The rumstler takes you, money from us in a far more objectionable way, than the unmitigated thief, as he gives us back a destructive dose, worse than the Mexicans' pop-bulletins, which destroys us and often our families; and all this he does for his own supposed special benefit; and surely he cannot possibly consider whether this is right or wrong.

Who is not coming to our Jubilee? Will any absent themselves on that joyous day? We trust that every heart will respond to the call of the sons and daughters of industry, and be decked out in our festival.

Ladies, come! your voices are ever heard in the cause of bleeding humanity—then let them be equal at this time. Our aim is to ameliorate the condition of the laboring classes; can you think of any other object?

Necessity of Union. The Laborer is the engine of support to society. Capital and skill may be employed, but labor executes. Still, of the three, labor receives the least compensation.

News-About Town. The Lowell Brass Band gave a beautiful and stirring concert in our streets on Saturday evening last.

The result of this law is recorded in part in the history of Boston and New York, they are written in characters too painful for our pen.

When shall the increasing light of this age illuminate this dark portion of our earth, and the fathers and brothers of our boasted free states demand the rights of their daughters and sisters? God speed the time for virtue's and humanity's sake.

Short Patent Sermon.

The following are the words of my text: You look as if you were not a man... My brethren, that little word of 'I' though insignificant to look at, is one of the most important and powerful in the English language.

The power to make it otherwise, they have offered it so to be until they will suffer it no longer. If the people own the land, and the people are the sovereigns, there is a very good certainty that the sovereign people will claim their own.

High Wages. With all civilized people the laborer is considered worthy of his hire, though all are not paid in the same ratio. This inequality is found to exist with corporate bodies, especially manufacturing establishments.
