SOCIALIST PARTY, STATE OF WASHINGTON.

ADOPTED JUNE 20, 1902.

"WORKINGMEN OF ALL COUNTRIES, UNITE! YOU HAVE NOTHING TO LOSE BUT YOUR CHAINS; YOU HAVE A WORLD TO GAIN!

We, the Socialist Party of Washington, in convention assembled, pro-claim our allegiance to the Socialist Party of America, and affirm our unfal-tering adherence to the principles and the program of international revolu-

In presenting our candidates to the working class and those in sym with it, we base our appeal upon the following declarations as our PLAT-FORM OF PRINCIPLES:

1. Labor produces all wealth.

Labor produces all wealth
 under the present economic and political conditions labor's share in the wealth which it creates is merely a mean and uncertain subsistence.
 So long as the present organization of industry remains the capitalist class will monopolize the machines of production and will appropriate, through the wage system, the wealth created by the working class.

This appropriation of labor's wealth by the capitalists is so complete that it enables them to live in luxury and idleness.
 As a necessary consequence of this exploitation of the laborers by the capitalists—this expropriation of all propery out of the hands of the toilers into the private ownership of the holders of capital, there is an inevitable war between the interests of the ordering class on the one hand and the interests of the capitalist class on the other.

6. This class struggle between the wealth-makers and the wealth-takers will endure so long as our present system of production for profit con-

7. In this conflict between the workers and the capitalists, labor is disarmed on the economic side, all the instruments of producing and disdisarmed on the economic state, all the instruments of producing and dis-tributing wealth being owned and controlled by the holders of capital.

8. There is only one weapon with which the working class can success-fully oppose the capitalist class—and that is the BALLOT.

9. This fact demands as an inevitable conclusion the organization of the working class into a political party that shall be, everywhere and always, the working class into a political party that shall be, everywhere and always, distinct from and opposed to every political party not founded entirely upon the interests of the working class. The Socialist Party is organized to meet this demand, and is therefore the party of the working class.

10. The Socialist Party, when in office, shall always and everywhere, until the present system of wage-slavery is utterly abolished, make the answer to this question its guiding rule of conduct: Will this legislation advance the interests of the working class and aid the workers in their class struggle against capitalism? If it does, the Socialist Party is for it; if it does not, the Socialist Party is absolutely opposed to it.

11. In accordance with this principle, the Socialist Party pledges itself to conduct all the public affairs of this State in such a manner as to promote the interests of the working class.

the interests of the working class.

12. In conclusion, we appeal to all workingmen to study the principles of Socialism, to vote with their class at all elections until they overthrow the power of capitalism, abolish industrial classes in society, terminate forever the class struggle and inaugurate the Co-operative Commonwealth based upon this fundamental principle of justice:

TO EVERY WORKER THE FULL PRODUCT OF HIS LABOR!

OUR GREAT SERIES OF ARTI-CLES ON THE A B C OF SOCIALISM.

All of those invited by The Socialist to participate in the series of articles, one thousand words each, on the "A B C of Socialism," have now responded favorably except Father Me-Grady and the editor of "The Worker." of New York. Father McGrady de-clines, only conditionally, "until I shall have a little leisure, when I shall very gladly accommodate you, Comrade Lee sends his repress ade Lee sends his regrets as fol-

"New York, June 25, 1902.

'Dear Comrade:

"In reply to yours of May 4th, have delayed, hoping for time. See no possibility of complying with your flattering request, much as I would like to do so. My assistant is sick now, and will not be back for three weeks. Sorry, but must say I can't promise article.
"You are gett'."

'You are getting out a splendid per. Yours truly, "LEE."

We do not take this as final, but shall look for an article toward the end of the series, which will cover three months, beginning with July 20, two weeks from this issue.

We expect this series to present Socialism in its essentials, but adapted to the understanding of minds wholly unacquainted with our principles. unacquainted with our principles. But, since those principles are the same, however stated, they will also afford the advanced Socialist an oppor-tunity to review his knowledge and to consider anew the best manner of stat-ing Socialism. Some Socialists seem to believe Socialism is too profound and scientific to be stated simply enough for popular comprehension. On the contrary, it is our conviction that scientific Socialism can be grasped readily by the most untutored and unprepared mind, if the real thing is understood and stated by the speaker or writer. We do not believe it requires a library or an "education" to understand and teach Socialism. It is because we try to lead up to Socialism by assuming that Capitalism is half Socialistic, or else by confounding future Socialism with present Socialism, that so much uncertainty exists. Some Socialists seem to believe So tainty exists.

In any exent, it is not likely that the list of writers who have agreed to supply this remarkable series, will try "how not to say it". They, if anybody in the English speaking world, are qualified to say what Socialism, in its elementary principles really is. And elementary principles, really is. And our readers may anticipate articles which will constitute as effective propaganda material as was ever writ-

For those who have not already seen the previous announcements, we append the full list. We expect the opening article on July 20, to be by Job Harriman, Socialist candidate for Vice President in 1900, now agent of the Society for the Protection of the Legal Rights of the Working Class in

AGAINST CHRISTIANS.

Temple's Ignorance Disclosed— Socialism a Dangerous Topic for Ministers to Touch—Dr. Temple Called Both Unscientific and Un-Called Both Unscientific and Un-christian—The University Preach-er Flays the Popular Preacher— Minister Versus Minister.

Seattle University Station, June 24. Rev. W. H. G. Temple. Dear Mr. Temple: While waiting for the ministers to come to the meet-Dear Mr. Temple: With Watting for the ministers to come to the meeting yesterday I picked up one of the Plymouth Heralds and found in it a sermon by yourself, entitled, "Was It Socialisms." I read it with surprise and sorrow; and as much as I dislike to speak, must, because of the publicity given to it in the church, the Herald and The Times, enter my protest as a Christian minister against its statements and conclusions.

If you, were speaking before an audience of educated people, then you placed lithe pulpit of Plymouth Church in a most ridiculous position, and did no further harm than to increase the lack of confidence which the people now have in the teachings of the ministry of the churches. If, on the other now have in the teachings of the ministry of the churches. If, on the other hand, you were speaking to an audience that ought to know the truth, but was ignorant of the great economic laws of life, and looked to you to teach them, then this sermon has done injury in the proportion that they believed you.

It is evident from what you say that you do not know the first principles of economics or of scientific socialism. Your words are as manifestly unscien-

Your words are as manifestly unscient

Your words are as manifestly unscientific as they are unchristian. Your whole thought is the outerowsordid commercialism. We had no expected such things from Plymouth In the first place, no Socialist that I ever heard of has chosen this or any other text of Scripture "as authority for his scheme." But it is true that every great moral principle laid down by Jesus is a corroboration of the principles of Socialism. A better text for your subject would have been, "Call no man your master on earth, for one is your Master, the Christ, and all ye are brethren." Contrary to your statement, Socialists do find the "reason for their theory in the life, character and precepts of Jesus." As evic dence of this consult the writings of Charles, Kingsley, Frederick Maurice, William Morris, Edward Bellamy and Frances Willard.

With regard to the parable of the rich young man, the Socialists are

With regard to the parable of the rich young man, the Socialists are quite willing to take one horn of the dilemma you suggest, but it is no di-lemma to them. We believe that when Jesus spoke he meant what he said, and are not willing to explain away this statement of His in order to make this statement of 18 in Order to make easier the resting place of the rich, or for any other reason. Jesus did mean that his disciples should be poor so long as there is poverty amongst men. Under any sort of economic justice there could be no poverty in this land of planty. The time is coming, when there could be no poverty in this land of plenty. The time is coming when disciples of Jesus will again choose with their Master to be poor with the poor rather than to be rich at the expense of the poor.

Of course, the implication of the text

you used was not Socialism. Who-ever could have said that it was? But ever could have said that it was? But it may be said just as positively that it was not COMMERCIALISM, as your argument suggests—a sort of philan-thropic feudalism!

With regard to your exposition of the Socialist position, it is so far away from any interpretation of Socialism that criticism is impossible. No So-cialist ever thinks of having the wealth of the world divided equally among the of the worth divided equally almong the inhabitants in the way you suggest. I marvel that a man in your responsible position dares to make such ridiculous statements as are to be found in this paragraph.

You are probably correct in saying

Campaign Begins

Socialist State Convention

At Seattle, Sunday, June 29-Two Hundred and Forty-four Votes Present-Hall Crowded-Able Debates-Intense Feeling Displayed-Every Question Decided in Favor of Working Class Socialism Platform and Resolutions Worth Fight ing for-A Splendid Beginning of a Great Campaign. Four Nominations Neill, Harkness, Burgess and Scott-No Better in the State-Strike for 10,000 Votes.

A more determined or intelligent body of men could not be found in the State than that which met last Sunday in Odd Fellows' Hall, Seattle.

.rd annual convention of the So-Thisrd annual convention of the So-cialist Party of the State of Washington was far larger than any yet held, and displayed far more vigor and enthusiasm. It evinced far more vigor and enthusiasm. It evinced every sign of life and progress, even to in-ternal conflict. But it showed also that it knew its own mind. By decided majorities the convention placed its seal of condemna tion on every attempt at compromise with capitalism. In this convention the Socialist Party stood upright in conscious strength and declared its firm reliance upon the work ing class foundation.

If any one suspected the Socialist party would go coquetting after capitalist votes, he must have been undeceived by this conwention. No opportunism had a ghost of a show. On every test vote the workers ral-iled as one man to dismiss all trifing with fundamental principles and policies.

The two questions which drew out the sharpest discussion were the acceptance of wo proxies from Spokane, representing Judge Richardson and M. M. Haines, balliff n his court. They were excluded by a vote of 151 to 93, the latter consisting of 49 votes cast by one delegate from Spokane, 30 votes cast by two delegates from Fairhaven, 9 cast by two delegates from Fairhaven, 9 votes cast by one delegate from Whatcom and 5 votes scattering. Outside the three Locals named, only three votes were cast in favor of granting seats in the convention to men holding offices obtained from a capitalist party.

This vote illustrated the evils of the This vote illustrated the evils of the proxy system, which the experience of this convention has killed forever. Eighty-eight votes were cast by four men. It is not possible that the $4$ comrades not present would all have voted the one way, if they could have heard the discussion in person. Another example was in the vote for chalirman. Of the 125 votes electing the permanent chalirman for chairman, four men representing three Locals cast 106, while 50 persons representing 13 Locals cast only 88 votes for the next highest candidate.

The proxy system is liable to so many abuses that the proposed new constitution, following the example of the national conventions, provides a delegate system based on membership.

A second notable debate and discussion was on that clause in the new constitution making a year's membership in the party essential to nomination for office (though not going into effect till after this fall's not going into effect till atter this rails election). This also was carried by an equal-ly decisive majority. It was felt, as Com-rade Debs says, that loyalty to party prin-ciples should be proved before any man should be put forward in a representative

Mr. Wiswell is so good at his business, we hate to criticize him. But he must not assume that Socialists go to Jesus for "the reason for their theory" any more than chemists do, or astronomers. The reason for our theories lies in the facts of modern life.

And you really expected better things of Plymouth? But the scales are falling, are they not? Hold to your ideals, but blink no facts.

The convention then adjourned. nearly 8 o'clock and a ratification meeting nearly 8 o'clock and a ratification meeting at Carpenters' Hall was at once held. It was a most enthusiastic crowd filling the hall. Addresses were given by Comrades Burgess, Scott, the new Congressional candidates, Langland, Dempsey, Gilbert and Itlus. This meeting closed at 10:20 with three rousing cheers for the ticket.

As a sample of the kind of men that are embracing Socialism nowadays, hear this from one of them. When a timid soul object-ed to this working class program as likely to injure the circulation of The Socialist, this comrade rejoined, "I would rather it had

CONVENTION INCIDENTS

We ought, then, to expect a Socialist Party composed chiefly of capitalists since they will profit most by our doubt Pierpont Morgan would be or could be a better man under Socialism, but do you really imagine he would surrender his present power for that prospective bene-fit to his morals? They don't act that way.

Another comrade gravely argued that any man after his election to a public office represented the people, not a party.

What far-away Utopian dreamers some o us get to be sometimes, as if we never came us get to be sometimes, as if we never came in contact, with actual men in this actual world! Does Matt Quay represent 'the people'." Does Senator Turner represent: 'the people'." And if even so, then who are 'the people' for them? Does 'the people' include the workingmen? Did ever a Republican or a Democrat represent the working class? And this from a Socialist, a "class onscious Socialist." too!

The most dramatic moment of the co-ention was when Chairman Gilbert, spea ing from the floor, was called down by a dozen different voices for insulting the working class with such expressions as these. "You workingmen ought never to escape from your misery, if you turn down such a man as Judge Richardson, who is doing more for you than any man in this state," and "I would not belong to a party o narrow-minded as to refuse a man like Judge Richardson, who has come down to help the workingman at great personal sac-rifices to himself." The feeling was so in-tense that Gilbert almost immediately called out, "I retract.

The working class does not want and will not have saviors, and we do not believe Judge Richardson regards himself in any such way. We have no doubt Judge Rich-ardson will respect the Socialist Party more for its consistent action in his case. A year ago the Judge certainly regarded himself as under obligations to those who elected him to the office he holds, and personally wrote to the editor of this paper that he could not, while holding that office, unite with the Socialist Party, though he should never vote any other ticket. We believe he has been persuaded, against his judgment, to join the party, and we only wish, for the sake of the great cause he believes in, he could rise to the high resolve to cut the knot could rise to the high resolve to cut the knot once and for all by surrendering his judge-ship. Thousands of other workingmen have laid down their jobs for their Socialist principles, and that's the sort of stuff that will make our party invincible.

Another member of the convention shouted, "If you become so narrow, you will wake up and find two parties tomorrow." O, no, there will be no such thing. The Socialist Party will go right on just the same, if a dozen of us or a hundred of us seceed and try to go it alone. This party is now too strong to miss particularly any man or set of men. If this convention showed any thus more If this convention showed any thing more than another, it was that the party in Wash-ington stands by principles and not men. On that floor were dozens of resolute men whom no power in heaven or hell could drive a single inch, men who know their own minds and do their own thinking, united by the force of common interests and common convictions. It is these men, young men most of them, jubilant with the spirit of Democracy, eager for the stern struggle in behalf of their own and their brothers' rights, that make it impossible for the party to be set
