Is This the Best We Can Do?

In the United Blates today we have the land and raw materials, he machinery of production and distribution; and willing above tens of millions of industrial workers and fartners, thru which very need of the geople can be supplied.

We can spinoly not only zond food, good dothing and good comes to live in but we can produce wealth enough to give every man, women and child the opportunity for a good education, for earliery recreation, for enjoyment of all that is part of a high tandard of life.

and, when are an extended on the opportunity to be good contention, the analysis and claim, for enjoymen of all that is part of a high madead of life.

In place of this we have:

The Dope Peddlers

One of the best stay-on-the-fence artists among the officials of the United Mine Workers' Union is William Green, its international secretary-treasurer. But he has definitely climbed down in lifest scretary-treasure. But he has definitely climbed down inthe came of President John L. Lewis, thru endorsing the recent anti-radical propaganda issued by Ellis Searles for publication in this capitalist press.

Genea is a delegate at the Portland Convention of the American Federation of Labor. He gave a signed interview to one of the feurland deline, owned by the bosses, in which he retterable the Lawie-Searles fabrications. Green has joined with Lewis, Gomp-ny, Woll and other anti-Communist doep peddiers, "to wipe out the trouble makers", the terms in which he refers to the militants in the minery union.

miners' union. take if that Green's efforts constitute an attempt to save ace of Lewis at Portland. The Lewis-Searles propaganding see repudiated by Frank Farrington, need of the Illinois Minerers' Union, the strongest district organization in the Interest and Walter Neshit, Secretary-Tresaurer of the Illinois Minerers, also takes his stand with Farrington against Lewis and Noters, also takes his stand with Farrington agains Lewis and It is significant that most of the miners' officials are entirely men on this issue. "The Worker" sent a letter to every district position, secretary-treasurer and international board member, and the standard state of the standard state. The standard stand
