WOULD KEEP LIGHT ABURNING.

To the Daily and Weekly People:—Enclosed find one dollar for which please renew my subscription to the Weekly People for one year. I send one dollar as I don't want to receive such a good paper as the Weekly People for only fifty cents. I want to see the light kept aburning. The People cleared my mind, and I consider it the only Socialist paper in the English language, in this country that teaches the workers the correct Socialist doctrine. No man is worthy of the name Socialist who does not strive to unite the workers on the economic field in the I. W. W.

With best wishes, I remain,
Yours for the Revolution,
Geo. P. Rauter.

MACHINISTS ON STRIKE IN BUTTE.

To the Daily and Weekly People:—In reply to A. Jacobson, I will say that the machinists' strike here is on, and there appears no basis of settlement. The machinists here belong to the International Association of Machinists and have no affiliation or fraternal relation with the W. F. M. or I. W. W.

WINNING—FOR THE MASTERS.

To the Daily and Weekly People:—Says the "Electrical World" of August 17 on the telegraphers' strike, "As a matter of fact, it is a pity the strike is not more thorough-going, as then the telegraphic managements would be more forcibly compelled to abandon hand labor and take up the various automatic systems that are so eminently worthy of adoption to-day."

There's an instance of "brother capital" having the same interests as "brother labor"! "Hurrah for the A. F. of L. and down with the I. W. W." is the sentiment of the capitalist class. The I. W. W. would have every lineman engineer, operator, storage battery man and laborer out on strike. Then the companies would thing twice. To me it looks as if the strike was as good as broken. So the Gompers style union has won—for the masters.

Yours,
E. A. See.

"MOST STRAIGHT-FORWARD, FEARLESS, AND UNCOMPROMISING."

To the Daily and Weekly People:—Find enclosed money order for one dollar; 50 cents toward renewal of my subscription to the Weekly People, and the balance of 50 cents for book entitled "Collectivism and Industrial Evolution" by Emil Vandervele. As an S. P. member I can cheerfully state that The People is the most straight-forward, fearless and uncompromising publication within the Socialist Movement, and deserves the support of every wage-worker, especially of those who are enlisted in the fight for industrial liberty. It is a pity that such an able champion of revolutionary Socialism has not the circulation of the Appeal to Reason. When once working class papers of "The People" and "Industrial Union Bulletin" type obtain a circulation as large as that of the "Appeal" which is said to be 300,000, then the jig will be up with the exploiters of labor.

Workers who are enlisted in the movement to emancipate their class, no matter with which party they are affiliated, should push the circulation of The People and the Industrial Union Bulletin, instead of wasting their time in getting subscriptions for so-called Working Class papers, run for profit by private individuals, and which are further confusing the already muddled wage slaves. The writer has, at one time, been guilty of devoting his spare moments to hustling for "subs" for these latter papers, but from now on he will make an effort to get subs for real Working Class publications.

Yours for the Revolution,
Frank Hefferly.

THE WONDERFUL FUTURE SERVANT OF THE WORKERS.

To the Daily and Weekly People:—I sit and read your valuable paper with the echo of one of the most modern saw mills there is. I have not seen many, I am willing to confess, but I believe this is one of the most modern. It is quite up-to-date. Here the friend of the (future) laborer works with almost human intelligence, grasping a gigantic log as a person would a sapling and twisting it onto the carriage to be cut into the desired lengths, thickness, etc. It is truly an interesting sight to behold, and then to see the saws filed by emery stones—it runs beyond a person's imagination. But what pains me is to see the slaves trudge (they don't walk; they can't; they are all but worn out) off to do their master's task; and to think that many of them are half-baked Socialists. If they could only be inflamed by the true spark of unionism, the I. W. W., what a blessing it would be, and the Diamond Match Company would be in a bad fix. They own the only saloon that is allowed on the ranch, the great store, one-half the city, all the hills, the railroad, the telephone, the leading hotel—but what is the use enumerating; like Monte Cristo, the world is theirs. But I do wish that you would get some one who knows how to condense this thing into one line, and put it into The People, and see if the Weekly People could not get it into the heads of some of the weak-minded people that they should drop the logs and look up for a moment and realize what they could do for themselves. I know that the machine is so arranged that if they look up without letting go they may lose some of their fingers, or will probably get cut into strips like the logs do. Any way I know you receive bushels of these letters from fellows all over the country, and you do not have time to read them, and I don't blame you. But if you could call the attention of some of those fellows that waste their lungs on Post and Filmore streets in Frisco, may be they might "hit a freight" and come up here among some of these well exposed but poorly developed Socialists, as an amateur photographer might describe them.

Yours truly,
I. W. W.
Sterling, Cal., August 1.

VALUES PRODUCED BUT NOT ENJOYED.

To the Daily and Weekly People:—In this day's issue of the New York Herald, Leslie M. Shaw, ex-secretary of the United States treasury, is quoted as follows:

"OUR farms produce more than $5,500,000,000 per annum, and the prospect is good for an average crop.
"OUR mines yield more than $1,500,000,000, and OUR forests more than $1,000,000,000, etc., etc."

One of the chief obstacles a Socialist speaker or advocate meets is the difficulty of elucidating this term OURS. Let us assume that a workingman secures a barrel of this flour of OURS, and, by the skill and labor of his wife produces hundreds of loaves of good bread for use, not for sale. His family, in that case, do not refer to the production of value of thousands of cents, or so many dollars, but rather, realize that a necessity has been produced, and if the family is "safe and sane" they forthwith put the bread to the use, the only use that sane people would, they eat it. But here we find the political quack and barbarian politician referring to the production of thousands of millions of value, in this, that or the other products, when in reality the production of the dollars necessary to measure values under this capitalist system, and the consequent juggling with real values by myriads of non-producers who eat real values, but do not produce them, causes excessive toil to the producers and distributors, and lessens the production of real wealth in society while causing a never ending conflict in society between the wage earners and the wage payers.

When the capitalist economist is put into his corner, he is utterly unable to explain the conflict in the distribution of "OURS," while the machinery of law, physical force, anarchy and all the opposites of Socialism are brought into play to even up these inevitable contradictions of the wages system.

While all this discussion of wealth, and its effect upon society is being indulged in by those who are supposed to have superior wisdom to the ordinary Socialist, would it not be a refreshing contrast to have a precise statement from some of these expert authorities as to why the products of farm, mine, and factory cannot be used and enjoyed by the actual producers and distributors, thereby doing away with conflict of wages and artificial values.

AS TO LANGUAGE FEDERATIONS

[Pursuant to motion adopted July 12, 1907, by the N. E. C., the columns of The People are opened for discussion, suggestions, or proposed amendments bearing upon the admission of Language Federations to membership in the S. L. P. All matter received upon this subject will be published under the above heading. Keep all contributions to this discussion short and to the point.]

By Frank Basky, Palisades Park, N. J.

If a little space is allowed I wish to submit a few facts about the American Hungarian Socialist Labor Federation for the consideration of the members of the S. L. P.

The Hungarian Socialist movement began with the formation of a club here in New York about five years ago. That club was independent, that is, it did not endorse either of the two Socialist parties. As the result of the work of the revolutionary members (I mean the active members), quite some clubs were formed in nearby cities. The work of these clubs enabled them to start a small monthly paper, which appeared on the 1st of May, 1903. After six months it was made a semi-monthly paper. The work then became harder, especially so because some of those who were most enthusiastic at first became "tired."

A convention of the Hungarian Socialist clubs was called by the New York club, and was held on 2nd and 3rd of April, 1904. Sixteen clubs were represented at the convention. They formed the "American Hungarian Socialist Federation of Labor." It was independent of party affiliation, but for their declaration of principles they adopted the platform of the S. L. P. The elected executive board, the secretary and the editor were instructed not to use their offices or the paper for furthering the interest of either of the two Socialist parties, but they, as individuals, were left free to do as they might please. These instructions were carried out by the officials, who, by the way, almost without exception, had been S. L. P. men, though not S. L. P. members. This fact was quite natural. These men were REVOLUTIONARY SOCIALISTS and this implies that these men were willing to sacrifice money and time. This is not true of the sympathizers of the S. P.

Meanwhile the members of the New York club arranged a debate on the difference between the S. P. and the S. L. P. The S. P. men got Lissauer to speak English and Hungarian. The S. L. P. men got Jäger to speak English and Louis Basky to speak Hungarian. Lissauer, instead of defending the S. P., defended the A. F. of L. Perhaps he felt that if he could white-wash the professors" such as Goldwin Smith and intellectual prostitutes of less degree.

ECHOES OF COBALT.

To the Daily and Weekly People:—When the Cobalt Miners' strike started, the magistrate of that place said that never in the history of strikes had he seen or heard of such orderly conduct as was maintained by the miners. The women could walk the streets at night without the slightest fear of molestation.

Since the strike started, however, Organizer Roadhouse and others have been holding forth on the public square and their "socialistic" utterances have provoked the capitalist class of the land to such an extent that they have issued injunctions against the officers of the Cobalt W. F. M., including organizer Roadhouse; and the latest move is to secure government aid to put an end to the "anarchistic" meetings on the square; and this in spite of the fact that the peaceful conduct of the strikers has been a surprise and a disappointment to the "law and order" element of the brigand class.

Now, the capitalist class has several daily mouth-pieces in this city, but they manipulate the news of the Cobalt strike in such a way that the industrial form of unionism is not advertised to benefit the wage-worker. The evening papers which most of the working class buy, come out from time to time with the assurance, "the Cobalt strike is over," and that the camp is peaceful. Then the Morning World (which is bought by the middle and capitalist classes), comes out with its wall of woe, uttering all the curses of Hades against Roadhouse and the W. F. M. at Cobalt. The enclosed clipping from the Toronto World of the 17th speaks for itself. The boldface type full page headline clearly shows the effect the stinging lashes of Roadhouse's oratory are having on our "desirable citizens" and "honorable citizens" such as Goldwin Smith and intellectual prostitutes of less degree.

A. F. of L. why, its political reflex would be white-washed at the same time.

The incident sharpened the secret fight between the sympathizers of the S. P. and of the S. L. P. within the ranks of the Federation. By this time we had made our paper a weekly paper. This was done on the 7th of October, 1904. The fight between the two elements became so sharp and the S. P. sympathizers grew so desperate that they issued circulars to the different branches of the Federation in which they stated that the officials of the Federation were bought by the S. L. P. A great number of the locals sent the circular, back to the Executive Board. The Executive Board called a special meeting of that body which is composed of the delegates from the nearby locals. (I do not know what the correct name for that body would be in English but it is something like the N. E. C. of the S. L. P.) At the special meeting of this body all the officials resigned. This meeting decided to call a special convention, which they called for the 6th of November, 1904. In the order of business, among other things, there was the question of joining one of the Socialist parties. At the meeting of delegates from the locals mentioned above the editor, the secretary and the executive board were instructed to do their usual work until the convention, which they did.

The convention was called and held as a closed convention, with 24 locals represented by about 48 delegates. After the opening of the convention, one of the delegates (the S. P. leader) got up and asked (although he knew it well) whether it was a closed convention. The members of the Executive Board answered that it was called as such, but if the delegates wanted to make it an open convention they might do so. A motion was put to the effect that it be closed, and it was adopted with 28 for and 9 against. Thereupon about 7 men, representing 4 locals, bolted the convention declaring that they as Socialists would not take part in a closed convention. (Later on it was learned that they were all S. P. delegates and had foreseen their defeat and had not the moral courage to face it.)

After discussing the question of joining the S. L. P. the vote was taken and stood as follows: 14 for joining the S. L. P., 4 for neutrality, none for the S. P., the representatives of the S. P. having left.

What was the result? We lost 4 locals, the New York local (the strongest) among them. For months immediately thereafter they didn't do anything but try to smash the Federation. We had only 15 locals, with not more than 300 members; and what was the worst of all, the Nepakarat, with its burdens, had been made a weekly paper just before the convention.

What is the situation to-day, 3 years after? We have 30 locals, with about 800 members. There are two locals in New York, with about a hundred members. The Nepakarat is greatly enlarged and published semi-weekly. Last year we had about $2,000 expenses and we were able to cover it. We will have at least $5,000 expenses this year and as the financial report shows, we will be able to cover this also—in fact, we have to cover it.

But the work we had to do to accomplish these results was a work that only S. L. P. men could have done, and I am proud that I took my share of this inspiring work, especially in the year after the convention.

Now we desire to become members of the S. L. P., without giving up the Federation. The Federation keeps the Hungarians united, and only the Federation can do this. If we can join the S. L. P. it means that the Hungarians are one with all the members of the S. L. P. of all nationalities. Now it depends upon the members of the S. L. P. whether they believe that we are a sort of "undesirable citizens" to the S. L. P. or not. But, be that as it may, we cannot help but fight for revolutionary Socialism, and for its representative in America, the S. L. P. and I. W. W.

In closing, I wish to state that the Executive Board of the Federation will issue an official statement about this matter, and put forth some more reasons why the S. L. P. should take in the federations of different nationalities.

It unfortunately happens at Cobalt that "Roadhouse, the socialist," overshadows and completely dominates "Roadhouse, the organizer" of labor seeking an increase in wages.

Hence the public denunciation of individuals that has passed the border of common decency. The judiciary has been styled the "capitalistic judge." What with Roadhouse's Socialism and the mine-managers' determination to give no kind of recognition to the Western Federation, is it possible for any mediation

LETTER-BOX

OFF-HAND ANSWERS TO CORRESPONDENTS.

R. K., CLEVELAND, OHIO.—When the "editor," "special editor," "cartoonist editor" and the numerous "state editors" compiled their editorial entitled "Some Queer Ethics," the imposing "staff" fell into error. The People "lifted" not a line from their very "special 8 page edition," nor from any of their editions. The People received Haywood's testimony, typewritten, from Wade R. Parks, just as The People had previously received and published the testimony of Moyer and much other testimony which has never appeared in the paper of editors many and various. No doubt what tempted the "staff" to "fall into error" was the hope of getting advertisement through the refutation of their lie.

R., NEW YORK, N. J.—1. Trinity Corporation is not Catholic but Episcopal.
2. If Trinity Corporation wanted to use her millions for the benefit of her poor members, she might as well use them in the handling of her land and ramshackle tenements, where they are now invested, as to invest them in "cooperative stores." If she established "cooperative stores" with intent of selling cheap the various employers of the neighborhood would get the benefit. All their employment bureaus would advertise the fact that the cost of living was low in that locality—the increased competition of the workers for jobs there would soon make wages in that locality also low.

J. H. H., QUINCY, ILL.—1. Every energy that the working class devotes to an attempt to establish such a reform as old age pensions is misdirected, because that energy is wanted by the revolutionary movement.
2. As stated in the editorial, "Nothing could be more competent for the perpetual enslavement of the working class than a system that would support them upon the elusive combination of wages, tips, profit sharing, and pensions."
3. The basis of the Socialist Republic will be the control of industry by the industrially organized workers—not government ownership. That is the reason the building of the industrial organization, to take control of industry, is just as important as the building of the political organization to declare the triumph at the ballot box of the principles of Socialism.

A. B., CHICAGO, ILL.; M. H., DENVER, COLO.—Matter received.

History of Civilization

By Julian Laughlin

THIS BOOK is a historic presentation of the development of ideas. It shows the oneness of the human brain in its conception of things. The dweller amid Arctic snows and he of the torrid zone think along substantially identical lines.

The work sets forth the ethnic development of peoples, parallel with geological revolutions of the earth.

Mr. Laughlin is not a Socialist; his work has not the grounding that the materialist conception of things would give. Yet no Socialist could read the work without pleasure and profit.

Over 500 illustrations from the best masters, in painting and sculpture, make luminous the author's text.

We can supply the book, which is 526 pages, cloth-bound, for $3 per copy, postage prepaid. Cash orders only.

WAKE UP! WAKE UP!

THE PROPAGANDA IS FALLING BEHIND AT A TIME WHEN ACTIVITY SHOULD PREVAIL.

For the week ending August 23rd we received 112 subs to the Weekly People and 25 mail subs to the Daily People, a total of 137 for the week.

There are thousands upon thousands of wage workers hungry for the message that our press conveys, and the low subscription record that has prevailed for some time back is simply astounding in the face of this fact.

yearly subscription per month from each Party member would yield 500 per week, is it not surprising that but 112 should be forthcoming?

It is high time for each one to resolve that from now on he will do his share, and the result will be fewer calls upon you for support and the inauguration of a gigantic propaganda as well.

CRIPPLE CREEK METHODS.

A broken-down newspaper reporter swears that Roadhouse's speeches have the effect of keeping men from going to work, and, from his investigation among the men, he finds that if the open air speeches were stopped large numbers of men would return to work at once.

In this way the mine managers are almost hurting themselves in an attempt to prohibit picketing, open air meetings, and everything which tends to keep the mines shut down, and to spread the doctrine of industrial unionism.

However, we are increasing the number of union men every day. The mines working under the schedule are increasing their forces, and everything points to a complete victory for the workers, in the face of every obstacle placed in our way by the employers.

Industrial unionism draws the venom of the capitalists. Craft unionism gets all the slobber of the exploiters of the wage slaves.
