for the dissemination of anti-semitic propaganda. On March 31st, the group held another meeting augmented by Commander Charles E. Gilpin, Col. C. W. Throckmorton, Col. E. N. Sanctuary, Capt. Moriarity, J. H. Roys, and Walter on German ships docking in New York and consigned to the "Friends of the New Germany," which secretly distributed it throughout the United States of America

Johnson. An organization called the "Order of "76" was founded, with Royal Scott Gulden appointed secretary to direct esplonage and propaganda.

Working with him is Sidney Brooks, close in the confidence of Republican Senators and Congressmen, who, Spivak proves, is actually the son of the notorious Col. Emerson, These people, Spivak proves through actual letters, are closely associated with Nazi Germany, from which they receive financial backing as well as propaganda material in the form of books, leaflets, pamphlets.

The first installment of the second article is reprinted below, and will continue every Friday, Saturday and Monday, until the series is over.-Editor's Note.

Support the Twenty-Four Hour Strike

DANK and file delegates have introduced N into the national convention of the American Federation of Labor a resolution for the calling by the A. F. of L., of a general strike of twenty-four hours, the first week in January, in order to bring pressure for the passage of the Workers' Unemployment and Social

William Green has already shown where he stands on this issue. In his Executive Council's report, he comes out against any form of Federal unemployment insurance. Green takes the same stand on this question as the employers and the Roosevelt government - that the Workers' Bill is "unconstitutional." He supports the Wagner-Lewis bill, which is not an unemployment insurance bill, and does not apply to any totally unemployed

The rank and file of the American Federation of Labor have a different opinion. They demand that President Roosevelt shall keep his campaign promises to grant unemployment insurance to sixteen million jobless workers.

THE resolutions introduced into the American Federation of Labor convention for passage of the Workers' Unemployment Insurance Bill, the only bill brought to Congress which applies to all the unemployed, reflect the will of several million workers in the United States. Such International (A. F. of L.) unions, as the United Textile Union, the Amalgamated Association of Iron, Steel and Tin Workers, the Mine, Mill and Smelter Workers, as well as thousands of local unions and many central bodies, have demanded the passage of the Workers' Bill.

A general strike of 24 hours duration in January would go a long way toward forcing the Federal Government to redeem its pledges of security for the unemployed.

0N the basis of the proposals of the Trade Union Unity League for achieving trade union unity around a fighting, class struggle program, the workers can win unemployment insurance.

The resolutions of the rank and file brought into the San Francisco convention, reflect the wave of militancy which has swept the A. F. of L. local unions. The workers in the A. F. of L. are determined to fight against the attacks of the employers, against the decisions of the N.R.A. boards and of Roosevelt. They are determined to fight against the company union, for their elementary right to organize and strike, and for decent wages and con-

The growing rank and file opposition inside the A. F. of L. has had enough of Green's strikebreaking policies, his sell-outs, his refusal to organize a fight for their demands. They have had enough of Green's co-operation with the employers and the Roosevelt government. They are fed up with Green's refusal to fight for the demands of the unemployed. They are through with his splitting, "Red scare" tactics, with his use of police against militant work-

Rank and file oppositions should be built in every A. F. of L. local union on the basis of a fight for the program embodied in the resolutions introduced into the national convention by the militant rank and file.

The rank and file, through organizing itself solidly in every local union, can clean out the A. F. of L. sell-out artists of the Green and Gorman stripe, and lead a real fight for the workers' de-

20,000 New Communists

IN TODAY'S issue of the "Daily," there is an open letter to workers, taking up some of the reasons that are usually given for not joining the Communist Party.

Every reader of the Daily is urged to give this letter serious thought. Every reader of the "Daily" is urged to act on it.

In Saturday's issue of the "Daily" there will appear the special letter which the Central Committee of the Communist Party has sent to every Party member on the problem of recruiting new members. This issue should be given special distribution by every unit and every reader of the

There has never been a better time than now to recruit new members into the Communist Party. In the recent class battles, in the great 'Frisco strike, in the textile strike, thousands of American workers have learned to respect and understand the revolutionary role of the Party. These splendid proletarian fighters belong in the Communist Party and it is up to us to win them for the Party. The goal of the recruiting drive is to win 20,000 new members, to bring the total to above 45,000 by November 7, the anniversary of the October Revolution of 1917. What better tribute to Lenin, and to the October Revolution, than to bring 20,000 new American workers under the banner of the Party, fighting for the revolutionary overthrow of Wall Street

Negro Liberation

COUR Negroes were slugged in open court in the recent "sedition" trial held at Pemiscott, Missouri.

They were organizers of the Pacific Movement of the Eastern World, a movement nurtured in this country by Japanese impe-

This case, the details of which are given in an article by Cyril Briggs in another part of today's issue, reveals in miniature the forces at play in the growing struggles of the Negro people against the Jim-Crow oppression, which is the weapon of American imperialism against them, Here were four Negroes who dared to "criticize" Wall Street imperialism and its Jim-Crow oppression. The answer of the government officials to this audacity was the old slave brutality, the typical American imperialist oppression.

These Negroes, it is true, were not making a revolutionary attack against Wall Street. In fact, they are the conscious or unconscious dupes of Japanese imperialism, which is cunningly trying to utilize the smouldering hatred of the oppressed Negro masses for its own imperialist purposes.

The Japanese imperialists are not less ruthless than Wall Street in oppression and brutality against oppressed nationalities in the Far East.

But unwittingly, even this reactionary organization fostered by them helps to kindle the national consciousness of the American Negro people. And so American imperialism is striking at the Negro workers in it with lynch brutality.

It is only in a revolutionary struggle against all imperialisms, Tokio as well as Wall Street, that the oppressed Negro people can win liberation. It is only when the national liberation struggle of the Negro people is headed by the Negro proletariat, fighting under the Communist Party slogan of "Self-Determination in the Black Belt," united in class solidarity with the white proletariat, that the fight against the yoke of capitalist exploitation and national oppression can be won.

Gorman --- Self-Appointed Czar

FRANCIS GORMAN, leader of the United Textile Workers Union (A. F. of L.) has sent a letter to President Roosevelt, signing away all of the rights of the textile workers. Gorman promises Roosevelt that the textile workers will agree not to strike for six months and will accept without protest or question all decisions of the National Textile Labor Relations Board, and the National Labor Relations

By what right does Gorman set himself up as a czar over the textile workers and make such vital decisions, robbing a million workers of the right

Did the scores of thousands of textile workers who have been fired and locked out because of their strike activities agree to Gorman's no strike statement? Did the hundreds of imprisoned strikers who are now being given long prison sentences, from New England to Georgia, tell Gorman to tie their hands with a "no strike" guarantee for six months in advance? Did the million textile workers who are now being speeded up and ridden with company unions give Gorman such authority? By

Gorman has usurped the right to tell a million workers that for six months they cannot carry on any fight against their miserable and worsening CORMAN'S statement reveals the full meaning of President Roosevelt's "no-strike" truce. Whom will this truce help in the textile industry? It will help the textile mill owners. During this truce they will continue their blacklist, their speed-up, their low wage policy. The terror of mill owners' thugs and of prison sentences by government courts will continue to hound the textile workers.

As long as the looms and spindles are runningas long as the textile employers are reaping huge profits out of the textile workers' toil-the employers and the Roosevelt boards will be satisfied to maintain the "no strike" truce.

Meanwhile, Gorman proclaims himself satisfied to entrust all of the textile workers' demands to these N.R.A. boards, which have ground down the textile workers to their present plight.

T IS high time that every textile worker asked in a loud voice-for whom is this self-appointed czar working? Is he working for the employers? He certainly has done every single thing that they requested, from calling off the textile strike without a single gain for the textile workers, to his refusal to fight against the terror in the textile field.

If the textile workers accept Gorman's decision that they must not carry on any fight for their demands for six months, then they will not win their demands against the stretch-out, for union recognition, for higher wages and shorter hours.

The rank and file textile workers, who militantly and courageously tied up the textile industry in a general strike, must demand a reckoning of Czar Gorman. The rank and file must build oppositions in every U.T.W. local union, kick out the misleaders who are aiding Gorman's betrayals, and prepare for strike struggles for all of their demands.

Our Circulation

THAT Daily Worker circulation must be greatly increased, and rapidly at that, has been frequently emphasized. In strikes, in unemployed struggles, in the fight against the A. F. of L. bureaucracy and other reformist misleaders, in the struggle of the Negro masses, farmers, etc., and in the Communist Party's election campaign, the Daily Worker is vital to success.

Because of this we wish to put a number of questions to the leading comrades of a few District or-

Boston, New York, Philadelphia, Baltimore, Birmingham, New Orleans: What are you doing to build Daily Worker circulation, on a solid and permanent basis, in preparation for the East and Gulf coast marine strike?

New York: What are you doing to create a truly solid and permanent mass circulation for the New York Daily Worker? We know you have ordered 150,000 copies of next Monday's paper - the first issue of the new papers, but what will be the circulation on Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday . . . and the days following?

These are urgent questions for the Daily Worker itself and, equally so, for the Districts.

We would appreciate hearing from the District and Section organizers.

A Correction on the Spanish Situation

In handling a news report on Spain reprinted from a capitalist news agency, the Daily Worker ommitted a grave error. After stating that the Communists, together with the Socialists and Syndicalists, stood unalterably opposed to any step on the part of the govrnment which might lead to an pen fascist dictatorship, the article nen incorrectly stated that the thole struggle of the masses of panish workers and their leaders as concentrated in an effort to lace workers, or their representa ives, in the bourgeois cabinet.

The Daily Worker wishes to rectify this error and to state that the Communist Party of Spain, as well as all Communist Parties, always and consistently refuses to participate in a bourgeois cabinet. Furthermore, Communists enter into bourgeois parliaments, not with any that socialism can be achieved through parliamentary action, but for the purpose of waging the struggle there for the workers' needs and with the aim of using bourgeois parliaments as a forum from which to arouse the masses for day to day struggle and for proletarian revolution.

To expose the role of the bourgeois state, whatever form it may take, to organize the Spanish workers for the final preparations to destroy the bourgeois state and its machinery, as institutions which have nothing in common with a workers' state, real workingclass democracy, and the organization of Soviets-these have always been the main points in the activity of the Communist Party of

I. S. U. Sell-Out Condemned

(Special to the Daily Worker) PHILADELPHIA, Pa., Oct. 4.-Unanimously condemning the International Seamen's Union sellout, more than 300 seamen last night packed a meeting called by the Joint Strike Preparations Committee, and enthusiastically endorsed the strike. Hayes Jones, editor of the Marine Workers Voice, was roundly applauded as he analyzed the sell-out attempt, and called for a united militant strike of both longshoremen and seamen.

Two seamen were elected from the meeting to broaden the Joint Committee, which is now meeting the leadership of the joint strike to make more detailed plans for the strike. More than 500 seamen, employed and unemployed, officers and unlicensed men, have already signed strike cards pledging to walk cision tonight or tomorrow. out Monday morning

Socialism Via Parliament Labor Party Schemes

COCIALISM without headaches, the kind the worker and employer take at night like a pill so that it works while they sleep, is seriously proposed by the British Labor Party. The ruins of the so-called "Socialist" construction of Vienna apartments and cooperatives within the framework of the capialist state still rest on the corpses of many workers buried in their cellars; and the British Labor Party has the nerve to come before the workers and offer a still more hypocritical scheme.

Socialist construction in the Soviet Union has won the sympathy of the majority of the British workers, and for that reason the Labor Party leaders, in preparation for the next parliamentary elections, are forced to come out with their scheme pretending to offer the workers immediate socialism if they are victorious in the elections.

MANY years ago Lenin analyzed the basis for the brazen hypocrisy of the British Labor Party leaders. He pointed out that the Mac-Donalds, the Hendersons, and Thomases were the out-and-out agents of British imperialism. Mac-Donald has since completely gone over into the camp of the conservatives. Mosely, for example, has become the Fascist leader. These leaders, masquerading as fighters for labor, while in reality being tied by thousand threads to the whole bloody policy of British imperialism, are forced to act like the vilest

The workers want socialism. That is the only way the British Labor Party leaders believe they can win the majority of the workers behind them in the next elections. Now the problem for them is how to preserve the interests of British imperialism, of the colonial slave-holders, of the big landlords, and the the same time make the workers believe they will get socialism.

The first thing, of course, is to keep the worker from organizing and fighting for socialism.

THIS is the class role of the Socialist leaders expressed more openly in Britain than in any other country.
