What "Next" Will Do

Preliminary Sketch for First Page of Our New Paper, Drawn by ARTHUR E. FOWLER.

A Great Propaganda Paper

We are giving this week specimens of what we can do in the way of Socialist cartoons and what will be done in "NEXT."

You will see here samples of the work of the ablest Socialist cartoonists in America. Ryan Walker will continue his famous series of "Fairy Stories from Real Life," begun in "The Socialist," but not completed. One of these "Continued Stories in Cartoon" will appear in each issue of "NEXT."

Arthur E. Fowler, who made his reputation on "The Socialist," and started a paper of his own, is now back again in Seattle and will be a constant contributor to "NEXT."

A. T. Renfro is another of the best who have worked on "The Socialist." His great "Parasites on the Breast of Labor" will be remembered by all.

Max Brodkey is a cartoonist with few superiors for original and striking ideas. We expect him to do even better work for "NEXT" than he has done for "The Socialist."

W. Davis is a recent addition to our staff of artists. He has shown great talent and is very popular with our readers. His was that recent picture of the Colorado worker strung up by his thumbs.

Still another fine cartoonist, who does occasional work for us, is George Hager, whose "President Roosevelt's Message" attracted wider attention, being reproduced in the "Literary Digest." We reprint it herewith.

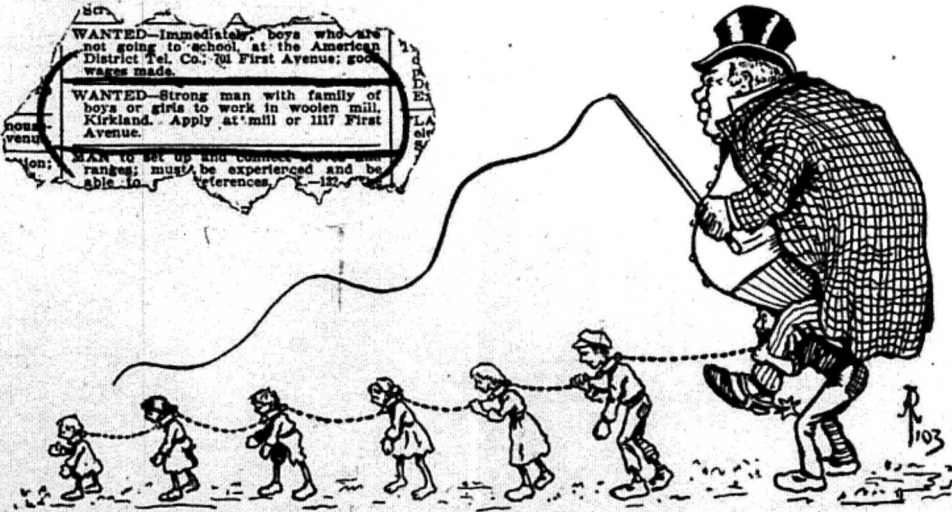

We believe our prospects with "NEXT" fully warrant us in assuring Locals and Comrades everywhere that this will be the best propaganda Socialist paper ever issued. It will make stunning campaign material.

Remember, it will not be a Party paper, and so will not conflict with any other paper. Its aim is to teach in the simplest possible way the first principles of Socialism. It will not be all pictures, though. A page will be devoted to Socialist news of the world. From time to time the best writers will present in the plainest way the subject of Socialism for beginners. It will be a paper to put into the hands of workingmen who are on strike, for instance. In a word, it will show that the workingman is next, that Socialism is next, that the co-operative commonwealth is the next step in human progress, and not far off at that. Do you get next, Comrades? Then get a move on you and cut off that southwest corner of this page. See?

A Man Who Will Never "Get Next."

A LEAF FROM LIFE—AS IT IS

GET BUSY

Comrade Besse has donated fifty thousand of these shares to the publishers of "NEXT." We will use fifteen thousand for a LUCKY THIRTEEN PRIZE CONTEST, to be awarded to the thirteen persons who send the most money for subscriptions to "NEXT" before Sept. 15, 1904. Such subscriptions must be mailed not later than Sept. 15.

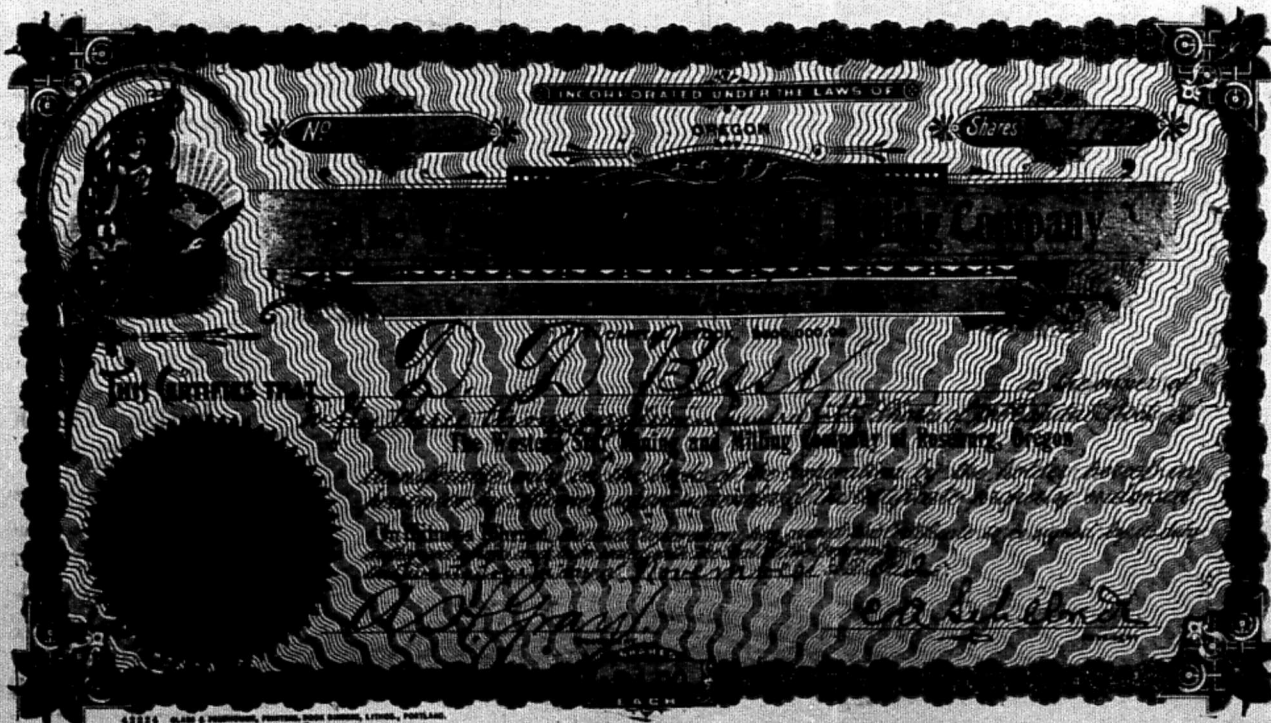

This is the greatest prize ever offered. Many people are investing in mining stock in the Northwest at 5 cents to 25 cents a share and making fortunes in a few months, as the mining properties are developed. No telling what you may get; 5,000 shares is the first prize, 3,000 the second, 1,500 the third, 1,000 the fourth, 900 the fifth, and so on down to 100 for the thirteenth.

ONLY FOUR WEEKS IN WHICH TO WORK. See the right hand lower corner of this page.

It is quite possible a small amount will capture the first prize. Yet there are thirteen prizes, the lowest being one hundred shares. What we want is a great number of contestants. "NEXT" should be put into the hands of fifty thousand workers.

Comrade Besse's Gift to "Next"

Fac Simile of His Certificate of Stock. He retains for himself only 3,750 shares, giving 50,000 shares to "NEXT." We are putting up 15,000 shares for prizes. Open to all.

Teddy to the Workingman: Don't stir down there; do you hear, don't stir? The foundations of society will be disturbed if you don't keep still.

GET NEXT!

Get next
Is now our text.
The question next
Is settled.
Each jarring sect,
Both pros and antis,
Now elect
That we the propaganda shall inject
Into these pages and proceed forthwith
To put the workers
"NEXT!"

Are you with poverty perplex?
Get "NEXT!"

Does Misery you her mate select,
Does Hunger all your dreams infect,
Are you an "abject and deject,"
Get "NEXT!"

Get "NEXT!"
Herein a plan we do project,
Wherein the chosen and elect
Are they whose sweaty hours of toil
Bring "life from out the sleeping soil,"
And we this life can well protect
If you and others but
Get "NEXT!"

ARTHUR E. FOWLER.

Clara Coulburn, Plaintiff, vs. Charles Coulburn, Defendant.
Summons for Publication, No. 43,128.
The State of Washington to the said Charles Coulburn, Defendant:
You are hereby summoned to appear within sixty days after the date of the first publication of this summons, to-wit: within sixty days from the 19th day of June, 1904, and defend the above entitled action in the above entitled Court, and answer the complaint of the Plaintiff, and serve a copy of your answer upon the Attorney for the Plaintiff at their office below stated, and in case of your failure so to do, judgment will be rendered against you according to the demands of the complaint which has been filed with the clerk of said Court.
That this action is brought for the purpose of obtaining a decree of divorce from the defendant upon the grounds of cruel and inhuman treatment, drunkenness and failure to provide for the support of the Plaintiff.
RICHARD WINSOR, EDGAR S. HADLEY, Office and P. O. address, Room 78 Sullivan Building, Seattle, King County, Washington.

SUMMONS BY PUBLICATION—No. 43,112.
—In the Superior Court of King County, State of Washington.
Chester S. Smith, Plaintiff, vs. Mary M. Smith, Defendant.
The State of Washington to the said Mary M. Smith:
You are hereby summoned to appear within sixty days after the date of the first publication of this summons, to-wit: within sixty days after the 14th day of August, 1904, to defend the above entitled action in the above named court, and answer the complaint of the plaintiff therein, and serve a copy of your answer upon the undersigned attorneys for the plaintiff at their office below stated, and in case of failure so to do, judgment will be rendered against you according to the demand of the complaint which has been filed with the clerk of this court.
The object of said action is to obtain a judgment of divorce in favor of said plaintiff against you as defendant on the ground of willful abandonment and desertion of the plaintiff for more than one year next prior to the commencement of this action, and for the purpose of obtaining the custody, control and care of the education of the two minor sons of the plaintiff and defendant.

Total for two weeks $35.75

We have sent out numerous lists for the comrades to circulate for donations, both flat and monthly. Will those who have received these lists please send them in as soon as possible?

Our friends have responded liberally, but we are very far from being out of the woods.

On account of the special effort made these two months, and by keeping the paper small, omitting cartoons and omitting one issue altogether, we have succeeded in gaining during June and July $261.22 over expenses. But the Business Manager had advanced since last December $387.22, most of which he had borrowed of friends; $148.20 of this he has been obliged to repay. This still leaves us over one hundred dollars on hand with which to pursue our publication.

We want to get as much ahead as possible by September 1, so as not to be embarrassed in the publication of "Next." We appreciate the cordial responses of our many comrades and friends. A little from each one makes the burden lighter for the few who have to meet the bills week by week. So please push those lists and send in the returns at the earliest possible moment.

Locals that desire to have a red hot propaganda meeting with Comrade Burgess as chief speaker will please report to this office at once.

E. E. MARTIN.

CALIFORNIA ITEMS.

Arthur Morrow Lewis will speak in Turk Street Temple Thursday, August 18, at 8 p. m. Subject, "Socialism and Religion." The question will be presented from the standpoint of the classic writers on Socialism.

Comrade Costley has fitted up a boat to transport Socialist speakers around the bay and river towns.

The Third Congressional District Locals are planning for a big campaign. A route has been arranged, including some twenty-eight towns, and speakers will be kept continually in the district until election. Comrade Leslie Brown is already at work in Vallejo and Benicia.

Mrs. Lena Morrow Lewis will deliver the Labor Day address at Jackson, Cal., under the auspices of the Miners' Union.

Locals and places between Jackson and San Francisco desiring the services of Mrs. Lewis between Sept. 6 and 12 will please write her at 1504 Market street, San Francisco.

Comrade Saljo, the organizer for the Japanese in Oakland, is announced to speak in Japanese on Grant avenue August 14 at 3 p. m.

MISSIS HIS BUTTON.
5649 Brooklyn Ave., Seattle, August 3d, 1904.

Dear Comrade Titus:
Have just read No. 208 and want to thank you for the masterly, scientific and unassailable answer you give to the Omaha critics.

There would be very few of these "kickers" if they would follow the advice embodied in the last paragraph of your article. Let them study the platform. It is in my opinion a classic and deserves the most careful study. Some object because they do not find the word "revolution" in the platform, though the idea of revolution is there expressed in clear and definite language.

Such puerile objections remind me of the schoolboy who had a habit of taking hold of one of his coat buttons when answering questions and whose mind was totally upset when his favorite button was missing.

It is gratifying to know that the platform was almost unanimously ratified by the comrades on referendum vote. Fraternally yours,
HORACE S. CROSBY.

DEAR OLD "SOCIALIST."

Arlington, Wn., Aug. 8, 1904.

Comrade H. F. Titus, Seattle, Wn.:
Enclosed you will find a money order for one dollar, for which you will please send one copy of "Next" for one year to Mr. Arthur Morris, Arlington, Wn., which costs 50 cents; the other 50 cents he wants you to use where it will do the most good.

Now, I have no kick at what the S. E. U. did at the last meeting, but I am sorry to see the dear old "Socialist" go, for I think it has done more good for our party than all of the other papers printed in the U. S. It is hard to estimate the great work it has done for the party, but I hope "Next" will continue the good work. I will do all I can to help you in the good work. You will hear from me soon.
J. W. MORRIS.

State Organizer A. G. Miller, of Boise, Idaho, has been expelled from Lo. al Boise for his "dishonorable, disreputable business methods" in connection with the Socialist Party. He owes "The Socialist" ten dollars for papers specially ordered by him as state organizer. The Boise comrades probably didn't know that. We don't advise Socialist papers to fill large orders unaccompanied by the cash, judging from our experience in Idaho and California. In the latter state we are still trying to collect an official bill now about two years old.

A SOCIALIST FORGER.

The most astonishing piece of nerve and exhibition of dishonorable action on the part of a Socialist editor ever seen, was that by Editor Southworth of the "Rocky Alliance" in Denver. He deliberately reproduced Debs' recent letter to "The Socialist" urging every comrade to rally to our support, only substituting his own name and that of his helper for ours, and signing it "E. V. Debs."

We have the best of authority for saying that Debs never wrote a line of the sort to Southworth. It was a deliberate forgery and obtaining of money under false pretenses, simply incredible.

This man Southworth is a candidate for State Secretary of Colorado and may be elected by this time. If so, the Colorado locals will know what to do.

12 TO 16 HOURS FOR $2.

Fairfield, Wn., Aug. 8, 1904.

Editor "Socialist":

At almost every place visited by me on the Sound I was told that the idle men could easily get employment in the harvest fields. For almost two weeks I have been in the harvest fields, and as a result I feel that I can speak with some authority upon this problem. At every point that I have visited in the wheat region I have found numbers of idle men. All of them tell me that they want work. All do work when they have a chance to work offered. At this place, sitting a few feet from me, are ten or twelve men who are just now telling their experiences. All agree they are required to work at least 12 hours for a day and in many cases, the honest rancher thinks sixteen hours about the proper caper. At this point there are so many masterless slaves begging for a master that $2.00 a day is the ruling rate for a robust, energetic slave. Oh, yes! our moral people do not mind telling us that over the hills is paradise. A little lie does not hurt them if by it they can escape from the hated presence of a masterless slave.

D. BURGESS.

BOUND TO LIVE.

Yelm, Wash., Aug. 3, 1904.

The Socialist:

Dear Comrade—Enclosed find two subscriptions, $1.00.

"The Socialist" is bound to live. I am picking up donations right along on the list you sent me.

Fraternally,
LEW W. LONGMIRE.
