

Vol. VI No. 270

Subscription Rates: One year, $2.00; six months, $1.25; three months, $0.75; single copies, 15c.

SAURDAY, APRIL 14, 1935

Published weekly by the Workers Party, Room 405, 119 East 11th St., New York, N. Y. Price 5 Cents

Foster Jury in deadlock

Long Debate Over Verdict Holds Out Hope for Disagreement in Now Famous Michigan Case

Italian Labor for May Day United Front

United May Day Front plans for New York City were given considerable impetus by the decision of the Italian Chamber of Labor to give its complete co-operation. This action follows the great masses of Italian workers in the May Day demonstration being planned for the national metropolis.

Efforts are still being made to win over the United Hebrew Trades to this joint May Day celebration, demanding unity of effort in the struggle against the open shoppers, anti-organizational craft unions into industrial unions, war on Fascism, release of the class war prisoners, a Labor Party and a Workers' Government.

Final plans for the parade and demonstration will be discussed at the next May Day Conference to be held Sunday, April 14th, at 2 p. m., at the Labor Temple, 241 E. 84th St., to which all labor unions, political and fraternal organizations are urged to send their delegates. Where these organizations do not meet they should be represented, by their officials.

Champions of Workers in Michigan Communist Trial

Frank P. Walsh, famed for his political and fraternal organizations are urged to send their delegates. Where these organizations do not meet they should be represented, by their officials.

The issue of "The Worker" went to press, Wednesday night, April 10, with the jury still debating the verdict in the trial of William Z. Foster, at St. Joseph, Mich. The jury had been out all day and the only report from the jury room was that the jurors, Minerva Olson, the lone woman member, who went during the closing argument of Attorney Frank P. Walsh, for the defense, was still out.

Early in the evening the jury came back from the court, but Judge White referred them to his declaration of the morning. It was a surprise, therefore, to get deliberations, "should soon reach an agreement. But the evening went on and Communist and syndicalist, in all sections of the country, waited in vain. Large numbers of active workers in the Communist movement in New York City spent the evening in the office of "The Worker," but were not rewarded with definite news from the Michigan court room.

Case Goes to the Jury

Following instructions from Judge Charles White, the case of William Z. Foster was turned over to the jury on Wednesday morning. Convictions carried with it a sentence of 10 years imprisonment or a $5,000 fine, or both.

The jury went out at 9:45 o'clock, a. m. and the lunch hour arrived with no verdict reached. It had been instructed by Judge White that Foster was guilty of violation of the Michigan law against criminal syndicalism.

Ruthenberg Case Is Set for April 16th

(Special to "The Worker") COURT ROOM ST. JOSEPH, MICH.—With the turning of the Foster case over to the jury, Judge White definitely set the case of C. E. Ruthenberg, Secretary of the Workers Party, the next to be tried, for Monday, April 16.

Repeal Syndicalism Law Demand of Labor

(Special to "The Worker") LANSING, Mich.—Repeal of the Michigan criminal syndicalism law as demanded by the Michigan State Federation of Labor, will be considered by the assembly after the first of the red trial in Berrien county has been completed.

President Albert Saether of the state federation appeared before the judicial committee and was given the promise of an early hearing on the bill. The committee, however, has not yet taken any action on the production in the Foster trial by producing hearings to repeal the law under which the case is being tried.

Invite Workers Party to Chicago Political Conference, July 3rd

(Special to "The Worker") CHICAGO—Both the Workers Party and the Socialist Party are included in the invitation for a national coalition convention sent out by the national committee of the Farmer-Labor Party. The convention is to be held in Chicago July 3rd.

Our object is to bring together all political parties that are opposed to the two old party organizations. In addition we want to weld into one political unit all the labor organizations that are not explicitly opposed to political action. Farmer organizations are also included and we want the women's organizations that are not auxiliary to the old parties.

The Liberal Party, an outgrowth of the Committee of 48 which met in convention with the Farmer-Labor Party in 1919, will be welcomed to the July gathering. The I. W. W. are not included in the call. It being understood that their past convention endorsed their traditional stand against political action.

Don't Throw This Paper Away! Send It on to Your Neighbor!

The Ever-Growing World Celebration

From year to year the celebration of International May Day grows ever greater and greater. With the arrival of each new May Day, larger masses of workers are drawn into the swelling ranks of the international struggle for human emancipation.

This year will be no exception. It holds true for the United States, as well as every other land.

The meaning of this International Labor Holiday, its significance in this year of labor's upward striving, will receive fitting interpretation and expression in the Special May Day Issue of "The Worker," to be dated Saturday, April 28. Bundles of this issue should be distributed in every city, town and hamlet, from the Atlantic to the Pacific, from the Canadian to the Mexican borders.

All orders should be placed as far in advance as possible, in order that arrangements can be made for the publication of this extra large edition. Send in your order for a bundle, NOW, at the rate of three cents per copy to "The Worker," Room 405, 799 Broadway, New York City.

Wm. Z. Foster—Revolutionary Leader

By JOHN PEPPER

The American Face of Communism

There are two outstanding features to the great Communist trial at St. Joseph, Michigan: 1. This trial afforded the first opportunity to present Communism in its entirety before the entire American people. 2. This was the first occasion in the United States for the presentation of Communism, openly, to the whole working-class, by a typical American worker, a genuine trade union militant.

The capitalist government and press succeeded in their common effort to link the name of William Z. Foster with Communism in the eyes of the working masses—to make William Z. Foster and Communism synonymous to the American workers. In reply to the question, "What is a Red?," one of the prospective jurors answered, at the outset of the trial: "An ignorant foreigner." At the end of the trial, however, American public opinion was compelled to admit that "Red" is, in reality, no one but a militant American trade unionist, armed with the weapons of a scientific Marxian, Communist education. At the very moment when the State prosecution pit William Z. Foster on trial on the mere charge of being a Communist, it unintentionally presented full American citizenship to the hitherto foreign-labeled Communist.

Upon this trial, the caricature murals of the Capitalist press could hide the face of Communism with the mask of the "East Side Jew" or the "imported Russian Bolshevik." The trial at St. Joseph has shown our working class the real face of Communism personified in the splendid, typical characteristics of the Irish-American trade unionist, William Z. Foster. The capitalist prosecuting attorney baptised Communism "American" at the moment that he cited from Foster's book the simple, massy formula: "To me the Russian Revolution did not seem difficult to understand."

(Continued on page Two)

THIS ISSUE IS No. 270

LOOK AT YOUR ADDRESS LABEL! If the number appearing on your address label is the same as above, your subscription expires with this issue. Watch your expiration number. Renew your subscription before it expires.

Zinoviev Shows Foster Is True Friend of the Interests of America's Workers and Farmers

(Special Cable to "The Worker") MOSCOW—Charging that the big boss of American industry are trying to railroad William Z. Foster to prison for betraying the interests of the American working class, Gregory Zinoviev, chairman of the Executive Committee of the Communist International, has an article in Pravda, official organ of the Russian Communist Party, here as follows:

BY GREGORY ZINOVIEV.

"The American bourgeoisie is trying to railroad Foster to jail for betraying the interests of the working class. That is a matter of great importance to the American labor movement.

"According to the newspapers, Foster is charged with 'criminal syndicalism' for having been employed by the capitalists in every country wherever the workers organize for the purpose of improving their conditions. Labor unions affiliated with the American Federation of Labor have often been charged with having similar objects when they have struck for better conditions. Several members of the American Federation of Labor were charged with working a train in Indiana last August during the shopmen's strike; also the derailment was 'proven due to defective falls.

Was not E. C. Gregor, a striking railroad worker, lynched by an Arkansas mob for alleged burning of bridges, although it was proven that the damage was done by the engine? The record of the American labor movement is one of persecution and attacks by the capitalist class thru the means of armed guards and detective agencies striving to destroy the labor organization.

What are the real facts about Foster? Foster was the organizing force of the Trade Union Educational League, an organization welding together the militant elements in the trade unions and demanding improvement in the American labor movement. The Trade Union Educational League advocates amalgamation of the craft unions into industrial unions so as to form an independent party representing the interests of the workers in other countries have. Foster and his comrades are convinced that these are the only steps for the development of the American labor movement.

"America today is under the absolute dictatorship of Wall Street. The Government of the United States openly placed itself at the service of the capitalist class last summer when Attorney General Daugherty stated that the Government will use all its force to maintain intact the open shop."

"The American workers and farm-

Minor Talks at Baltimore Defense Rally

(Special to "The Worker") BALTIMORE, Md.—Great preparations are being made for the mass demonstration in support of the Michigan defense, to be held here Sunday, April 14, 3 p. m., at the Gaiety Theatre, 405 E. Baltimore St., at which Robert Minor, one of the 32 defendants, will be the principal speaker. Baltimore labor stands solidly back of the fight on the Michigan syndicalism law. Resolutions adopted unanimously at a recent meeting were as follows:

"The Baltimore Labor Unity Committee is hereby called into existence to coordinate the efforts of all labor organizations in Baltimore to aid this campaign in all ways and to develop the sufficient strength to kill the measure cannot yet be predicted.

"The Local Committee of the Baltimore Labor Defense Council consists of the following: Edward Berwick, Electrical Workers No. 28; John Trust, Machinists No. 180; Albert F. Frier, Painters No. 11; Charles G. Kemper, Ship Painters No. 114; Martin Mueller, Masters, Mates and Pilots; Thomas N. Overling, Machinists No. 180; Wm. N. Purdy, Co-Operative Store; O. Raymond Kiser, Sheet Metal Workers No. 218; Samuel Radom, Mgr. J. B. A. C. W. of A.; Clarence Taylor, Carpenters No. 101; Elvin Harck, Plumbers No. 48; J. Bolt, G. B. A. No. 9, and J. V. O'Connor, Painters No. 1.

Ruthenberg to Tell Story of Foster Trial at St. Joseph, Mich.

C. E. Ruthenberg, who was the only defense witness in addition to William C. Foster at the Michigan Communist Trial, will be the principal speaker at the mass meeting to be held this Friday, April 6, 8 p. m., at Webster Hall, 119 East 11th St., near Third Ave. He has just come from the court room at St. Joseph, Mich., and will tell the story of this latest attack on the American Communist movement. There will be other speakers in Jewish, Russian and Lithuanian.

Open Forum given by Branch X, Y. W. L., every Sunday night, 47 Chrystie St., April 8, 8 p. m. Wicks, Labor Editor of "The Worker," will speak on "The Prospects of a World Revolution."

Hear the Story of Foster Trial! This Friday Night, April 6, 8 o'clock, Webster Hall, 119 E. 11th St., near 3rd Ave. C. E. Ruthenberg Will Speak! Others in Jewish, Russian, Lithuanian

Official The Story by Lewis "Gang"

(Special to "The Worker")

PITTSBURGH, Pa.—Just a year ago, the Fayette County Bureau which resulted in a few days in an enormous conspiracy of the part of the tens of thousands of miners who had been considered unorganizable.

Those of this number who were starved back to work with the fire of unbroken still burning in their hearts and great discontent has been reported to exist among the newly imported men.

A model for a strike this year is the dozens of groups, including hundreds of men, were locked out by the operators and are still in the region. Consequently, they have been persistent rumors for weeks that there would be another strike. That the operators are taking these rumors are very likely to prove true is indicated by the prohibition this past week of all mine meetings in Connellsville, the city in Fayette County from which the Connellsville Coke Region takes its name, and which was the center of the strongest spirit of resistance in the last strike.

Charles Popovich, Burgess, Events have already shown that the actions of Pat Fagan and his "pay-roll" in disrupting the meeting of mine back in Fayette County, March 18, and keeping Alexander Howat from exposing the crimes in Kansas and in the coke region of the International officials of the miners union, will prove a boom-boost to the machine. Numerous local unions of the miners have already voted funds to assist in defraying the expenses of another Howat at Charleroi and are making careful preparations to prevent the gang from staging a performance of back-lay roystering at future meetings. Even though the "gang" were on the fence as to Howat's case, have become enthusiastic in their support of Howat's case.

The "gang" evident desperate fear of his speaking. It has been authoritatively stated that at the Connellsville meeting March 11, and which the "gang" unsuccessfully tried to disrupt, 40 per cent of the miners met at the beginning but Howat men at the top.

The sympathy for Howat and resentment against the Howat men has been accompanied by a revulsion of feeling against the disgraced and cowardly actions of the Charleroi Burgess and the police. Howat men went back on their word and pledged to promptly stop disorder in the meeting by ejecting the Howat men.

Instead they permitted the "gang" to create all the tumult it desired and then stepped in to break up at the moment the collection was to be taken. This virtual assistance to the machine was not the only thing to give rise to the report that the action of the Burgess was all arranged for by the "gang" men.

To the credit of the workers of Charleroi, he said that they have successfully repudiated the actions of the police department. This department had been for some time getting more and more into bad repute because of its apparent inability to keep down gambling, bootlegging and other vice. The first case of the March 18th meeting proved to be the last case. The next day, March 20, the committee of 100 of Charleroi, held a public Mass Meeting on the question of the Police Department, which was attended by over 400 people, including a large number of miners. The chairman, Rev. Lake, called on William Guiler, a miner and Chairman of the March 18th meeting, to make the second speech. Guiler made no words, but accused the Burgess and the policemen of violating their oath of office, by permitting the "Mine Workers" officials, with the aid of a gang of hoodlums, hoodlums and stool-pigeons to create a tumult and break up the meeting. Guiler was received both before and after his speech with prolonged applause.

William Ferrary, International Organizer of the Miners' Union, and one of the chief disrupters of the March 18th meeting, made a sickly attempt to discredit Guiler by stating that the meeting was the work of a charge of a committee wearing "red badges".

A resolution was enthusiastically adopted, but with one dissenting vote, calling upon the Charleroi Borough Council to issue a resolution from the Burgess and policemen for violation of their oath of office in failing to prevent gambling, vice and crime and interference with the right of free assembly and free speech.

THE HOWAT TOUR
Calls for Howat's resignation, and reports application to J. A. Hamilton, secretary, Labor Bureau, 35 3/4th Street, Pittsburgh, Pa.

TEN WORKERS SHOULD READ THIS COPY OF THE WORKER
KEEP IT IN CIRCULATION

Communist Propaganda

By JOHN DALE

It is interesting to note that the Communist Party of the United States has been very active in the promotion of the "Young Workers League" in the Fayette County region. The League is a common front organization for the Communist Party and the Young Workers League. It is a common front organization for the Communist Party and the Young Workers League. It is a common front organization for the Communist Party and the Young Workers League.

But it was swept by a different kind of emotion, something that also hit deep, when Maurice Swartz, director and leading actor of the "Fidelity Art Theater, walked out on stage for the part of the program, to give the prologue from the classic of the Russian, Leonid Infirerov, "Anathema." This young scapling of the youth movement, who is to appear in an English play, "Anathema" at the 48th St. Theater next week in New York. He has come to join in this Communist public.

Men and women, old and young, and the children, all cheered, applauded, here and there he played his part and would not let go before he gave us a speech.

This dramatic situation was considerably weakened no doubt by the fact that Swartz appeared after it had been announced that Ludwig Satz, Communist, was coming, and he did not come, after we had been told that the Workers' Circle, Mandelstam Orchestra, are to be the group to play for us.

George Vishnik, chairman of the "Fidelity Art Theater" of the first night, told about the case of Ludwig Satz, who is appearing in "The Fidelity Art Theater" at the 48th St. Theater. Satz had promised to come to the Jubilee in spite of the fact that the "Fidelity Art Theater" had been announced that Ludwig Satz, Communist, was coming, and he did not come, after we had been told that the Workers' Circle, Mandelstam Orchestra, are to be the group to play for us.

But the "Socialists" had no aversion to suppression. The threatening Satz, received a bulldogging, from the members of the Workers' Circle, and the "Fidelity Art Theater" is now in a state of confusion. It is now in a state of confusion. It is now in a state of confusion.

Among the contributors to the 5000 fund raised for the Freiheit were the members of the Workers' Circle, Mandelstam Orchestra, and the "Fidelity Art Theater".

The Jubilee Program is worth of note as much for its revolutionary spirit as for its artistic and financial success, and a moral triumph to the workers over the enemies of Communism.

Parson Fights Anti-Labor Laws. The Rev. A. A. Herd of Aberdeen, Wash., known in the north-west as the "lightning parson" because of his activity in behalf of the repeal of the criminal syndicalism law of Washington, has been elected secretary of the Methodist Federation for Social Service, of which Harry F. Ward is secretary.

Los Angeles
Spent a Night in Russia
Russia Thru the Shadows
This picture will be shown in the Philarmonic Auditorium at 5th and Olive Sts.
THURSDAY, APRIL 19th
from 12 noon to 11 p.m.
and FRIDAY night, APRIL 20th
from 8 to 11 p.m.
Admission: Los Angeles Local, F. of S. R.

Life Revealed in "Mirrors of Moscow"

By NANCY KAROFF

Lois Bryant gives us many revealing pictures in her latest book, "Mirrors of Moscow." It is a revealing picture of the life of the Russian people, as seen through the eyes of a woman who has lived in Russia for many years. It is a revealing picture of the life of the Russian people, as seen through the eyes of a woman who has lived in Russia for many years.

Today we read what may be the beginning of Capitalism's answer to this call, in a report on a new device, known as the "radio" machine, which is expected to revolutionize the world of sending stations in the world and calls upon organized labor to get out into the air and "send out the air."

Today we read what may be the beginning of Capitalism's answer to this call, in a report on a new device, known as the "radio" machine, which is expected to revolutionize the world of sending stations in the world and calls upon organized labor to get out into the air and "send out the air."

Today we read what may be the beginning of Capitalism's answer to this call, in a report on a new device, known as the "radio" machine, which is expected to revolutionize the world of sending stations in the world and calls upon organized labor to get out into the air and "send out the air."

Today we read what may be the beginning of Capitalism's answer to this call, in a report on a new device, known as the "radio" machine, which is expected to revolutionize the world of sending stations in the world and calls upon organized labor to get out into the air and "send out the air."

Today we read what may be the beginning of Capitalism's answer to this call, in a report on a new device, known as the "radio" machine, which is expected to revolutionize the world of sending stations in the world and calls upon organized labor to get out into the air and "send out the air."

Today we read what may be the beginning of Capitalism's answer to this call, in a report on a new device, known as the "radio" machine, which is expected to revolutionize the world of sending stations in the world and calls upon organized labor to get out into the air and "send out the air."

Today we read what may be the beginning of Capitalism's answer to this call, in a report on a new device, known as the "radio" machine, which is expected to revolutionize the world of sending stations in the world and calls upon organized labor to get out into the air and "send out the air."

Today we read what may be the beginning of Capitalism's answer to this call, in a report on a new device, known as the "radio" machine, which is expected to revolutionize the world of sending stations in the world and calls upon organized labor to get out into the air and "send out the air."

Today we read what may be the beginning of Capitalism's answer to this call, in a report on a new device, known as the "radio" machine, which is expected to revolutionize the world of sending stations in the world and calls upon organized labor to get out into the air and "send out the air."

Today we read what may be the beginning of Capitalism's answer to this call, in a report on a new device, known as the "radio" machine, which is expected to revolutionize the world of sending stations in the world and calls upon organized labor to get out into the air and "send out the air."

Today we read what may be the beginning of Capitalism's answer to this call, in a report on a new device, known as the "radio" machine, which is expected to revolutionize the world of sending stations in the world and calls upon organized labor to get out into the air and "send out the air."

Today we read what may be the beginning of Capitalism's answer to this call, in a report on a new device, known as the "radio" machine, which is expected to revolutionize the world of sending stations in the world and calls upon organized labor to get out into the air and "send out the air."

Today we read what may be the beginning of Capitalism's answer to this call, in a report on a new device, known as the "radio" machine, which is expected to revolutionize the world of sending stations in the world and calls upon organized labor to get out into the air and "send out the air."

Today we read what may be the beginning of Capitalism's answer to this call, in a report on a new device, known as the "radio" machine, which is expected to revolutionize the world of sending stations in the world and calls upon organized labor to get out into the air and "send out the air."

Today we read what may be the beginning of Capitalism's answer to this call, in a report on a new device, known as the "radio" machine, which is expected to revolutionize the world of sending stations in the world and calls upon organized labor to get out into the air and "send out the air."

Today we read what may be the beginning of Capitalism's answer to this call, in a report on a new device, known as the "radio" machine, which is expected to revolutionize the world of sending stations in the world and calls upon organized labor to get out into the air and "send out the air."

Today we read what may be the beginning of Capitalism's answer to this call, in a report on a new device, known as the "radio" machine, which is expected to revolutionize the world of sending stations in the world and calls upon organized labor to get out into the air and "send out the air."

Today we read what may be the beginning of Capitalism's answer to this call, in a report on a new device, known as the "radio" machine, which is expected to revolutionize the world of sending stations in the world and calls upon organized labor to get out into the air and "send out the air."

Today we read what may be the beginning of Capitalism's answer to this call, in a report on a new device, known as the "radio" machine, which is expected to revolutionize the world of sending stations in the world and calls upon organized labor to get out into the air and "send out the air."

Today we read what may be the beginning of Capitalism's answer to this call, in a report on a new device, known as the "radio" machine, which is expected to revolutionize the world of sending stations in the world and calls upon organized labor to get out into the air and "send out the air."

Today we read what may be the beginning of Capitalism's answer to this call, in a report on a new device, known as the "radio" machine, which is expected to revolutionize the world of sending stations in the world and calls upon organized labor to get out into the air and "send out the air."

Today we read what may be the beginning of Capitalism's answer to this call, in a report on a new device, known as the "radio" machine, which is expected to revolutionize the world of sending stations in the world and calls upon organized labor to get out into the air and "send out the air."

Today we read what may be the beginning of Capitalism's answer to this call, in a report on a new device, known as the "radio" machine, which is expected to revolutionize the world of sending stations in the world and calls upon organized labor to get out into the air and "send out the air."

Business Bring Labor Closer

By H. M. WICKES

We are rejoiced with the preparation of the new bill, which will bring capital and labor closer together and will eventually eliminate the "business" element from the "labor" element. We are rejoiced with the preparation of the new bill, which will bring capital and labor closer together and will eventually eliminate the "business" element from the "labor" element.

We are rejoiced with the preparation of the new bill, which will bring capital and labor closer together and will eventually eliminate the "business" element from the "labor" element. We are rejoiced with the preparation of the new bill, which will bring capital and labor closer together and will eventually eliminate the "business" element from the "labor" element.

We are rejoiced with the preparation of the new bill, which will bring capital and labor closer together and will eventually eliminate the "business" element from the "labor" element. We are rejoiced with the preparation of the new bill, which will bring capital and labor closer together and will eventually eliminate the "business" element from the "labor" element.

We are rejoiced with the preparation of the new bill, which will bring capital and labor closer together and will eventually eliminate the "business" element from the "labor" element. We are rejoiced with the preparation of the new bill, which will bring capital and labor closer together and will eventually eliminate the "business" element from the "labor" element.

We are rejoiced with the preparation of the new bill, which will bring capital and labor closer together and will eventually eliminate the "business" element from the "labor" element. We are rejoiced with the preparation of the new bill, which will bring capital and labor closer together and will eventually eliminate the "business" element from the "labor" element.

We are rejoiced with the preparation of the new bill, which will bring capital and labor closer together and will eventually eliminate the "business" element from the "labor" element. We are rejoiced with the preparation of the new bill, which will bring capital and labor closer together and will eventually eliminate the "business" element from the "labor" element.

We are rejoiced with the preparation of the new bill, which will bring capital and labor closer together and will eventually eliminate the "business" element from the "labor" element. We are rejoiced with the preparation of the new bill, which will bring capital and labor closer together and will eventually eliminate the "business" element from the "labor" element.

We are rejoiced with the preparation of the new bill, which will bring capital and labor closer together and will eventually eliminate the "business" element from the "labor" element. We are rejoiced with the preparation of the new bill, which will bring capital and labor closer together and will eventually eliminate the "business" element from the "labor" element.

We are rejoiced with the preparation of the new bill, which will bring capital and labor closer together and will eventually eliminate the "business" element from the "labor" element. We are rejoiced with the preparation of the new bill, which will bring capital and labor closer together and will eventually eliminate the "business" element from the "labor" element.

We are rejoiced with the preparation of the new bill, which will bring capital and labor closer together and will eventually eliminate the "business" element from the "labor" element. We are rejoiced with the preparation of the new bill, which will bring capital and labor closer together and will eventually eliminate the "business" element from the "labor" element.

We are rejoiced with the preparation of the new bill, which will bring capital and labor closer together and will eventually eliminate the "business" element from the "labor" element. We are rejoiced with the preparation of the new bill, which will bring capital and labor closer together and will eventually eliminate the "business" element from the "labor" element.

We are rejoiced with the preparation of the new bill, which will bring capital and labor closer together and will eventually eliminate the "business" element from the "labor" element. We are rejoiced with the preparation of the new bill, which will bring capital and labor closer together and will eventually eliminate the "business" element from the "labor" element.

We are rejoiced with the preparation of the new bill, which will bring capital and labor closer together and will eventually eliminate the "business" element from the "labor" element. We are rejoiced with the preparation of the new bill, which will bring capital and labor closer together and will eventually eliminate the "business" element from the "labor" element.

We are rejoiced with the preparation of the new bill, which will bring capital and labor closer together and will eventually eliminate the "business" element from the "labor" element. We are rejoiced with the preparation of the new bill, which will bring capital and labor closer together and will eventually eliminate the "business" element from the "labor" element.

We are rejoiced with the preparation of the new bill, which will bring capital and labor closer together and will eventually eliminate the "business" element from the "labor" element. We are rejoiced with the preparation of the new bill, which will bring capital and labor closer together and will eventually eliminate the "business" element from the "labor" element.

We are rejoiced with the preparation of the new bill, which will bring capital and labor closer together and will eventually eliminate the "business" element from the "labor" element. We are rejoiced with the preparation of the new bill, which will bring capital and labor closer together and will eventually eliminate the "business" element from the "labor" element.

We are rejoiced with the preparation of the new bill, which will bring capital and labor closer together and will eventually eliminate the "business" element from the "labor" element. We are rejoiced with the preparation of the new bill, which will bring capital and labor closer together and will eventually eliminate the "business" element from the "labor" element.

We are rejoiced with the preparation of the new bill, which will bring capital and labor closer together and will eventually eliminate the "business" element from the "labor" element. We are rejoiced with the preparation of the new bill, which will bring capital and labor closer together and will eventually eliminate the "business" element from the "labor" element.

We are rejoiced with the preparation of the new bill, which will bring capital and labor closer together and will eventually eliminate the "business" element from the "labor" element. We are rejoiced with the preparation of the new bill, which will bring capital and labor closer together and will eventually eliminate the "business" element from the "labor" element.

We are rejoiced with the preparation of the new bill, which will bring capital and labor closer together and will eventually eliminate the "business" element from the "labor" element. We are rejoiced with the preparation of the new bill, which will bring capital and labor closer together and will eventually eliminate the "business" element from the "labor" element.

We are rejoiced with the preparation of the new bill, which will bring capital and labor closer together and will eventually eliminate the "business" element from the "labor" element. We are rejoiced with the preparation of the new bill, which will bring capital and labor closer together and will eventually eliminate the "business" element from the "labor" element.

We are rejoiced with the preparation of the new bill, which will bring capital and labor closer together and will eventually eliminate the "business" element from the "labor" element. We are rejoiced with the preparation of the new bill, which will bring capital and labor closer together and will eventually eliminate the "business" element from the "labor" element.

We are rejoiced with the preparation of the new bill, which will bring capital and labor closer together and will eventually eliminate the "business" element from the "labor" element. We are rejoiced with the preparation of the new bill, which will bring capital and labor closer together and will eventually eliminate the "business" element from the "labor" element.

We are rejoiced with the preparation of the new bill, which will bring capital and labor closer together and will eventually eliminate the "business" element from the "labor" element. We are rejoiced with the preparation of the new bill, which will bring capital and labor closer together and will eventually eliminate the "business" element from the "labor" element.

We are rejoiced with the preparation of the new bill, which will bring capital and labor closer together and will eventually eliminate the "business" element from the "labor" element. We are rejoiced with the preparation of the new bill, which will bring capital and labor closer together and will eventually eliminate the "business" element from the "labor" element.

We are rejoiced with the preparation of the new bill, which will bring capital and labor closer together and will eventually eliminate the "business" element from the "labor" element. We are rejoiced with the preparation of the new bill, which will bring capital and labor closer together and will eventually eliminate the "business" element from the "labor" element.

We are rejoiced with the preparation of the new bill, which will bring capital and labor closer together and will eventually eliminate the "business" element from the "labor" element. We are rejoiced with the preparation of the new bill, which will bring capital and labor closer together and will eventually eliminate the "business" element from the "labor" element.

