

Batter Down the Barriers!

It is the duty of the white workers to join with the Negro workers to batter down all restrictions which interfere with the admission of the black workers into the unions, says Fred Ellis.