Danish Socialists at Work

By Robert Hunter

THE thing that strikes one most forcibly about the Socialist and labor movement of Denmark is its quiet and intelgent power.

There is very little talk. It has no time for the endless discussion and bitter dissension which so often paralyzes the movement elsewhere.

And they work not only to gain for themselves an advantageous position, they work for the benefit of all who toil, unorganized as well as organized.

Not long ago the native workers of Denmark realized that the condition of the immigrant workers was deplorable. They were mostly Russian, German and Austrian laborers living in a dire state of misery.

The Socialist party therefore introduced into parliament a series of measures intended for the benefit of these foreigners in distress.

Nothing human is alien to it. It strives not only for its own organized self but also to better the condition of the unorganized.

The above cartoon is taken from the Milwaukee Press Club's Roosevelt Publication, The Big Stick, which was devoted largely to defamation of Mayor Seidel. It was perpetrated by an artist named Osborn, employed by the Daily Sentinel.

Recent Herald callers: Louis De Bow, San Francisco, Cal.; J. Eads How, St. Louis, Mo.; John J. Jessup, Chicago, Ill.; Katherine G. Jessup, Sam Jessup, Galena, Ill.; C. B. Hoffman, Enterprise, Kans.; Emma Hoffman, Kansas City, Kans.; Charles H. Chase, Sacramento, Cal.; L. E. Katterfeld, Topeka, Kans.

tify against British officers; for, as it happened, the Ombashi who accompanied them on the two shooting expeditions one Ahmed Hassan Zakzouk, aged 26, was rash enough to insist that after the shot that struck the woman, the officers fired on the mob twice. This appears in the parliamentary paper; but the French newspaper L'Egypte is quoted by Mr. Wilfrid Scawen Blunt as reporting that Zakzouk, on being asked by one of the English judges whether he was not afraid to say such a thing, replied, "Nobody in the world is able to frighten me; the truth is the truth," and was promptly told to stand down.

Not only was there of course no jury at the trial, but considerably less than no defence. Barristers were provided to "defend" the prisoners. Far from defending them, they paid high compliments to the Occupation as one of the choicest benefits rained by heaven on their country.

FALL TROUSERS
Fall trousers are here in great variety. Handsome patterns—every pair of them. When you are ready for an extra pair of trousers just step in and allow us to show you what we call Good Trouser Value

It has done its work wisely and from the beginning it has spared the quarrels and schisms that have afflicted other movements.

The unions allow the party freedom of action yet it listens intently to every demand made by the unions.

The workers of Denmark know that dreams will not bring a new world and so Socialists and unionists set out, he says "does not greatly fear death, and there is therefore much to be said for flogging as a judicial punishment in Egypt."

Why are soldiers and officials on foreign service so much more cowardly than citizens? Is it not clearly because the whole imperial military system of coercion and terrorism is unnatural, and that the truth formulated by William Morris, that "no man is good enough to be another man's master," is true also of nations, and very specially true of those plutocrat-ridden powers which have of late stumbled into an enormous increase of material wealth without having made any intelligent provision for its proper distribution and administration?

It is pleasant to return to Lord Cromer's first letter on Denshawai, written to Sir Edward Grey, the day after the shooting party. It says that "orders will shortly be issued by the general prohibiting officers in the army from shooting pigeons in the future under any circumstance whatever."

Milwaukee's Credit

It Is Good Enough to be Two Points Better Than the Big City of New York

Predictions that Milwaukee's credit would be lost, and that all city improvements would be at a standstill if the Social-Democratic party succeeded in gaining power have not been verified by the facts. In fact, Milwaukee's credit has increased, much to the chagrin of the plutocratic public spirited citizens who predicted so much disaster if the terrible Socialists were permitted to conduct the city's affairs.

The other day a block of city of Milwaukee 4 1/2 per cent bonds were sold to Eastbrook & Co. for 101 1/2 New York city bonds, paying same interest, brought about two points lower. This is a fair estimate of what the bankers of the country think of Milwaukee as a business proposition.

A Great Victory

New York, Sept. 3.—The cloakmakers' strike, one of the greatest industrial disturbances in the history of American labor, was settled last night. Seventy thousand garment workers who have been idle for nine weeks will shortly return to work.

The industrial loss to the employers and employes has run into the millions. In loss of wages alone the total has been estimated at more than $10,000,000, while the loss to the manufacturers, jobbers and retailers the country over has been computed at ten times that amount.

The settlement of the strike averts a crisis on the crowded east side. With thousands out of work and unable to pay rent, the courts were literally swamped with eviction proceedings.

A Socialist and a Public Guest

The Public: An interesting contrast between a Socialist gentleman in office and—ah, no, we'll not adopt Mr. Roosevelt's standards; but all the same it truly is interesting, the contrast suggested by the letter of Emil Seidel, mayor of Milwaukee, Socialist, which he wrote to the Milwaukee Press club on the 20th explaining the necessity for his declining to serve on its committee for receiving Theodor Roosevelt. Read the letter, and note the sense of official responsibility even as to social amenities, also its kindly tone, yet with no descent from true personal dignity nor any enraged leap above the fraternal obligations of democratic office-holding:

Your valued communication of recent date notifying me of my appointment to the reception committee on the occasion of the visit of Mr. Roosevelt has been received. Let me assure you that the distinction intended by the committee to be conferred upon me by this appointment is appreciated. I regret, however, that in view of the unscholarly and unfair position Mr. Roosevelt has taken in the discussion of the movement for which I have spent all my spare time and energy, it is impossible for me to accept the intended honor.

Every fair man of whatever party, if his sense of fairness is more than verbal, will appreciate and commend this letter and respect Mayor Seidel all the more for having written it. Of course he could not go upon that reception committee without loss of his own self-respect, he being a Socialist, nor without thereby insulting every other self-respecting Socialist; for Mr. Roosevelt has grossly misrepresented Socialists and Socialism, with a swaggering insolence that would be unpardonable if the misrepresentations were intended and contemptible if they were born of his ignorance.

Advantage of Mayor Seidel's letter to place himself in Mayor Seidel's class in these respects.

Wisconsin State Organization
Winfield R. Gaylord, 344 Sixth St., Milwaukee, Wis., state organizer, to whom news and other matters of this department should be sent.

The Social-Democratic Herald will have a stand at the big state fair at Milwaukee, if the management is able to secure it. This will reach thousands of people, and comrades attending the fair are urged to look up the exhibit of the Publishing company and see the display of literature.

Comrade Jacobs will be at the North Wisconsin State Fair at Chippewa Falls on the closing day, September 13th, and will speak in that city. The comrades there are planning a big day for him, and will undoubtedly make an impression on the crowds there that day.

Jacobs' Dates
Here is the route fixed thus far for Comrade Jacobs in September: Sept. 10, Monches; 11, Fond du Lac; 12, Berlin; 13, Little Chute; 14, Kaukauna; 15, Green Bay; 16, Peshtigo; 17, Marinette; 18, en route; 19, Ladysmith; 20, Abbotsford; 21, Weyerhaeuser; 22, Superior; 23, Chippewa Falls; 24, Milltown; 25, en route; 26, Ontario; 27, open date; 28, Richland Center.

October dates for Jabos are already coming in, and locals desiring them are advised to speak up. Half of them are gone now. Hurry—first come.

McCaleb Dates
Comrade McCaleb is on his way from La Crosse to Waukesha county, on the following route: Sept. 8, De Soto; 9, Westby; 10, Kendall; 11, Camp Douglas; 12, Portage; 13, Pacific; 14, Rio; 15, Doylestown; 16, Watertown; 17, Waterloo.

It is likely that there will be a new demand for chapters in the office of the state secretary soon.

Korngold Coming
Comrade Ralph Korngold will enter Wisconsin on Sept. 16th at Beloit, and will make a tour toward the northern part of the state at first, going up on the western side and returning by the way of the lake shore. Locals wanting Comrade Korngold must speak quickly, as he will not be likely to leave Milwaukee county once he gets back here.

Ameringer
"The Flying Dutchman" is the affectionate nickname given this affable by his friends in the southwest. He will be in Milwaukee about the 15th inst. and will start the factory campaign, after which he will spend some time in the parts outside of Milwaukee county. For irresistible wit, sarcastic humor and thorough knowledge of the international socialist movement, Comrade Ameringer has no equal. And while he himself says that he "has been broke so often that he speaks broken," no one has any difficulty in understanding what he says. Dates will be made for Comrades Ameringer and Korngold at the usual terms. Also for Comrade McCaleb in the last days of the campaign.

Milwaukee Co. Organization
Address all communications to E. T. Melma, County Organizer, 344 Sixth St., Milwaukee.

The recently organized Social-Democratic branch No. 4, Town of Lake, will hold its first annual dance on the evening of Sept. 24, at Anton Hauer's hall, Eighth avenue and Manitoba street. A large delegation is expected from Milwaukee and other cities. A good time is assured. Tickets may be bought by the comrades at 45 cents each, while admission at the door will be 25 cents. The proceeds will go towards the campaign fund.

The Russian branch, S. D. P., has arranged for a grand concert and ball to be held at the Baden Maenner hall, 417 Ninth street, Saturday evening, Sept. 17. Comrade Carl D. Thompson will deliver an address at 9:30 p. m. A fine program has been arranged for.

The secretaries of the various branches are requested to order their literature to be distributed during the campaign on or before Wednesday of each week, so as to enable the campaign committee to get the literature printed and delivered by Saturday of each week.

The Ninth Ward branch, S. D. P., has arranged for an entertainment and ball at the Mann Eri Turner hall, Sunday, Sept. 18. The Mann Eri Turners and the members of the West Side Young People's Socialist league have decided to assist them in making this entertainment and ball a grand success. Everybody is cordially invited to attend.

The annual vintage festival of the Hungarian branch will be held Sunday, Sept. 25, at the Liedertafel hall, corner of Seventh and Prairie streets, beginning at 7 o'clock p. m. A fine program is prepared for the festival.

States judge whose daughter he is in love with.

MAJESTIC—Vaudeville
Miss Annabelle Whitford headlines the bill at the Majestic theater for State Fair week, beginning Monday afternoon, offering a singing novelty and new characterizations. Other features will be "Maud Rochez," "A Night in a Monkey Music Hall," the most remarkable animal act on the stage; Hedges Bros. and Jacobson; Conroy and Lemaire, in "The Penochle Fiends";

EMPRESS—Vaudeville
"The Hand that Rules" will be presented by the charming May Nannary and her company. It tells a story of a business incident involving "Union Labor" and its triumphs. A violent quarrel arises for the adoption of "Union Labor" by the partners. The words arguments which follow are the most remarkable dramatic scenes ever presented on a vaudeville stage. Six other features.

NEW STAR—Burlesque
John T. Baker and the Star Show Girls will be offering at the Star theater during State Fair week. Two lively travesties and a high-class olio bill make up the program. "The Wildman's Reception" is the title of the opening part, and "The Model's Surprise" brings the performance to a close.

GAYETY—Burlesque
The Beauty Trust comes to the Gayety theater for a week, beginning Sunday matinee. This company has earned a reputation for efficiency in all departments never before equaled, employing an entirely new and high-grade musical melange in two acts.

EMPIRE—Vaudeville
Lillian Mortimer, who has created a sensation in south side theatrical circles, plays a new act, entitled "Po White Trash Jenny."

COLUMBIA—Vaudeville
Carlos Circus headlines next week's bill at the Columbia. Six other acts complete the bill.

State Fair
Pain's open-air spectacle, "Last Days of Pompeii," which comes to the State Fair next Monday as the night feature, contains more "distinct features" than any circus performance. Principal, of course, is the magnificent fireworks, the great scenic display and the startling earthquake and volcanic eruption scene. But in addition to these will be the imposing pageants.

A force of twenty skilled pyrotechnists and twelve skilled electricians are required.

Franz's Summer Garden
One of the coziest little places on the north side is Franz's Summer Garden, located at Locust and Buffum streets. Mr. Franz has had an experience of twenty years in this line of business, and is well able to take good care of his patrons. A visit will convince you.

A performance and ball will be given by the Russian branch of the Social-Democratic party, at Baden Maennerchor hall, 417-419 Ninth street, corner Winnebago, on Saturday evening, Sept. 17. Admission 75 cents.

An address in English will be made by Comrade Carl D. Thompson, city clerk. The proceeds will go toward the county campaign fund.
