Whether the dogs have caught any criminals is not stated, but the amount of meat that a dog eats up in a day is given. While the dog show did not exactly prove instructive in regard to notice methods. structive in regard to police methods n New York, it proved attractive to girls and with them the Police De

Russia and other countries heretofore considered experts in the art of preventing publicity will have to come to Italy to The only branch of the exhibit here are several tables illustrating enement conditions in New York ather strikingly. Thus one group of igures shows that in Manhattan alone here were in July of this year 19,688 rather strikingly. living rooms without windows. In Brooklyn the number of windowless rooms was 47,962; in the Bronx, 768; in Queens, 3,032, and in Richmond, 199.

Even more interesting as well as more appalling is the number of tene-ment homes in New York. The total number of tenement homes for Man-humber of tenement homes for Manhattan is placed at 516,737; Brooklyn, 243,373; Bronx, 88,343; Queens, 19.581, and Richmond, 2,113.

In other words there are some 300,-000 tenement homes in New York according to the figures of the Health Department. Of these homes, something like 72,000 have windowless living rooms.

After describing tenement conditions more in detail by the same use of figures, the Tenement House Department then comes to an interesting little table about the number of people that were burned in tenements during the year 1910, which is the year for which all figures are compiled. The figures of persons who have lost their lives in tenement house free, was given as twenty-seven for fires was given as twenty-seven for Manhattan and eleven for Brooklyn. Present Cheerful Side.

This painstaking work of investi-gation shown by the Tenement House Department could not be duplicated in any other department. Thus when having a bad effect upon the people, who are becoming very restless.

The British, German and Russian Ambassadors have been in constant conference with the Grand Vizier and are said to be urging the Porte to submit to Italy. The strikers testiled that he was arrested while picketing the shop, but the magistrate fined him on general principles.

The strike was called on August 30, as the result of the discharge of twenty-three of the most active workers of the union. Grossman operated a union shop n New York and moved recently to Brooklyn, where he started the fight against the union. A new scale of wages was submitted to Grossman by a representative of the Boot and Shoe Workers' Union on August 10, and he immediately commenced to discharge the union men. into houses. The woman, who had cried a little while with the matron, set her jaw and refused to answer. To Coleman's questioning as to her name and address, she said she was Mrs. Margaret Webber, of 135 Meeker avenue, that she had a husband and that she was not guilty of burglary. Later she said that she was Mrs. Margaret Schultz and that she was Mrs. Margaret Schwartz.

Among the effects of the pair were found yesterday this rubber stamp and a number of blank checks of the Union Savings Bank of Pitts-, burg.

According to the confession which Mr. Donnelly gave out, the girl states that after leaving Celorado Springs, where she and Christie first got a where she and Christie first got a small amount of money by an alieged forgery, they landed in Pueblo, and at once obtained from a hotel manager there $70. At Ogden one of, their checks on the Pittsburg bank brought them $75 from the Healy Hotel, and soon they got the same amount from the Utah Hotel, in Salt Lake City. Other items are: The Grand Hotel at San Diego, Cal., $70; the Sacramento Hotel at Sacramento at San Diego, Cal., $70; the Sacramento Hotel at Sacramento Cal., $70; $60 from a merchant in Los Angeles to whom the girl was introduced by a Mrs. Elizabeth Ehms, of that city, and who is said to have known the girl as Alice Black; $75 from a hotel at Coronada Beach, Cal.; $150 from the Merchants' Exchange Bank in El Paso, Tex., and, finally, $100 from the Central National Bank in New Orleans.

Mohler substantiated the girl's statement, it is said. He would not go into particulars, when arrested, but simply said, according to the detect-ives, "You've got the right man." He lves, "You've got the right man." He said he was ready to go with the Pinkertons to Now Orleans, where he is first wanted, and would not fight extradition. When arrested he first gave the name of F. A. Christie and produced what seemed to be fake letters to the effect that he was a brother of the artist. Later he admitted his right name was Francis A. Mohlar and said that he came from a wealthy family in Pittsburg.

THE WORLD'S SERIES

First Game Between Giants Athletics Will Be Played in New York on October 14.

A busy day was put in by the National Commission yeaterday arranging for the world's series between the Giants and Athletics. Most of the plans were decided on, though the announcement that the fans most want to know about is to come later. That has to do with the method of selling and disposing of tickets. That detail is in the hands of the New York Club for New York and the Philadelphia Club for Philadelphia, and will be furnished to the public in a day or two.

The New York Club won the toss for the right to name the piace of the dist game, which will be played in New York on Saturday, October 14. The rest of the schedule as adopted is as follows: October 16, Philadelphia; October 17, New York; October 18, Philadelphia; October 19, New York; October 20, Philadelphia.

York; October 18, Philadelphia; October 19. New York; October 20. Philadelphia. If the standing of the teams shows the probability or necessity for the playing of the seventh game to decide the winner, the grounds on which such seventh game shall be played must be determined as provided by the rules by the commission before the commencement of the sixth game. The place of the seventh game is decided by lot. In case of an incompleted game, the tickets are good for the day on which it is played off.

The umpires appointed are Klem and Brennah, of the National League, and Connolly and Dineen, of the American League.

LANGFORD AND CAPONI.

The Two Will Clash Tonight at the Twentieth Century A. C.

Sam Langford, the "black demon," who has met and defeated every white hope for the championship title, will meet Tony Caponi, the rusged Western light heavyweight, tonight at the Twentieth Century Athletic Club. Caponi is younger, faster and cleverer than Langford, and is a glutton for punishment. The outcome of the match will be awaited with keen interest, particularly in the West where Caponi has won his spurs.

The referee, Charley White, will instruct both men regarding the rules before they enter the ring, as Caponi claims that Langford fouled him the last time they fought. As the show will be given at the r ular prices, the capacity of the St. Nicholas Rink, 66th street and Broadway, is expected to be tested to the limit.

STARTS FOR YEAR IN BROOK LYN - STANDARD REPERTOIR OF ORATORIOS TO BE STUDIED.

By Harry Chapin Pin With the initial meeting of the Peo ple's Singing Classes, maintained-by the People's Choral Union of New York, in Brooklyn last night, the active work of the big organization for evening the season was started. The meeting tober last night, which took place at the Ethical Culture Society rooms, 527 Vanderbilt avenue, assembled the Brooklyn advanced class for the first of its sessions to be held weekly throughout the season on Thursday evenings. Next Sunday afternoon the first of the Manhattan advanced classes meetings will be opened at th Ethical Culture Society Building, 63d street and Central Park West.

The classes for beginners will be Public School 186, 145th street, west of Amsterdam avenue.

Associated with Frank Damrosch, the director of the People's Choral Union, in the faculty of instructors of the singing classes are the following: Edward G. Marquard, Miss Harriet Adams DePuy, Mrs. Clotilde Egbert, Miss Eleanor Hague, Mrs. Ida V. Enders, I. Rosenblatt, Miss Elizabeth Munsie, Miss Catherine Conway Miss Lucy M. Marks, Miss Jean Un derhill, William F. Hirschman, Miss Mary C. Barrett and Miss Jessie M Utler.

Concerning the movement, Theo dore Shorste, secretary of the union

People of all ages from 16 to 60 are welcome if they have a real love for music and a serious purpose to study. Dr. Damrosch's efforts as a missionary in popular musical culture have had the loyal support of other qualified teachers and musicians in the course of the eighteen years during which People's Singing Classes have been in existence.

The People's Choral Union under the personal direction of Dr. Damrosch is now carrying on these classes in the spirit in which he called them into life. They are open to all. It is easy to get in and easy to get out.

The instruction is of the very best, because all the teachers teach for the love of the work, not because they are paid; for they receive no compen The course of study to be pursue

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 6

FALL IN LINE

Your place tomorrow night, and the place of every one you can persuade to come, is at Cooper Union, or in the Brooklyn parade in Brooklyn, a full account of which was in yesterday's Call.

The facts in the McNamara outrage and of the latest open conspiracy against labor will then be set forth. As the trial begins on Tuesday of next week this will be the last chance of the people of Greater New York to protest against the outrage. The meetings will be held by the McNamara Defense Conferences, of which Locals New York and Kings and their branches are a part. Cooper Union should not only be jammed to the doors, but Cooper Square Cooper should be crowded from curb to curb and Willoughby avenue should rendered impassable, for this is a fight against lynch law.

It is not only a question of defending their rights of individuals, the McNamaras, not only of protecting the interests of the assailed Bridge and Structural Iron Workers' Union, but it is a fight against kidnapping, burglarizing of union headquarters, planting of "evidence," organization of the spy system, a campaign of slander, falsehood and vilifiation and the violation of all the rights the inabitants of this country have held sacred and have vigorously

If the people look apathetically at the abrogation of their liber-ties and view with indifference the violation of all personal rights, then it will be an invitation to the conspirators to go ahead to still further and greater assaults.

But if there is an uprising of an outraged working class, if there is a lineup of all those who consider liberty sacred, and if the protest in New York and Brooklyn assumes the form of a tremendous demonstration of the working class of the Greater City, then their SHOULD, imprisoned brothers, held illegally on the other side of the continent. will be saved and the persons responsible for the kidnapping will understand that they cannot railroad men to the gallows.

And in doing this you are not only fighting for the lives of the McNamaras and for the salvation of a great trades union, but you are also fighting for your cwn rights.

So you must come to Cooper Union or Willoughby avenue tofrow night, and you must send the word along so that others will

They should be the most impressive gatherings ever held in this city, for the thing that brings them about is one of the most striking, brutal and brazen violations of right that has ever occurred.

The Bridge and Structural Iron Workers' Union is composed of the men who put up the great skeleton steel frames of the buildings of which we are so proud and who erect the tremendous bridges over which we pass in safety. It is an occupation in which only the strongest, hardiest, coolest and most active men may engage. They are all select workers. Yet the toll of death is appalling. No other occupation is more hazardous. Yet in spite of that the employers have fought with might and main to keep wages down to the starvation point. The Steel Trust, and its subsidiaries, do not care if a thousand men fall mangled and dead so long as profits can be made of the business. But the union has been fighting desperately, fighting continually, striking and agitating, to raise wages and have proper precautions taken in the work. They have been successful in forcing wages upward and in shortening the hours of labor.

This in itself constitutes an almost unpardonable crime, and it is the one of which the men have been guilty.

Out in Los Angeles there is a person named Gen. Harrison Gray Otis. He is the owner of a paper called the Times, and his and its mission in life is to vilify the working class, smash trades unions and persecute trades unionists.

The Times' plant was wrecked on October 25, 1910, and every-thing indicated that the explosion was due to gas. Otis has had no more regard for the safety and comfort of those who worked for him than he has for the working class in general. But the occasion was too good a one to lose, and, though he collected insurance, he immediately asserted that the disaster was due to a "conspiracy of labor."

He saw therein a chance to strike the working class and insult it. In conjunction with the Erectors' Union, an organization whos e purpose is to wreck the Bridge and Structural Iron Workers Union, Otis sought to hold the iron workers responsible. They hired William J. Burns, head of one of those detective agencies which Otis sought to hold the iron workers responsible. They have usurped the police functions of society, and which operate with an impunity and audacity that put them beyond all law.

Burns and his employes immediately got busy and "discovered" dynamite, bombs, sales slips of nitroglycerin and other things where-by they hoped to implicate the union men.

tural Iron Workers' Union, was seized in Indianapolis on April 22, rushed before a complying judge who actually had no jurisdiction in the matter, and hustled to Los Angeles, where he was thrown into juil. during the course of the conversation, he ventured to say that he was both a Socialist and an ardent supporter of labor unions. Whereupon the But his captors did not care about that. They depended upon their absolute control of the courts and the civic authorities to get away with it. And they did.

The instant the seizure was made every capitalist agency of publicity in this country got busy slandering the men, lauding Burns, attacking trades unions, accusing them of crime and violence, and in-sinuating that at last the "malefactors" were caught. McClure's Magazine, which has but recently come under the control of J. Pierpont Morgan—who is interested in the Steel Trust—went to the length of absolutely pronouncing the case of Burns a clear and sound one. This was equivalent to saying, even though the trial had not taken place, that the McNamaras were guilty. It was part of the conspiracy to inflame public opinion against them so they could be sacrificed to the rapacity and brutality of the Steel Trust. A more insidiously contemptible and cowardly action has seldom been performed by any American publication, not even by the Los Angele

Times, the organ of Otis. There is but one defense against this, but one way to save the McNamaras and defend the trades unions that are fighting for better conditions for the working class.

That is YOU and your fellow working men and working women The old hall has been the scene of many famous protests against violation of liberty, but never has there been one more important than this. Your future rights to combine for mutual protection are involved. YOU are on trial as well as the McNamaras. Your liberty and life are menaced as well as theirs. The McNamara Defense Conference has been working day and night to get the workers of New York into line. The mem ence realize what is at stake and they call upon you now to help them.

The shout you raise tomorrow night at Cooper Union and in the vicinity of the Brooklyn Labor Lyceum will not only be heard by the conspirators in Wall Street, but it will be heard in Los Angeles as well. It will be an announcement to the conspirators that you do You had intend to be victimized and you do not intend to allow the mem-stay away

Up to a comparatively short, time the Socialist party of this city as little considered by the old part) been embodied with an eternal old party politicisms began to realize that their parties were not only not in-reasing in strength but that they were speedily losing the support and

The local capitalist newspapers, as far as the last Congressional election. with few exceptions treated the Soialist party as some sort of a sect or general organization of kindergargeneral organization of kindergal-tens. There was a good deal of reason for this, for even today there are many Connecticut local Socialist organizations who take little or no nterest in the doings of their respec-ive municipalities. .However, the State election of 1910 has, it will appear, shown a differ-ent direction for the political weather-vane of this city. In this change Comrade Robert Hunter had a lion's share. Last year Comrade Hunter s the standard bearer of the Connecticut Socialist party, commanded larger audiences than any other speaker during the campaign. It happened for the first time in this State that a Socialist campaign speaker has that a Socialist campaign speaker has extensively explained the principles of Socialism by casting aside the pat phrases of many Socialists and put his ideas in the plainest language. He has mercilestly exposed the rec-ords of the State and national mis-legislators of Connecticut. In fact Compade Hunter did his work so well omrade Hunter did his work so wel that the Republican and Democratic parties quoted him in denouncing each other. The present municipal campaign is becoming productive of many useful things to the Socialists as a whole. The ridicule and sneered at the speakers and some misrepresented it. The present attitude of these publications can best be seen by the following:

The Bridgeport Telegram, which was rather slow in opening up its columns for Socialism, contains these editorial etchings: "The Bridgeport Socialism we have in the line of political parties."

At this time, the Socialist movement will witness one of the greatest events are about as active as anything we have in the line of political parties."
"At this time the Socialist movement is being pushed forward in a most systematic manner." "It is up to the Republican party to nominate a strong candidate for mayor if they expect to make a showing in the coming election, irrespective of the candidate who will lead the Democrata and it must be remembered that the Socialists are not to be a negligible quantity in the coming fight." The Bridgeport Farmer, the Democratic organ, has for the first time begun to assail the Socialists and shows a white feather, although the Democrata have not yet made their nominations. SUFFRAGETTES AND CONSERVA- | dred and five

Editor of The Call: The radical element of this country often ask themselves whether the suf-frugettes are really sincere in their at-titude toward women suffrage. As we chaerve the great mass meetings in in gainful occupations Cooper Union and Carnegie Hall, we they must toil 40 years find men to advocate the cause such ing the minimum pen as Governors of various Democratic it may be ethically ju as Governors of various Democratic and Republican States. We find for instance the Governor of Colorado reliciting a flaming sentence such as instance the Governor of Colorado reliciting a flaming sentence such as of toil in a community equipose our representation is tyranny." "It is a fact obvious in itself," continued is the speaker of Colorado, "that men assumed power for their own benefit, assumed power for their own benefit, assumed power is always usurped power, and he that usurps power is a tyrant, and a tyrant should be dealt with according to law." We must bear in mind that these are the words of a Republican party representative and a "ruler" of a State. We find that the gentleman who has spoken these sweet words is a member of the Republican party, which is a body of Republican party, which is a body of ease and could be as at least a partial particular of the same and the strenge pro-immigration is comit of the day an immigration is comit of the day and the day and immigration is comit of the day and immigration is c

Let us also remem-ber that the dog seldom bites his mus-ter, and that the judges cannot defy their dictators. It is necessary to be aware of the fact that the adminis-trator of justice in our chaotic States at the present time are but the in-strument by which the exploiters usurp the powers of Government, the very women who invited the Gover-nors to speak, are ignorant of the fact that even these gentlemen are part of the great system of machinery which helps to keep their sex dis-franchised and suppressed. "Ignor-ance is the mother of all ill doings." Those of us who believe in this grea movement hope that the splendid body of women will soon tear down the shadow of ignorance and at once stop crouching before the politicians. Is this august body of women aware that they are but a laughing stock in the eyes of the great trust and monopoly owners whenever they come out to ask for liberty. These monop-oly owners have become "bipeds" wrought by our present system of solety, who have neither sympathy no love, for they have been deprived of all that in the mad rush for the coin. The women who want the franchise must become millitant, do away with licking the boot that kicks them; the nust come out, stand erect and derevolutionary, for it must be remem-bered that they have absolutely no power by which to persuade the politician, the tool of the hour, to compet them to recognize their legality in society. THE OLD AGE PENSION BILL AGAIN.

Editor of The Call: The meaning of the hullabaloo over Mr. Berger's old age pension bill is pretty well understood by three out of every five Socialists in New York City and by well understood by three out of every five Socialists in New York City and by perhaps two out of five in that dormitory of sleepless souls. Brooklyn. About 75 per cent of this hullabaloo would have been raised no matter what the provisions of the bill. It might have set the age limit at 10 years instead of 60, the pensions at $25 a week instead of $4, and it might have welcomed every immigrant with a brass band, a certificate of naturalization and a deed for 100 acres of and, and still have awakened an equal lamor from the twin villages on the Hudson. Persons who lie awake nights planning to—"start something" usually find plenty of occasion for their activities. And therefore I am sorry that my personal friend, I. M. Rubinow, and my pistolary and long distance friend, W. R. Shier, of Toronto, could not have possessed their souls in patience for a while and waited until the present agitation habbeen swallowed up in some new issue more promising of "results," and the time had come for a sober discussion of this measure.

But the challenge has been put forth, and though I am busy down here with a lundred matters I must take up the subject again for reply. I hope for the present that this is the last fine.
